EASTER AT THE CHURCHES

APPROPRIATE SPECIAL SERVICES TOMORROW.

Lovely Easter Music to Be an Additional Attraction—A Fair Day Promised—Some of the Hotel Menus for the Occasion

Easter Sunday, the day of religious festivals and of new gowns and dreams in bonnets, comes tomorrow, and the weather clerk, with his characteristic deference to Asheville and its army of churchgoers, promises that the day shall be a fair one. Whether he keeps his promise or not there will be enjoyable special programs of music at some of the city churches, and if the promise is kept there will be, incidentally, a display of millinery, along which line fashionable Asheville long ago became famous. Not that the wags will go to church merely to be seen—far from it. But the observance of fashion's decrees concerning the day is only an incident of the occasion that makes the sight one of unusual attractiveness.

Special Easter Programs.
Easter music at Trinity Episcopal church is always notable. The program at the morning service tomorrow will be as follows:

Professional, 195.
Easter Anthem..... Humphrey
Psalter..... Humphrey
Te Deum..... Humphrey
Jubilate..... Humphrey
Anthem, "Gloria in thy Name"..... Mozart
Glo. Tri..... Clavier
Hymn 99..... Clavier
Offertory, "Resurrection"..... Shelly
Communion service..... Stainer

The early celebration of holy communion at Trinity church on Easter day will be at 8 a. m., and not at 7:30 as is usual.

Central M. E. church, South, will be decorated handsomely with plants and flowers from the Brownhurst greenhouses. An especially attractive program of music will be given by the Central choir. Rev. H. F. Christberg will preach.

Appropriate singing in the excellent style of the choir at the First Presbyterian church will be expected by those who attend this church.

A special Easter service will be held tomorrow at the First M. E. church beginning at 10:15 a. m. Rev. G. H. Detweiler will preach at 11. The regular program will be rendered by the Sunday school in the evening, beginning at 8 o'clock.

Other Church Services.
Rev. J. L. White, pastor of the First Baptist church, will preach tomorrow morning on "The Resurrection of Christ," at 8 o'clock p. m. The Eighth Commandment—Stealing." The public cordially invited.

Tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock Rev. Mr. Brunson, of the French Broad Baptist church, will discuss "The Fall of Man." At 8 o'clock p. m. his subject will be, "Paul Rebuking Peter, or, a Conflict in the Apostolic Authority." The public are cordially invited.

Rev. J. W. C. Willoughby, D. D., president of Washington college, Tenn., will occupy the pulpit at the South Side Presbyterian church Sunday morning and evening.

At Hilliard hall Rev. H. A. Westall will preach tomorrow at 11 a. m. Subject: "Not Here, But Risen," and at 5 p. m., subject, "The Religion of the Future." The public cordially invited.

At Bethel church tomorrow at 11 a. m. Rev. T. F. Marr will preach on "The Resurrection." Appropriate Easter services will be had by the Sunday school at 3:30 p. m.

Rev. T. E. Wagg of Weaverville will preach at the M. E. church, South, tomorrow morning and evening. Rev. G. H. Detweiler will address the missionary meeting at 3:30 p. m.

Central Sunday School.
The Central Sunday school will hold its Easter celebration tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock. The regular services will give place to the young folks, who will occupy the centre of the church and take full charge of the exercises. A beautiful Easter cantata, "The Living Christ," will be rendered, consisting of solos, duets, choruses, etc., and the entire services will be pleasing and interesting. The public are cordially invited.

Easter Dinners.
The Easter menu for Kenilworth Inn tomorrow is a thing of beauty. The form is an oblong card bordered with a band of gold bronze with an embossed imprint of the name of the hotel and its management. Supplementing the typographic merit of the card Mrs. Harry Rhoades Kleber has artistically embellished it with touches in oil of rare bits of blossoms, clover heads, arbutus, violets, blue pansies, or by an occasional bird in delicate plumage and in full flight.

Battery Park guests will direct their wishes for Easter dinner from a silk ribboned fold of three leaves. The cover is illuminated with a classical picture tinted in royal purple and also bears the legend of the hotel and manager. The menu fills a page of the inside leaf with a tempting array of palatables from green turtle to coffee.

The Winyah house Easter dinner bill is a folder with the title page embossed in silver and gilt, besides illuminated lines of the name of the house. The bill falls on the third page and comprehends an abundance of good things.

