

BOOKBINDING
WE DO
IN CORRECT AND TASTEFUL FINISH.
Citizen Building.

Asheville Daily Citizen.

BOOKBINDERY
FOR ALL
DESCRIPTIONS OF WORK.
SKILLED WORKMEN.
Citizen Building.

VOLUME IX.—NO 285.

ASHEVILLE, N. C., SATURDAY EVENING, MARCH 31, 1894.

State Library 114

PRICE 5 CENTS

Whitman's Candy.

Received every Friday by express, price 60c. and 80c. per pound. We have other nice candies at 20c., 25c. and 30c. per pound. Chocolate creams and caramels at 25c. per pound.

200 DOZEN THAD. W. THRASA & CO

QUART CANS STANDARD

100 DOZEN

NEW YORK STATE

CORN

10

THESE ARE GENUINE BARGAINS; THE QUALITY IS GOOD.

Wm. Kroger,

41 College St.

Bents Water Crackers

Albert Biscuit,

Roquefort Biscuit,

Graham Wafers,

Reception Flakes,

Extra Toast.

WM. KROGER,

37 SOUTH MAIN STREET.

THE GREAT PIPE SALE

—A T—

The Model Cigar Store

Is Now On,

AND WILL BE KEPT UP FOR 10 DAYS

L. BLOMBERG

17 Patton Avenue.

CORTLAND BROS.,

REAL ESTATE BROKERS.

SOME LOW PRICES

California Peaches 18c. Per Can.

California Apples 13c. Per Can.

Pure Maple Syrup $1.25 Per Gal.

Cucumber Pickles 40c. Per Gal.

Sweet Mix Pickles 76c. Per Gal.

Sour Mix Pickles 60c. Per Gal.

California Evaporated Peaches,

Apples and Pears 17c. Per Lb.

G. A. Greer,

BON MARCHE

BON MARCHE

BON MARCHE

BON MARCHE

BON MARCHE

BON MARCHE

BON MARCHE

BON MARCHE

BON MARCHE

BON MARCHE

BON MARCHE

BON MARCHE

BON MARCHE

BON MARCHE

BON MARCHE

BON MARCHE

BON MARCHE

BON MARCHE

BON MARCHE

BON MARCHE

BON MARCHE

BON MARCHE

BON MARCHE

BON MARCHE

BON MARCHE

BON MARCHE

BON MARCHE

BON MARCHE

BON MARCHE

BON MARCHE

BON MARCHE

BON MARCHE

BON MARCHE

BON MARCHE

BON MARCHE

BON MARCHE

CRYSTAL PALACE,

41 PATTON AVE., ASHEVILLE, N. C.

EXCLUSIVE CHINA, GLASSWARE, LAMP AND

HOUSEHOLDING GOODS. Merchants in all their details.

BARGAINS.

We are still offering the following bargains:

Ten piece English decorated chamber sets,

$2.75; slip jars, English decorated, to match,

$1.00; 50c. set; white china for decorating, at very small margin of profit (especially to teachers); 112 piece English dinner set

$7.95; large Jap. after dinner coffee cup and saucer, 15c.; large Jap. tea cup and saucer,

25c.; 3 doz. fine lamps (nickel) prices low.

Oil and gasoline stoves, refrigerators, ice chests, refrigerators, coolers, etc. All at very low prices.

GARDEN

AND Field Seed.

Choice Kentucky Clover Seed.

Choice Kentucky Timothy Seed.

Choice Kentucky Orchard Grass Seed.

Choice Kentucky Blue Grass Seed.

Choice Kentucky Red Top Seed.

Choice Kentucky White Oats Seed.

Early Rose and Burbank Seed.

Potatoes and Garden Seed.

POWELL & SNIDER

POWELL & SNIDER

POWELL & SNIDER

POWELL & SNIDER

POWELL & SNIDER

POWELL & SNIDER

POWELL & SNIDER

POWELL & SNIDER

POWELL & SNIDER

POWELL & SNIDER

POWELL & SNIDER

POWELL & SNIDER

POWELL & SNIDER

BLOODY RIOT!

