WHY NOT

Have Some Clams For a Change?

Easy to Make and Mighty Good.

We have just received a fresh lot of canned clams and clam juice direct from the packing house.

CLAMS ON TOAST—Toast bread enough to cover the dish. Heat up the clams, thicken a little with flour. Add some butter and pepper to suit the taste, then turn the whole over the toast.

CLAM PIE—Set a kettle on the stove, turn in the clams, add a good sized potato sliced thin, a piece of pork chopped fine, pepper to taste; when this comes to a boil, have ready your pie dish, the sides lined with a good crust, turn it into the dish, sprinkle over a little flour, put on top crust, bake half hour.

CLAM STEW—For a No 2 can, take three pints, equal quantities milk and water, heat up to scalding, add some rolled cracker, piece of butter size of a walnut, pepper and salt to suit the taste, then turn in the clams and bring it to a boil; serve up hot.

THE TARIFF BILL CONTEST

A DECISIVE WEEK FOR THAT MEASURE.

There will be an attack on the bill all along the line, but it will not be greatly amended.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22.—The third and last week of tariff debate in the House opened with a slim attendance of members and visitors. After the reading of Saturday's journal and some executive communications, the House went into committee of the whole to consider the tariff bill.

This week will see the conclusion of the tariff debate in the House. According to the special order the voting on the bill and pending amendments will begin a week from today noon. During the past week no amendments of substantial importance have been voted on with any chance of adoption except that fixing the date upon which free wool would go into effect, which was carried over the protest of the Democratic members of the ways and means committee.

This week, however, will witness the fight over the big amendments to be offered from the Democratic side. The full measure of the Democratic opposition to the bill will then develop. The first fight will come on the sugar schedule. Three hours have been set apart for the consideration of the proposition to be offered by the sugar men. Four amendments will be offered to the paragraph putting sugar on the free list if the present plan is adhered to.

The first will be that of Mr. McKee of Arkansas to abolish the provision relating to the sugar bounty on the Wilson bill, which contemplates its gradual reduction of one-fourth of a cent a year for eight years until it is wiped out. To this Mr. Price of Louisiana will offer an amendment to substitute in place of a bounty, a duty of one cent per pound on raw sugar. A substitute for this to retain the McKinley bounty of two cents will be offered by Mr. Meyer of Louisiana, and Mr. Boatner will offer an amendment to substitute to place a one-and-a-half cent duty on sugars. This will exhaust the amendments that can be pending. The vote will be taken in the reverse order.

The sugar men will make a strong fight on the ground that the sugar is a revenue article and in accordance with the dictates of the Chicago platform should be made dutiable to supply the deficit which it is estimated the customs, schedules of the Wilson bill will cause. They will have the support of all the Democrats who are opposed to the income tax, including Mr. Cockeran, Mr. Wilson and others of the ways and means committee.

While it is generally admitted that they will probably be able to muster a majority of the Democrats, the Republicans, who are pledged to the free sugar feature of the McKinley law will give them no aid. The chances of the adoption of a sugar duty for the above reasons are slim.

Tuesday has been set apart for the consideration of the amendments to the free coal and iron ore schedules. The present duty on both these articles is 75 cents per ton. The coal men, especially of Virginia, West Virginia and Alabama are at the back of this opposition and have the support pretty generally of the Democratic representatives from those States. The iron interest of the South, Alabama and Tennessee and of the Lake Superior districts, is fighting against free iron ore. Railroads will yield a portion of the duty and amendments ranging from 35 to 50 cents per ton will be offered. Raw materials here and made the backbone of the Wilson bill and a herculean effort will be made to prevent defeat here.

The Republicans, if they join with the coal and iron men, as they probably will, may make the vote close, but the Democrats of the Ways and Means committee manifest no alarm.

INFANTICIDE.

The Terrible Crime of an Unnatural Mother at Weaverville.
The finding of the body of a dead child at Weaverville Saturday morning developed into a case of infanticide. The body was that of a colored infant, and was found in a fence corner on Rev. J. F. Austin's property where I had been buried probably by the mother, believed to be Lula Weaver, a colored girl 20 years of age. The Weaver girl had been employed as servant in the home of Rev. Mr. Austin. The child was born about the 9th of January. Soon after, the girl went to Rev. C. W. Byrd's home as servant, where she remained until last Saturday morning, when the body was found. She was charged with the maternity of the child, but strenuously denied it. Soon afterward she left and has not since been seen.

Coroner McBrayer and Drs. J. A. and W. L. Reagin, City and Barrett found that the child had probably been killed, and the coroner's jury, composed of E. D. Weaver, F. R. McIntyre, T. H. Keever, Rev. J. F. Austin, J. J. Reagan, and F. T. Pickens, rendered a verdict that the child had come to its death at the hands of its mother, Lula Weaver.

