EX-GOV. JARVIS SUCCEEDS

GOV. CARR MAKES THE EX-PECTED APPOINTMENT.

JARVIS ANNOUNCES THAT HE WILL Be a Candidate For Ransom's Seat—There Are Now Two Senators From The East.

RALIGH, N. C., April 20.—[Special.]— Thos. J. Jarvis has been appointed United States Senator. He accepts his commission, issued today. He announces that he will be a candidate for Ransom's seat, and hence will only hold Vance's place until the Legislature meets.

Governor Jarvis was at the Var-borough house where he was notified and at once wrote Gov. Carr the following letter of acceptance:

"To His Excellency Hon. Elias Carr, Governor of North Carolina:—My Dear Sir: I have just received through the hands of your private secretary, Mr.
Telfair, your note of this date in which you tender me the high responsible position of United States Senator from the State of North Carolina, and I beg in pursuance to your request to indicate to you my acceptance. This position so recently made vacant by the death of the lamented Vance, comes to me, as you well know, unsought by me. It is your voluntary act, and I shall give to the high office my best endeavors to justify you before the people of the State, to whom alone you are responsible for this action on your part. I beg you will accept my sincere thanks for this evidence of your confidence and esteem. Very truly yours, Thos. J. Jarvis."

The News Observer will tomorrow publish a letter from Senator Jarvis stating that he will not stand before the Legislature next January for the residue of Vance's term, the inference being that he will offer for the six years' term then regularly to be filled as has heretofore been understood. In an interview he said that he stands on the Chicago platform as construed at the South.

Thomas Jordan Jarvis was born in Jarvisburg, Currituck county, N. C., January 18, 1836. His youth was spent on a farm, laboring for the support of his family, and his college education was obtained by a loan from a friend. He was graduated at Randolph-Macon in 1860, and in the following year entered the Confederate army as a private. He soon became first lieutenant. In the 8th North Carolina regiment, and in 1862 was promoted captain, but on May 11, 1864, his right arm was shattered by a bullet, and he was compelled to retire from the service. He was a member of the State constitutional convention in 1865, became a merchant, and while engaged in business studied law, and was admitted to the bar. He began to practice in 1868, was a presidential elector in that year, elected to the Legislature, and re-elected in 1870, becoming speaker of the house. He was a presidential elector in 1872, in 1875, was a member of the State constitutional convention, and in the following year was elected lieutenant governor of North Carolina.

In 1879 he became governor, by the election of Gov. Zebulon B. Vance to the United States Senate, and in 1880 he was elected to the office, which he held till 1884. In 1885 he was appointed United States Minister to Brazil. His home is now at Greenville, Pitt county, N. C.

FIVE COLORED CARRIERS

They Must Be Retained in the Richmond Postoffice

WASHINGTON, April 20.—First Assistant Postmaster General Jones has approved the recommendation made in the report of a representative of the civil service commission who recently investigated the various irregularities, pertaining to appointments in the Richmond, Va., postoffice, that five colored substantive carriers now connected with the office be retained unless it is shown that they are inefficient in their duties.
Postmaster Cullingworth, it is alleged, wanted to get rid of the colored men and gave as a reason that there was no work for them to do. Had they been officially dropped Mr. Cullingworth might have urged the business had increased and that the service of additional men was required, so that opportunity would have been given to fill the places with men of his own party.

ANOTHER COMMONWEAL.

Omaha Has Another Lot of Recruits For Kelly's Army.

OMAHA, Neb., April 20.—Two thousand laboring men in companies, with hundreds of American flags, marched today down Douglas street to the river where they were joined by men from the Union Pacific shops. They were bound for Council Bluffs to help Gen. Kelly's commonwealthers. Kelly is in Omaha holding a conference with President St.
John of the Rock Island. He will hurry to Council Bluffs to reach his army before the Omaha laboring men arrive. Serious trouble is feared.

They Sent Enloe.

WASHINGTON, April 20.—The House committee on elections today decided the contested election case of Thrasher against Enloe from the Eighth Tennessee district in favor of Enloe, the sitting member. Six Democrats, Painter, Kentucky; Lawson, Georgia; Hayes, Iowa; Patterson, Tennessee; Woodward, North Carolina; the Republicans, Taylor, Tennessee; Danahy, New York; McCall, Massachusetts, voted for Enloe.

The State Bank Tax

WASHINGTON, April 20.—In the Senate today a resolution offered by Gordon was referred to the committee on finance instructing that committee to report a bill repealing the law placing a 10 per cent. tax on issues of State banks.

Coal Miners' Strike.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., April 20.—One thousand and miners in the Cumberland region will go on a strike Saturday night. Coal Creek, Jellico, Inman and Tracey City mines have all decided to go out, but the coal companies expect them to join in the strike.

