THE WILSON BILL PASSED

A SAFE MAJORITY FOR TARIFF REFORM.

The Bill, Income Tax and All, Now Ready for the Senate—Striking Appreciation of Chairman Wilson's Speech

WASHINGTON, Feb. 2.—Chairman Wilson closed the debate on the tariff yesterday. He finished his speech amid great enthusiasm, and after an eloquent prostration. Men threw up their hats and women their handkerchiefs, and Wilson was carried on the shoulders of Bryan of Nebraska and Tucker of Virginia.

The House then proceeded to vote. Wilson's wool amendment carried on a rising vote, ayes 196, noes 42. The effect is to fix the date of the wool schedule at August 23, and of the woolen schedule on December 23.

On the internal revenue amendment, Cockran asked if the propositions could be divided and a separate vote taken on the income tax feature, but the speaker held that it could not.

Cockran then called for the yeas and nays on the entire amendment, and it was carried amid applause, yeas 182, naves 50. The Democrats who voted against the internal revenue bill, (with the income tax feature) were: Bartlett, N. Y.; Beltzover, Pa.; Brewster, N. Y.; Campbell, N. Y.; Cawsey, Del.; Clancy, N. Y.; Cockran, N. Y.; Compton, Md.; Coombs, N. Y.; Covert, N. Y.; Cummings, N. Y.; Davys, Pa.; DeForest, Conn.; Dunn, N. J.; Dunphy, N. Y.; English, N. J.; Everett, Mass.; Fielder, N. J.; Gessenhamer, N. J.; Haines, N. Y.; Harter, O.; Hendricks, N. Y.; Lapham, R. I.; Lockwood, N. Y.; Magner, N. Y.; McMillen, Pa.; Mendenhall, Md.; Meyers, Pa.; Mitchell, Pa.; O'Neil, Mass.; Page, R. I.; Prince, La.; Ryan, N. Y.; Schermerhorn, N. Y.; Skiles, N. Y.; Sperry, Conn.; Stevens, Mass.; Talbot, Md.; Warner, N. Y.; Wolberton, Pa.

The R. Republicans who voted for the internal revenue bill were: Bowers (Calif.); Fletcher (Miss.); Hartmann (Mont.); Marsh (Ia.); Pickett (S. D.); Sweet (Ia.); White (Ohio).

A motion to recommit was defeated, by a vote of 103 to 177.

"The speaker then put the question: 'Shall the bill pass?' and the yeas and naves being demanded on this, the roll was called amidst the most intense interest on the floor and in the galleries. The yeas were followed by Cockran's vote of 'aye,' and also Cummings' negative vote, and the affirmative votes of Everett, Mass.; Gessenhamer, N. J.; Lockwood, N. Y.; Magner, Pa.; Tracy, Beltzover, Pa.; Warner, Bingham and Foster, Pa. The yeas were followed by the votes in the negative of Campbell, Covert, Cummings, Davys, La.; Geary, Calif.; Hays, N. Y.; Hendrix, N. Y.; Price, La.; Robertson, La.; Schermerhorn, N. Y.; Gibley, Pa.; Skiles, N. Y. and Sperry, Conn.

The vote was announced at 5:55 o'clock, as follows: Yeas, 204; naves, 140. So the bill was declared passed with a widespread from the floor and the galleries.

A WARM RECEPTION

Happy Occasion At The French Broad Baptist Church

The reception given Rev. J. A. Brunson, the new pastor of the French Broad Baptist church, and Mrs. Brunson at the church last evening was, if the word may be used, a rousing one. A large number of the congregation and friends of the church were there and the exercises made every body as happy as were the guests of honor.

The reception began with prayer by Rev. J. R. Cannon, pastor of the First M. E. church. Rev. J. L. White, pastor of the First Baptist church, then welcomed the new pastor in greetings on behalf of the 1,100 B. priests, married, live and lay.

He was followed by Rev. R. F. Campbell, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, who, for the united churches of Asheville, welcomed Mr. and Mrs. Brunson. Mayor T. W. Patton extended a welcome to the city at large, saying to Mr. Brunson that he would find good and kind people among all denominations in Asheville, and would also find plenty of work. The Mayor bade him Godspeed in his labors and hoped he would be very successful in his work.

The entire audience then were introduced to Rev. and Mrs. Brunson by Rev. J. R. Cannon and Miss Cora Drummond. The introductions over, refreshments followed and the bountiful supply of cake, ice cream and coffee was for all. This closed the reception which was an occasion of thorough enjoyment to all who attended.

A portion of the First Presbyterian choir assisted the French Broad choir in the singing.

THE STATE'S CONDITION

Better Than For Ten Years Past, Says Auditor Furman

In the course of a conversation with State Auditor Robert M. Furman concerning matters in which the people of the State are interested, that official said to THE CITIZEN:

"The people of the State are in better condition than they have been for 10 years. One evidence of this is the fact that a larger number of sheriffs than usual have settled in full to date. The people owe less as a general thing, have brought less in the last two years, and the State from one end to the other is absolutely supplied with foodstuffs necessary to last for more than a year. The conditions are such that the State would improve rapidly if confidence could be restored and the money which is actually among the people could be put into active circulation."