A warrant for the accused was issued and placed in the hands of Deputy Chas. Williams. The girl is a daughter of Lawson Weaver, who lives near Asheville.

SIGNORA PERUGINI.
She Was Once, and May Again be, Lillian Russell.

NEW YORK, Jan. 22.—For the third time in her life Lillian Russell, before whose shrine have worshipped the dukes of Gotham for the last decade, stood at the altar yesterday and promised to "love, honor and obey" her future "lord and master," in the person of John Chatterton.

The bride received many valuable gifts, among them being two necklaces of diamond, a tira diamond and sapphires, a diamond sunburst, two sets of sterling silver knives and forks, a chest of old silver, a Morocco leather traveling bag with sterling silver fittings and two secure of jeweled rings and bracelets. Signora and Signora Perugini will continue their roles at the Casino.

10 HOURS FOR 8 HOURS PAY.
MARIETTA, O., Jan. 22.—The Marietta Chair company resumed operations this morning, giving employment to almost 600 hands. The employees are to work 10 hours for eight hours pay.

Only for a short while—Bon Marche.

WILL NOT FIGHT SIMMONS

SENATOR VANCE WILL ONLY VOTE AGAINST HIM.

Collector Carter Talks of His Conversation With The Senator Regarding Simmons—The Real Fight Was Against Elias

A dispatch sent out from Raleigh Friday said, concerning the question of the confirmation of Collector Simmons of the Eastern district, that Senator Vance had told Collector M. E. Carter, while the latter was in Washington recently, that he would not further obstruct Mr. Simmons' confirmation.

In an interview on the subject Collector Carter this morning told THE CITIZEN that upon his asking Senator Vance what course he intended to pursue in the confirmation of Simmons, the Senator replied that he had said he would vote against Simmons, but he did not know any other Democrat who would, and thought there was no doubt as to his confirmation.

The Senator said he was so unwell that he would probably not remain in Washington during the winter (he has already left for Florida) and it was very likely he would not be present when the Simmons matter came up. His real fight had been against Elias and as that matter had been settled he now left at liberty to look after his health more than anything else.

Col. Carter did not know how the conversation had been made public, and would not talk on the subject now had it not been for the public reference to him.

Recently the Fayetteville Observer said it had "high authority" that Senator Vance would not cease his opposition to Simmons' confirmation. It is now time for the Observer to give its authority.

A. F. RANDOLPH DEAD.

A Well Known Printer Succumbs to Pneumonia.

A. F. Randolph, whose serious illness was mentioned in THE CITIZEN last week, died at his home on North Beaufort street about 6 o'clock this morning. Pneumonia was the cause of his death, and his illness was short, as he was taken sick last Tuesday.

Mr. Randolph was a native of New Jersey and was born in 1833. He served in the Federal army during the war and at its close entered the government printing office at Washington. There he remained until his removal to Asheville about four years ago. During his residence here he was with Randolph-Kerr Printing company.

Mr. Randolph was a well known member of the craft and an active worker in the Typographical union. He was a charter member of Asheville union No. 263, at its organization in July, 1890, and was its first president. He also held the position of treasurer of the union two terms. He had many friends here and elsewhere, and all of these will learn with sorrow of his death.

A wife and four children survive the deceased. The children are W. F. Randolph of THE CITIZEN; Geo. F. Randolph of San Francisco, Cal.; Mrs. George Corlies of Brooklyn, N. Y.; and Mrs. C. C. Ridgley of Washington, D. C.

The funeral services will occur at the residence tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock, and the interment will be at Riverside. The pallbearers will be J. M. Israel, jr., S. H. Bean, E. W. Whiteside, F. A. Hamrick, W. T. Herriage and Robt. C. Frank, all of whom were fellow members with Mr. Randolph of the Typographical union.

THAT POSTPONEMENT.

An Educator Makes It a Text For a Plain Talk.

Referring to the postponement on Saturday of the meeting of the Buncombe County Teachers' association, a prominent educator, who has the work very much at heart, says to THE CITIZEN: "This speaks ill for public education in Buncombe county. There is no reason why teachers should not encourage these meetings by their presence. There is every reason why they should. Possibly if monthly salaries were paid at these meetings the attendance would be prompt."

"Any one who has not sufficient interest in school work to attend a gathering of teachers, where methods of teaching are discussed and where much help can be derived by these discussions, has no place in a school room. One would think strangely of a man starting to practice medicine without attempting to know something of anatomy and the treatment of diseases. And there is no reason why people should be turned loose upon innocent children, unless they have made a study of the subject of teaching—or at least intend to study it. Teachers cannot do this by staying at home and being indifferent to these meetings which are for their especial benefit. This is nothing short of a disgrace to the schools of Buncombe county."

LABOR GIVES TO CAPITAL.

Probably The First Case of Its Kind in the Country.

