IMPUDENT IS MR. MORSE

HIS PARROT TALK ABOUT CUCKOOS DOWNS HIM.

The House Discussed the Hawaiian Matter and the Too Smart Massachusetts Man Loves His Seat—Johnson of Iowa Talks

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 5.—In the House today the Hawaiian debate was resumed by Mr. Morse of Massachusetts, who had five minutes. Before he had proceeded for a minute, however, Mr. Outhwaite had called him to order for unparliamentary language.

"To what language do you refer," asked Morse.

"To the insulting, impudent and unparliamentary language just used," answered Outhwaite.

Morse, according to the rule, took his seat and the words excepted to were read at the clerk's desk as follows: "And yet, strange to tell, at the command of their master, the great Grover Cleveland, his cuckoos in the House and Senate, staunch Southern Democrats, the loudest shouters for a white man's government, disregard all their ancient traditions about white man's supremacy and a white man's government."

The Speaker ruled that the language was unparliamentary. Morse explained that he had, in reading his remarks, omitted several words from his manuscript and he said if the words objected to were omitted he would retract the words: "Controlled by their Master, the President."

Before Morse could proceed after his explanation and withdrawal his time expired. Johnson of Indiana took the floor and made a strong speech arraigning the course of the present administration in attempting to restore the deposed Queen.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 5.—In the Senate today Senator Hale presented a resolution reciting that representatives of various industries and of laboring men desire to be heard for the purpose of presenting their objections to the Wilson tariff bill, and directing the finance committee to give opportunity to all persons representing interests affected and the industries and labor of the people of the United States, to be heard by the committee before it shall report its action to the Senate.

At 1 p. m. the House bill to repeal the Federal election law was taken up and Chandler addressed the Senate in opposition to it.

A FIGHT TODAY

A Decisive Hour in the Brazilian Content.

(Copyrighted 1894 by Associated Press.) RIO DE JANEIRO, Feb. 4.—Unless present indications turn out into fact, the fate of President Peixoto and Admiral Da Gama and his followers will be decided tomorrow (Monday). During Saturday night and Sunday the insurgents steeled their ships into positions of advantage, preparatory to making a thorough and decisive attack upon the government positions at Niteroy. It is understood this is a final, desperate effort upon the part of the insurgents and that on its success everything depends so far as the revolution is concerned. It is expected that early Monday morning the insurgent commander will have succeeded in landing a force on the shore, which, covered by the fire of the rebels, will advance upon the government positions and a final battle is then expected to be fought.

The foreign war ships are closely watching operations and there has been no further interference of any sort up to time this dispatch is filed, Sunday afternoon.

The general opinion ashore seems to be that the insurgents will be defeated and that the collapse of the rebellion, in this part of the country at least, will immediately follow.

FIRE IN SAVANNAH.

Considerable Damage Done—One Man Injured.

SAVANNAH, Ga., Feb. 5.—The large brick block on Bay street, occupied by the Savannah Grocery company, found burning fiercely today, is a total loss.

The fire started in the guano warehouse of Wilcox, Gibbs & Co., and burned through to the rooms of the Savannah Grocery Co., a six story brick building, which was soon in flames. The store of the Savannah Grocery Co., worth $180,000 and insured for $130,000 was consumed. The fire extended to M. First, wholesale grocery, and that is now burning. The stock is worth $150,000; insurance $125,000. The building belongs to Wilcox, Gibbs & Co.; value $100,000, insurance $80,000. The value of the guano warehouse is $10,000, and it is still burning. Wm. Felton was run over by a hook and ladder truck and is dangerously hurt.

Noon.—The fire was the largest since the conflagration of April, 1889. The loss is nearly half a million all told. The weather was very cold and the fire was hard to get at. The buildings stand off half way up on a high bluff. The flames are now under control. The estimated loss of the Wilcox, Gibbs & Co.'s guano works is $25,000.

The New Loan Secured.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 5.—The secretary of the treasury has accepted all bids for the new loan which name a higher price than $117,225. The proposals submitted at the upset price have been scaled down 5.351 per cent. and the amount of the bonds allotted under this reduction, together with the subscriptions accepted in toll, is $50,000.

