

Asheville Daily Citizen.

State Library 114

VOLUME IX.—NO. 263.

ASHEVILLE, N. C., WEDNESDAY EVENING, MARCH 7, 1894.

PRICE 5 CENTS.

Lenten Goods.

THE BEST MACKEREL, Fat, White, Juicy.

THE BEST COD FISH, Genuine Georges.

THE BEST SMOKED HALIBUT, Bright, Thick Pieces.

THE BEST BRANDS OF Canned Fish.

Findon Haddocks, Kipped Herring,

Deviled Crabs, Clam Juice,

Lobsters, Shrimps,

Chums, Etc.

KROGER.

A LIST OF MY BRANDS OF

CIGARS AND TOBACCO

63 Brands of Plug Chewing Tobaccos.
72 Brands Smoking Tobacco in Bags and tin boxes—all size packages.
40 Different Brands Imported Key West Cigars, always on hand.

It is useless for me to mention the various brands of Domestic Cigars, as it will take too much space.

Pipes—A Larger Stock than ever before.

will now devote all my time to the above goods, and will try to satisfy all my customers.

L. BLOMBERG

MODEL CIGAR STORE,
17 PATTON AVENUE.

CORTLAND BROS.,

REAL ESTATE BROKERS,
INVESTMENT AGENTS,
NOTARY PUBLIC.

Loans securely placed at 8 per cent.
Office 25 & 26 Patton Ave., up stairs.

SOME LOW PRICES

California Peaches 18c. Per Can.

California Apricots 13c. Per can.

Pure Maple Syrup $1.25 Per Gal.

Cucumber Pickles 40c. Per Gal.

Sweet Mix Pickles 75c. Per Gal.

Sour Mix Pickles 60c. Per Gal.

California Evaporated Peaches,

Apricots and Pears 17c. Per Lb.

G. A. Greer.

GRASS SEEDS!

Fresh Lot Kentucky
Clover,
Timothy,
Orchard,
Blue Grass,
Red Top and

SEED OATS.

New York
Early Rose and Hebron Potatoes,
Also

GARDEN SEED.

A. D. COOPER,
North Court Square.

BON MARCHE

THE EXACT NEW YORK COST

SALE IS TO BE CONTINUED FOR

A SHORT WHILE YET, SOME

VERY DESIRABLE GOODS YET

IN STOCK. ALL AT EXACT NEW YORK COST.

BON MARCHE

37 SOUTH MAIN STREET.

PRESCRIPTIONS!

—A SPECIALTY AT—

Grant's Pharmacy

Where they are put up promptly, rapidly and accurately, from chemically pure drugs, fresh from the laboratories of Baulbin, Merck, Schielein and other standard manufacturers and at most reasonable prices

THE OAKS HOTEL

Under New Management.
New Furniture.
Nice, clean comfortable rooms.
Table excellent, Northern Style.
Porcer Meets all Trains.
Close in town.
On an Electric Car Line.
Beautiful Location.
Hot and Cold Baths.
Every Possible Convenience.

C. M. PHILIPP

Rose Myrrhine

A LIQUID SUBSTITUTE FOR

TOOTH POWDER.

Cleans and whitens the teeth, imparts firmness to the gums, corrects foetid breath and leaves a refreshing coolness in the mouth.

Pleasantly flavored and free from anything injurious. Price 25c. A trial bottle free.

Carmichael's Emulsion

Cod Liver Oil with Port Wine

Valuable as a tonic, valuable as a fattening food. Makes the weak strong, the thin fat. Children, especially, thrive on it. No disagreeable taste.

CARMICHAEL'S PHARMACY,

20 SOUTH MAIN STREET.

House-keepers,

This Is For You.

We have received a crate (100 dozen) of Alcock's English semi-porcelain teas, four shapes, which we have placed on sale at 50 cents set, regular price of these goods is $1.50 dozen. We also have a quantity of the same teas slightly chipped, 30 cents set. Just the thing for kitchen use.

We have also received fully 500 dozen tumblers, plain, cut and engraved. Some real bargains among them. We do not care to make the prices public, come and see for yourself.

White China For Decorators.

