WE GREET ADLAI GLADLY

THE CITY IS HIS AND ALL THE BEAUTIES THEREOF.

Vice-President Stevenson and Mrs. Stevenson arrive in Asheville this afternoon and are staying at the Battery Park.

Vice-President Adlai E. Stevenson, accompanied by Mrs. Stevenson, is in Asheville, and the city is, therefore, theirs, as long as they will stay.

Vice-President and Mrs. Stevenson arrived here this afternoon on the 4 o'clock train from Washington, traveling not in a special car but in the purest democratic simplicity. The visit is made so that the Vice-President may secure a needed rest.

The distinguished visitors were met at the station by Manager McKissick of the Battery Park hotel, and in a landau were driven to the park, where, during their stay here, the guests will occupy a specialy-fitted suite of apartments.

The Vice-President and Mrs. Stevenson came here on an invitation extended by Manager McKissick during his visit to Washington.

Asheville people will well remember a former visit made to Asheville by Mr. and Mrs. Stevenson, when the former, then candidate for the Vice-Presidency, was on his tour of the State in September, 1892. And Asheville extends the hand of hearty welcome to its honored guests.

Old Glory floats from the flagstaff of the Battery Park today, for the first time since Mr. Stevenson was here in '92.

S. OTHO WILSON

He speaks at the Court House today to Farmers Only.

S. Otho Wilson, representing the Farmers' alliance business agency, made an address at the court house at 11 o'clock today. A number of the uninitiated went to the court house to hear the talk, but an invitation was extended to "politicians, such as Democrats, Republicans and lawyers," to leave. Among those who left was "Uncle Plens" Israel, who is a good farmer and Alliance man, but first of all a Democrat.

The address was for the purpose of instructing the farmers about the alliance and how to market their farm produce to the best advantage. Financial agents from 12 sub-alliances heard the talk and such interest was developed that the agents decided to hold a meeting here next Wednesday to further consider the question.

S. Otho Wilson told the farmers in reply to questions that no political significance could be attached to his visit or to his address. He was here on a purely business matter affecting the farmers. Next week, he said, the Alliance would open an exchange in Raleigh, where the farmer could sell his produce and receive cash therefor. Later on the alliance hopes to establish an exchange at Asheville and another at Greensboro.

When asked about the probability of a coalition of the Populist and Republican forces in North Carolina, Mr. Wilson's reply was "That is impossible."

Nevertheless, Mr. Wilson and Richmond Pearson, who opposes to Congressmen in consultation for a time about noon at the Western hotel. Whether or not they touched upon politics is "in the clouds." Did he instruct Brother Pearson in the mysteries of egg-shipping?

H. G. EWART HERE.

A Little Early to Talk Politics
Now, He Thinks.

Ex-Congressman H. G. Ewart came down from Hendersonville last night on business and will remain here several days. In a talk with THE CITIZEN Mr.
Ewart said it was rather soon to talk about what the Republicans in the Ninth would do in regard to the Congressional race. He thought, however, that if Richmond Pearson should be endorsed by the Republicans and Populists he would make a strong race.

Referring to Mr. Pearson's letter on the election law, Mr. Ewart agreed with a writer in THE CITIZEN yesterday, in saying Mr. Pearson was in error in stating that there was a dissenting opinion in the case of Harris vs. Scarborough.
James Clark and Davis concurred in the general opinion, but disagreed as to the reasoning.

Mr. Sampson Lectures
A great treat was enjoyed yesterday afternoon by the Faithful Endeavor society, in a lecture given them by Rev.
T. R. Sampson upon the subject of the condition of women in heathen lands.

The choice language and easy address of the speaker no less than the profound interest of the subject kept the audience, composed of some 30 young girls and their friends, profoundly interested. The society has reason to feel sincere gratitude to the reverend gentleman for so instructive and charming a talk.

CONDENSED TELEGRAMS.

A movement to hold a convention of workmen in Washington April 6 or 7 to protest against the passage of the Wilson bill by the Senate was begun in Philadelphia last night.