One Bit of Anarchy Dead.

PARIS, Feb. 5.—Auguste Vaillant, anarchist, who threw the bomb in the Chamber of Deputies, December 9, was guillotined at 7 o'clock this morning. His last words, as he was led to the guillotine, were: "Death to the bourgeoisie! Long live anarchy!" About 1,200 people were present. There was no disturbance.

No Change at Honolulu.

AUCKLAND, New Zealand, Feb. 5.—The American steamer Mariposa, Capt. Hayward, from San Francisco Jan. 18, via Honolulu, arrived here Saturday bringing Hawaiian advices to January 20. According to these advices there had been no change of moment in the situation at Honolulu for some time.

REPENTED OF HER FLIGHT.

Mrs. Browning Elopes, But Weakens and Returns Home.

GREENSBORO, N. C., Feb. 3.—Last night just before the arrival of the mail from Raleigh the police received a dispatch requesting that a magistrate be in readiness at the depot. "Squire J. M. Wolf" went to the station. When the train rolled in a deputy sheriff from Durham got off and at once got a warrant signed and told his story as follows: "A man named Dizan had won the affections of Mrs. Moses Browning whose husband and four children are living. In the absence of her husband he had persuaded her to go to town, where she was shadowed to a cheap boarding house and watched all night. Dizan captured while trying to send a note to the woman. He was turned over to the deputy and the policeman then sought the woman. She burst into tears and expressed her willingness to return home. The pair was taken home on the 7:30 train. Both appear to be about 30 years. The woman is quite handsome.—Atlanta Constitution.

THOMASVILLE ORPHANAGE.

The Institution in Better Condition Than Ever Before.

John D. Brevard, who last week attended a meeting of the executive committee of the board of trustees of the Baptist orphanage at Thomasville, tells THE CITIZEN there are now 135 orphans in the institution. There have been 10 cases of grip in the orphanage, but the sufferers are improving. The institution is out of debt and in all respects in better condition than it has ever been.

There are, Mr. Brevard says, fine prospects for the wheat crop on the orphanage farm, and there are yet on hand breadstuffs from last year's crop. A new three-story building has just been completed, to be used as laundry, bakery and store room. The committee wishes to raise funds for the establishment of telegraph lines on the grounds, in order that instruction in telegraphy may be given the orphans, and the secretary was authorized to issue requests for contributions to this end. J. H. Mills is general manager of the orphanage. Orphans sent to this institution are kept until they attain the age of 16.

BACK FROM WASHINGTON.

Mr. McKissick Runs Against a Gridiron Post.

Manager E. P. McKissick of the Battery Park is home again after spending a week in Washington, where he attended the annual banquet of the Gridiron club. Maj. McKissick says it was the greatest time of his life. "The people up there," he says, "seem to be in love with Asheville. All the members made me have a good time."

The Washington Post in its entertaining account of the banquet prints some of the biographies of distinguished guests, as taken from the menu souvenir. One reads: "McKissick, E. P., of Asheville, N. C. This is the chap in the early morning who filled the boys with the juice of the corn, and worried the girls and walked the cake, and showed us the house that Vander built."

The Post also prints among its pictures illustrating the event one of "the pride of the Battery Park." Mr. McKissick is also named among the evening's brilliant speakers.

A CAPITAL IDEA.

Prof. Montgomery Organizes a Local Historical Society.

Prof. Montgomery has organized in connection with his seventh grade history class at the Orange street school, a local historical society, which will also include members of the eighth and ninth grades. The object of the society is to glean all information possible about the history of Asheville, and members will work on different subjects, such as a history of the churches, of the banks, streets, beginning of the city and its growth, and everything that bears upon the history of Asheville. The members have entered upon the work with enthusiasm. Valuable facts can no doubt be gathered. The "oldest inhabitants" would do well to begin polishing up their memories about the fuselage of questions with which they will be stored.