IN AN OLD WELL.

Mr. Smith's Exciting Time At The Old Electric Station.

When C. A. Smith, superintendent of the Asheville Street Railroad company's electric station, looked into the unused well of the old power house on Eagle street last Saturday night his usual nerve was caught off its base, and his heart humped against his ribs.
The old house has been vacant since the company erected and moved into the present quarters on Valky street, and it has become time stained and tumbledon, but the duties of the superintendent include its occasional inspection.
During his rounds on Saturday night Mr. Smith peered into the opening of a well which had not been of service since the removal, and in the uncertain light he thought he saw something below that had no business to be there. The right lamp was fastened to a coil of wire and lowered between the criss crossed timbers and props in the hole until a depth of 15 feet was reached and there, upon a plank in the water, might clearly be seen a bulging bundle of white.

The superintendent thought of diabolical infanticide, ill-gotten plunder, dissected stills and other ghastly subjects, the midnight hour and air of dilapidation adding their dismal features to the gloomy forebodings, and the white thing was assuming the shape of a walking ghost. Pulling himself together the superintendent "doused his glim" and started to the square for the assistance of a "cop."

Patrolmen Collins and Stephenson were found and the trio returned to the graveyard silence at the well. The craps were thrown and Mr. Smith won the privilege of getting in the hole. By means of the rough stone edge of the wall and the timber braces he descended to the plank and its uneasy looking bundle. The find was reached for and its cold and clammy softness increased the willingness of the party in the hole to hurry up the proceedings, and the package and the superintendent were hoisted out of the dampness.

The covering of the bundle was found to be a cotton flour sack and the contents were an undershirt and a pair of socks.

The officers returned to patrol their beats. The superintendent, after regaining consciousness, went back to the spot where the renewing influences of electric lights brought him around all right, but he now and then mutters that he would "feel better if it had even been a litter of drowned cats."

WHERE IS JOHN TILLEY?

Information About Him Wanted
By His Niece.

Anyone in Asheville knows anything whatever of the whereabouts of John Tilley, a carpenter, they will do a kind act by at once notifying Chief of Police Harkins.

Yesterday afternoon Mrs. Salada Tilley came to Asheville hunting for her nephew, John Tilley. She comes from Greenville county and says that the last she has heard of her nephew was about a year ago, at which time he was in Asheville. She is a widow with one child, which accompanies her, Mrs. Tilley has every appearance of a poor but respectable woman. She and her child went to John's chambers, and are being cared for by Mrs. Collins, mother of the Reformatory.

It was suggested that the uncle was at work on the Vanderbilt estate, but in reply to a message from THE CITIZEN today Mr. Herndon said no such man was on the estate. Chief Harkins would be glad to have any information whatever about the man Mrs. Tilley is looking for.

GREATLY IMPRESSED

Congressional Delegates on The Burial Arrangements.

Representative W. T. Crawford, in speaking of the arrangements here for Senator Vance's burial, said that he had heard expressions from various other members of the Congressional delegation and the general remark was that in all their experience with similar occasions they had never before known of such universal grief at the loss of a man, and that coming as it did from all classes the gentlemen attributed it all to the implicit confidence of the people in the Great Commoner.

West Asheville Colored Meeting

The colored people of West Asheville assembled in mass meeting at their church Tuesday evening. W. A. Greenlee was made chairman and C. A. Keene secretary. Rufus Wills, in explaining the object of the meeting, said the time had come when the negroes should begin to show race pride, by nominating and electing some of their worthy negroes to office, that the negro deserved the honor as well as men of the other race. H. B. Brown, Rob. Wills, Haynes, Hender, Swann, Greenlee and others spoke.

Nominations were made and a ballot resulted in the selection of Rufus Wills and W. A. Greenlee for Aldermen.

Double Murder By a Negro

CENTREVILLE, Md., April 20.—Wednesday night William Jackson, a negro farm hand, struck his employer, George R.
Lenger, with a hatchet, frightfully cutting his head. He afterward shot and instantly killed him. Ira, the 14 year old son of Lenger, rushed to his father's assistance with a pitchfork and was fatally shot. The negro is in jail here.

Accession to the E. T. V. & G.

MIDDLESBORO, Ky., April 20.—It is stated here that the bonds of the Kuo-ville, Cumberland Gap and Louisville railroad have been transferred to the East Tennessee, Virginia and Georgia through Drexel, Morgan & Co., and that the system will take possession of the road within 30 days.

Gold Going Out Again.

WASHINGTON, April 20.—Treasury advises received from New York late yesterday afternoon stated that $2,500,000 of gold would probably go out by Saturday's steamers to Europe, that $1,000,000 had actually been engaged for import and that two or three million more would very likely follow.