All South Carolina

in a Foment.

Tillman Spies Invade

Private Homes.

AT DARTINGTON FATAL

SHOOTING FOLLOWS.

THE MILITIA, ORDERED OUT,

REFUSES TO MOVE.

The Governor Seizes the Telegraph and Railway Lines and Virtually Places the State Under Martial Law.

WASHINGTON, March 31.—The startling news has just been received here that Governor Tillman of South Carolina has taken possession of all the telegraph lines in the State and has given orders that nothing of an inflammatory nature be allowed sent over them, and that traffic be confined to business messages only.

Governor Tillman has also notified the railroad authorities he will at once take possession of all the railroads in the State under the same law by which he has taken possession of the telegraph lines. This law is in the general statutes of South Carolina, section 2,582.

"The governor of the State, when, in his judgment, public safety may require it, is hereby authorized to take possession of any or all of the telegraph lines in the State. . . . To take possession of any or all railroads in the State. . . . and to place under military control all the officers, agents and employees belonging to the telegraph and railroad lines thus taken possession of, so that they shall be considered part of the military establishment of the State, subject to all restrictions imposed by the rules and articles of war."

CHARLESTON, S. C., March 31.—The fourth brigade of State troops was ordered out today by Governor Tillman to protect the whiskey constabulary in Dartington. It has refused to move. The Adjutant General of the State is here trying to raise an army to go to Dartington, but without success.

The last news from the seat of war in Dartington represents everything as quiet. Citizens are still hunting the constabulary and advices from Timmons-ville state that the fugitives have been located and that a posse has started in pursuit of them. The Mayor of Dartington has telegraphed for blood hounds with which to track the murderers. The riot took place at the depot. A correspondent of the News and Courier telegraphs this account of the killing.

"At this time a few citizens were seated around the scene and a number of spies were collected in a group at a short distance. F. E. Norment expostulated at the language being used. Just then Constable McLendon drew a pistol and reaching over the shoulder of Rogers shot Frank Norment dead. The constables used their Winchester's and the citizens returned the fire with their pistols. There were very few pistols among the citizens, however, and they did not do a fair showing against their well armed assailants.

Frank Norment was killed instantly, being pierced by his shot. Peeper was shot dead in his tracks. Redmond fell second, shot in three places. After shooting Norment and Redmond, the riotous mob was shot at by the men and kill. Chief of Police A. E. Dargan was dangerously wounded in the foot. Louis Norment was shot in the breast and K. D. Luens was shot in five places.

Constables kept up the firing until they had cleared the platform.

The spies fled in all directions and as they were running through the town it was seen that four of them were wounded, one in the leg, another in the back, the third in the chest and a fourth had his nose shot off. As soon as the citizens received the news of the shooting they armed themselves and started in pursuit of the flying constables. They caused them into a swamp firing at them as they ran. The militia companies of Charleston, Sumter, Manning and Winthrop have refused to respond to the governors call for troops.

AT FEVER HEAT.

Excitement in Columbia—Telegraph Under Surveillance.

COLUMBIA, S. C., March 31.—The three Columbia companies of the State troops disbanded yesterday under the great pressure brought to bear upon them, rather than to obey the Governor's orders to go to Dartington. The excitement here in consequence of this action, was at fever heat.

This morning up to 11 o'clock everything was quiet and no one would have supposed for a moment that the city had been in such wild disorder the previous night. A body of armed citizens left here for Dartington this morning to aid the people in attacking the constables. Something seems to be amiss at Dartington as no news is coming either to the executive or to the newspapers. Probably the wires are under surveillance. [This seems to confirm the Washington dispatch above.—THE CITIZEN.]

Last night in view of the reported threats of forcing the governor and destroying the dispensary, penitentiary guards were detailed to protect the Governor's mansion and the dispensary. Passengers from the scene of hostilities last night report large gatherings of freed men and boys along the line of the railroad and at the hot spots armed with shot guns and rifles. At each stop made for the constabulary.