THE G. P. A.'S

They Are To Hop at Asheville Next Monday

The general passenger agents, who have been in convention at Lake Worth, Fla., are to honor Asheville with a visit on their return from the South. This body will be one of the largest that has ever visited Asheville, as there are near 200 of the jolly fellows who look after the passenger traffic of the railroads, many of them accompanied by their families.

The visitors are expected to arrive Monday morning and will remain here several hours.

No Quorum Again.

The Board of Aldermen could not muster a quorum for the regular meeting yesterday afternoon. There are only five members on the Board, Mr. Starnes' successor never having been chosen, and it requires the presence of four of these for a quorum. J. M. Godger, one lawyer, was said to be in Marshall, and W. W. Jones, another lawyer, was in court looking after the interest of a client. If Mr. Starnes' place had been filled there would probably have been a quorum on the two last meeting days.

WEEKLY TRADE REVIEW

IMPROVEMENT MORE IN VOLUME THAN IN PRICES.

More Mills At Work—Nails Selling Very Low—Fair Demand For Cotton—The Failures.

New York, March 24.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s Review of Trade says: It is perplexing to be obliged to report that business grows larger in volume, at the same time not more profitable. Uncertainty does not diminish, but has rather increased in the judgment of many commercial bodies which have urged the President to veto the seigniorage bill.

Prices of commodities do not rise, but are on the whole about 1.5 per cent. lower than last week, though then the lowest ever known in this country, and are 12.9 per cent. lower than a year ago.

More mills are at work, though the proportion of productive force unemployed is still from a fifth to a third in different branches of industry and many mills are stopping because their orders have run out, even while a large number are starting with orders enough for a time. The prospect of getting constant or remunerative employment for works and hands does not change. The fact that orders keep only part of the force at work, while both prices and wages tend downward though spring is near at hand, renders present business less profitable and the future less promising.

The starting of four furnaces by the Illinois Steel company, and other at Pittsburg, increases the output of iron and some large sales have been made at the lowest prices yet reported, with indications of continued demand for structural work, and especially at the West.

The demand for wire in various forms seems to slacken and nails are said to be selling lower than ever—below one cent.

The demand for cotton goods is fairly large, but with reduction in prices of some grades and the accumulation of print cloths continues.

The accumulation of idle money continues as it could not if business were materially enlarging.

The failures for the week ending March 15 involved liabilities of only $2,558,818; and for the two weeks of March, only $4,835,110, of which $2,330,257 were of manufacturing and $2,445,069 of trading concerns.

RESIGNED

Prof. Peacock to Give Up His Position at Trinity.

Prof. T. E. Peacock, who for the past two years has held the position of organist of Trinity Episcopal church, has, induced by the condition of his health, resigned his position and will conduct his last music service at that church Sunday, April 1. The professor is not fully decided as to his next movement. He will probably go to New York for a while. He has received an offer to become organist at Holy Trinity church, New York City, but his future action will depend upon the advice given him by his physician. If he decides to go to New York he will leave Asheville about the second of April. A little later Mrs. Peacock and Master Chester will go to Indianapolis for a visit, then joining Prof. Peacock in the metropolis.

Prof. Peacock has held the position of organist at Trinity most efficiently. He and his family have won a large number of friends during their residence here, and all will regret to have them remove from Asheville.

PROMINENT EDUCATOR

Amos Kellogg, of New York School Journal, Here.

The teachers of the city schools had the pleasure of meeting Amos Kellogg of New York city at 3:30 this afternoon in the Montford avenue building. Mr. Kellogg is the proprietor of the New York School Journal, the largest and most influential educational paper in this country. He has had over 40 years' experience in educational work and has probably done more through the columns of the journal for the new education and the American teacher than any one man in the country.

Mr. Kellogg has been spending the winter in Florida and other Southern states where he has been endeavoring to plant the seeds of educational reform, and is now on his way home. The teachers of Asheville feel highly honored by his visit. On his way North Mr. Kellogg intends to visit the Greensboro Normal school.

Delphian Annual Debate

The annual debate of the Delphian society of Weaverville college occurred last evening, before the largest audience ever assembled there on a similar occasion. Asheville was well represented. The question debated was, "Resolved, that the financial policy of the government has been in favor of the few and against the many." On the affirmative were A. E. Weaver and E. O. Chambers, while the negative speakers were C. L. Felmet and A. E. Rhim. The orator of the occasion was Z. F. Curtis, and the declaimers W. B. Komsey and A. H. Wolfe. The affirmative won. The entire affair was a great success.

