WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 14, 1894.

Harper's Weekly is kicking very hard to have its admission fee to the Democratic circus refunded.—Washington Post.

HARPER'S having got in by lifting the canvas, along with the other peanut manufacturers, should not have a cent refunded.

The latest news from Washington is that the Senate committee having in its charge the Wilson bill has climbed down from its high horse, and will not make over the House tariff measure as much as was at first announced. This is well; and the announcement comes better now than later. The country is not calling on the Senate to get into a hopeless contest with the House.

In Auditor Furnum's generally admirable annual report is this:

"To encourage the people to own their homes is one of the first duties of the State."

The "State" at present is, of course, the honorable gentlemen who form the State government at Raleigh. They have no such duty as Auditor Furnum alleges; nor should they have. Their duties are, or should be, confined strictly to making the government of the State as little onerous as possible; to making it interfere with the rights of citizens as little as possible. The encouragement of the people to own homes is a doctrine to be inculcated at the fireside; in the public press, and, on invitation, from the rostrum; and by individuals as they meet in their daily vocations. State officers may, indeed, point out the tendency of citizens in the direction of owning their own homes, but it is doubtful if they may go farther with propriety.

THE Vance and Simmons letters have made plain this fact: that the two men do not understand each other's position, and that if they, or their friends, do not get together the Democratic party must suffer. Senator Vance says Mr. Simmons volunteered "his interference." Mr. Simmons says he did not. The Senator says Mr. Simmons has assumed an "insulting and defiant tone" towards him. Mr. Simmons declares that such is not the fact. It is easily apparent, therefore, that there are explanations that could be made, at short range, that would probably remove or tend to allay much of Senator Vance's natural indignation, and cause him to look on Mr. Simmons' nomination with much less disfavor than he now does. The friends of both gentlemen will do only their plain duty in seeing that opportunity is given to bring about a thorough understanding, on both sides, of the exact situation, not the situation as it appears to Senator Vance and Mr. Simmons, but the real situation.

JUST IN NORTH CAROLINA.

—The next meeting of the Alliance will be in Raleigh, by which time the Polk nomination, for which money is solicited, will be completed.

—Color James Garrett of Corsicana, Tex., has donated $400 to the Salem Female Academy in memory of his wife, who was once a pupil of the school.

—Hall Brothers of Hickory, one of the largest firms in the Piedmont section, have assigned, with $50,000 liabilities. There are $25,000 of preferred debts.

—Simon L. Kiehn of Winston has filed papers of assignment, naming J. S. Grogan trustee. His liabilities are stated at $9,740; assets consists of real estate.

—The Catawba Lumber company of Hickory has sold out to the Catawba River Lumber company and it is said that it is to be put up a lumber yard in town.

—The Imperial Pine Product company has invested $275,000 in a very complete plant at Wilmington. For some time there has been much mystery regarding these works.

—The salary of Marion Butler, the new president of the National Farmers' Alliance, is $3,000 annually. Under the provisions of a new rule he is not required to live at Washington, but can reside in this State.

—The Richmond & Danville may purchase the Atlantic & Danville line, running from Danville to Portsmouth, which is soon to be sold. The theory of this alleged deal is to make Norfolk the Danville's terminus.

—Colonel J. W. Alspaugh, formerly president of the First National bank at Winston and recently president of the Guilford Cotton mill, has executed deeds of trust for the benefit of his creditors. The assets consist principally of real estate, improved and unimproved.

—There has just been recorded in the Register of Deeds of Pitt county a mortgage for $650,000 from the Alabama and Raleigh Railroad company to the C. D. Post and Trust company of Baltimore. Accompanying this was a release of the mortgage to the Wilpington and Weldon Railroad company, and an agreement of consolidation between these two railroad companies, in which the latter becomes responsible for the payment of the mortgage.

—Rutherfordton correspondence Charlotte Observer: Perhaps the most important case on the docket was one transferred from Fiedelwell county, involving the title to about 70,000 acres of land lying in McDowell, Buncombe and adjoining counties. The title had to be traced from a deed given to that financier of early Revolutionary days, Robert Morris of Pennsylvania, by the dates of this State. The case was a test one on a tract of about 100 acres and was decided in favor of the defendants.

—Weldon News: A farmer in this county gave a mortgage to a merchant which was duly recorded, but the register of deed failed to index the same. Subsequently the farmer gave a second mortgage. The mortgagee examined the index of the register and finding nothing against the man accepted a second mortgage, thinking it was the only one against the man. It has now been found that there is a prior mortgage on the books and law question now to be decided in which mortgage shall have priority over the other?

THE KANE CREEK CAT FIGHT.

KANE CREEK, N. C., 1894.
 the 11 Fibberway.

SITZLER EDDITUR, sir—The master kat fite ever taken place on Kane Creek. Abner, which he air my ole valler, he bin a livin loger me fer ni on 2 1/2 year, we never did no whar he come from, nobody else nose, thoutn Abner do, & sometimes I has my deuts whether Abner his set kin rickmermen hit, he bin with Dave Hanks so long.

Miss Hanks lows he drapt outa the aki, but I reether jedge hits moren likely he come up from tother place, onless he easkaped from some kivered wagin passin by. The fust time I ever seen Abner I come outa the room do 1 mile march mornin & started 2 the stabill 2 feed the stock & I look sidwaze & seen Abner a settin on the kitchen steps, he repeat 2, he intrusted in a snubbish, he never taken no noties er me, sez I, skat, as loud as I could holler, & he j as turn his bed a little & look at me a minnit sorter noin like, & then he turn todes the chicken koop again, & then look at me again, I understood him to say Mr Hanks the old speckle hen air at her ole tricks agin, she air a peckin of her own chickens, you better go see about it.

