WHY NOT

Have Some Clams For a Change?
Easy to Make and Mighty Good.

We have just received a fresh lot of canned clams and clam juice direct from the packing house.

CLAMS ON TOAST—Toast bread enough to cover the dish. Heat up the clams, thicken a little with flour. Add some butter and pepper to suit the taste, then turn the whole over the toast.

CLAM PIE—Set a kettle on the stove, turn in the clams, add a good sized potato sliced thin, a piece of pork chopped fine, pepper to taste; when this comes to a boil, have ready your pie dish, the sides lined with a good crust, turn it into the dish, sprinkle over a little flour, put on top crust, bake half hour.

CLAM STEW—For a No. 2 can, take three pints, equal quantities milk and water, heat up to scalding, add some rolled cracker, piece of butter size of a walnut, pepper and salt to suit the taste, then turn in the clams and bring it to a boil; serve up hot.

Wm. KROGER

PRIDE OF THE SEA.

We have just received a shipment of "Pride of the Sea" Mackerel, and when we say they are worth about $30 per barrel and retail at 20 cents each, you may reasonably suppose they are fine fish. If you will try one of these you will fully realize that there is even more difference between a poor and fat mackerel than there is between a poor and fat chicken.

In Springfield, Ill., with the thermometer at 15° below, business is suspended.

The thermometer at Nashville is 8° above zero.

MITCHELL WAS WHIPPED

KNOCKED OUT IN THE THIRD ROUND
The Two Fighters Get Together as Per All Arrangements and the Fight Was Settled in Short Order.

3:30 p. m.—Mitchell was knocked out in the third round.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Jan. 25.—Judge Rhydon M. Call, to the surprise of almost everybody, has granted the injunction asked for by the club restraining Sheriff Broward from in any way interfering with the fight between James J. Corbett and Charles Mitchell. The order granting the injunction was very brief, the judge simply stating that in his opinion "glove contests" were not violative of the law of Florida, which forbids "fighting by previous appointment."

Before the Fight.
JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Jan. 25.—At day break the rain was pouring in torrents and the early risers felt that the fates and the elements were dead against the financial success of the Duval athletic club in "pulling off" the Corbett-Mitchell fight according to schedule. The hour announced for the men to appear in the ring was 1:30 p. m., and the report got started early in the forenoon that by that time the arena would be flooded because the roof was only a sham affair, something in the nature of a protection from the rays of the sun. This, of course, was not well calculated to help the sale of tickets, but in spite of it the Duval quarters were crowded from 9 o'clock up to 11:30 with eager seekers after the costly pieces of paper which would take the holders to the ring side.

The streets were crowded with strangers, every hotel and boarding house was full to overflowing with guests last night, and hundreds of private residences had to be called upon to shelter the strangers. Along Bay street for seven blocks every barroom was jammed full of sporting men, and men and boys blocked the doorways and all street corners. Despite the steady rain that was falling at the pool rooms the hoarse voice of sellers could be heard far out on the street as they rose regularly above the din and clatter of bar business. Sports were unusually timid about paying their money on there was very little going out on either of the pugilists. At the Gloriette pool sellers still kept offering the chestnut "100 to 40" on Corbett and occasionally a venturesome man would pull out a little money.

At the hotel there was a good deal of betting, the stakes in almost every instance being larger than those at the saloons and pool rooms. Dave Johnson of New York put up $700 for Mitchell against $2,000 on Corbett as result of the fight, and there were dozens of wagers in varying amounts that the Englishman would stay in the ring for 20 rounds. A well known Boston sport, in making a bet of this kind, explained that he based it upon his confidence in Mitchell being able to run away from Corbett for that space of time, "but if he allows himself to be hit a few times by the American champion," continued the speaker, "he cannot stay for 10 rounds even."

By 11 o'clock nearly every carriage in town was in motion and they began bearing eastward toward the arena through the deep mud and water, their occupants blowing great clouds of smoke from the windows that gave the cavalcade somewhat the appearance of roaring volcanoes.

The sensation of the morning was the charge of $20 each to all press representatives and correspondents for admission to the arena. The rumor has been current for two days past that this would be the program, but very few believed it.

The treasury doesn't owe much if any surplus over the expenses of the fight and the club's greed for the almighty dollar moved it to pinch the press as hard as it dared to. A singular inconsistency in this connection is the charge of $10 each for soldiers of the State of Florida in uniform. These soldiers were ordered here to suppress the fight, the newspapers have been promoting the interests of this club to the extent of their ability.

Bulletin
JACKSONVILLE, Jan. 25.—9 a. m.—Time of the fight has been set for 1:30 p. m., Jacksonville time. There was a long discussion at the Duval athletic club last night and there was an effort to fix an earlier hour, fearing further court proceedings, but as there was much work to be done on the arena, no hour was decided upon.

10:45 a. m.—Corbett has just arrived. He came from Mayport, and was accompanied by Mrs. Corbett, Brady, Delaney and Johnny Ward. In answer to inquiry as to Corbett's condition Ward pronounced the champion's condition to be first class and declared him fit to fight the best of his life. The parties entered carriages in waiting and were driven to see hotel quarters in the vicinity of the arena. Crowds of people are already moving toward the fair grounds.

