ABSTRACTS OF TITLE

Any Land in Buncombe County, North Carolina—Plats Furnished—Surveying Done—General Information As to Real Estate Transfers.

Every owner of a piece of land should know its history—the names of all its previous owners, the names of those who have held incumbrances against it; the nature of the instrument by which any and all of those persons conveyed his or her interest, or released his or her claim against it; boundaries of the land, and whether there are conflicting claims in deeds of adjoining property; apparent irregularities in any instrument conveying the land, etc., etc., etc.

There are sometimes clouds, more or less serious, on titles believed by the owner of the land to be perfect.

The careful man never buys land or loans money on real estate of any kind without first requiring an up-to-date Abstract of Title, certified to by an attorney or one whose business it is to be informed in such matters.

DETAILS OF INCOME TAX

TO GO INTO EFFECT IN JANUARY, 1895

All Persons Having an Income of Over $3,500 Must Make Returns—Nothing Inquisitorial is Proposed.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19.—The full text of the internal revenue bill, including the income tax, has been agreed upon by the Democratic members of the ways and means committee.

The bill provides that the income tax is to go into effect January 1, 1895, and that the first collection on incomes is to be made on July 1, 1895. All classes of incomes are included in the measure and the uniform rate of two per cent. tax on incomes over $4,000 is fixed.

It is made obligatory on all persons receiving individual incomes of over $3,500, to make a return to the local collector of internal revenue. These returns are gone over by the revenue collector and a taxable list is made up of those whose incomes exceed $4,000.

In case a person having an income of over $3,500 fails to make a return, it becomes the duty of the revenue assessor to make inquiry as to the amount of the person's income. If this examination discloses that the income is above $4,000 the income is subject to twice the ordinary tax under the law and the party failing to make his returns is deemed guilty of a criminal offense and is made subject to fine and imprisonment.

The main purpose in framing the above provisions has been made to avoid an inquisitorial operation of the law. The committee believe that the way to do away with the necessity of having assessors pry into the private business of people unless the latter have a taxable income and try to evade the law.

It is estimated that not more than 85,000 persons will be affected by this limit, and the great majority of citizens will not have to make returns. Provision is also made by which no information can be made public as to the details of the income reported by citizens.

Particularly provision is made for the collection of the income tax due on salaries. The individual receiving the salary does not pay the tax, but it is made the duty of every government, State, county and municipal disbursing officer to retain 2 per cent. of all salaries over the taxable amount. This 2 per cent. is to be taken out of the salaries in a bulk at the last payment of salaries for the year.

The tax upon corporations includes every phase of corporation stock. This tax is general and is without the $4,000 exemption allowed to individual incomes. It is provided that in collecting the tax on corporations the collector and attorney shall pay the expenses and the amount from the dividends of the stockholder. It is made the duty of each corporation to take two per cent. of each annual corporate income from the amount set apart for each stockholder, and pay the total to the internal revenue collector of the locality.

The entire business of the levying and collecting of the tax is placed in charge of a deputy commissioner of internal revenue. The different revenue districts of the country are also provided with deputy collectors, who will especially manage the collection of the income tax.

HAPPY OCCASION

Reception To Pastor Troy At Riverside Church

The reception at Riverside church South, last evening given to the pastor, Rev. J. C. Troy, by the stewards, Messrs. D. W. Bruton, J. C. Brown, R. A. Gossett, J. A. Mims, E. D. McCollum, W. S. Thompson, J. J. Mackey and Wm. Turner, was largely attended. The exercises opened with prayer by Rev. T. F. Marr. Rev. H. F. Chreiberg made a short talk, in which he plainly showed the congregation their duty to the pastor, and wished that this Mr. Troy's happiest and most successful year of his pastorate. Miss Daisy Sawyer sang a solo that was very much enjoyed, and Fitch Taylor gave a reading, "Courtship Under Difficulties," that kept everybody laughing. J. A. Mims made a statement particularly for the members concerning the amounts assessed for this year and reminding them that all should be prompt.

The program was interrupted by the serving of ice cream and cake and indulgence in social chat for half an hour. R. H. Hudson followed in an address on the Sunday school work. W. S. Thompson on the duties of church workers and Wm. Turner, the master of ceremonies, in well chosen words congratulated the congregation and Pastor Troy on the fact that they were to work together another year. Mr. Troy then gave expression to the feelings in his heart toward his flock and the stewards who planned the reception and hoping that the year's work might be greatly blessed in that charge.

The evening throughout was a happy occasion, and was enjoyed no less by the congregation than by the popular young pastor.

CAPT. CARTER CONFIRMED.

The New Collector Will Probably Take Charge February 1.

The confirmation of President Cleveland's nomination of Capt. Melvin E. Carter as collector of internal revenue for this district was made by the United States Senate yesterday afternoon. A telegram bearing the news was received by Capt. Carter soon after the Senate acted upon the nomination.