Louis Kossuth, the British patriot, suffered a relapse Thursday night and is now in a weak condition.

Potter Palmer, the millionaire proprietor of the Palmer house, Chicago, is Cardinal Leon Benoit, arch-bishop of Rouen, died this morning.

BOMB THROWN IN ROME

THE POPE FEARS FOR THE VATICAN.

There would have been great loss of life had the explosion occurred an hour earlier—Two Arrests.

Rome, March 9.—About 6 o'clock last evening a terrific explosion of a bomb occurred in front of the Chamber of Deputies. Two persons were dangerously and several less seriously injured. The bomb must have been charged with material of a very high explosive force, as every window for some distance around was shattered, railings were twisted, heavy stones moved from their places and many evidences of the tremendous power of its contents were apparent.

The Chamber of Deputies had adjourning an hour before the explosion took place, otherwise it is likely that several persons would have been killed, as the number in the vicinity of the chamber was at least four times as great at an hour earlier than it was at the time the bomb exploded.

The police say they believe that eight persons were wounded seriously by the explosion. Two men have been arrested on suspicion of having been implicated in the plot.

One of the men injured by the explosion died in the hospital this morning.
The Pope has directed that an inquiry be made into the details by the Vatican for his own information.
His Holiness is anxious to keep thoroughly informed of the developments of the present anarchistic activity, and in the event of a political crisis fears that the Vatican itself may be endangered.
It is stated the holy father is seeking from the Italian government guarantees of the safety of the Vatican.

NOT TO BE BROUGHT BACK.

More About The Shooting of Claude Jones at Morris' owl.

Deputy Sheriff J. H. Hampton wrote yesterday to the Morristown, Tenn., authorities that the county would not pay the expense of bringing back Claude Jones, who was arrested there and shot yesterday while attempting to escape.
The letter was written after a talk with Chairman Rankin, who said that Jones was already under bond to appear here and for that reason did not think it necessary to put the county to the expense of bringing him back. A telegram to the Knoxville Tribune says:

"Policeman Morris made the arrest after chasing Jones in the look up he discovered that Jones had robbed a guest at the Virginia house last night. He went to the calaboose to search Jones when he attempted to escape, and the policeman shot him through the hip and seriously, if not fatally, injured him."

FOR MALTBY'S COMING.

Reduced Railroad Rates for The Exhibition on The 14th.

The appearance at the Grand opera house on the evening of the 14th of W. S.
Maltby, the champion trick bicycle rider of the world, gives promise of drawing a large house. The exhibition will be under the auspices of Asheville's Cycle club.
Mr. Maltby's exhibition will include, among the many tricks of cycling unknown to the Asheville wheelmen and public, impersonations of "Mlle. Emilie," or a French Ballet Cyclist, and "A Duke's First Attempt to Ride." A very pleasing entertainment is looked for.
The Boston Cycling World says of Mr.
Maltby, "He is a whole show in himself."

The Cycle club has succeeded in securing reduced rates over the railroads for his occasion. The round trip rates will be: Hendersonville, 90 cents; Hot Springs, $1.60; Waynesville, $1.20; Statesville, $4.25; Hickory, $3.40; Morganton, $2.60; Marion, $1.80, and from intermediate points on the same basis.

The Procession Continues

Visitors are continually coming into Asheville, to enjoy the health giving climate that is here free for all. Yesterday's trains brought large crowds and many more are expected to keep up the procession. The hotels are fast filling up and some of them are nearly full. Asheville's doors are always open and everybody may come here and partake of the best to be had.

—One of the big suits pending in Burke Superior court, says the Morganton

London, England, in which is involved the title to about 19,000 acres of land in the extreme southeastern part of Burke, adjoining the Cleveland and Rutherford lines.

—Morganton Herald: Messrs. Vail and Bowden, who came to Burke three

MRS. BLACKBURN'S WORDS

CASE OF POLLARD BRECKEN- RIDGE OPENED.

Breckenridge told Mrs. Blackburn that he would marry Miss Pollard—Plaintiff Comes Near To Fainting.

