

BOOKBINDING
WE DO
IN CORRECT AND TASTFUL FINISH.
Citizen Building.

Asheville Daily Citizen.

BOOKBINDERY
FOR ALL
DESCRIPTIONS OF WORK.
SKILLED WORKMEN.
Citizen Building.

VOLUME IX.—NO 286.

ASHEVILLE, N. C., MONDAY EVENING, APRIL 2, 1894.

PRICE 5 CENTS

ABOUT COTTOLENE.

FROM "MARION HARLAND"

POMFRET, N. J.

I have made thorough tests of Cottolene and have no hesitation in recommending it as preferable to lard. This superiority manifests itself especially in frying. Cottolene, when melted up, is as clear as water. It seldom burns, and will stand a higher degree of temperature without scorching than will any other frying medium I have ever used. The same portion of Cottolene may be employed twice and even three times. The articles fried in it under my care have covered a wide range, embracing croquettes, fish, fritters, both vegetables and fruits, egg plant, hominy, mush, fried bread, etc. In none of these could there be distinguished the unpleasant taste frequently noticed in food cooked in lard. Nor is the slight odor that comes from hot Cottolene as disagreeable or pervasive as that of boiling lard. I have also found Cottolene admirable for quick biscuits; they are devoid of the pork flavor that often permeates lard-shortened biscuits. Mixed with butter and used in bread dough, Cottolene is also good. Such a substitute for lard should supersede it in every kitchen where hygiene and appetizing effects are studied. Cottolene has been used for the past two months in the kitchen of my mother, Mrs. Terhune, ("Marion Harland") with most satisfactory results. Her opinion of its merits coincides with mine.

CHRISTINE TERHUNE HERRICK.

For Sale by All Leading Grocers

HOUSES FOR RENT.

THE MIDDLE HOUSE IN

Gray Gables Block,

—ALSO—

FIVE ROOM BRICK

COTTAGE.

Corner Walnut and Fenland Streets.

A. D. COOPER.

BON MARCHE

THE EXACT NEW YORK COST

SALES TO BE CONTINUED FOR

A SHORT WHILE (BUT, SOME

VERY DESIRABLE GOODS YET

IN STOCK. ALL AT EXACT NEW YORK COST.

BON MARCHE

37 SOUTH MAIN STREET.

THE GREAT PIPE SALE

The Model Cigar Store

Is Now On,

AND WILL BE KEPT UP FOR 10 DAYS

Don't miss the opportunity. 150 dozen pipes at sacrifice prices. Come and get your selection.

L. BLOMBERG

17 Patton Avenue.

CORTLAND BROS.

REAL ESTATE BROKERS.

INVESTMENT AGENTS.

NOTARY PUBLIC.

Loans Securely placed at 8 per cent.

Offices 25 & 26 Patton Ave., up stairs

SOME LOW PRICES

California Peaches 18c. Per Can.

California Apricots 13c. Per can.

Pure Maple Syrup $1.25 Per Gal.

Cucumber Pickles 40c. Per Gal.

Sweet Mix Pickles 76c. Per Gal.

Sour Mix Pickles 60c. Per Gal.

California Evaporated Peaches,

Apricots and Pears 17c. Per Lb.

G. A. Greer.

Garden Seed That Grow

When you buy seed you want new crop seed. You want the best to be had. To get the best call for

D. M. FERRY'S

Celebrated Seeds.

The best cost no more than the others. You can't afford to experiment with your garden. Mail orders receive prompt attention.

RAY'S.

8 North Court Square. Telephone 194.

Watch out for bargain sale in novels next week at

RAY'S, On the Square

Temperature Tellers

IN NEED OF A THERMOMETER. WE HAVE A GOOD ASSORTMENT FOR USE IN THE ROOM, THE BATH AND THE DAIRY.

Manitoba Corn Cure

A LIQUID CORN CURE. WILL NOT INJURE THE FEET. 25 CTS.

ROSE MYRRHINE

A PERFECT LIQUID DENTIFRICE. EFFECTIVE IN ITS PURPOSE AND HARMLESS. 25C.

Manitoba Corn Salve 10c.

Fig Paste Laxative.

TIRED OF PILLS AND SALTS, TRY FIG PASTE LAXATIVE, MILD AND PLEASANT, BATHN LIKE A CONFECTION. 25 CTS.

CARMICHAEL'S PHARMACY.