I picked up a rock, and I hollers out skat, as loud as I could ball, and at the hner that he lit off n the pouch & looked all round every way cepin at me, & that time I understood him 2 say, ef th ys any stray kat around hear, jess sho him 2 me, He terch him hoo this here place belongs ter. I were so dis comitted I jess stood thar like a pluke, & tereckly Abner, he jess presumped his own stand & hopt up on the steps agin, & bout that time Miss Hanks she kum outa the kitchen do & likerer stept on Abner, she jumpt 2 foot hi, & she vells out skat, as loud as sne kood holler, which Abner he never lookt round, he jess move a little ter outside & haf snuff n eye same as ter, say, well Miss Hanks you repeat 2 inquire a rite smart er room 2 pas in this mornin, I reckon you kin git by now, spose you try it.

Miss Hanks sez she ter me, hoo do this here stray kat blong ter? Sez I ter her sez I, I kant tell you that, but ef you was 2 me hoo blongts 2 this here stray kat, I would low ter you that Dave Hanks, & you, & Pete, & al the other anymewels on the place does, less let him alone, I have tride him air-fishint, he repeats 2 be in perashun er the primsiss, jess let him alone, sez I.

After that Abner he bossed things at Dave Hankses, they didnt seem 2 be nuthin about the place he didnt no all about, & he taken a powerful site of intrust in ever thung.

That kat has sot by the fire many a long nite & hasin 2 me read the paper, which I had made him 2 ston skatchin a fice many a time 2 lissin 2 me read the sittin. He haint no use for Shade Lemon, he spits at him ever time he comes here, howsomever he air in powerful fonder Miss Lemon, he lays in her lap a our at a time.

They haint many kats as sharp as Abner air.

I likerer fergot 2 tell you about the fite. Tother nite I were a settin by the winder smokin of a pipe er tobacker & a wonderin ef it ever aimed 2 turn cold agin in Bankum Co., (which I never does expect 2 see no morn), & Abner he wer a settin out in the yard on a stump in the muneshine, & I seen Shade Lemons black kat come under the bars, & tereckly Abner he seen him 2. He repeat 2 no be were a Lemon as soon as he lade eyes on him, which he lit in his stump and made fer him like mad. He stoop joss afore he got to him, I seen jess 2 give him a chance fer his lile, I notiss kats most in ginnally does that away, & then they had the master argy, ment I ever hearn, ef they didnt tetch on all the puts of the case, hit were sho a stump and made fer him like mad. He hant it that the black kat hadnt no b niss thar, & the black kat he lowed he had as mutch rite thar as any valler stray kat had, & the jury failed 2 agree, and the jury joss hung, it did, & of all the fur flin & the rasslin & the tusslin, and the summer sets I couldnt tell her tale, I jess lade back & laded ter myself.

In a minnit er 2 they hung theses apart same as ef litten had struck b wext um, they stood thar a chawin their own mouths & a trin in their swaller, they was so mad they couldnt speak. Boath on um repeat 2 this, it were powerful kware he didnt kill the thar one the 1st lick, so ended the fust round.

2TH ROUND.

Abner kotch the black kat a lookin off & he lit on ter his back, leastways he tride ter dew that thung, but long afore Abner had kivered them 21 inches the black kat were up in the air 2 meet him 1/2 wa. They kinch-d agin, nuthin sed, the fur flin like fetters out a great 2. Tereckly they was a standin apperate agin, boath sides a pantin fer breth. Nuthin sed.

3RD ROUND.

Black kat struck the fust lick. He didnt hit whar he aimed at. Perticklers bout the same as last round.

4TH ROUND.

Black kat give Abner a almyt klip in the burr of the year & knocked him down. Abner he were on his back & got in a powerful bewifil under kuts, he lik-ed Lemon 3 foot off and the 4th round were over.

5 ROUND.

Afore this here round commenced, Ab Hanks op ned the argyment agin. He jess come out that footed & he sez ter Lemon, sez he, ef you wants ter git off this place alive you better leave rite now. I gives you fare warmin, you air gwine offer to you knot, be plane. Which the Lemou kat, he lowed sez he, ef I koodnt whoop 3 old stray kats like you I woodnt sta on Kane Creek a nuther nite. Im gwine off when I git redy.

I heard a few no scatterin remarks & then the he passed & the plat were in the fire. They was sho lively biness did in this here round. After the last few summer sets they turned over on their sides & huggid & skatchid & huggid & skatchid & ript & tore one nuther like all fury. They want no Jim Cawbit dewts in this here round, they made no intenshan ter the belt, ther licks was all fowls & they burd bad.

6 ROUND.

They stood a pantin & a puffin fer ni outer 2 minnit, & tereckly Hanks he sez, Look fer a place ter jerry vosef, & Lemon he sez I never was no hand ter n a bridge til I comes 2 hit, Lile in.

7 ROUND.

I tell you Mr Edditur, hits midlin sil-dum a white man gits 2 see kats fite in full, they most in ginnally h-s ther famrid rows off ter thersef like marrid licks does, & Nobody never does no the fule demerit er the kase. But they fites like marrid fokes 2, when they begins ter fite in publick they has ter lite it out the same wa, bits harder ter let lewce er some things as air 2 take holt I begin ter trust they was ever gwine ter let up, they jess lade thar a huggin & a clawin feeble like, I seen boath sides would likerer kwit ef they node how, but tereckly the Lemon kat he repeat ter spruce up konderable, he seen ole man Hanks were a givin out last, he begins ter trust they was ever gwine ter let up, they jess lade thar a huggin & a clawin feeble like, I seen boath sides would likerer kwit ef they node how, but tereckly the Lemon kat he repeat ter spruce up konderable, he seen ole man Hanks were a givin out last, he begins ter trust they was ever gwine ter let up, they jess lade thar a huggin & a