Prices on the entire line will be very interesting. Many things at half real value, and all in the latest designs. We are daily getting in new and pretty things in fancy china, glass, etc. Our stock is still the largest in the State, prices the lowest.

THAD. W. THRASH & CO. CRYSTAL PALACE.

PERFECTLY BLENDED!

If you like a cup of good coffee you can get it out of our blend of Mocha and Java. We believe this to be the most perfect blend of coffee now sold. We have a dream in

TEA

And if you are given to this beverage

we can give you something that is delicious.

POWELL & SNIDER

LOTS OF STYLISH SPRING GOODS NOW

ARRIVING. IN A FEW DAYS WE SHALL

SHOW COMPLETE LINE OF BUTTRICK'S

PATTERNS. H. REDWOOD & CO.

Vaccine Points

HAVE YOU BEEN VACCINATED?

WE HAVE JUST BEEN NOTIFIED FROM WASHINGTON THAT

SMALL POX EXISTS IN TWENTY-THREE STATES AND ADJACENT

VISITS VACCINATION. WE RECOMMEND THE NATIONAL FARM AT WASHINGTON, D. C., AS A FRESH SUPPLY EVERY MONDAY. PHYSICIANS SUPPLIED BY

Heinitsh & Reagan

CHURCH ST. & PATTON AVE.

TARIFF BILL NOT READY

SENATOR HILL OPPOSED TO THE WILSON BILL.

He Wants Protection, Apparently After The McKinley Kind—Attempt to Call Up Bland's Seigniorage Bill.

WASHINGTON, March 7.—The tariff bill will not be reported to the full finance committee today.

In the Senate yesterday Hill offered a resolution that "whereas the Secretary of the Treasury has announced a deficit of $78,000,000 for the current fiscal year and whereas the Wilson bill proposes to discard the $70,000,000 revenue from the present taxes and meet the double deficiency by a new internal and direct taxes; resolved, that the finance committee frame an amendment to said bill, omitting the internal and direct taxes newly proposed and instead thereof make provisions for a sufficient revenue by taxing other foreign imports and otherwise make revisions of the tariff without creating a deficiency."

Mr. Hill asked that the resolution be laid on the table for the present.

Harris moved the second reading of the seigniorage bill, and said there was no more earnest advocate of silver coinage than himself, but he believed that there was at least one question that should be the precedence of its consideration. Without any breach of confidence, he was able to state that the committee on finance was on the very eve of reporting the tariff bill. He therefore objected to further proceedings on the seigniorage bill. Under that objection he claimed that the bill would go to the calendar.

Mr. Harris said today, after conference with his colleagues, he believed the majority of them are in favor of immediate consideration and disposal of Bland's seigniorage bill, and he asked unanimous consent that it be taken up for consideration. He did not propose to limit debate, but would leave that to the majority of the Senate. He knew the Republicans were in favor of putting this bill before the Senate.

Sherman objected to unanimous consent; said he was opposed to the bill and would move to refer it to the finance committee. The two propositions were found in the bill, Sherman said: One, whether we had the legal right to coin the seigniorage, the other whether, to pay the current deficiencies in times of profound peace, we shall issue irredeemable paper money.

Hale said he probably would be found agreeing with Sherman, but he thought nothing was to be gained by sending the bill to the committee. The country ought to know what the views of the Senate were.

Sherman said that all bills should be sent to the committee for report prior to action by the Senate. Cockerell said he was confounded and amazed at the attitude of Sherman. He came here with the belief that when the Democrats moved to take up this bill, they would have the united support of the Republicans, who yesterday could scarcely contain themselves when unanimous consent was refused. Aldrich was by this referred specifically, to which he retorted that he wanted to call up the bill, not to pass, but to defeat it.

An excited colloquy followed between Cockerell and Sherman over the question to what the seigniorage really is. Cockerell contended that it belonged to the public funds, but would leave that to the majority of the Senate. He knew Cockerell characterized Sherman's distinction as the difference between tweed-dum and tweed-dee. The seigniorage ought, he said, to be coined and paid out. Sherman, he said, wanted to hold the silver in the treasury as a commodity, like hemp, iron or cotton, to be subsequently sold for gold. All the Bland bill did was to make that silver money to meet the expenses of the government instead of issuing interest-bearing bonds. Could any honest man say this was not good law?

