Under the above title we offer a new combination of Cod Liver Oil in which the nauseous taste of the oil is completely masked by the use of Port Wine and Aromatics. At the same time the tonic and digestive properties of the wine render assimilation easy.
From those who cannot take Cod Liver Oil on account of its disagreeable taste and difficult assimilation we confidently solicit a trial. Recommended in Pulmonary Diseases,

SENATOR VANCE SPEAKS

HE WILL OPPOSE CONFIR-MATION OF SIMMONS.

THIS ON PERSONAL AS WELL AS ON PUBLIC GROUNDS.

The Senator Talks Plainly and to the Point—A Great Deal Said in a Few Words—There is No Misleading the Meaning of This

THE CITIZEN prints herewith a letter from Senator Vance, which needs a few words of explanation. (Owing to the contradictory statements in the State press concerning the Senator's attitude towards Mr. Simmons, the Collector for the Eastern district, THE CITIZEN addressed Senator Vance a letter on February 1st, asking him whether he had preferred charges against Mr. Simmons, and also as to his present attitude towards his confirmation. The reply, just received, is as follows:

The Letter.

TAMPA BAY HOTEL,
Tampa, Fla., Feb. 5, 1894.

EDITOR THE CITIZEN:—In answer to your letter of the 1st I have this to say: You know that in all transactions connected with the executive sessions of the Senate, including what is said and done in committee, my mouth is closed. I am at liberty, therefore, only to speak to you about my own attitude toward Mr.
Simmons, what has not been done, etc., but not as to what has been done or probably will be done.

I want to say, first, that for myself and on my own authority I have filed no charges against Simmons. Aside from those which may have been filed by others, my attitude toward him is one of opposition; for the reason that, as chairman of the Democratic committee of North Carolina, he came to Washington and interfered in opposition to my recommendation for appointment under the government. Knowing that Mr.
Ransom and I had agreed that primarily I should recommend all appointments in the West, whilst Gen. Ransom did the same in the East; and knowing that I had recommended Mr. Gudgeon for collector in my own district, and that Gen. Ransom opposed Mr. Gudgeon on personal grounds and favored Mr. Elias, he perverted and misused the power intrusted to him by the Democracy of North Carolina by urging and securing the appointment of Mr. Elias over Gudgeon.
He also opposed my recommendation of Mr. Hale for a foreign appointment, which was virtually secured and was higher in grade than any given the State.

Now, if he thought proper to volunteer his interference where he had no right or authority to do so, he should not object to the exercise of an undoubted right, by a Senator in the selection of appointments, bestowed upon him by the Constitution.

To save trouble to the anonymous scribblers who are constantly slandering me in this regard and who report him as speaking of himself as "Simmons and the Democratic party," I announce, once for all, that I resent not only Simmons' interference with my rights as a Senator, but the insulting and defiant tone assumed both by him and them. I shall oppose Mr. Simmons' confirmation on personal as well as public grounds; grounds connected with his unfitness to hold the position for which he has been appointed.

My health is improving rapidly in this fine climate, and I hope soon to be in my seat in the Senate. Very truly yours, Z. B. Vance

Action On Simmons Postponed.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 6.—Senator Jones made a strong report from the sub-committee of the finance committee in favor of confirming Simmons, whereupon Senator Voorhees, chairman of the committee, read a telegram from Senator Vance requesting delay. In deference to Vance the matter was postponed; otherwise the nomination would have been confirmed, as stated last week.—Charlotte Observer.

OLD KEARSARGE WRECKED

She Comes To Grief On The Wicked Rocker Reef.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 8.—The old corvette Kearsarge was wrecked on Rondador reef February 2d, while en route from Port An Prince, Hayti, to Bluefields, Nicaragua. The officers and crew were saved. This news reached the navy department this morning in a cable message dated Colon and signed by Lieut.
Brainard of the Kearsarge, who reached Colon this morning.
The Kearsarge sailed from Port Au Prince, Hayti, January 30th for Bluefields, Nicaragua. Immediately on receipt of the cablegram the Secretary sent a message to Lieut. Brainard directing him to "hasten a vessel at Colon and proceed at once to the assistance of the shipwrecked men. Some time ago when Warner Miller and the officers of Nicaragua canal company were on their way to Nicaragua they were wrecked on the same reef. Admiral Stanton is supposed to have been on the Kearsarge.

