"Alvin Joslin," which comes to the Grand opera house next Monday evening, is as familiar as household words, and as a play is so well known it needs little comment; its merits are universally acknowledged. Chas. L. Davis, its creator will of sourse play the part of traction has succeeded in amusing and entertaining the theatregoing masses and there is no reason why it should not do so for years to come. The public will never tire of Chas. L. Davis, until it wearies of inexpensive morality, humor, healthy exeitement and innocent pastime. The exact counterpart of Alvin Joslin cannot be found; it is a unique character of the American stage, and whatever else is said of Day's, he must be eredited with originality and a praise-worthy effort to please. No doubt, as eretofore, his company will be full up to he standard of ment; the east is a big one, and the scenery of the piece forms a ousider the element in this very com-United States District and Circuit courts mendable play. "THE OLD RELIABLE"

Pharmacy : Grant

I take pleasure in informing the general public, and particularly the long-time Furniture, Carpets and Rugs Now, Uncle Alvin." For years this quaint at friends of this Pharmacy, who have extended it a generous patronage in the past, that I have secured the services of Mr Thomas J. Watts, late of Raleigh, who is a registered pharmacist, having passed a most creditable ex amination before the State Board of Pharmacy, and W. B. WILLIAMSON & CO. was awarded an Inter-State Certificate. He has had a number of years practical experience at the prescription desk, and is well informed in chemistry and fully posted in the compounding of medicines: and physicians and other patrons can rely with absolute certainty upon their prescriptions, from the simplest to the most elaborate and intricate, being put up in an accurate, painstaking and rapid manner.

The prompt, careful and accurate filling of prescriptions, at reasonable prices will be the LEADING FEATURE of this Phar macy, which is now owned in her own right, by Mrs Lula Swain Grant, in whose name I most earnestly solicit a liberal share of public pat ronage for this old reliable clothing and men's furnishing stock. The drug store.

It is proper to say that I am negotiating for an addi tional competent registered druggist, whose services 1 expect to seenre, so that there will be no delay in filling prescriptions, day or night. Respectfully,