Auditor Furman will issue his annual report in about two weeks.

Capl. M. J. Fagg's Funeral.

The funeral services of the late Capt. M. J. Fagg occurred this morning at Central M. E. church and were attended by a large concourse of relatives and friends of the deceased, including Mr. Hermon and Asheville lodges of Master Masons and Swannanoa lodge of the Knights of Honor.

The impressive burial rites of the church were conducted by the Rev. Dr. James A. Sims. The casket was covered with floral tributes to the memory of the departed. The interment was at Riverside.

NO HOPE FOR STATE BANKS

BILL TO REPEAL THE TAX IMPOSED OF.

The Committee on Banking Has Put the Measure To Sleep For This Session At Least—One Platform Plank Gone.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 2.—The effort to repeal the tax on state bank circulations was beaten in the committee on banking today by a vote of 8 to 9. The vote was taken on the bill of Representative Cox of Tennessee, which relieves state banks from a tax on their circulation, but does not extend the relief to circulation issued by private individuals or corporations.

This result is regarded as cutting off any possibility of favorable state bank legislation in the present Congress. After taking the adverse vote motions were carried to reconsider and then to lay on the table, which permanently disposes of the bill.

DEAD IN BED

C. F. Werner Found At The Asheville Motel.

A young man apparently 20 or 21 years of age went to the Asheville Hotel Wednesday afternoon between 6 and 7 o'clock, registered as C. F. Werner, Morristown, Tenn., and remarking that he did not care for supper asked to be shown to a room. He was taken to room 29.

Werner did not appear for meals yesterday, and a chambermaid looking into the man's room twice during the day saw him lying in bed apparently asleep, and he was not disturbed. About 7 o'clock Will Brown, an employe in the hotel, while adjusting an electric light in a room adjoining Werner's looked into the latter's room. A close look at the man showed that he was dead.

Proprietor Regan and Clerk Marriner were notified by Brown, and Coroner McBrayer was summoned. An examination showed that Werner had died from hemorrhage of the lungs. The natural position of the body and the undisturbed condition of the bed clothing covering the body indicated that the man had died without a struggle. The body was given in charge of Brewton & McConnell.

There was nothing about the dead man's clothing that contained his name. A receipt dated Morristown, Tenn., was found, but no name was attached. The only valuables in his pockets were an old fashioned silver watch and $1.85 in cash. Besides these he had some cigars and a pipe and tobacco. A table had been drawn up beside the bed and orange peels and a paper sack thereon showed the young man had been eating while in bed.

Werner, in a conversation with C. B. McIntire, on the day of his arrival, said he was an Austrian and had been in the country only two months. He said further that he had a letter of introduction to Baron d'Alinge, farm superintendent of the Vanderbilt estate, from a friend in Germany, and expected to work on the estate.

Baron d'Alinge told THE CITIZEN today that the young man wrote him from Bridgeport, Conn., asking for work. He answered, and advised the man to stay North for awhile. The reply came that he would come, and about five days ago he arrived. He was given work on the truck farm and stayed one day, then left without notifying Baron d'Alinge of his intentions. The next day Baron heard of him as the news of his death.

Werner's body is at Brewton & McConnell's, awaiting instructions from the dead man's father, who is in Bridgeport, Conn., and who has been advised by the coroner of the death of his son.

CARLISLE WILL SUCCEED.

English Financiers Approve The Bonds

LONDON, Feb. 3.—The Financial News says that the action of New York bankers toward Secretary Carlisle proposed bond issue is inexplicably shabby. President Cleveland, it says, loyally preserved and overcame the obstacles to the repeal of the Sherman act on condition that the eastern bankers should not desert the cabinet if their help was necessary to re-enforce the treasury. The bankers have resorted to a technical objection.

Mr. Carlisle, it bluffed, must persevere in the issue of bonds, and need be in no fear of failure.

Near To $75,000.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Feb. 2.—The bank of Eastern Arkansas, at Forest City, was robbed this morning by two unknown men. The vault and inner safe were blown open, but the time lock remained secure and the bulk of the money was left untouched. There was about $75,000 in the bank, but only $300 was carried off by the robbers.

End of Coal Creek Cases.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., Feb. 2.—The East Tennessee soldiers under indictment for the murder of a miner named Drummond at Coal Creek last summer, were freed yesterday by the Circuit court at Clinton, their cases being not prosed. This ends the notorious Coal Creek war.

Wiped In a Bath Tub.

PIKEVILLE, Ky., Feb.—Bob Marler, who has been hanged here today, was granted a week's respite by Gov. Brown, owing to the illness of Sheriff Colon. Marler has professed religion. He was baptized in a bath tub at the prison Wednesday.

CONDENSED TELEGRAMS.

Dr. Henry Morris, who spent the night with Geo. W. Childs reports that his patient passed a good night and that his condition this morning is somewhat improved.