A Religious Riot.

BOMBAY, Feb. 8.—Serious religious riots between the Mohammedans and the Hindoo have occurred at Yeola, 95 miles from Bombay. The Hindoo temples and Mohammedan mosques were destroyed. Many of the combatants were injured. Troops were summoned and quelled the disturbance.

AGAIN THE MARKET.

The Poor May Eat Chickens But Not Vegetables.

EDITOR THE CITIZEN:—I see you have raised a great war on Mr. Gudgeon's and my calculations and position on the market question. You set out by saying "the market house has not had a fair trial," inasmuch as it has not been complete but a short time. The new entrance was made in August, I think, and has been so during the winter. Now, the experience of this city is that there are twice as many beef markets in winter as summer. There are only eight markets now running. So you see eight have been cut off on account of the Market house. At one time there were 26 beef markets in town.

So far as all of the marketable vegetables being displayed under one roof, that does not equal the display formerly made in every grocery store on the streets, and so far as the competition, you can go to every stall in the market and you will find the same price on the same article. Looks like organization.
And so far as convenient—that is more convenient than having everything in the stores on the streets? There is hardly a person in town who does not pass from five to 12 stores on his way to the market house. And being separated they are more apt to cut on prices. So far as Asheville going backward is concerned, it is better to go back when you see you are wrong than go on. Atlanta and many other cities have done the same thing—abandoned their market house.

So far as some of the present occupants having to be forced into the market house is concerned, you would have to force them, no matter what you wished, if it were for them to enter partially. And so far as the expense incurred, that is very small, comparatively nothing, and I am satisfied that the next administration, if it has noticed the working of the market, will have no idea of going back. As to the healthfulness of the city, I have never heard of a case of fever coming from a market or grocery store in this city. Our health officers can easily have butchers to keep their premises clean.

Now as to "the attempt to justify our assault on the market," as you prefer to term it, not being conclusive, I wish to say that a monopoly can be unsatisfactory to the monopolist, for if a monopoly fails to pay the largest profits the monopolist cannot be satisfied. The butchers have a full right to buy, but on account of the size and shape of the water rents, I only reassert that the city is furnishing the market water free of charge, and will refer you to the water rates for the amount the city will be able to collect, which Mr. Murray will gladly furnish you on application. The remainder of your remarks are so unreasonable I will not attempt to answer them.

[We let Mr. Starnes have the last word. His proposition to rent the market house is too dead to make further comment by THE CITIZEN either seemly or necessary.—ED. CITIZEN.]

FEDERAL ELECTION BILL.

It Has Been Repealed By a Vote of 54 To 28.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 8.—In the Senate yesterday Mr. Perkins, Republican, of California offered the amendment of which he had given notice yesterday, allowing the election laws to remain, but confining the Federal supervision to cities of 200,000 inhabitants or over, instead of as now 20,000. The amendment was rejected. Yeas, 27; nays, 39.
Three additional amendments were offered by Chandler and were rejected—two of them without a division and the third by yeas 27, nays 39.
The bill was then passed: Yeas, 39, nays, 28; a party vote excepting that Messrs. Stewart of Nevada and Allen, Kyle and Peffer, Populists, voted with the Democrats in the affirmative.

MILITIA GUARD NEGROES.

They Were Threatened With Lynchings.

ALEXANDRIA, Va., Feb. 8.—Two negroes named Robinson and White, arrested for assaulting two women near Manassas and placed in the jail here for safe keeping, were sent to Manassas this morning for trial. By order of the Governor, the Alexandria Light Infantry were ordered to escort the negroes to Manassas, as lynchings were threatened.
The company is composed of prominent young men of the city, and although the call was very distasteful to them it was obeyed.