RECEIVED FROM FACTORY TWICE A WEEK

THAD. W. THRASH & CO

CRYSTAL PALACE,

61 PATTON AVE. ASHEVILLE, N. C.

Exclusive China, Glassware, Lamp and housefurnishing goods. Merchants in all their details.

BARGAINS.

We are still offering the following bargains: Ten piece English decorated chamber sets, $2.75; slop jars, English decorated, to match, $2.25; very thin, fine tumblers (worth $1.00) 50c. doz.; white china for decorating, at very small margin of profit (especially to teachers); 112 piece English dinner set, $7.95; large Jap. after dinner coffee cup and saucer, 15c.; large Jap. tea cup and saucer, 35c.; 8 doz. fine lamps (nickled) prices low. Oil and gasoline stoves, freezers, ice chests, refrigerators, coolers, etc. All at very low prices.

GARDEN AND ## Field Seed.

Choice Kentucky Clover Seed.

Choice Kentucky Timothy Seed.

Choice Kentucky Orchard Grass Seed.

Choice Kentucky Blue Grass Seed.

Choice Kentucky Red Top Seed.

Choice Kentucky White Oats Seed.

Early Rose and Burbank Seed

Potatoes and Garden Seed.

POWELL & SNIDER

A very handsome stock of clothing, dry goods, fancy goods, smallwares, shoes, hats, rugs, trunks, bags, etc., at fixed and reasonable prices. An immense variety of straw hats for men, boys, misses and children much below competitors' prices. Our fine clothing is very high in grade, excellently cut, spunged, silk sewn, etc. BUTTERICK & CO.

Heinitsh & Reagan

WE ARE THE SELLING AGENTS IN ASHEVILLE FOR

ROYAL'S

CONFECTIONS

Pure and Delicious

BON BONS AND CHOCOLATE CHOCOLATE PARLINES, MIXED CHOCOLATES, CREAM WINTERGREEN, CREAM PEPPERMINTS, OLD FASHIONED MOLASSES CANDY, ETC.

RECEIVED FROM FACTORY TWICE A WEEK

QUIET AT DARLINGTON

220 MILITIAMEN ARE NOW QUARTERED THERE.

They Were Called Out To Preserve The Peace Not To Make Arrests—Tillman's Proclamation—Constables Still Missing.

DARLINGTON, S. C., April 2.—All is quiet here and there are no indications of any trouble to come.

As the position of the people of Darlington has not been fully understood, the News and Courier special correspondent has gotten the following concise statement from Mayor Dargan. He said:

"The trouble in this matter is that Governor Tillman assumes that the constables enjoy privileges or have privileges that are not enjoyed by any other citizen of this State or of the United States and not possessed by a judge on the bench or even by the President of the United States; which is that, by reason of the fact that they are State constables, they can with impunity shoot down citizens of the commonwealth and be exempt from arrest under the law. The mayor of the city has thrown open every public place to the troops, and they are now being comfortably quartered in the Darlington guards armory, the court house, the city hall and the mayor's court room. Altogether there are 220 men, most of the forces being well-drilled organizations. Gen. Riechburg said that he had come to Darlington with orders to preserve peace and that he positively had no instructions to make any arrests. His duty was to uphold the law and no one would be molested unless the occasion arose. COLUMBIA, April 2.—Governor Tillman has issued the following proclamation: "Whereas, certain persons have assembled in the counties of Darlington and Florence and are now in open rebellion against the authority of the government of this State, and it has become impracticable to enforce by the ordinary course of judicial process the laws of the State within said counties. "Now, therefore, I, B. R. Tillman, governor of the State of South Carolina, do proclaim such persons so assembled to be in open rebellion against the laws of the State and I do hereby command all such assemblages of insurgents to disperse and withdraw to their respective abodes within 24 hours. "Done at Columbia, this 31st day of March, 1894." A censorship is being exercised in the Western Union Telegraph office on the lines of Judge Watt's injunction. A special dispatch addressed to the Charlotte Observer from the office of the State was refused transmission upon the ground that it was of a character prohibited by the injunction. It was written from an anti-Tillman point of view and adversely criticized Governor Tillman's policy. Saturday night the local dispensaries at Florence and Timmonsville were raided and the whiskey turned out in the gutters. Eleven companies of State troops left here yesterday afternoon for the scene of the disturbance. It is said that the troops are first to be taken to Florence. What is to be done with them is a mystery. Gen. Riechburg who is in command would not say anything about his orders. The Southern Associated Press representative had a lengthy interview with Governor Tillman at the executive mansion yesterday. There was some indication of nervousness in his manner, but altogether he was as collected as could be expected under the circumstances. The governor stated that, in his opinion the worst of the danger was over. He said that inasmuch as Darlington and Florence were in a state of insurrection he felt it his duty to exert himself to the utmost to uphold the dignity and preserve the peace of the State. At the time of the interview the 300 militiamen had just left on a special train for Darlington. In view of the number of the companies which had refused to respond to his call, he was greatly gratified at having finally placed the troops en route to the scene of the tragedy. "But will they shoot?" was asked. "Will they shoot?" exclaimed the Governor with emphasis. "Well, you ought to have heard them cheer when I told them to shoot." He then went on to give me the substance of his speech to assembled militia just previous to their departure. He said Darlington and the community was in insurrection and the authority of the State, and the insurrectionists must be put down. The property of the State (meaning the dispensaries) had been destroyed. The guilty parties must be discovered and brought to justice. The dispensaries constables were being pursued and were in imminent danger of losing their lives. He was not going to permit them to be hounded down and shot like dogs. Pending developments in these matters he would keep the militia under arms. Governor Tillman says there were 23 constables at Darlington. Two were killed, four have been returned to Columbia. Nine of the missing constables turned up in Williamsburg county on the way to Charleston. The six constables still missing are: Meekins, King, Swan, Walker, Brown and Holloway. Governor Tillman says he will not dismiss the militia until these officers are found and the troops have been sent to Darlington to search for them and to restore law there. LONDON, April 2.—The Times this morning comments on the disastrous failure of restrictive legislation in South Carolina as conveying a striking lesson to total abstainers here.

