PRICE 5 CENTS.

From a Famous Club.

We have used Cottolene in the Chicago Club Kitchen for cooking purposes for the last six months, and find it far superior to the lard in the market.

FROM MRS. BENSON,

President New York Cooking School.

LAFAYETTE PLACE, N. Y.

I have made a thorough trial of Cottolene in biscuit and pie crust making, frying, and in all ways in which I am accustomed to using lard. It proves excellent, and in my opinion is every way preferable to lard. Therefore I heartily recommend it. Very truly yours,

MRS. F. A. BENSON,

FROM A MEDICAL JOURNAL.

What comparison can there be, for instance, between a pure vegetable oil like Cottolene and the unhealthy product called lard?

We are showing excellent styles in many lines on which our efforts to get more have resulted in absolute failure. This is because all hands operated very cautiously, owing to the losses of last year, so that the first stirring business broke up the stocks of price styles. Hard styles can always be bought in any quantity.

An improvement in all the departments of trade seems at last an established fact. Certainly the general conditions for resumption of prosperity in a moderate way are favorable, and our prediction is that the onward march will be steady.

THE TAX ON STATE BANKS

ACTION TAKEN BY THE DEMOCRATIC CAUCUS.

The Measure Will Be Made a Rider to The Brawley Bill and Be Discussed, At The Very Least.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—The Democratic caucus, after a session of two hours and a half last evening, adopted the following resolutions without a dissenting vote:

"Resolved, That it is the sense of this caucus that the prohibitory tax of 10 per cent. on state bank issues be repealed.

"Resolved, That when the bill known as the Brawley and Springer bill, which the committee on Banking and Currency has ordered reported to the House, is called up for action, an amendment be offered repealing the prohibitory tax on state banks; that ample time be afforded for discussion, and if necessary to secure this, the committee on rules be requested to take proper action.

Exactly 102 Democratic members of the House were present. The result of the caucus only means that the bill to repeal the State bank tax shall be considered as a rider to the Brawley bill, which is now on the calendar, and that a vote shall be had upon it. It was generally admitted in the caucus last night that this repeal could not be accomplished unconditionally.

Mr. Swanson gave as the result of his canvass 129 votes for unconditional repeal, and Mr. Williams declared as the result of his investigation that a majority of the House favored the repeal, although not unconditionally.

TILLMAN'S SEIZURES

The Matter in the Hands of the House Committee.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—The House committee on interstate and foreign commerce today heard Representative Grosvenor of Ohio, in support of his resolution directing the committee to investigate the legality of the action of Gov. Tillman of South Carolina in seizing the telegraph lines of South Carolina during the recent disturbance there and preventing the transmission of press dispatches.

Grosvenor said that under the statutes and decisions of the Supreme court of the United States, telegraph dispatches were subject to the interstate commerce law, and that the states had no authority to interfere with them. He held the following section of the revised statutes made telegraphic dispatches subject to the interstate commerce law: "Any telegraph company, now organized or which may hereafter be organized under the laws of any state, shall have the right to construct, maintain and operate lines through and over any portion of the public domain of the United States, over and along any of the military and post roads of the United States which have been or hereafter may be declared such by law, and over, under or across navigable streams or waters of the United States, but such lines of telegraph shall be so constructed as not to obstruct the navigation of such streams and waters, or interfere with ordinary travel on such military or post roads."

The matter, after being generally discussed, was referred to a committee consisting of Georgia, California; Mallory, Florida; Graham, Texas; Heyburn, Iowa, and Storer, Ohio, for investigation and report. As soon as they can examine the various laws and decisions of the Supreme court in relation to the subject, the full committee will determine whether or not an investigation is necessary.

RAIN, SLEET, HAIL, SNOW.

New York Shut In by a Ragging Gale—Wires Down

NEW YORK, April 11.—One of the worst storms of the season struck this city last night. Rain commenced falling during the afternoon, finally turning into snow, sleet and hail and accompanied by a terrific wind, and has continued ever since. Along the coast the gale continues with unabated fury, and fears are expressed that many disasters to shipping will follow.

The first notice of a wreck comes from Long Branch where the life saving crew report a vessel ashore at Squan, 10 miles below, and going to pieces. It is said five men have been drowned.

Telegraph and telephone wires are down in every direction, and the city is almost completely cut off from all communication with the rest of the world.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., April 11.—The snow storm which began at 11 o'clock yesterday in this city and vicinity still rages furiously. Telegraph and telephone wires are prostrated in all directions.

NO QUORUM.

An Old Story in the House of Representatives.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—In the House today immediately after the journal had been read Reed called up a matter that went over from yesterday—the right of Springer to withdraw his motion to discharge an order of arrest issued to the sergeant at arms upon which a vote was being taken, no quorum having been present. The speaker held the motion could not be withdrawn except by unanimous consent. The speaker accepted the ruling of Carlisle in the 49th Congress that the question was the regular order until disposed of.