It is reported that at Florence the dispensary was wrecked during the night. Assistant Adjutant General John Gary Watts has just (noon) passed in a wagon on his way to the State Armory, carrying with him a disarmed company of freed men. The Governor having given orders to that effect. A large crowd assembled

WAR IN SAMOA

Chiefs Refuse to Work Out Their

Jag Fines.

AUCKLAND, March 31.—The steamer Alama arrived yesterday. She brings news of disturbances in Samoa which threaten serious consequences unless checked. The trouble grew out of the action of the new Supreme Judge in imposing fines upon some minor chiefs for having failed to pay a fine.

The followers of the chiefs arose in armed rebellion. An attempt was made to disarm the rebellious natives. In the fight with the government troops 30 rebels were killed and 50 wounded. The government troops lost a dozen or more killed and wounded.

HE CONTINUES TO DENY

BRECKINRIDGE STILL ON

THE STAND.

He Thought Miss Pollard Was a

Mature Woman—No Letters Sent to Rhodes Through Plaintiff's

Mother.

WASHINGTON, March 31.—After recess yesterday Mr. Breckinridge testified that he had examined papers in which he endorsed Miss Pollard's application for a position under the civil service in which she was herself down on Nov. 30, 1890. He never had any reason to doubt she was a mature woman, and nothing occurred to make him think otherwise. He first learned she was at Saiv institute the following October. He saw her coming out the gate with books in hand with other girls he knew. They walked down the street together and she told him she was going to Saiv institute and boarding at the house of Miss Hoyt and Mrs. Keenan. He said she was the most of Miss Pollard that he received him at night in her room at Saiv institute. "I saw her once in her room," he said. "I saw her once in her room, I saw her away from Lexington in the spring of 1885, but where she had gone or who she went he did not know. [This was the time Miss Pollard said she was in Norway founding asylum.]