SENATOR IRBY'S VIEWS.

He Supports Tillman and Attacks the Militia

WASHINGTON, April 2.—Governor Tillman's views of the South Carolina difficulties are undoubtedly reflected by Senator Irby. Discussing the situation Senator Irby said: "The public do not understand the cause of all this trouble in South Carolina. It is a mere pretense and fraud on the part of certain citizens in Darlington that it is an honest revolt against the invasion of their private rights and homes. "The dispensary law of the State forbids the sale of liquor other than as authorized by it and persons have no right to prostitute their homes by making bar rooms of them, and then crying out against what they term invasion of their private rights. The truth of the whole matter is that Darlington has been hot bed of anti-Tillmanism, or more properly speaking, the right of the people to rule and control the Governor of the State, and it is not surprising that this trouble should break out at this place. It is an effort on their part to destroy Tillman and the right of the people to choose their own leaders. "It is a mere farce for South Carolina or any other State government to keep up military organizations that are hostile to the enforcement of the law, and their refusal to hold Governor Tillman's hands up in his effort to maintain the supremacy of the law is a disgrace to South Carolina. The sooner Gov. Tillman calls the State legislature together and re-organizes his militia by the enrollment of loyal farmers, the better it will be for the maintenance of law and order."

Senator Irby was asked to express his opinion upon the seizure of railroad and telegraph lines in his State and replied: "The laws of South Carolina justify it and I fully endorse Governor Tillman's course throughout. The railroad and telegraph lines have been unyieldingly in his administration, and from what I gather are doing all in their power to precipitate this war between a handful of political mountebanks and the organized authorities of the State. He would have been derelict in his duty if he had acted otherwise."

PAT WALSH APPOINTED

NOT A CANDIDATE FOR COLQUITT'S PLACE.

He is a Free Silver Man and Not a Supporter of Cleveland—He Accepts.

ATLANTA, Ga., April 2.—Gov. Northern this morning appointed Pat Walsh, editor of the Augusta Chronicle, United States Senator to Succeed Senator Colquitt. He is free silver man.

Col. Walsh was not a candidate and has protested from the beginning against the presentation of his name by his friends, having been a loyal supporter of his friend Major Cummings. He has been long recognized as the most intimate friend and supporter in public life of Governor Northern. He was also one of Colquitt's strongest supporters in several campaigns of the latter for the Governorship, and was afterwards a member of the Democratic national committee, which position he yielded a few years ago. He vigorously opposed Cleveland's nomination last time and is emphatic in his views that every pledge of the Democratic platform should be redeemed.

AUGUSTA, Ga., April 2.—Mr. Walsh has accepted the appointment.