A GRITTY MESSENGER.
He Could Not Be Bluffed By Road Agents.

EAST ST. LOUIS, Ill., March 7.—When train No. 5 on the Mobile and Ohio, which left here at 8:55 last night was 3 miles below the city two masked men jumped on the engine, and at the point of revolvers compelled the engineer and fireman to accompany them to the express car. A third man stood near the express car and when he saw the engineer and fireman jump from the engine he yelled to the express messenger to open the door and stand back. If he did not he would hit the door with a stick of dynamite. The messenger refused and told the robbers if they came in the car he would kill them. It appears the robbers were not prepared for fight, for, upon receiving the express messenger's answer, they left.

Want God In The Constitution.
WASHINGTON, March 7.—The rooms of the Senate committee on judiciary, wherein proceedings are usually conducted in the utmost secrecy, were thrown open to the public this morning, and for more than an hour the committee listened to arguments favoring the proposed change in the constitution intended to provide for recognition of the existence of a God. A number of clerical looking gentlemen and many ladies made up the audience.

Cincinnati Paper Sold.
CINCINNATI, March 7.—The Commercial Gazette of this city is to have new men in control of its property. Perry S. Heath, the well known Washington correspondent, in connection with his brother Fletcher Heath of Hamilton, Ohio, and backed by New York capitalists had bought the Commercial Gazette. It is rumored there will be a complete elimination of Halsted influences. The price is understood to be about $450,000.

A Murderer Shot Dead.
SAVANNAH, Ga., March 7.—The negro Sylvester Rhoades who killed Robert Rosier the 24th of February in Tattnall county, was removed from here to Collins, Ga., last night. A party of men met the sheriff and prisoner there. During the temporary absence of the sheriff it is reported the negro escaped. An officer went out to hunt for him and found Rhoades one fourth of a mile from Collins, shot to death.

DOWNIE IN KNOXVILLE.

The "Sentinel" Tells a Story of His Appearance There.

The Knoxville Evening Sentinel, with "scream" heads in its Monday issue tells in a column and a half how Fritz Staub, manager of the opera house there, helped the Margaret McClung Industrial home out of a financial hole. The story will interest Asheville people, inasmuch as it concerns Prof. Donald Downie, who lectured here last week under the auspices of the Asheville Light Infantry to a crowd the smallest of which left the A. L. I. in about a $40 cavity.

The Sentinel says that Frank Muller, however, said they had not. Mr. Staub the lecturer for matinee and evening for a $50 guarantee. This was not accepted, and arrangements for two lectures were made with the patronesses of the home, for $75, the home to pay all expenses. Muller was instructed by the ladies to advertise in the Tribune and Journal. Later, however, the Sentinel received a letter from Muller to insert advertisements in that paper, and charge to the home. When the performances came on the admissions amounted to $42. Prof. Downie wanted his $75 before the evening performance, but Manager Staub got him to compromise for $50. Staub then paid the difference between the $42 and $50, donated the $60 rent for the house and the lecture went on.

The Sentinel presented a bill for the "ad" to Prof. Downie, who said the ladies were responsible for it. The ladies, however, said they had not. Mr. Staub the lecturer for matinee and evening for a $50 guarantee. This was not accepted, and arrangements for two lectures were made with the patronesses of the home, for $75, the home to pay all expenses. Muller was instructed by the ladies to advertise in the Tribune and Journal. Later, however, the Sentinel received a letter from Muller to insert advertisements in that paper, and charge to the home. When the performances came on the admissions amounted to $42. Prof. Downie wanted his $75 before the evening performance, but Manager Staub got him to compromise for $50. Staub then paid the difference between the $42 and $50, donated the $60 rent for the house and the lecture went on.