He denied arranging, with plaintiff for sending letters to Rhodes through her mother. He got plaintiff's letters to Rhodes from Mrs. Keenan, who he never, to his knowledge, saw Mrs. Dr. Street in Cincinnati. He denied the statement of Mrs. Pollard that he was sitting in Cincinnati in August following their meeting at Sarah Guest's. He did not meet her till October. He did not see her on the train and went with her to the house of Mrs. Rose on Georgia street. Let her there, went out on business and returned after supper remaining several hours. That was the first time he became acquainted with the plaintiff. Col. Breckinridge described the occurrence at Mrs. Lake Blackburn's and at Superintendent Moe's office and elsewhere. He said that the plaintiff, who he never, to his knowledge, saw Mrs. Dr. Street in Cincinnati. He denied the statement of Mrs. Pollard that he was sitting in Cincinnati in August following their meeting at Sarah Guest's. He did not meet her till October. He did not see her on the train and went with her to the house of Mrs. Rose on Georgia street. Let her there, went out on business and returned after supper remaining several hours. That was the first time he became acquainted with the plaintiff. Col. Breckinridge described the occurrence at Mrs. Lake Blackburn's and at Superintendent Moe's office and elsewhere. He said that the plaintiff, who he never, to his knowledge, saw Mrs. Dr. Street in Cincinnati. He denied the statement of Mrs. Pollard that he was sitting in Cincinnati in August following their meeting at Sarah Guest's. He did not meet her till October. He did not see her on the train and went with her to the house of Mrs. Rose on Georgia street. Let her there, went out on business and returned after supper remaining several hours. That was the first time he became acquainted with the plaintiff. Col. Breckinridge described the occurrence at Mrs. Lake Blackburn's and at Superintendent Moe's office and elsewhere. He said that the plaintiff, who he never, to his knowledge, saw Mrs. Dr. Street in Cincinnati. He denied the statement of Mrs. Pollard that he was sitting in Cincinnati in August following their meeting at Sarah Guest's. He did not meet her till October. He did not see her on the train and went with her to the house of Mrs. Rose on Georgia street. Let her there, went out on business and returned after supper remaining several hours. That was the first time he became acquainted with the plaintiff. Col. Breckinridge described the occurrence at Mrs. Lake Blackburn's and at Superintendent Moe's office and elsewhere. He said that the plaintiff, who he never, to his knowledge, saw Mrs. Dr. Street in Cincinnati. He denied the statement of Mrs. Pollard that he was sitting in Cincinnati in August following their meeting at Sarah Guest's. He did not meet her till October. He did not see her on the train and went with her to the house of Mrs. Rose on Georgia street. Let her there, went out on business and returned after supper remaining several hours. That was the first time he became acquainted with the plaintiff. Col. Breckinridge described the occurrence at Mrs. Lake Blackburn's and at Superintendent Moe's office and elsewhere. He said that the plaintiff, who he never, to his knowledge, saw Mrs. Dr. Street in Cincinnati. He denied the statement of Mrs. Pollard that he was sitting in Cincinnati in August following their meeting at Sarah Guest's. He did not meet her till October. He did not see her on the train and went with her to the house of Mrs. Rose on Georgia street. Let her there, went out on business and returned after supper remaining several hours. That was the first time he became acquainted with the plaintiff. Col. Breckinridge described the occurrence at Mrs. Lake Blackburn's and at Superintendent Moe's office and elsewhere. He said that the plaintiff, who he never, to his knowledge, saw Mrs. Dr. Street in Cincinnati. He denied the statement of Mrs. Pollard that he was sitting in Cincinnati in August following their meeting at Sarah Guest's. He did not meet her till October. He did not see her on the train and went with her to the house of Mrs. Rose on Georgia street. Let her there, went out on business and returned after supper remaining several hours. That was the first time he became acquainted with the plaintiff. Col. Breckinridge described the occurrence at Mrs. Lake Blackburn's and at Superintendent Moe's office and elsewhere. He said that the plaintiff, who he never, to his knowledge, saw Mrs. Dr. Street in Cincinnati. He denied the statement of Mrs. Pollard that he was sitting in Cincinnati in August following their meeting at Sarah Guest's. He did not meet her till October. He did not see her on the train and went with her to the house of Mrs. Rose on Georgia street. Let her there, went out on business and returned after supper remaining several hours. That was the first time he became acquainted with the plaintiff. Col. Breckinridge described the occurrence at Mrs. Lake Blackburn's and at Superintendent Moe's