I have a family to look after and I shall be glad to go home in a few weeks and get on my feet. For some time now, Mr. Nye has been endeavoring to get his $25 back, but has been unsuccessful so far, Uncle Pecos says. If the money is returned it is to be divided between three preachers in the vicinity of Leices-ter." He will say South Utah Falls Recovered.

WE ARE GETTING THERE
CAPITAL AND PEOPLE HEAD
ED THIS WAY.

AN Immigration Movement At-tracting Marked Proportions—New and Important Industries
BALTIMORE, Md., March 23.—The Manufacturers' Record in reviewing the business of the South for the week says: Reports from all parts of the South indicate that the general business outlook is very promising, though the volume of trade does not yet show any very large increase. But, if judged by a Southward trend of capital and immigration and by the evident increase in the organization of new enterprises, the South is entering upon the most solidly prosperous era of its history.

The immigration movement, especially in the most densely settled parts of the South, and throughout the North and West the desire to drive South seems to be assuming proportions of national importance. Special reports from New England show more disposition than ever before to invest in Southern cotton mills, and a manufacturer of that section tells the Manufacturers' Record that a number of large mills will be built in the South by New England people.

Among the more important industrial enterprises reported for the week are a $1,000,000 company, organized to build a tunnel and flexible shipping facilities on Patuxent River, Md.; a $100,000 company, organized to ship barytes from Backsburg, S. C., to Baltimore, where a large manufacturing plant will be established; a $200,000 company to establish an artificial ice plant in Baltimore in connection with a slating mill project; a lumber mill and a shoe factory in Maryland; a $500,000 tobacco company; a shoe factory and a cannery in West Virginia; a $300,000 natural gas company and a tin mine in West Virginia; a $200,000 lumber exporting combination; a $420,000 cotton mill company; a $50,000 oil mill; a compressed air and several cotton gins in Texas; an electric power plant saw mill, quarry and cannery factory in Georgia, etc.

INFORMATION WANTED
Geologist Holmes Desires Facts About W. N. C. Water Power.
The State geological survey is preparing to publish a report on the water powers of North Carolina, and while many measurements have been made of the water powers of the middle counties, very little is known concerning those west of the Blue Ridge. It will be well for all persons living in these mountain counties, who are interested in water powers or who have accurate information concerning them, to correspond with the State geologist, Prof. J. A. Holmes, at Raleigh, and furnish him such information as they can supply.

Prof. Holmes would like to have information especially concerning all mills run by water power. The stream on which each mill is located, name of the mill; the kind of mill (whether grist mill, saw mill, etc.); distance of the mill from the mouth of the stream on which it is located; number of horse power used by the mill; length of the mill dam; the height of the dam; the total fall of water at the mill; as to what extent the mill is affected by low water in the summer months.

Concerning the waterfalls and rapids where the power has not been improved and there are no mills located, Prof. Holmes would like to have information as to the following points: In the case of waterfalls, the amount and general character of the fall, in case of the rapids or cascades, the total fall in the water; the distance in which the water is falling this amount; and as to whether or not the amount of water varies greatly between the summer and winter seasons at these places. If any survey has been made determining the number of horse power available for milling or manufacturing purposes at any of these waterfalls or rapids, information should be given as to this point also.

It is expected that the report will be published at an early date, consequently the matter should be attended to at once. It is urged that all who can do so will co-operate with the State Geologist in this matter, so that Western North Carolina's water powers may be properly represented.

If He Is Convinced That No Business Disturbance Will Result He Will Sign It—Decision Next Week

WASHINGTON, March 23.—It is asserted in the treasury department that the President has so far made up his mind on the blind silver bill that he is disposed to sign it if he can convince himself that no business disturbance will result from such action.

It is to this point that he is now addressing himself, and which he will continue to keep in mind until next week. His veto or signing of the bill depends upon the solution he arrives at of this question.

WAR ON BREWERIES.
They Refuse to Recognize Organized Labor and Must Suffer.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., March 23.—War to the knife soon by declared by the Knights of Labor against 20 or more breweries in St. Louis, controlled by an English syndicate. It is given out by those who ought to know whereof they speak, that, before many months, the plant of every brewery concerned will be as solemnly idle and the millions of dollars of English capital will become unproductive. For some time past the English syndicate has been under the ban of the Knights of Labor as a result of the refusal of the management to recognize union labor.