A Good Game, and Yale Won.

Telegrams received here last night state that in the baseball game at Greensboro between Yale and the University of North Carolina yesterday the Yale boys won by a score of 7 to 4. The game is said to have been a rattling good 'un. All of the scoring was done in the first and eighth innings. The attendance was 1,500 to 2,000.

THE TAX ON STATE BANKS

IT MAY YET BE REPEALED IN THE HOUSE.

To Be Brought In As An Amendment To A Bill For The Relief Of Certain Banks—Probabilities Of Its Passage.

WASHINGTON, March 24.—Although the proposition to report a bill for the repeal of the 10 per cent. state bank tax has been killed in the House committee on banking and currency it is intended to bring it before the House for action.

The committee has authorized Chairman Springer to report a bill for the relief of certain banks, chiefly in the Southern States, which, during last summer, issued clearing house certificates in various parts of the country. Representative Johnson, Indiana, protested against this action of the committee for the reason that it would permit the friends of repeal to offer that proposition as an amendment to the bill, but he received no support.

When Springer calls up the bill named, which, it is understood, he will do at the earliest practicable day, it is said that Cox, of Tennessee, will move to amend by adding a section to repeal the state bank tax. Then the whole will be before the House for consideration, and a somewhat extended debate is anticipated. It is thought not improbable that Cox's amendment will receive the votes of a majority of the House.

POLLARD-BRECKINRIDGE

Passing Behind Closed Doors on Certain Unfavorable Evidence.

WASHINGTON, March 24.—Last Thursday in the trial of the Pollard and Breckinridge case objection was made by counsel for Miss Pollard to evidence contained in depositions presented by defense concerning Miss Pollard's age; conversations regarding her, had with James C. Rhodes, her deceased lover, and with reference to her ability to resist advances from men. Some of the objections were sustained and the evidence ruled out, to which exception was taken by the defense. In other instances Judge Bradley decided to postpone the reading of certain objectionable passages in the depositions until he could examine into the matter and accordingly it was agreed that he should hear argument on the admission or exclusion of disputed evidence this morning at 10 o'clock.

Shortly after the appointed hour arguments began, behind closed doors. Only Breckinridge and his attorneys and counsel for Miss Pollard were present. The reason for secrecy was to prevent the objectionable testimony from being made public through the newspapers, thus bringing it, indirectly, before the jury who are to be kept in ignorance of the character of the evidence unless Judge Bradley decides that it is competent and may be read in court.

FIRE AT FRANKLIN.

Eight Buildings Burned and No Insurance.

FRANKLIN, March 23.—[Special]—Franklin was visited by a fire last night at 12 o'clock that destroyed eight houses, including Jarrett's hotel and Cunningham's livery stable. The loss is estimated at $15,000; no insurance.

W. A. Curtis.

FROM L. H. HARRIS, WHO GOT THE NEWS BY PHONE AT DILLSBORO, AND CAME INTO ASHEVILLE THIS AFTERNOON, THE FOLLOWING ADDITIONAL PARTICULARS ARE HAD: FIRE STARTED IN FRANK'S STORE BUILDING, UP STAIRS, FROM A DEFECTIVE FLUE. THE STORE BURNED AND THEN SPREAD TO GARLAND'S DRUG STORE; THEN TO KINSLAND'S STORE, WHICH WAS EMPTY; THEN TO THE REAL ESTATE OFFICE OF LITTLEFIELD; THEN TO CUNNINGHAM'S LIVERY STABLE; THEN TO JARRETT & SON'S STORE; THEN TO JARRETT'S HOTEL, ALL OF THESE BUILDINGS BEING BURNED.

JACK FROST'S HARVEST.

He Gets Some Texas Corn And a Lot of Peaches

FORT WORTH, Texas, March 24.—Reports from Comanche, Earth, Wise, Parke and other counties west and southwest of this city, are to the effect that the heavy frost last night resulted in serious damage to fruits. In many places corn was in bud and has been cut off. Peaches and other fruit trees were in bloom and a serious falling off in the fruit crop of the season is almost certain. In sections east and northeast the frost did not cause so much damage.

Waite Was Wrong.

DESVER, March 24.—The Supreme court this morning handed down a written reply to the question propounded by Gov. Waite last week as to who are the legal members of the fire and police board. The decision was against the Governor.