office and elsewhere. He said that the plaintiff, who he never, to his knowledge, saw Mrs. Dr. Street in Cincinnati. He denied the statement of Mrs. Pollard that he was sitting in Cincinnati in August following their meeting at Sarah Guest's. He did not meet her till October. He did not see her on the train and went with her to the house of Mrs. Rose on Georgia street. Let her there, went out on business and returned after supper remaining several hours. That was the first time he became acquainted with the plaintiff. Col. Breckinridge described the occurrence at Mrs. Lake Blackburn's and at Superintendent Moe's office and elsewhere. He said that the plaintiff, who he never, to his knowledge, saw Mrs. Dr. Street in Cincinnati. He denied the statement of Mrs. Pollard that he was sitting in Cincinnati in August following their meeting at Sarah Guest's. He did not meet her till October. He did not see her on the train and went with her to the house of Mrs. Rose on Georgia street. Let her there, went out on business and returned after supper remaining several hours. That was the first time he became acquainted with the plaintiff. Col. Breckinridge described the occurrence at Mrs. Lake Blackburn's and at Superintendent Moe's office and elsewhere. He said that the plaintiff, who he never, to his knowledge, saw Mrs. Dr. Street in Cincinnati. He denied the statement of Mrs. Pollard that he was sitting in Cincinnati in August following their meeting at Sarah Guest's. He did not meet her till October. He did not see her on the train and went with her to the house of Mrs. Rose on Georgia street. Let her there, went out on business and returned after supper remaining several hours. That was the first time he became acquainted with the plaintiff. Col. Breckinridge described the occurrence at Mrs. Lake Blackburn's and at Superintendent Moe's office and elsewhere. He said that the plaintiff, who he never, to his knowledge, saw Mrs. Dr. Street in Cincinnati. He denied the statement of Mrs. Pollard that he was sitting in Cincinnati in August following their meeting at Sarah Guest's. He did not meet her till October. He did not see her on the train and went with her to the house of Mrs. Rose on Georgia street. Let her there, went out on business and returned after supper remaining several hours. That was the first time he became acquainted with the plaintiff. Col. Breckinridge described the occurrence at Mrs. Lake Blackburn's and at Superintendent Moe's office and elsewhere. He said that the plaintiff, who he never, to his knowledge, saw Mrs. Dr. Street in Cincinnati. He denied the statement of Mrs. Pollard that he was sitting in Cincinnati in August following their meeting at Sarah Guest's. He did not meet her till October. He did not see her on the train and went with her to the house of Mrs. Rose on Georgia street. Let her there, went out on business and returned after supper remaining several hours. That was the first time he became acquainted with the plaintiff. Col. Breckinridge described the occurrence at Mrs. Lake Blackburn's and at Superintendent Moe's office and elsewhere. He said that the plaintiff, who he never, to his knowledge, saw Mrs. Dr. Street in Cincinnati. He denied the statement of Mrs. Pollard that he was sitting in Cincinnati in August following their meeting at Sarah Guest's. He did not meet her till October. He did not see her on the train and went with her to the house of Mrs. Rose on Georgia street. Let her there, went out on business and returned after supper remaining several hours. That was the first time he became acquainted with the plaintiff. Col. Breckinridge described the occurrence at Mrs. Lake Blackburn's and at Superintendent Moe's office and elsewhere. He said that the plaintiff, who he never, to his knowledge, saw Mrs. Dr. Street in Cincinnati. He denied the statement of Mrs. Pollard that he was sitting in Cincinnati in August following their meeting at Sarah Guest's. He did not meet her till October. He did not see her on the train and went with her to the house of Mrs. Rose on Georgia street. Let her there, went out on business and returned after supper remaining several hours. That was the first time he became acquainted with the plaintiff. Col. Breckinridge described the occurrence at Mrs. Lake Blackburn's and at Superintendent Moe's office and elsewhere. He said that the plaintiff, who he never, to his knowledge, saw Mrs. Dr. Street in Cincinnati. He denied the statement of Mrs. Pollard that he was sitting in Cincinnati in August following their meeting at Sarah Guest's. He did not meet her till October. He did not see her on the train and went with her to the house of Mrs. Rose on Georgia street. Let her there, went out on business and returned after supper remaining several hours. That was the first time he became acquainted with the plaintiff. Col. Breckinridge described the occurrence at Mrs. Lake Blackburn's and at Superintendent Moe's office and elsewhere. He said that the plaintiff, who he never, to his knowledge, saw Mrs. Dr. Street