In the bus round Corbett led with his left on Mitchell's chin, and reached Mitchell's left eye heavily. Several body blows were exchanged. In the second round the men clinched. Corbett nipped under his man, while Mitchell got in a heavy blow on Corbett's ribs, Corbett countering with a staggerer on Mitchell's head. In the third round Mitchell was groggy. He was floored twice, and when came up a second time met a terrific saving of Corbett's right on his nose. Mitchell reeled and fell, and was counted out. He was carried to his corner helpless, and with a blood covered face.

Referee gave fight to Corbett and declared him champion of the world.

CHILD'S BETTER
PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Jan. 25.—The bulletin given out by Child's physicians this morning says the patient is stronger and in better condition today than at any time since his illness began.

POISONED.
The meeting of the Board of Aldermen has been postponed from tomorrow afternoon to Saturday morning at 10 o'clock, on account of a telegram from Mayor Patton, who is in New York.

THE BOND PREPARED.

Collector Carter Will Doubtless Go in February
Capt. Melvin Edmondson Carter is expected to assume charge of the office of collector of internal revenue for this district on the first of February.

Collector Carter's blank bond was received by yesterday afternoon's eastern mail. The bond was prepared this morning and was taken this afternoon by special messenger, Duff Merrick, esq., to Judge Dick at Greensboro for approval. The bond is the collector's official bond, and is for $100,000, to be justified in double the amount. This one, however, is justified for $275,000, simply for "good measure." The bondmen are some of Asheville's most prominent business men who voluntarily became Collector Carter's sureties and who have no favors to ask. There is another bond, known as the disbursing bond, for $40,000, to be justified in twice that amount, which will be made up after the collector takes charge of the office.

A telegram to Collector Carter from the department last evening stated that if there were no delay in the preparation of the bond, the office could be transferred to him on the evening of January 31. As there has been no delay it is likely that February 1 will see the new collector installed in office.

AN INTERESTING CASE.

Decision in The Penland Case in Criminal Court
An interesting case was up in the Criminal court yesterday afternoon, in the case of Jesse Penland, an appeal from the mayor's court. Penland had submitted before Justice Israel and was afterward arrested and fined in the mayor's court, from which he appealed. He pleaded guilty and was sentenced to 30 days in the city jail. Judge Jones ordered that notice be given to the city attorney, who was to appear in court to defend the city. The case against Harrison Reeves, Pat Singleton and Retta Saunders, charged with stealing goods from E. P. Ingle's store, was then taken up and was in progress when court adjourned for the day. She has been on trial all of today.

THE GREENVILLE TRAGEDY.

Killing of Ed Davis' Wife and Davis' Suicide Monday Night.
The Greenville, S. C., News of Wednesday contains an account of the killing of the wife of Ed. Davis and Davis' suicide in that city Monday night or Tuesday morning. Mrs. Davis, who was the stepdaughter of Tecumseh Hamilton of Asheville, was murdered with an axe while in bed. Davis committed suicide by drowning himself in a well. The News says Davis butchered his wife, although the coroner's jury rendered a verdict that she came to her death by wounds inflicted with an axe by the hands of some person or persons unknown to the jury. Davis was, the News says further, one of the best known and most popular negroes in Greenville. There is a strong suspicion among the colored people that some one else is involved in the tragedy, and that Davis, as well as his wife, was a victim.

Davis was known here, having come here with the Black Diamond bang team, of which he was manager, to play an Asheville team.

THE CIGARETTE TAX

Is Reduced to One One Dollar Per Thousand
WASHINGTON, Jan. 24.—A number of important amendments were made by the Ways and Means committee this morning to the customs and internal revenue sections of the tariff bill. Among them were the following: The tax on cigarettes, which had been placed at $1.60 per thousand is reduced to $1.00 per thousand and is the free list. The paragraph relating to binding twice was enlarged so as to permit importations made from New Zealand hemp to come in free. The reciprocity provision of the McKimble act will be stricken out by inserting a special provision respecting section three of the present law.

THE IRON SCHEDULE

It Remains Unchanged On The Free List
WASHINGTON, Jan. 25.—The amendments to the iron schedule yesterday shared the same fate as the coal schedule. They were overwhelmingly defeated and iron remains upon the free list.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25.—Immediately after the reading of yesterday's journal Cochrane took the first step in a filibuster against the income tax bill by suggesting the absence of a quorum, and the roll call was ordered.

The call of the roll on Cochrane's filibuster against the income tax showed the presence of 202 members—thirteen more than a quorum. Haines was the only Democratic member of the New York delegation who answered to his name. Republican members from New York did not join in the filibuster, nor did Democrats from other States.

Massachusetts Railroads.

Boston, Jan. 25.—The report of the Board of Railroad Commissioners on railroad corporations will show that the total amount of each dividends declared last year was $10,832,400 an increase of $1,302,825.82 over the previous year. The average dividend rate on the whole amount of capital stock outstanding was 5.81 per cent.