The roll was then called on Springer's motion. This developed no quorum and a call of the House was ordered.

Unable to obtain a voting quorum, the House at 1:30 adjourned until noon tomorrow.

Beer is Not "Jag" Liqueur.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—The Supreme court has decided that lager beer was not an "spirituous liquor" within the meaning of the statute prohibiting the introduction of "spirituous liquors or wine" into the Indian Territory. Also that it is not wine.

Gen. Slocum Out of Danger.

BROOKLYN, N. Y., April 11.—Dr. Chas. M. Bellows, the physician attending General H. W. Slocum, said this morning that he and his associates considered that the General had passed the critical stage and would speedily recover.

FOR "WAYWARD WILLIE"

Thompson and Butterworth Arriving Today.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—Col. Phil. Thompson resumed his argument for Col. Breckinridge this morning in the Pollard-Breckinridge breach of promise case before a very sparse attendance. Miss Pollard was not present, but the defendant was on hand. Col. Thompson took up the alleged breach of promise and asked if it were not a remarkable thing that a man who had been living with this woman for nine years with the distinct understanding, so she said, that he would marry her if he were ever free, should tell that woman that he had something surprising to say to her, and then propose. Everything in the conduct of the plaintiff last spring, he said—her attempt on defendant's life, her threats to disgrace him, her promise to commit suicide and to leave a written story of their relations for publication—all these showed a character the reverse of that claimed by the plaintiff. This woman had laid her plans to bring a breach of promise suit. Had she not told Claude de la Roche Francis of the pretended engagement and asked him to remember it, saying she might need his help by and by?

"A courtship by pistols!" cried Col. Thompson. "Talk about your Kentucky Colonels, and having them come into court showing up their coat tails to see whether they had pistols underneath them. I suspect there was one coat tail that wasn't turned up that had a weapon beneath it. Did you see the vicious look on that woman's face the day this case started? I was afraid, sitting there beside the Colonel, that a bullet would come straight at us from that woman's pistol. Oh what a courtship, with its only memento a pistol!"

Thompson closed with an appeal to the jury to return a verdict according to the law and the testimony.

Mr. Butterworth, whose mild manner is in great contrast to that of his colleague, began his remarks by expressing gratification that "this pestilence must soon be brought to an end." But the vile contagion, he added, would not disappear from the hearts of the country for hundreds of years. Upon those who were to blame for bringing it before the public the burden must rest. He had been informed that Mexican newspapers had paid $25,000 for obtaining news of the trial and that European papers, so far as possible, had dissected it. There is no wrong to be righted by this suit. Even to save the lives of the two nominal principals, the incorruptible judiciary of the country could not afford to deal with such a mass of contagion, nor should the heartstones of the country have been invaded by it for any purpose. He knew Miss Pollard and of her he would not use harsh language, but he would that some one had whispered into her ear the words the Master had said: "Go, and sin no more."

WEAVERVILLE

Matrimonial-Scientific Farming—Good Health.

WEAVERVILLE, N. C., March 9.—Cupid's arrows have been flying in our community of late, resulting in the marriage of Robert Dougherty to Miss Ida Egle Chambers. Mr. Dougherty is an employe on the Vanderbilt estate and Miss Chambers was one of the beauties of Reems Creek. T. A. Hemphill was married to a Miss Stroup recently. J. G. Chambers, esq., officiating. Rev. T. L. Wagoner united the first couple.

Wm. C. Chamber of Flat Creek, who last year built a handsome residence in our village and moved here for school advantages, is highly pleased with his situation.

Mr. Dug Weaver, who resides one mile out, is one of the most scientific farmers in our section. He makes the raising of grain and hay of first importance, to beacco secondary. In this Mr. Weaver is an example for other farmers.

At Jupiter, on Tuesday evening, 3d inst., a fracas occurred between Robert McClain and a young Mr. White. McClain was cut in the head with a rock by White.

Western Welch, formerly of Georgia, now clerk with F. P. Roberts of this place, while riding near Jupiter last Thursday evening, had his cheek broken by his horse becoming frightened and striking him in the face with its head. Mr. Welch remained unconscious for some time.

The health of our village is excellent.

HILL'S ROASTER

It May Yet Burn His Own Fingers

WASHINGTON, April 9.—As an administration roaster Hill's speech was a failure, with all its accessories of advertisement and audience. As a Democratic speech it was a most dismal failure. A Republican fitly described it just after its delivery when he said it was a Republican argument against the income tax. Hill virtually served notice, and it was so accepted, that no tariff bill with an income tax in it will become a law. He does not make it perfectly clear, as his tariff speech is yet to come, whether he and his friends will permit any Democratic tariff measure to be enacted.