It is expected that blank bonds will be sent to Capt. Carter tomorrow. The preparation of the bond will require a day or two, and it is possible that the details necessary to the transfer will be arranged so that he may assume charge of the office on the first of February.

Asheville Talent Was There.

WINSTON, N. C., Jan. 19.—[Special.]—The annual winter concert of the Salem Female college, which is the most important winter musical event here, was given before a large audience Wednesday night, and last night 300 voices joined in a grand chorus. Prominent among the performers were Misses Rollins and Chedester of Asheville. This is the oldest female college in the South.

THE ROCK TRIAL.

A Large Crowd And an Evening of Fun at the Y. M. C. A.

The much talked of rock trial came up last evening in the Triangle Court of Common Sense, held in the lecture hall of the Y. M. C. A. The hall was packed and the proceedings were watched with great interest.

The case was entered on the docket as "Scruggins vs. Corjuice," and was for breach of promise. Amanda Scruggins (J. L. Rich) the plaintiff, was in court with her attorneys prepared to make a stubborn fight for her rights, while Silas Corjuice (Geo. W. Rappson), the defendant, was there prepared by the help of shrewd and unscrupulous counsel to resist the charges brought against him.

His Honor Judge Hiram E. Hornblower (Prof. J. D. Eggleston) entered court with all the dignity of an undistinguished jurist's command, and court was opened in due form. Those summoned as jurors were called and passed or objected to to the amusement of everybody. Alderman Cosby was asked if he read of the case in THE CITIZEN. He replied he had, and he was objected to on the ground that a man who had read THE CITIZEN should not do jury duty. The prejudiced court sustained the objection. Clarence F. Ray was rejected because he admitted he had not read "Pears' soap." The objection to R. U. Garrett was that he had not paid all his 93 taxes, but the objection of the hour ruled by the court because of the hour's time. Finally the jury was complete with the following in the box: W. R. Heaton, W. F. Randolph, R. U. Garrett, F. E. Mitchell, H. T. Rumbough, J. H. Weaver, R. S. Gibbs, J. H. Law, E. E. Egan, L. A. Coulter, W. A. Blair and J. J. Foller.

The examination of witnesses by Col. Uriah Heep Sellars (Nat. S. Rogers) and Sir Charles Russell (Geo. L. Hackney) for the defendant and Col. Fellows (E. W. Judger) and Hon. Chauncey M. Depew (W. C. Montgomery) for the plaintiff and illegally done, the questions being humorous and productive of roars of laughter. It was claimed by the defendant that he and Miss Scruggins entered a darkened parlor, and that the principal witness, Martin Chuzzlewit (J. N. Rogers), being concealed there, proposed, Miss Scruggins thinking meanwhile it was Corjuice. She accepted. A ring given her by Corjuice, with appropriate engraving on the inside, was in evidence, but the defendant contended he had bought the ring in a prize candy package and that the plaintiff had had the engraving done after he gave it to her.

The pleadings of the counsel were as stirring as a cyclone and the listeners in the court room hung upon every word till the rope broke. It was a battle of themselves with Col. Sellars was in the form, and his oratorical pyrotechnics and bright sallies were freely commented upon as having been taken from back numbers of Puck and Judge. The speeches concluded, the judge charged the jury in a long and learned address, showing a lack of legal knowledge. There was not enough of it to make a large book, but it glittered with gems of truth and inaccuracy and scintillated with mouthfuls of a kind of equity never heard before.

The jury in its purchased verdict decided that Chuzzlewit, Corjuice's friend, should marry the plaintiff, and that Corjuice should pay damages to the amount of $37.39 to the plaintiff. The court was then adjourned without day or grace.

During the trial objection was made because Col. Sellars placed his No. 12 feet on the table. This was overruled, the court holding that the attorney had a right to keep his brains nearest the jury.

Fitch Taylor was fined eight cents for looking with one eye at the plaintiff and with the other at the judge.

Besides those mentioned the following gentlemen had a part in the proceedings, and deserve the execration of the public:

Scribbler Tarheel, James S. Moody, Thomas Hangan, Mark Erwin, William Islem, Edwin D. Hudson, Lieut. Dumont Arrowsmith, J. G. Sittenger, Nicholas Nickleby, Cicero Nichols, Wm. Waggles, Eugene Judger, Hon. Buckstone Miller, Geo. H. Mills, Hurrie Uppe Waukenphast, A. V. Jones, Hans Dinkelnun, W. O. Wolfe, jr., Ennery Hetta "deon, R. T. Tighe, Samuel Weller, A. C. Sexton, Ellridge Townsend de Forrest, Jas. Bowie.

THEY ARE AFTER HIM.

Letter From the Mother of the Girl Who Left With Green.