The Sentinel presented a bill for the "ad" to Prof. Downie, who said the ladies were responsible for it. The ladies, however, said they had not. Mr. Staub the lecturer for matinee and evening for a $50 guarantee. This was not accepted, and arrangements for two lectures were made with the patronesses of the home, for $75, the home to pay all expenses. Muller was instructed by the ladies to advertise in the Tribune and Journal. Later, however, the Sentinel received a letter from Muller to insert advertisements in that paper, and charge to the home. When the performances came on the admissions amounted to $42. Prof. Downie wanted his $75 before the evening performance, but Manager Staub got him to compromise for $50. Staub then paid the difference between the $42 and $50, donated the $60 rent for the house and the lecture went on.

The Sentinel presented a bill for the "ad" to Prof. Downie, who said the ladies were responsible for it. The ladies, however, said they had not. Mr. Staub the lecturer for matinee and evening for a $50 guarantee. This was not accepted, and arrangements for two lectures were made with the patronesses of the home, for $75, the home to pay all expenses. Muller was instructed by the ladies to advertise in the Tribune and Journal. Later, however, the Sentinel received a letter from Muller to insert advertisements in that paper, and charge to the home. When the performances came on the admissions amounted to $42. Prof. Downie wanted his $75 before the evening performance, but Manager Staub got him to compromise for $50. Staub then paid the difference between the $42 and $50, donated the $60 rent for the house and the lecture went on.

The Sentinel presented a bill for the "ad" to Prof. Downie, who said the ladies were responsible for it. The ladies, however, said they had not. Mr. Staub the lecturer for matinee and evening for a $50 guarantee. This was not accepted, and arrangements for two lectures were made with the patronesses of the home, for $75, the home to pay all expenses. Muller was instructed by the ladies to advertise in the Tribune and Journal. Later, however, the Sentinel received a letter from Muller to insert advertisements in that paper, and charge to the home. When the performances came on the admissions amounted to $42. Prof. Downie wanted his $75 before the evening performance, but Manager Staub got him to compromise for $50. Staub then paid the difference between the $42 and $50, donated the $60 rent for the house and the lecture went on.

The Sentinel presented a bill for the "ad" to Prof. Downie, who said the ladies were responsible for it. The ladies, however, said they had not. Mr. Staub the lecturer for matinee and evening for a $50 guarantee. This was not accepted, and arrangements for two lectures were made with the patronesses of the home, for $75, the home to pay all expenses. Muller was instructed by the ladies to advertise in the Tribune and Journal. Later, however, the Sentinel received a letter from Muller to insert advertisements in that paper, and charge to the home. When the performances came on the admissions amounted to $42. Prof. Downie wanted his $75 before the evening performance, but Manager Staub got him to compromise for $50. Staub then paid the difference between the $42 and $50, donated the $60 rent for the house and the lecture went on.

The Sentinel presented a bill for the "ad" to Prof. Downie, who said the ladies were responsible for it. The ladies, however, said they had not. Mr. Staub the lecturer for matinee and evening for a $50 guarantee. This was not accepted, and arrangements for two lectures were made with the patronesses of the home, for $75, the home to pay all expenses. Muller was instructed by the ladies to advertise in the Tribune and Journal. Later, however, the Sentinel received a letter from Muller to insert advertisements in that paper, and charge to the home. When the performances came on the admissions amounted to $42. Prof. Downie wanted his $75 before the evening performance, but Manager Staub got him to compromise for $50. Staub then paid the difference between the $42 and $50, donated the $60 rent for the house and the lecture went on.

The Sentinel presented a bill for the "ad" to Prof. Downie, who said the ladies were responsible for it. The ladies, however, said they had not. Mr. Staub the lecturer for matinee and evening for a $50 guarantee. This was not accepted, and arrangements for two lectures were made with the patronesses of the home, for $75, the home to pay all expenses. Muller was instructed by the ladies to advertise in the Tribune and Journal. Later, however, the Sentinel received a letter from Muller to insert advertisements in that paper, and charge to the home. When the performances came on the admissions amounted to $42. Prof. Downie wanted his $75 before the evening performance, but Manager Staub got him to compromise for $50. Staub then paid the difference between the $42 and $50, donated the $60 rent for the house and the lecture went on.

