GOD LIVER OIL,

With Port Wine.

Under the above title we offer a new combination of Cod Liver Oil in which the nauseous taste of the oil is completely masked by the use of Port Wine and Aromatics. At the same time the tonic and digestive properties of the wine render assimilation easy. From those who cannot take Cod Liver Oil on account of its disagreeable taste and difficult assimilation we confidently solicit a trial. Recommended in Pulmonary Diseases, Coughs, Colds and General Debility. Freshly prepared at

FORCE IN THESE REASONS

WHY THERE WILL BE NO TARIFF HEARINGS.

Such Hearings Are Always One-Sided—Circulars Sent Out to Get All Kinds of Views—The People Have Already Spoken.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 7.—The Democratic members of the Senate Finance committee this morning gave out a prepared statement assigning the reasons why the Democratic members have decided not to have hearings upon the tariff bill. It may be summarized thus:

"Prompt and speedy action on pending tariff legislation is required.

"If a hearing is granted to one person it must be granted to all. One Senator alone asks 500 to be heard from his state.

"If the cause of privilege, protection and financial greed are to invade our committee rooms to be heard during the coming spring and summer, then by every principle of justice and right, the cause of the victim, the toiling consumer, must also be simply and fully heard. The truth is that legislation has never been accomplished by such methods and never will be under our form of government.

"The people are heard through their representatives in Congress, and a moment's reflection will show how ample and sufficient such hearings have always been and will always continue to be.

"We will report our bill to the Senate without delay and then full hearings will take place. Already more than a million circulars embracing interrogatories touching every branch of business known to the census of 1890, have been addressed to all our industries and abundant streams of information are pouring in for use in discussion in the Senate."

HAWAIIAN RESOLUTIONS.

They Are Passed By The House, Approving Cleveland's Position.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 7.—When the House met today it became the question whether the majority had been successful in an effort to secure a quorum. Some little time was consumed by a parliamentary wrangle and after this was settled, the House took up the Hawaiian resolution and the ayes and nays were called. The vote stood: Yeas, 174; nays, 3. No quorum.

Every effort was made to get the Democratic quorum to pass the Hawaiian resolutions. Isaac Hill, the Democratic "whip" sent telegrams to 33 absent members. House last night, and this morning a dozen of these members were in their seats. As an indication of the closeness of the vote this morning unanimous consent was denied to Adams, Ky., who had voted inadvertently, to withdraw his vote. The first roll call showed that five votes only were needed to make a quorum of Democrats. Half a dozen Democrats on the floor refrained from voting. These were Garay, Cal.; Sickles, N. Y.; Straight, S. C.; Swanson, Va.; Latimer, S. C., sufficient to make the 179 necessary to a quorum.

When the vote was announced Mr. Springer raised the point of order that, as there were four vacant seats in the House, 177 instead of 179 should constitute a quorum. After some debate the point of order was withdrawn and the resolutions were passed, enough Democrats having come in to make a quorum.

The attention of the Senate was occupied for 15 minutes by Senator Cameron of Pennsylvania, this morning in the presentation of 50 or more petitions against the Wilson bill and the reading of each petition by its title. They came from manufacturers, operators and employees representing nearly every Pennsylvania industry affected by the proposed tariff reduction. At 12:30 the House bill to repeal the federal election laws was taken up and later addressed in the Senate in opposition to it.

CUTTING AND SHOOTING.

Missionary Needed in This Part of Kentucky.

BARBOURVILLE, Ky., Feb. 8.—A duel to the death was enacted at the Harlan Court House, Harlan county, Monday night. John Turner, a brother of the circuit clerk, and Will Turner and his Uncle John, and the brother of Judge George B. Turner, were killed outright. The fight occurred in a barber shop on Court house square. Dr. Wm. Boykin and John Turner have been deadly enemies for years and their friends have a war endeavor to keep them apart. They came together however, and commenced shooting at each other. Nolin was not hurt, but Turner was shot through the heart and fell dead. By this time Nolin had exchanged loads in his revolver, but the fight was not over. Will Turner arrived and attacked Nolin. Turner did not have a revolver and the two men drew knives and slashed at each other viciously. Turner was fatally cut; Nolin's injuries are not considered serious.

Preacher Palmer's for $20,000.

PITTSBURG, Feb. 4.—The Rev. S. S. Palmer, a Presbyterian minister, has entered suit against Alderman J. B. Hyndman for $20,000. Mr. Palmer says that in January, 1893, he was placed under arrest by order of the Alderman without warrant and without having been guilty of any offense. He was sent to the work house for thirty days, but in six days he was released on habeas corpus proceedings.

Da Gama Asks Belligerent Rights.

LONDON, Feb. 5.—A despatch from Rio Janeiro late this evening says: "Admiral Da Gama has given 48 hours' notice that he will blockade Rio and has disposed his fleet accordingly. This step is intended to assert belligerent rights for the insurgents. The act of the foreign commanders is a waited with anxiety."

Reduced To Five Years.

ATLANTA, Ga., Feb. 7.—Harry Hill's sentence of forgery has been reduced from seven to five years, and all the other indictments withdrawn. As soon as this was done Hill withdrew his motion for a new trial.

An Empty Treasury.

NORFOLK, Feb. 7.—The safe of the treasury of the city of Portsmouth was burglarized last night, but the thieves secured not more than $50. Two suspects have been arrested.

THE MARKET QUESTION.

Abolition of a Backward Why Hill & Co. Favor It.

The proposition to abolish the market house is generally discussed by Asheville people. As coming from a merchant who would be benefited pecuniarily if the market should be abandoned, the views of Geo. S. Powell, of the firm of Powell & Snider, will be of interest. Mr. Powell said to THE CITIZEN today:

"As a citizen I am opposed to the proposition. I have always been under the impression that Asheville was a city that always moved forward. But the abolishing of the market would be a step backward. The market house was built for the accommodation of the whole people, as I understand it. But if the Board should pass the proposed ordinance favoring the new move, he says: "I would like to go out of the market because in my present place the business is cramped; and again, a man always desires to run his own business. The market house does not consider health on account of the sewer pipes being so near the surface, and it is exceedingly difficult to preserve meats there in the warm season. I have never been before the Board asking for changes in their rules or rents, but I would be glad to remove from the market. I even allowed the cutting off of eight feet of the wall to make a passageway. In a building of my own choice I could have all the room I wanted for display and to carry out such branches of my business. As it is now it is scattered in three places. The new entrance has not hurt my trade one bit, because a purchaser always goes where he can procure the best goods. Why cannot the Board allow those who so desire to go out and allow those to whom such branches of my business. As it is now it is scattered in three places.