G. W. Childs' Funeral.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 5.—The President has decided that on account of the pressure of public business, he cannot attend the funeral services of Mr. Childs in Philadelphia, tomorrow. It is hardly likely Mrs. Cleveland will attend, but the President will have a representative there, probably a member of the cabinet.

Failed For $50,000.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., Feb. 3.—B. H. Sprinkle, a large real estate owner and merchant, has made an assignment. His liabilities amount to about $50,000. His assets are hard to estimate.

Harry Hill's Sentence.

ATLANTA, Feb. 5.—Harry Hill has been sentenced to seven years in the penitentiary. The motion for a new trial was overruled. Then notice of appeal to the Supreme court was taken.

CONDENSED TELEGRAMS.

Receiver Fink, of the East Tennessee system says that if the earnings of the system do not pick up in the next few days, not only will the 10 per cent. reduction be again put in force, but the number of employees on all divisions will have to be reduced.

Whatever the Senate will do with the income tax it is certain that the Senate committee on finance, which will consider the Wilson tariff bill, will report it to the Senate in favor of the adoption of the income tax.

The Silver Convention, which was to be held at Des Moines, Ia., February 22 and 23, has been postponed to March 21 and 22.

THE SILVER SEIGNIORAGE

MR. BLAND THINKS HIS BILL WILL PASS

He Thinks Three-Fourths of The Democrats Are For His Measure—Certificates Would be Issued Representing The Silver.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 5.—After the vote on Tuesday afternoon upon the resolutions relating to Hawaii, Mr. Bland of Missouri will call up the silver seigniorage bill heretofore reported by him from the committee on coinage, weights and measures. By the provisions of the bill the secretary of the treasury is directed to issue 55,000,000 certificates, representing the seigniorage of the bullion now in the treasury, purchased under the Sherman law of 1890. Mr. Bland is sanguine that the bill will pass without serious opposition or delay.

"I see no reason," said he, "why the House should take more than one day to consider it. The subject has been thoroughly discussed and every one is as familiar with it as he can hope to be, at least in the course of this term of Congress."

"How many Republicans will vote for it?"

"More than thirty, I should say, judging from the number who have told me that they would support it. The Democrats who oppose the passage of the Wilson bill for the repeal of the Sherman law last fall, will, I assume, vote with me for it, and many Democrats who voted for the Wilson repeal bill, and have been disappointed at the lack of results therefrom, have expressed a willingness to help pass the bill. I believe that two-thirds if not three-fourths of the Democratic members are for it."

"How fast can the bullion be coined, Mr. Bland, and the seigniorage become an actual fact?"

"Oh, that depends upon the willingness of the officials. They could turn out seven or eight millions a month, if the mints were run double time, but I don't expect they will do that."

'T WAS A MISTAKE.

And it Was Caused by the Wrong Blank Being Sent Out.

The Tuckasee Democrat announces that Jesse A. Wild has been appointed deputy collector, and commenting on the appointment pays Mr. Wild a high compliment and assures Collector Carter of the appreciation by the Jackson county people of the wisdom and propriety of his selection.

Collector Carter says that in giving out blanks for the new bonds to be made by the bonded employees connected with the revenue office a deputy collector's blank was given Mr. Wild instead of one for office messenger, which place Mr. Wild has been holding for some time. When the bond was being made it was noticed that it was for a deputy collector, and in this way the Democrat's item originated. Collector Carter says he regrets that at the present he cannot give Mr. Wild a position which would prove so gratifying to himself and friends as would the one spoken of.

The Peckham Nomination.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 5.—The Senate committee on judiciary took no action on the case of Wheeler H. Peckham, nominated to be Associate Justice of the Supreme court, but permitted it to go over until the special meeting tomorrow morning.

An Excuse.

PITTSBURGH, Feb. 2.—The manager of Ibsen & Co., the glass manufacturers, announced today that their factory would close down tomorrow as a result of the action of the lower branch of Congress in passing the Wilson bill.

Contract Laborers Must Go Back.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 5.—Warrants prepared in the treasury for deportation of the Cuban cigar makers from Key West, Fla., were forwarded by mail today. Trouble is feared when the warrants are served.