The Sentinel presented a bill for the "ad" to Prof. Downie, who said the ladies were responsible for it. The ladies, however, said they had not. Mr. Staub the lecturer for matinee and evening for a $50 guarantee. This was not accepted, and arrangements for two lectures were made with the patronesses of the home, for $75, the home to pay all expenses. Muller was instructed by the ladies to advertise in the Tribune and Journal. Later, however, the Sentinel received a letter from Muller to insert advertisements in that paper, and charge to the home. When the performances came on the admissions amounted to $42. Prof. Downie wanted his $75 before the evening performance, but Manager Staub got him to compromise for $50. Staub then paid the difference between the $42 and $50, donated the $60 rent for the house and the lecture went on.

The Sentinel presented a bill for the "ad" to Prof. Downie, who said the ladies were responsible for it. The ladies, however, said they had not. Mr. Staub the lecturer for matinee and evening for a $50 guarantee. This was not accepted, and arrangements for two lectures were made with the patronesses of the home, for $75, the home to pay all expenses. Muller was instructed by the ladies to advertise in the Tribune and Journal. Later, however, the Sentinel received a letter from Muller to insert advertisements in that paper, and charge to the home. When the performances came on the admissions amounted to $42. Prof. Downie wanted his $75 before the evening performance, but Manager Staub got him to compromise for $50. Staub then paid the difference between the $42 and $50, donated the $60 rent for the house and the lecture went on.

The Sentinel presented a bill for the "ad" to Prof. Downie, who said the ladies were responsible for it. The ladies, however, said they had not. Mr. Staub the lecturer for matinee and evening for a $50 guarantee. This was not accepted, and arrangements for two lectures were made with the patronesses of the home, for $75, the home to pay all expenses. Muller was instructed by the ladies to advertise in the Tribune and Journal. Later, however, the Sentinel received a letter from Muller to insert advertisements in that paper, and charge to the home. When the performances came on the admissions amounted to $42. Prof. Downie wanted his $75 before the evening performance, but Manager Staub got him to compromise for $50. Staub then paid the difference between the $42 and $50, donated the $60 rent for the house and the lecture went on.

The Sentinel presented a bill for the "ad" to Prof. Downie, who said the ladies were responsible for it. The ladies, however, said they had not. Mr. Staub the lecturer for matinee and evening for a $50 guarantee. This was not accepted, and arrangements for two lectures were made with the patronesses of the home, for $75, the home to pay all expenses. Muller was instructed by the ladies to advertise in the Tribune and Journal. Later, however, the Sentinel received a letter from Muller to insert advertisements in that paper, and charge to the home. When the performances came on the admissions amounted to $42. Prof. Downie wanted his $75 before the evening performance, but Manager Staub got him to compromise for $50. Staub then paid the difference between the $42 and $50, donated the $60 rent for the house and the lecture went on.

The Sentinel presented a bill for the "ad" to Prof. Downie, who said the ladies were responsible for it. The ladies, however, said they had not. Mr. Staub the lecturer for matinee and evening for a $50 guarantee. This was not accepted, and arrangements for two lectures were made with the patronesses of the home, for $75, the home to pay all expenses. Muller was instructed by the ladies to advertise in the Tribune and Journal. Later, however, the Sentinel received a letter from Muller to insert advertisements in that paper, and charge to the home. When the performances came on the admissions amounted to $42. Prof. Downie wanted his $75 before the evening performance, but Manager Staub got him to compromise for $50. Staub then paid the difference between the $42 and $50, donated the $60 rent for the house and the lecture went on.

The Sentinel presented a bill for the "ad" to Prof. Downie, who said the ladies were responsible for it. The ladies, however, said they had not. Mr. Staub the lecturer for matinee and evening for a $50 guarantee. This was not accepted, and arrangements for two lectures were made with the patronesses of the home, for $75, the home to pay all expenses. Muller was instructed by the ladies to advertise in the Tribune and Journal. Later, however, the Sentinel received a letter from Muller to insert advertisements in that paper, and charge to the home. When the performances came on the admissions amounted to $42. Prof. Downie wanted his $75 before the evening performance, but Manager Staub got him to compromise for $50. Staub then paid the difference between the $42 and $50, donated the $60 rent for the house and the lecture went on.