WASHINGTON, March 7.—Miss Madeline Vinton Pollard, plaintiff in the suit against Representative W. C. P. Breckenridge, entered the court room this morning long before court convened.
She was accompanied by her counsel.
She showed no signs of trepidation as she became the focus of many pairs of eyes, and calmly took a seat with Judge Wilson. Miss Pollard was talking to Judge Wilson when the defendant entered the room and, glancing up to see the new comer, her eyes met those of Col. Breckenridge. Without seeming to see him she went on talking to her counsel and apparently gave no space.
Every person in the court room watched the little incident.

Carlisle opened the case for the plaintiff, taking up charges and answers seriatim. Just as Carlisle began his remarks Miss Pollard covered her eyes and began to tremble, and it looked for a moment as if there would be a fainting scene.

Col. Thompson for the defence reserved his opening statement. Mrs. Blackburn, widow of ex-Governor Luke Blackburn of Kentucky, then took the stand and testified that Breckenridge in her presence said he would marry Miss Pollard.

Mrs. Blackburn was cross examined by Col. Thompson, and became somewhat nervous and excited under the strain.
"It is no use," she said, "to ask me any more questions. I have told everything I know concerning this case, and all further questions are useless." She added, with tears in her eyes: "It is a terrible ordeal for me to pass through here and which a man has forced me to,"—alluding to Breckenridge. "If I had the protection of a husband it would never have been necessary."

MR. LEE MARRIED.

A Simple Ceremony With Only a Few Relatives Present.

WASHINGTON, March 9.—Robert E.
Lee, Jr., of Roanoke, Va., and Miss Juliet Carter, daughter of Col. Thos. H. Carter of King William county, Va., were married yesterday morning at the residence of Mrs. Rosier Dulaney, sister of the bride, on Washington Heights, in this city.
Only the relatives and intimate friends of the Lee and Carter families were present. The ceremony of the Episcopal church was performed by Rev. Dr. Mc-Kim. Col. Carter gave his daughter away. After the ceremony there was a wedding breakfast, and later Mr. and Mrs. Lee left for New York.

Among those present at the ceremony was ex-governor F. Chas. Lee, Mrs. W.
H. Lee of Fairfax county, and her sons, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Nelson Page, Mildred Lee, sister of the groom, and Thomas Carter of Richmond, the bride's brother.

JUST IN NORTH CAROLINA.

—State Auditor Furman has issued the following: "As several inquiries have been made relative to the liability of building and loan associations doing business in this State to taxation other than that provided for in section 30 of the revenue act of 1893, I wish to state for the information of all concerned that it is held by the authorities that no tax on the corporation other than that provided by section 30 can be levied. Individual shareholders will give in for taxation as their other stocks and bonds shares at their real value per share at time of listing."

—At the semi-annual meeting of the directors of the insane asylum at Raleigh Dr. Wood's resignation as superintendent was accepted. The directors unaninow superintendent of the Eastern Insane asylum, as Dr. Wood's successor. The number of insane in the asylum is 287, and seven are at home on probation.

During the past three months 18 have been received, five discharged, and two died.

—Hon. Josiah Turner, a prominent resident of Hillsboro, says it is the most unique town in the United States, for the reason that not the slightest changes have been made there in over a century, and that Lord Cornwallis, could he revisit it, would recognize every place.
The time is kept by a clock in the courthouse presented by King George III.

—The reports from different parts of the State are to the effect that crops prospects were never finer at this time of the year.
A larger quantity of small grain has been sown than has ever before been known, and the corn acreage will be greatly increased.

—The Erwin cotton mills, Durham, have given orders for additional machinery, which is being put in as fast as it arrives. The capacity will then be 13, 000 spindles, which will make this one of the largest mills in the State.

—The Morganton Herald says that Northern capitalists are negotiating for the purchase of the 40,000 acre tract of land in the northwestern part of that county now owned by Mrs. J. D. Cheever, of New York.

have decided to build a college for colored people at High Point. Work will begin at once.