The authorities are making efforts to find Will Green, the blacksmith who, although having a family in Tennessee, induced a young girl of this city to leave with him a few days ago. It is believed that the couple have gone to South Carolina.

The mother of the young woman who figures in the case says, in a letter to THE CITIZEN:

"I wish to say a few words to the christian people of Asheville through the columns of your paper. I am the mother of the girl who was so cruelly taken from her home on Sunday evening, while I was at church. This is not a case of sin, or I could not expect sympathy. She has been sick for some years, and last winter had a severe illness; shortly after she showed symptoms of brain trouble. She partially recovered, but grew worse in the fall and was just recovering from grip when she was taken from home. She did not know the man until Thursday. The thing was arranged in about two days. When I think of my darling dragged out in the cold night air and in the power of that libertine my agony is awful. The sheriff is doing all he can and is very kind. Will you ask the christians of Asheville to pray that God may give me back my lost child. She is worthy of their sympathy and prayers. In no other way can she be restored to me."

A Mexican Revolution.

EL PASO, Tex., Jan. 19.—A dispatch to the mayor of Jauriz says Chihuahua is in the hands of rebels. The first attack was made by a detachment of revolutionists on the west side of town, which called the federal garrison to that point. Then the insurgents rushed into the city on the east.

SUGAR SCHEDULE TO BE CONSIDERED NEXT WEEK.

Discussion Imminent Over Car-Hale's Power to Issue Bonds to Raise Money—Better Attendance in the House.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19.—The House committee on judiciary today discussed and postponed until Wednesday next final action on the resolution of Mr. Bailey, Texas, reported favorably from the sub-committee, declaring that the Secretary of the Treasury has no right to issue bonds to supply the present deficiency. This action is taken on motion of Goodnight, who wanted the matter to go over until the secretary could be heard. He will address the committee Wednesday next.

There was a much better attendance of members when the House met this morning than for some time past. At 11:10 the House went into committee of the whole to consider the Wilson tariff bill. At the request of Mr. Wilson, unanimous consent was given to consider the sugar schedule of the Wilson bill for three hours immediately after the House goes into committee of the whole next week, and that a vote shall then be taken.

An amendment proposed by Johnson, Ohio, putting steel rails on the free list was lost by a vote of 79 in the affirmative to 100 in the negative.

"KIDNAPS."

Boze Grimes Gives a Vivid Picture of Them.

Boze Grimes rests on the court house fence after sun up and when the afternoon gets chilly Boze smokes in the warmth of the draymen's fire of broken barrel staves on Market street.

Boze has been jumped for a "kidnap" scare lately and he tells his experience with shanks of emphasis and verily believes the story.

"Yes, sir; hits 'em' lak I tells yer. Deys kidnap 'em' dese nights, kase I don't see 'em. I was out las' night; lemme see, yes, las' night, and de night 'fo' I was out, I put twell ba' pist ten, an'er cums two men wid der faces, an' de short man had a little strop in his 'le' han'. De yuther one was a spare sorter feller wid a ungin' go when he moved round lak he want to see yer an' den agin he don't want to see yer. Bot on 'em kyare curs lookin' pokes an' de lan'ky man had one of dese yer wads same as a sponger, an' my lordy what a awful smell! Hit was des lak rotten ag's! Smoo; no sir, I ain't skeerd den, kase de lights was lit, but hoo, hoo, dat fearsome smell! D dese what dey puts on niggers when de kidnap 'em' wid de strop. Dey ketches cullud people an' cuts 'em up to zamine 'em; when dey gets thoo wid 'em dey tries 'em inter castroile."

THAT FIGHT.

It Is So Far One Of Words Altogether.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Jan. 19.—Sheriff Broward returned from Tallahassee this noon. He went to get full and detailed instructions as to his duty. He says Governor Mitchell is highly indignant over the recent attitude of the club, and says that the fight will be stopped at all hazards if possible to do so. The sheriff says the fight will not come off here in this county if he can prevent it, and he thinks he can.

The rumor that the city chief of police had sworn in 400 special deputies to arrest the military if they interfered in a contest, as the city had given a license for it, has caused some comment, but while not denying it, the city officials laughed at it. The club people say that they will have fight in secret, but seem exceedingly anxious about it. Jack Dempsey will second Corbett. Bets are 100 to 60 in favor of Corbett.

NO NEED OF IT.

No Need for the Government to Run Farther Into Debt.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19.—It is believed at the treasury department, from orders already received, that the total offerings for bonds will aggregate nearly $200,000,000 and that the price will reach 1.20, making the bond practically worth 100 and 2 1/2 per cent. interest. Representative H. H. Van Dine of Indiana, takes a decided position against the bond issue. "It is absolutely certain," said he, "that this government can get along without a dollar of bonded indebtedness by reducing expenditures and by the additional revenue derived from the pending tariff bill."