The Sentinel presented a bill for the "ad" to Prof. Downie, who said the ladies were responsible for it. The ladies, however, said they had not. Mr. Staub the lecturer for matinee and evening for a $50 guarantee. This was not accepted, and arrangements for two lectures were made with the patronesses of the home, for $75, the home to pay all expenses. Muller was instructed by the ladies to advertise in the Tribune and Journal. Later, however, the Sentinel received a letter from Muller to insert advertisements in that paper, and charge to the home. When the performances came on the admissions amounted to $42. Prof. Downie wanted his $75 before the evening performance, but Manager Staub got him to compromise for $50. Staub then paid the difference between the $42 and $50, donated the $60 rent for the house and the lecture went on.

The Sentinel presented a bill for the "ad" to Prof. Downie, who said the ladies were responsible for it. The ladies, however, said they had not. Mr. Staub the lecturer for matinee and evening for a $50 guarantee. This was not accepted, and arrangements for two lectures were made with the patronesses of the home, for $75, the home to pay all expenses. Muller was instructed by the ladies to advertise in the Tribune and Journal. Later, however, the Sentinel received a letter from Muller to insert advertisements in that paper, and charge to the home. When the performances came on the admissions amounted to $42. Prof. Downie wanted his $75 before the evening performance, but Manager Staub got him to compromise for $50. Staub then paid the difference between the $42 and $50, donated the $60 rent for the house and the lecture went on.

The Sentinel presented a bill for the "ad" to Prof. Downie, who said the ladies were responsible for it. The ladies, however, said they had not. Mr. Staub the lecturer for matinee and evening for a $50 guarantee. This was not accepted, and arrangements for two lectures were made with the patronesses of the home, for $75, the home to pay all expenses. Muller was instructed by the ladies to advertise in the Tribune and Journal. Later, however, the Sentinel received a letter from Muller to insert advertisements in that paper, and charge to the home. When the performances came on the admissions amounted to $42. Prof. Downie wanted his $75 before the evening performance, but Manager Staub got him to compromise for $50. Staub then paid the difference between the $42 and $50, donated the $60 rent for the house and the lecture went on.

The Sentinel presented a bill for the "ad" to Prof. Downie, who said the ladies were responsible for it. The ladies, however, said they had not. Mr. Staub the lecturer for matinee and evening for a $50 guarantee. This was not accepted, and arrangements for two lectures were made with the patronesses of the home, for $75, the home to pay all expenses. Muller was instructed by the ladies to advertise in the Tribune and Journal. Later, however, the Sentinel received a letter from Muller to insert advertisements in that paper, and charge to the home. When the performances came on the admissions amounted to $42. Prof. Downie wanted his $75 before the evening performance, but Manager Staub got him to compromise for $50. Staub then paid the difference between the $42 and $50, donated the $60 rent for the house and the lecture went on.

The Sentinel presented a bill for the "ad" to Prof. Downie, who said the ladies were responsible for it. The ladies, however, said they had not. Mr. Staub the lecturer for matinee and evening for a $50 guarantee. This was not accepted, and arrangements for two lectures were made with the patronesses of the home, for $75, the home to pay all expenses. Muller was instructed by the ladies to advertise in the Tribune and Journal. Later, however, the Sentinel received a letter from Muller to insert advertisements in that paper, and charge to the home. When the performances came on the admissions amounted to $42. Prof. Downie wanted his $75 before the evening performance, but Manager Staub got him to compromise for $50. Staub then paid the difference between the $42 and $50, donated the $60 rent for the house and the lecture went on.

The Sentinel presented a bill for the "ad" to Prof. Downie, who said the ladies were responsible for it. The ladies, however, said they had not. Mr. Staub the lecturer for matinee and evening for a $50 guarantee. This was not accepted, and arrangements for two lectures were made with the patronesses of the home, for $75, the home to pay all expenses. Muller was instructed by the ladies to advertise in the Tribune and Journal. Later, however, the Sentinel received a letter from Muller to insert advertisements in that paper, and charge to the home. When the performances came on the admissions amounted to $42. Prof. Downie wanted his $75 before the evening performance, but Manager Staub got him to compromise for $50. Staub then paid the difference between the $42 and $50, donated the $60 rent for the house and the lecture went on.