G. W. CHILDS' WILL.

He Left All to His Wife Without Any Reserve Whatever.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 8.—The will of George W. Childs was admitted to probate this morning. The document is very short. It was executed August 10 last, one month after the death of Anthony J. Drexel. Childs bequeathed his entire estate to his widow, absolutely.
The executors are George W. Childs Drexel and James W. Paul, Jr., and they place the valuation of the estate at "over $100,000 real and over $100,000 personal."

Small Pox Reported in 16 States.

COLUMBUS, Feb. 6.—C. O. Probst, secretary of the State Board of Health, has suggested that the railroad companies vaccinate their employees. Small-pox is now reported in 16 states. The circular cites instances of employees and passengers taking or carrying the disease, thus exposing car loads of people. Chicago, Mr. Probst says, has many cases.

TO ADVERTISE ASHEVILLE

THE SCHEME TAKES SHAPE
RAPIDLY.

A Subscription Started to Prepare Advertising Matter and Send a Man to Florida—Keep the Ball Rolling!

Advertise Asheville!
That is what every citizen wants to do. Money spent in advertising is always well spent. Asheville has the attraction for the visitor. Rest, health or pleasure seeker—this is the place for him.
A correct presentation of the case to him generally results in his coming here.
And once in Asheville means frequent subsequent visits.
A correspondent of THE CITIZEN yesterday suggested the sending of a representative of Asheville to Florida, to turn the tide of returning Northern travel Ashevillewards. Acting upon this suggestion, Messrs. J. B. Boatie and A.
Rankin today started a subscription to carry out the idea. These gentlemen propose to be two of 50 persons to give $10 each, the fund thus raised to be expended in preparing advertising matter and placing a man in Florida to see that the attention of the tourists is attracted to this city.

No time is to be lost if the plan is to be carried to a consummation, and there is little doubt that the desired amount will be procured.

ITS WASHINGTON NEWS.

Democratic Clubs—Wilson Leaves
—Reed Downed.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 8.—The executive committee of the national association of Democratic clubs, organized July 4, 1888, for the purpose of promoting party success, met in this city at noon today. There were present Chauncy F.
Black, Pennsylvania, president; Lawrence Gardner, Washington, D. C., secretary.

Chairman William L. Wilson of the executive committee left at 11 o'clock today on a trip to the City of Mexico for rest and recreation after his arduous labors in connection with the preparation and passage of the tariff bill.

The resolution presented just before adjournment last evening that the sergeant-at-arms be directed to bring in the absent members did not appear to have borne fruit immediately, for at the hour of meeting there did not seem to be a quorum of Democrats on the floor of the House.

After an unsuccessful effort by Reed to have the Speaker correct the journal to show the absence of a quorum yesterday and prevent the arrested members from voting this morning, he demanded a vote on the last proposition. Bland moved to lay on the table. On division the vote resulted: Yeas, 121; nays, 68. Reed asked for the yeas and nays, and they were ordered.

The vote resulted, yeas 162, nays 80, and Reed's resolution was tabled.

The result of the vote on Bland's motion to go into committee of the whole was yeas 167, nays 6. No quorum appearing Bland moved a call of House, which was agreed to.

WILL CHANGE WILSON BILL.

The Senate Sub-Committee And
The Free List.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 8.—One point already appears very clearly as the result of the Senate finance sub-committee's labors up to this point and that is that the tariff bill, which they will present to their Democratic associates on the finance committee for approval, will bear a very slight resemblance to the original Wilson bill. The reason for the extensive changes in contemplation and already made is to be found in the decision of the three sub-committees to be governed by the plan of the old Walker tariff act and so place the duties as to secure the largest amount of revenue, which involves reductions in some cases, increases perhaps in others and a very restricted free list, if indeed any articles entering largely into consumption are permitted to enter duty free.
The Republican members of the committee are devoting themselves to a method by which the attitude of the Democratic majority against further bearings upon the bill by interested parties may be reversed. They are planning to have the bill re-committed to the committee when it reaches the Senate, with instructions to the committee to grant such hearings. This they hope to accomplish through the aid of Democratic votes.