PITTSBURG, Jan. 2.—Local Assembly 300, K. of L., the Window Glass Workers' association has granted the application from James A. Chambers, President of the Chambers Glass company, for a loan of $50,000.

This is probably the first case in which organized labor was called upon to loan money to capital.

In all probability loans will be made to other manufacturers, as they have applied for money. The workers are willing to give it to them in order to keep the plants running and to prevent the associated manufacturers from carrying out their threat to close down all the window glass factories in the country to secure a reduction in wages, basing their claim on the tariff cut.

New Enterprises.

BALTIMORE, Jan. 19.—The Manufacturers' Record says: "The slight general improvement reported in business is more pronounced in the South than elsewhere. Many new enterprises are definitely determined upon, involving an outlay of $1,550,000."

Exact New York Cost—Bon Marche.

THE GOOD WORK TO GO ON

AMOUNT NEEDED BY THE Y. M. C. A. ASSURED.

Subscriptions Made Last Week Augmented by a Collection at the First Baptist Church Sunday Evening.

The Asheville Young Men's Christian association will continue its good work among the city's young men for another year at least.

A canvass was made last week for subscriptions to insure the maintenance of the association. The minimum amount needed as a guarantee of its continuance was $1,600. Up to Saturday night the canvassers' work had been so successful that there remained only a few hundred dollars to be raised. For this purpose a mass meeting was held in the First Baptist church last evening. Several of the city churches held no service and their congregations joined the First Baptist and filled the auditorium and gallery to overflowing.

L. A. Coulter, State secretary of the Y. M. C. A., was the first speaker, giving facts concerning the association here and its work during 1893. He paid a tribute to Geo. W. Rapson, the secretary, who, although not an experienced association worker, had done splendid service while in that position. Mr. Coulter also thanked the people for their generous reception of the board of directors during the canvass.

Rev. R. G. Pearson, whose well known power as a talker is sufficient to gather great congregations at any time, was the leading speaker and followed Mr. Coulter. Mr. Pearson prefaced his sermon with remarks on the association declaring it would be a shame to have published "in the city paper" the announcement that Asheville could not support the Y. M. C. A. His text was a part of the 58th verse of the 7th chapter of Acts. The life of Saul of Tarsus was reviewed and lessons drawn from his life were forcibly presented. The sermon was a strong presentation, in plain, yet powerful, beautiful language, of one of the world's greatest characters.

Upon the conclusion of the sermon, Mr. Pearson called for subscriptions to make up the amount lacking. He kept the congregation in a good humor with humorous anecdotes that helped along on financial lines. He said that on one occasion he was at a camp meeting in Mississippi. A purse was raised for him and after it had been delivered a man came up and said: "Mr. Pearson, I thought you preached for souls and not for money." "So I do," was the reply, "but I cannot eat souls; and if I could it would take a dozen such as yours to make a mess."

The collection was kept up until the guarantee needed was raised. Mr. Pearson, in a happy tone, announced the fact and said he could see the news go out in THE CITIZEN and on the editorial page that Asheville would sustain the Y. M. C. A.

The meeting closed and everybody went away happy in the knowledge that the gathering had had such a successful result.

BURNED AT THE STAKE.

Two Florida Meet a Horrible Death Speedily.

AURORA, Mo., Jan. 22.—A 12 years old girl, daughter of Mr. Joquin of Vernon, Mo., was dragged to the woods Saturday and assaulted by two negroes. She was not found until 4:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon. Early this morning one of the negroes was captured by a posse of farmers and burned at the stake.

HORNBLLOWER STRUGGLE.

It Will Be Renewed Over This Nomination.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22.—The President today sent to the Senate the nomination of Wheeler H. Peckham of New York, to be associate Justice of the Supreme court of the United States.

Peckham is a brother of Judge Rufus Peckham of New York Court of Appeals. He was appointed district attorney by Cleveland, when the latter was governor of New York. Although the New York Senators decline to talk it is understood the nomination is distasteful to them. The indications seem to be that the Hornblower struggle will be renewed against this nominee.

He Is Not Dead.

BELGRADE, Jan. 22.—The report that King Alexander had been assassinated is without foundation. He is actively employed in seeking to end the crisis now prevailing here. Acting under the advice of his father he is endeavoring to obtain a coalition ministry.

Fire Loss of $100,000.

LOUISVILLE, Jan. 22.—Fire yesterday completely gutted the telephone exchange in this city. The total loss is estimated at $100,000, about half covered by insurance. The building is the property of the Ohio Valley telephone company.

G. W. Childs Not So Well.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Jan. 22.—There was no material change this morning in the condition of G. W. Childs. He passed a fairly good night, but the unfavorable symptoms which were manifested last night are still noticeable.

A Big Chunk of Gold.

LEADVILLE, Col., Jan. 22.—A gold nugget weighing 156 ounces has been found at Breckenridge on property belonging to George Campion, which is leased.