Wilson in Louisiana.

NEW ORLEANS, La., April 20.—Congressman W. L. Wilson arrived here yesterday on his return from Mexico. His health continues to improve.

HINTING AT MORE BONDS

COUPLED WITH COINAGE OF
THE SEIGNIORAGE.

The Treasury Balance Going Down Steadily—Necessity For Building Up The Treasury Cash
—The New Tariff Bill Needed
Now.

WASHINGTON, April 20.—The net excess of expenditures over treasury receipts this month, which includes $5,500,000 for interest, will probably foot up $12,500,000. This reduces the working balance to $2,500,000. At the same rate of loss the treasury by July 1 next will be reduced to less than $100,000, gold and all.

This state of affairs, viewed in the light of the Meyers bill for the dual purpose of coining the $55,000,000 silver seigniorage and the issue of a three per cent. long term bond, is attracting great prominence.

This measure is expected to provide the necessary means of recouping the treasury and at the same time supply gold as a basis for the coinage of the silver seigniorage. Until it is made apparent that the Meyers bill will not pass, or, passing, meet the approval of the President, no plan of building up the treasury cash is discussed in treasury circles with any degree of authority.
Unless some such measure does pass it is very generally admitted that a new bond issue must be put out before relief in the shape of increased revenues can be had from the new tariff bill.

THE SCHOOL CHILDREN

Words of Praise From Senators Gray and Blackburn.

Asheville and all her people have just pride in her city schools, but this feeling will, it is possible, be increased when the people hear of all the complimentary expressions made by the men prominent in the nation on their trip to Asheville accompanying the body of the late beloved Vance. It will be remembered that near 1500 school children were massed at the Montford avenue building when the burial procession passed. In the carriage with Capt. M. E. Carter were Senators Gray and George. Referring to the children Senator Gray said to Capt. Carter:

"I have heard and expected a great deal of Asheville, but I confess I am very agreeably surprised by this exhibition.
Here are 1,500 children, educated, as you tell me, at the public expense—children of the best families, too. A city that can produce such a result may certainly count on a great future."

Senator Blackburn expressed himself in equally complimentary terms. He said: "When I came to the white children I lited my hat, but when we reached the colored children I took it entirely off. I felt that as they had done our great Senator Vance the honor to come out and join in the expression of grief, they were entitled to the fullest recognition from us. What a glorious country it is that can produce such an array of bright, intelligent children, and what a grand future there is in store for such a country!"

ON TO WASHINGTON

A Delegation of Workmen to Visit Washington

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., April 20.—Eight hundred workmen under the leadership of John S. Stewart, president of the workmen's protective tariff league, left this city today for Washington to enter their protests against the Wilson bill.

WASHINGTON, April 20.—Representative Harner of Philadelphia called on the sergeant-at-arms, Bright, today, prior to the arrival of the Philadelphia wage earners to confer with him as to their reception at the capitol. He said they disclaimed any connection whatever with the Coxey movement, but as workmen, able to pay their own expenses, and desiring only to utter a protest against the passage of the Wilson bill. Col. Bright said they would be treated just as any other American citizens visiting the capitol. He pointed out the low bearing upon the invasion of the capitol grounds which prohibits organizations of any kind marching through them as such, and said unless overruled by higher authorities he would see that the law was enforced in this respect, as in all others, in cases coming under his jurisdiction. He said, however, that if they came in a peaceable, orderly manner there would be no interference with their privileges and they would be entitled to seats in the Senate galleries as long as they were not occupied.

TILMAN WILL CONTINUE

Says The New Law Has Not Been Passed Upon

COLUMBIA, S. C., April 20.—The dispensary cases in which the decision of the Supreme Court was rendered yesterday were brought under the old law.
Tillman can continue the operation of the dispensaries, claiming that the new law has not been declared unconstitutional, though its principal is practically the same as that of the old law. This would necessitate a new suit. Before it could get up to the Supreme Court there would be a change in the personnel of that tribunal and a different result might be reached.

The Czar's Son To Marry.

COBURG, April 20.—The betrothal of Grand Duke Nicholas, the Czarowitz of Russia, to Princess Alice of Hesse, youngest sister of Grand Duke Ernest of Hesse, was announced this morning. Emperor William of Germany was the first to communicate the news of the betrothal to Queen Victoria, who expressed herself as being highly pleased.

Threatening a Riot in Cleveland.

CLEVELAND, April 20.—Hundreds of striking workmen are visiting those employed on public improvements and compelling them to stop work. The men armed with clubs and the situation looks ugly. Police and patrol wagons have been called to different scenes where a riot is feared.

Corbett Abroad.

LONDON, April 20.—James J. Corbett, the American pugilist, has arrived in London.