in Cincinnati. He denied the statement of Mrs. Pollard that he was sitting in Cincinnati in August following their meeting at Sarah Guest's. He did not meet her till October. He did not see her on the train and went with her to the house of Mrs. Rose on Georgia street. Let her there, went out on business and returned after supper remaining several hours. That was the first time he became acquainted with the plaintiff. Col. Breckinridge described the occurrence at Mrs. Lake Blackburn's and at Superintendent Moe's office and elsewhere. He said that the plaintiff, who he never, to his knowledge, saw Mrs. Dr. Street in Cincinnati. He denied the statement of Mrs. Pollard that he was sitting in Cincinnati in August following their meeting at Sarah Guest's. He did not meet her till October. He did not see her on the train and went with her to the house of Mrs. Rose on Georgia street. Let her there, went out on business and returned after supper remaining several hours. That was the first time he became acquainted with the plaintiff. Col. Breckinridge described the occurrence at Mrs. Lake Blackburn's and at Superintendent Moe's office and elsewhere. He said that the plaintiff, who he never, to his knowledge, saw Mrs. Dr. Street in Cincinnati. He denied the statement of Mrs. Pollard that he was sitting in Cincinnati in August following their meeting at Sarah Guest's. He did not meet her till October. He did not see her on the train and went with her to the house of Mrs. Rose on Georgia street. Let her there, went out on business and returned after supper remaining several hours. That was the first time he became acquainted with the plaintiff. Col. Breckinridge described the occurrence at Mrs. Lake Blackburn's and at Superintendent Moe's office and elsewhere. He said that the plaintiff, who he never, to his knowledge, saw Mrs. Dr. Street in Cincinnati. He denied the statement of Mrs. Pollard that he was sitting in Cincinnati in August following their meeting at Sarah Guest's. He did not meet her till October. He did not see her on the train and went with her to the house of Mrs. Rose on Georgia street. Let her there, went out on business and returned after supper remaining several hours. That was the first time he became acquainted with the plaintiff. Col. Breckinridge described the occurrence at Mrs. Lake Blackburn's and at Superintendent Moe's office and elsewhere. He said that the plaintiff, who he never, to his knowledge, saw Mrs. Dr. Street in Cincinnati. He denied the statement of Mrs. Pollard that he was sitting in Cincinnati in August following their meeting at Sarah Guest's. He did not meet her till October. He did not see her on the train and went with her to the house of Mrs. Rose on Georgia street. Let her there, went out on business and returned after supper remaining several hours. That was the first time he became acquainted with the plaintiff. Col. Breckinridge described the occurrence at Mrs. Lake Blackburn's and at Superintendent Moe's office and elsewhere. He said that the plaintiff, who he never, to his knowledge, saw Mrs. Dr. Street in Cincinnati. He denied the statement of Mrs. Pollard that he was sitting in Cincinnati in August following their meeting at Sarah Guest's. He did not meet her till October. He did not see her on the train and went with her to the house of Mrs. Rose on Georgia street. Let her there, went out on business and returned after supper remaining several hours. That was the first time he became acquainted with the plaintiff. Col. Breckinridge described the occurrence at Mrs. Lake Blackburn's and at Superintendent Moe's office and elsewhere. He said that the plaintiff, who he never, to his knowledge, saw Mrs. Dr. Street in Cincinnati. He denied the statement of Mrs. Pollard that he was sitting in Cincinnati in August following their meeting at Sarah Guest's. He did not meet her till October. He did not see her on the train and went with her to the house of Mrs. Rose on Georgia street. Let her there, went out on business and returned after supper remaining several hours. That was the first time he became acquainted with the plaintiff. Col. Breckinridge described the occurrence at Mrs. Lake Blackburn's and at Superintendent Moe's office and elsewhere. He said that the plaintiff, who he never, to his knowledge, saw Mrs. Dr. Street in Cincinnati. He denied the statement of Mrs. Pollard that he was sitting in Cincinnati in August following their meeting at Sarah Guest's. He did not meet her till October. He did not see her on the train and went with her to the house of Mrs. Rose on Georgia street. Let her there, went out on business and returned after supper remaining several hours. That was the first time he became acquainted with the plaintiff. Col. Breckinridge described the occurrence at Mrs. Lake Blackburn's and at Superintendent Moe's office and elsewhere. He said that the plaintiff, who he never, to his knowledge, saw Mrs. Dr. Street in Cincinnati. He denied the statement of Mrs. Pollard that he was sitting in Cincinnati