The Sentinel presented a bill for the "ad" to Prof. Downie, who said the ladies were responsible for it. The ladies, however, said they had not. Mr. Staub the lecturer for matinee and evening for a $50 guarantee. This was not accepted, and arrangements for two lectures were made with the patronesses of the home, for $75, the home to pay all expenses. Muller was instructed by the ladies to advertise in the Tribune and Journal. Later, however, the Sentinel received a letter from Muller to insert advertisements in that paper, and charge to the home. When the performances came on the admissions amounted to $42. Prof. Downie wanted his $75 before the evening performance, but Manager Staub got him to compromise for $50. Staub then paid the difference between the $42 and $50, donated the $60 rent for the house and the lecture went on.

The Sentinel presented a bill for the "ad" to Prof. Downie, who said the ladies were responsible for it. The ladies, however, said they had not. Mr. Staub the lecturer for matinee and evening for a $50 guarantee. This was not accepted, and arrangements for two lectures were made with the patronesses of the home, for $75, the home to pay all expenses. Muller was instructed by the ladies to advertise in the Tribune and Journal. Later, however, the Sentinel received a letter from Muller to insert advertisements in that paper, and charge to the home. When the performances came on the admissions amounted to $42. Prof. Downie wanted his $75 before the evening performance, but Manager Staub got him to compromise for $50. Staub then paid the difference between the $42 and $50, donated the $60 rent for the house and the lecture went on.

The Sentinel presented a bill for the "ad" to Prof. Downie, who said the ladies were responsible for it. The ladies, however, said they had not. Mr. Staub the lecturer for matinee and evening for a $50 guarantee. This was not accepted, and arrangements for two lectures were made with the patronesses of the home, for $75, the home to pay all expenses. Muller was instructed by the ladies to advertise in the Tribune and Journal. Later, however, the Sentinel received a letter from Muller to insert advertisements in that paper, and charge to the home. When the performances came on the admissions amounted to $42. Prof. Downie wanted his $75 before the evening performance, but Manager Staub got him to compromise for $50. Staub then paid the difference between the $42 and $50, donated the $60 rent for the house and the lecture went on.

The Sentinel presented a bill for the "ad" to Prof. Downie, who said the ladies were responsible for it. The ladies, however, said they had not. Mr. Staub the lecturer for matinee and evening for a $50 guarantee. This was not accepted, and arrangements for two lectures were made with the patronesses of the home, for $75, the home to pay all expenses. Muller was instructed by the ladies to advertise in the Tribune and Journal. Later, however, the Sentinel received a letter from Muller to insert advertisements in that paper, and charge to the home. When the performances came on the admissions amounted to $42. Prof. Downie wanted his $75 before the evening performance, but Manager Staub got him to compromise for $50. Staub then paid the difference between the $42 and $50, donated the $60 rent for the house and the lecture went on.

The Sentinel presented a bill for the "ad" to Prof. Downie, who said the ladies were responsible for it. The ladies, however, said they had not. Mr. Staub the lecturer for matinee and evening for a $50 guarantee. This was not accepted, and arrangements for two lectures were made with the patronesses of the home, for $75, the home to pay all expenses. Muller was instructed by the ladies to advertise in the Tribune and Journal. Later, however, the Sentinel received a letter from Muller to insert advertisements in that paper, and charge to the home. When the performances came on the admissions amounted to $42. Prof. Downie wanted his $75 before the evening performance, but Manager Staub got him to compromise for $50. Staub then paid the difference between the $42 and $50, donated the $60 rent for the house and the lecture went on.

The Sentinel presented a bill for the "ad" to Prof. Downie, who said the ladies were responsible for it. The ladies, however, said they had not. Mr. Staub the lecturer for matinee and evening for a $50 guarantee. This was not accepted, and arrangements for two lectures were made with the patronesses of the home, for $75, the home to pay all expenses. Muller was instructed by the ladies to advertise in