Southern Senators, it is said, who voted with Senator Hill on dilatory motions against the bill of the party, and who sympathize with his attitude on the tariff question, will have some trouble in explaining the matter to their constituents, nearly all of whom favor the passage of the Wilson bill.—Charlotte (O.) server.

Flour for Liverpool.

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., April 11.—A train of 23 cars left Chattanooga today, loaded with flour, for a direct shipment to Liverpool from Port Royal, S. C. The flour is shipped by the Noel Mill company and the amount is 5,850 barrels. This is the first direct shipment of flour to Europe from a port south of Norfolk. It will go by steamer Mexico. Regular shipments will be made hereafter.

Lawlessness in the Coke Region.

UNIONTOWN, Pa., April 11.—The Southern end of the coke region is again in a turmoil. Early this morning 400 strikers swooped down upon the Youngtown works of the Frick company completely surprising and capturing almost everyone of the 70 workmen and deputies, and took them with them without firing a shot.

JULIUS C. MARTIN NAMED

A DEMOCRAT, AND A WINNER, FOR MAYOR.

The Well Known Young Attorney Chosen To Head The Democratic Ticket—Ratification Meeting Friday Evening.

The city Democratic executive committee met in special session this morning at 10 o'clock in consequence of Mr. Blanton declining the nomination for the place of Mayor. Mr. Blanton's letter declining the nomination was accepted and Julius C. Martin, esq., was unanimously chosen by the committee as the Democratic choice for that office at the coming municipal election.

On motion of J. M. Gulger a meeting of the Democratic voters of Asheville was called to be held in the court house Friday evening, April 13, at 8 o'clock for the purpose of ratifying the nomination of Mr. Martin as candidate for Mayor.

Hon. Jas. H. Merrimon was selected by the committee to introduce the candidate to the citizens and voters of Asheville and address the meeting in the interest of the Democratic party. Other speakers were selected for the occasion.

A notification committee, composed of J. M. Campbell, J. M. Gudger, C. C. McCarty and Geo. W. Tilton, was appointed to wait upon Mr. Martin and notify him of his nomination. This they did, and Mr. Martin signified his acceptance.

IN CENTRAL MARKET.

The Rearrangement of Stalls Now Going On.

Since the stall formerly occupied by W. M. Hill & Co. in Central market has been removed, this firm taking the stall at the Court Place entrance, the work of rearrangement has progressed far enough to show that when the change is completed it will make a wonderful improvement. At present nearly every stall is occupied and the busy look of the entire place bears witness to the wisdom of the Aldermen in refusing to abolish the market.

The meat stalls will be arranged along the walls of the building, and the hucksters' stalls will occupy the inner space. There is some dissatisfaction because of the fact that one fish stall is to be placed in the center of the market. The other fish stalls are to be in the southwest corner and connected with the sewer so that there will be practically no fishy odor about them. The stall in the center, however, will have no sewer connections, and it is said that the odor will go from there through the house. It was supposed that all of the fish stalls were to be in the southwest corner. However, the change will be better for everybody and will add to the handsomeness of the finest market in the State.

ONCE MORE THE SHOW.

Col. Hall Comes to Asheville for Two Performances.

Col. Hall's show came in from Marion last night and early this morning the canvassmen were busy putting the tents in shape on Southside avenue a few hundred yards below the Goodlake curve. Juvenile hearts (and some older ones, no doubt) were made happy by the sight of the white tents and there was a general rustling around gathering up the nickels necessary to admit the boys and girls to the show.

The crowd that came in from the country was apparently not nearly as large as usual on occasions of this character, but the city crowd mustered out fully, and the way between the square and the show grounds was the most popular street among pedestrians.

Many of the school children came out in the morning to see the parade, and by the time this attraction came along the streets were full of people determined to see this much of the show if no more. The parade was not very imposing.

A TARIFF TRUCK

Four Hours of Debate Daily on The Wilson Bill.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—A truce has been agreed upon for the conduct of the tariff debate during the present week, but open hostilities will be resumed next week. According to the statement made by Aldrich and Harrison the Senate will meet the remainder of this week at noon, the tariff bill to be taken up at 1 o'clock and debate to close daily at 5. What agreement, if any, will go into effect next week is a matter of pure conjecture.

About To Desert Coxe.

UNIONTOWN, Pa., April 11.—Coxey's column started at noon in the face of the storm for a day's march in the mountains. It was rumored among the men that there would be a number of desertions today. Two hundred and ten men got breakfast.

Arguing Against the Tariff.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—The urgent deficiency bill was taken up in the Senate and discussed until 1 o'clock, when the tariff bill was laid before the Senate and Hale proceeded to argue against it.