Child's Better

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Jan. 25.—The bulletin given out by Child's physicians this morning says the patient is stronger and in better condition today than at any time since his illness began.

POISONED.

The meeting of the Board of Aldermen has been postponed from tomorrow afternoon to Saturday morning at 10 o'clock, on account of a telegram from Mayor Patton, who is in New York.

IT HAS THE RIGHT RING

CLEVELAND'S HAWAIIAN POLICY APPROVED
Minister Stevens Acted Illegally and Contrary to the Traditions of this Republic—A Party Vote.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25.—The House committee on foreign affairs today, by a strict party vote, authorized Mr. McCreary, Ky., to report favorably his resolution defining the attitude of Congress towards Hawaii. The resolution reads as follows, and will probably be reported to the House tomorrow:

"Resolved, that it is the sense of this House that the action of the United States minister in employing United States naval forces and in illegally aiding in overthrowing the constitutional government of the Hawaiian Islands in January, 1893, and in setting up in its place a provisional government, not republican in form and in opposition to the will of the majority of the people, was contrary to the traditions of our Republic and the spirit of our constitution and should be and is condemned.

"Second, that we heartily approve of the principle announced by the President of the United States that interference with the domestic affairs of an independent nation is contrary to the spirit of America institutions; and it is further the sense of this House that the annexation of the Hawaiian Islands to our country or of the assumption of a protectorate over them by our government is uncalled for and is inexpedient. That the people of that country should have absolute freedom and independence in pursuing their own line of policy, and that foreign intervention in the political affairs of the Islands will not be regarded with indifference by the government of the United States."

NO PROHIBITION FOR IOWA

This is Definitely Settled at Law by the Supreme Court.
DES MOINES, Ia., Jan. 22.—The Supreme court of Iowa today refused to reopen the question of the adoption of the prohibition amendment to the State Constitution. Ten years ago the Supreme court nullified the amendment and the court now holds that the decision is binding upon the Secretary of State and other officials.

Prohibitionists had asked for a mandamus to compel the Secretary of State to furnish them with a certified copy of the Constitution, and to include in it the alleged amendment, which they claimed was adopted in 1882. The Secretary refused to certify it as a part of the Constitution on the strength of the decision and he was sustained first by the District court and then by the Supreme court.

The case excited little interest here, as the court refused to go into or reopen the question of the validity of the amendment.—N. Y. World.

IS IT A FAIRY TALE?

A Very Important Widow If All This Be True.
NEW YORK, Jan. 25.—There is a woman in St. Catherine's hospital, Williamsburg, who says she is the possessor of an estate of between nine and ten millions of dollars and who tells a story of how she nearly became the victim of a conspiracy in which doctors, in whose favor she had made her will, were intended to have her die, that they might be heirs to her fortune. The woman is Mrs. Minnie Fitzpatrick, a widow of Mobile, Ala. She says she is a grandniece of Mother Seton who founded the order of the Sisters of Charity in this city. She also says that the late Bishop James Roosevelt Bayly of Newark was her brother, and that she is a cousin of Monsignor Robt. Seton of Jersey City. Gen. Kretchnar of the Confederate army, she says, was her first husband, and her second husband was a captain in the Confederate navy. Both are dead.

THIS IS COLD.

ST. PAUL, Minn., Jan. 25.—The official weather report was 20 below zero yesterday in this city.

THE PRESIDENT IN WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25.—President Cleveland returned to Washington this morning.

JUST IN NORTH CAROLINA.

—Near the hamlet of Wade, M. D. Denning, an old man just discharged from the insane asylum, got into a fight with his son-in-law, named Gaiusney. Denning had Gaiusney down, and the latter called another son-in-law, J. L. Starling, to aid him. Starling took a gun and shot Denning dead. The coroner's jury has rendered a verdict that Starling did this in self-defense.

—Murphy was shocked Monday when it became known that one J. H. Bruno, whose correct name is K. F. Truslow, was wanted in Tennessee for embezzlement and grand larceny, and that he had skipped. Truslow took a prominent part in religious exercises and conducted himself very properly while in Murphy.

—Attorney-General Osborne said Tuesday that he still has no doubt of the correctness of his position with regard to the terms of judges, and that a case will be made up at the February term of the Supreme court in such shape as to get a decision on its merits.

—Washington correspondence Winstor Sentinel: The great preacher of the Waldensian colony in North Carolina preached here Sunday a big crowd attended the services.

—Died, in Pilot Mountain, N. C., Thursday, January 18th, 1894, the Pilot Times, born March 16th, 1893 and 10 months and 2 days. The deceased had been in feeble health for some time.

—The president of the Carnegie Cotton Mills says his plan is to put in this year 5,000 more spindles and 100 more looms; also to build 30 more houses for operatives.

—Two more sheriffs have completed their State tax settlements: J. R. Lanier of Martin, $7,769.62, and Edward Beam of Rutherford, $5,954.89.

—A catch of fish made by Mr. Willis of Morehead City a few days ago, netted him $281.25, says the Beaufort Herald.

—The reported death of the balloonist, O'Dell at Washington, N. C., was untrue. He is alive.