FROM WEAVERVILLE.

Peaches Wanted—Busy Farmers—A Public Debate.

WEAVERVILLE, N. C., March 31.—Asheville can send some of her Polk county peach wagons here next fall, for they will find Weaverville a good market. Remember, we want uncooked fruit. At this time we have plenty of cooking fruit—in the blossom.

C. C. Brown, the popular boarding house man, now has his house well filled.

The farmers of this section are very busy now reworking their tobacco beds, and some busy ones are reworking their oats, probably. The oat crop, however, is not so seriously damaged as was supposed. We believe there will be a fair stand.

There will be two saw mills running near here in a few days.

Jacob Hess, an Illinois man, who has been residing in North Carolina for three years, and who recently removed into our village, has become so well satisfied with our climate that he is looking out for a permanent location here.

The nineteenth public debate of the Clatsop Literary Society will be held in the college chapel April 13, 1894. A cordial invitation is extended to the public. The following is the program: President, W. E. Reeves; Secretary, J. C. Harren; 1st declaimer, L. B. Coggins; 1st orator, Kenneth Boyd. Subject of oration: "The Thoughts of Men are Unmitigated Evil." Affirmative: I. E. Johnson, J. J. Hester; negative: I. M. James, J. J. Roberts. Second declaimer, T. R. Bennett; 2d orator, W. L. McCracken. Subject of oration: "The South the Custodian of our Liberties."

WENT DOWN TO DEATH

Fatal Accident To Frank McCulloch At Radford, Va.

Julius C. Martin, esq., has received a letter bearing the sad news of the death of his brother-in-law, Frank A. McCulloch, of Radford, Va. Mr. McCulloch was a contractor superintending work on a bridge across a ravine at Radford, the bridge being taken down to give place to a steel structure. Friday a 70-foot section of the bridge fell, precipitating Mr. McCulloch and seven others to the bottom of the ravine. Four were killed almost instantly and all of the others were injured. Mr. McCulloch died within 24 hours.

Mr. McCulloch was married on the 10th of January last to Mr. Martin's sister, Miss Lena, who will be remembered by many Asheville friends who met her while she was here visiting.

A Big Steamer Disabled.

LONDON, April 2.—The North German Lloyd steamer Ems, which sailed from Bremen for New York March 17, was towed into Fayal, Azores, this morning by the British steamer Wild Flower. The propeller frame of the Ems broke a few days after the steamer left Southampton, March 18, and the big ship was obliged to proceed as best she could under canvas until the Wild Flower took her in tow.

Fire At Wilmington.

WILMINGTON, N. C., March 30.—At a fire on the corner of Front and Orange streets early this morning a Portuguese woman named Emanuel Mitchell or John Silva was suffocated by smoke and his body was not recovered until the fire had been extinguished.

Death Of a Bishop

TRENTON, N. J., April 2.—Right Rev. Michael Joseph O'Farrell, Bishop of the Diocese of Trenton, died suddenly this morning at the Episcopal residence.

HE IS STILL DENYING

BRECKINRIDGE'S THIRD DAY ON THE STAND.

He Never, He Avers, Proposed Marriage With The Plaintiff. And Never Mentioned His Wife's Name To Her—The Moore Interview.

WASHINGTON, April 3.—As soon as the Circuit court met this morning Breckinridge took the stand and began his third day's testimony concerning the relations between Madeleine Pollard and himself. As usual he was one of the earliest comers. When he took the stand he leaned somewhat forlornly on Judge Bradley's desk.

Butterworth began by quoting the testimony of Miss Pollard with reference to the alleged proposal of marriage in August, 1892, which the plaintiff claims, took place in a carriage in this city. Breckinridge denied all these statements of the plaintiff concerning the alleged conversation during the ride. He said he did not see the plaintiff in August 1892, and did not know she was in Washington at that time. Butterworth made a reference to Miss Pollard's statements that the defendant had made her give up her child and that he had talked with her about his deceased wife. "I never in any way mentioned to her the name of my wife," he said, in answer to Butterworth's question, whether this was true. "I never knew she had a living child, and I never asked her to give it up." Breckinridge also denied Miss Pollard's statements concerning their meetings at the Hoffman house in New York. "I did not see the plaintiff at the Hoffman house on the evening of April 30," he said, "because I was not there. I spent the evening after dusk in my wife's apartments. I did not tell her I had an engagement with Wm. C. Whitney or Chas. F. Fairchild, and that they were to send me abroad in the interest of a $30,000,000 railway scheme. I did not tell her April 30 that I was going to spend the night in a private car. None of my statements are true."