in August following their meeting at Sarah Guest's. He did not meet her till October. He did not see her on the train and went with her to the house of Mrs. Rose on Georgia street. Let her there, went out on business and returned after supper remaining several hours. That was the first time he became acquainted with the plaintiff. Col. Breckinridge described the occurrence at Mrs. Lake Blackburn's and at Superintendent Moe's office and elsewhere. He said that the plaintiff, who he never, to his knowledge, saw Mrs. Dr. Street in Cincinnati. He denied the statement of Mrs. Pollard that he was sitting in Cincinnati in August following their meeting at Sarah Guest's. He did not meet her till October. He did not see her on the train and went with her to the house of Mrs. Rose on Georgia street. Let her there, went out on business and returned after supper remaining several hours. That was the first time he became acquainted with the plaintiff. Col. Breckinridge described the occurrence at Mrs. Lake Blackburn's and at Superintendent Moe's office and elsewhere. He said that the plaintiff, who he never, to his knowledge, saw Mrs. Dr. Street in Cincinnati. He denied the statement of Mrs. Pollard that he was sitting in Cincinnati in August following their meeting at Sarah Guest's. He did not meet her till October. He did not see her on the train and went with her to the house of Mrs. Rose on Georgia street. Let her there, went out on business and returned after supper remaining several hours. That was the first time he became acquainted with the plaintiff. Col. Breckinridge described the occurrence at Mrs. Lake Blackburn's and at Superintendent Moe's office and elsewhere. He said that the plaintiff, who he never, to his knowledge, saw Mrs. Dr. Street in Cincinnati. He denied the statement of Mrs. Pollard that he was sitting in Cincinnati in August following their meeting at Sarah Guest's. He did not meet her till October. He did not see her on the train and went with her to the house of Mrs. Rose on Georgia street. Let her there, went out on business and returned after supper remaining several hours. That was the first time he became acquainted with the plaintiff. Col. Breckinridge described the occurrence at Mrs. Lake Blackburn's and at Superintendent Moe's office and elsewhere. He said that the plaintiff, who he never, to his knowledge, saw Mrs. Dr. Street in Cincinnati. He denied the statement of Mrs. Pollard that he was sitting in Cincinnati in August following their meeting at Sarah Guest's. He did not meet her till October. He did not see her on the train and went with her to the house of Mrs. Rose on Georgia street. Let her there, went out on business and returned after supper remaining several hours. That was the first time he became acquainted with the plaintiff. Col. Breckinridge described the occurrence at Mrs. Lake Blackburn's and at Superintendent Moe's office and elsewhere. He said that the plaintiff, who he never, to his knowledge, saw Mrs. Dr. Street in Cincinnati. He denied the statement of Mrs. Pollard that he was sitting in Cincinnati in August following their meeting at Sarah Guest's. He did not meet her till October. He did not see her on the train and went with her to the house of Mrs. Rose on Georgia street. Let her there, went out on business and returned after supper remaining several hours. That was the first time he became acquainted with the plaintiff. Col. Breckinridge described the occurrence at Mrs. Lake Blackburn's and at Superintendent Moe's office and elsewhere. He said that the plaintiff, who he never, to his knowledge, saw Mrs. Dr. Street in Cincinnati. He denied the statement of Mrs. Pollard that he was sitting in Cincinnati in August following their meeting at Sarah Guest's. He did not meet her till October. He did not see her on the train and went with her to the house of Mrs. Rose on Georgia street. Let her there, went out on business and returned after supper remaining several hours. That was the first time he became acquainted with the plaintiff. Col. Breckinridge described the occurrence at Mrs. Lake Blackburn's and at Superintendent Moe's office and elsewhere. He said that the plaintiff, who he never, to his knowledge, saw Mrs. Dr. Street in Cincinnati. He denied the statement of Mrs. Pollard that he was sitting in Cincinnati in August following their meeting at Sarah Guest's. He did not meet her till October. He did not see her on the train and went with her to the house of Mrs. Rose on Georgia street. Let her there, went out on business and returned after supper remaining several hours. That was the first time he became acquainted with the plaintiff. Col. Breckinridge described the occurrence at Mrs. Lake Blackburn's and at Superintendent Moe's office and elsewhere. He said that the plaintiff, who he never, to his knowledge, saw Mrs. Dr. Street in Cincinnati. He denied the statement of Mrs. Pollard that he was sitting in Cincinnati in August following their meeting at Sarah Guest's. He did not meet her till October. He did not