The Avondale street railway car sheds and machine shop, Cincinnati, were burned this morning; loss about $175,000; insurance about $150,000.

The total subscriptions to the 5 per cent. loan received by Secretary Carlisle up to 12 o'clock today amounted to $58,000,000.

HUSSEY MADE A MISTAKE

IN OTHER WORDS, "SPOKE THROUGH HIS TIRE"

State Auditor Furman Shows Why Hussey Could Not Have Attended a Consultation Concerning a Secret Circular.

The papers of the State are printing an interview with Collector F. M. Simmons of the Eastern district, in which that gentleman says he does not believe the story that Senator Vance had filed charges against him with the subcommittee at Washington. He says, however, that he made inquiry of Senator Ransom, who wrote him: "There is absolutely nothing here touching your honor. Some charges have been presented to try to excite Republican prejudice against you. They consist of an affidavit by John B. Hussey that he as a newspaper man was present when you, Auditor Furman and Judge Avery fixed up a secret circular."

The circular alluded to was one sent to the chairmen of the Democratic county executive committees throughout the State, calling attention to the decision of the Supreme court in the case of Harris vs. Scarborough, in which the court defined what constituted legal registration under the election law.

State Auditor Furman, who is here visiting his family when asked about Hussey's statement said to THE CITIZEN: "Mr. Hussey is simply mistaken in his statement, as the three gentlemen never had any consultation at any time concerning the preparation of that circular, or even as to the circular itself until after it had been issued and published. At the time the circular was prepared Mr. Hussey was under grave suspicion at headquarters and this of itself would have precluded any idea of his presence at any consultation concerning the campaign. He may have been in the audience room at headquarters when gentlemen discussed the circular, after it had been stolen from the mails by Republican postmasters or route agents, but there was no consultation at which Mr. Hussey could possibly have been present, for the reason above given. Mr. Hussey was detected in his teachers several weeks before the election and notified by Mr. Simmons immediately after the election his name was entered upon the roll of the printing department at Washington, charged to Thomas Settle, as I was informed in Washington last March. This fixes Mr. Hussey's status as a delinquent as the annals of this complaint."

GROUNDHOG DAY.

And the Little Porker Did Not See Its Shadow

Today was a day looked forward to by many an Ashevillean, weatherwise ones, especially, with great interest. It was groundhog day, and some people who remembered the great event got out of bed early to see what condition would confront the diminutive forecaster. The "sign" is an old one—the groundhog sees his shadow when he emerges from his retreat he proceeds to return to his hole and prepares for a lie-up of 40 days, a season of bad weather. On the other hand, if the day be cloudy and the shadow is not in evidence there will be good weather in store for everybody hereabouts.

There is a lamentable wrangle among the wiser heads as to the hour of the hog's appearance, some arguing that it is at sunrise, and others declaring that from 12 to 1 is the hour. An excited meeting of inhabitants was held in THE CITIZEN'S office today, at which this question was discussed. No conclusion was arrived at, because neither side would yield to argument, although the sunrise faction retreated in a used shape.

It really makes little difference in this case, for if the groundhog came out at either of the hours it saw no sunshine and the excited populace has settled down to work looking for the continuation of the fine weather.

Murdered in Their Home.

BIRMINGHAM, Feb. 2.—At Luverne, Ala., Mr. and Mrs. Bush, living about five miles from the station, were murdered in their home yesterday morning. Who the assassins were is not known. The cause is thought to have been robbery.

JUST IN NORTH CAROLINA.

—The First National bank of Richmond says the receiver of the defunct bank of New Hanover. When the latter failed it had funds which it had collected upon a draft for the Richmond bank. The latter bank claims precedence of deposit creditors and sues for judgment. There are claims of like character aggregating at least $100,000.

—Davidson Dispatch: Dr. Payne, Jr., says he believes that if there is one case of pneumonia in the county there is a hundred. It is of a very fatal type, too, and already many deaths have occurred.

—All the four cases of murder on the docket of Cumberland court go over to the next term. The term of court was only for a week, and the trial of Ed. J. Fuller for murder consumed it all.

Work on the water works at Newberne, though nearly completed, has been stopped because it is not now possible to place the bonds. It is expected that the trouble will be only temporary.

—It is said that citizens of Statesville have offered the shoe factory people of Glen Alpine good inducements to remove the factory to Statesville, and it will probably go soon.

—At Raleigh Wednesday Mr. J. W. T. Butt of Portsmouth, Va., and Miss Maud Marshall, daughter of the rector, Rev. Dr. M. M. Marshall, were married.

—Messrs W. E. Patterson & Sons, tobacconists, of Mt. Airy have assigned; liabilities, $25,000 to $30,000. S. A. R. Brothers are named as the assignees.

—Richard Mansfield says he intends to purchase 2,000 acres of land on the line of the Carolina Central railway and establish a deer park.

—At Lexington Wednesday Mr. Zeb Vance Walser, senator from Davidson county, was married to Miss Estelle Aderton of that place.

—The Coley brothers, who were convicted at Lenoir of murder, have appealed to the supreme court.