Breckinridge again related what happened during the visit to Major Moore and after leaving Moore's office. "I told her that the matter would probably be in the newspapers; that we had probably been seen going to the office of the Chief of Police and that a public scandal would result. I told her that she could not get another dollar out of me—not a dollar more for her support. She then began to cry and said that her excitement had resulted from her delicate condition."

Concerning statements at the interview with Maj. Moore, Breckinridge said Miss Pollard was anxious for him to tell Moore that no other man had had any improper relations with her, but he would not do so.

EVANS WON'T HAVE IT.

He Can Stand Pearson But Not The Populists.

SHELBY, March 31.—Capt. John B. Evans, chairman of the Republican State executive committee, was today interviewed by the Shelby Review on the subject of the talk of fusion between his party and the Populists. Capt. Evans declared with emphasis that there would be no fusion with the Populists on a State ticket. He says has not fought for the principles of Republicanism for 30 years to at last surrender his party and its principles to an aggregation of malcontents and office-seekers who represented no principle. He said a fusion with the Populists, even if it brought defeat to the Democrats, would result in disaster to the Republicans, for in order to effect such a fusion the Republicans must subordinate their principles and aims to the ambition of the Populists and in the end find themselves dominated by a political element more antagonistic to Republican principles, if possible, than Democracy. He further stated that he would oppose bitterly every movement looking to a fusion. Captain Evans said that Pearson came to see him and that he told him (Pearson) that he could support him because he had been with the Republicans for a long time on the tariff and county government questions; but that he could not tolerate any Populist tendencies.—Charlotte Observer.

A BRUTAL MURDER.

Hanged In Liverpool For Killing Her Husband.

LIVERPOOL, April 2.—Mrs. Margaret Walker, aged 53, was hanged here this morning for the murder of her husband. The murder was the most brutal and revolting in the criminal annals of Great Britain. For maintaining too intimate relations with another woman, Mrs. Walker, who was of masculine build, chained her husband to a bedpost in one of the upper rooms of their house and for four months administered to him a daily beating, finally finishing him by battering his brains out with a steel chain.

TRAGEDY IN MITCHELL.

The Body of Mrs. English Found In Toe River.

MARION, March 30.—Last Sunday Mrs. English, wife of Oliver English, disappeared and her body was found in Toe river by some boys. The report says Mrs. English's body was bruised, her skull broken in places, and her face wounded. The evidence before the coroner's jury of inquest showed that Mr. and Mrs. English were together late Sunday evening and that neighbors heard the woman scream shortly after dark. English, the husband of the murdered woman, is in jail at Bakeraville.—Charlotte Observer.

Getting Back to Work.

WOONSOCKET, R. I., April 2.—The factories of the Woonsocket Rubber company, this city and Millville, Mass., after two months' idleness will resume operations April 16. Twenty-six hundred people will be employed.

Coxes' Army Will Move.

BEAVER FALLS, Pa., April 2.—The Commonwealth army moved at 8 o'clock. An immense amount of provisions was gathered here.

AN OPEN LETTER!

No. 4,137 Westminster Avenue, Philadelphia, Pa., March 30, '94.

Raynor & Smith, No. 31 Patton Avenue, Asheville, N. C.

Will you kindly send me C. O. D. a fifty cent (50) bottle of your Camphorine?

Have been using for some time and find it excellent. Please send without delay and oblige. Yours Resp.,

Geo. C. Fuller.

MANUFACTURED ONLY BY

RAYSOR & SMITH.

31 PATTON AVF

ASHEVILLE

TO THE FRONT

WE HAVE JUST COMPLETED A FULL

LINE OF

HAND MADE SHOES

And will in the future carry in stock a full assortment of shoes of

OUR OWN MAKE!

THEY STAND

WITHOUT A RIVAL

ROBERTS.

9 Court Square, Asheville, N. C.

STANDARD

Quart Cans Tomatoes 10c.

Sugar Corn per Can 10.

Bartlett Pears per Can 20.

Grated Pineapple per Can 15c.

String Beans per Can 10c.

Evaporated Apricots per lb 16c.

T. J. REVELL,

80 North Main St. Telephone 113.