"DEMOCRACY IS IMMORTAL!"
"THE WORD DEMOCRAT STANDS FOR HUMAN LIBERTY AND HUMAN FREEDOM AND CANNOT DIE"

THE attention of Democrats is respectfully but earnestly called to the fact that The Register, edited by J. Wiley Shook, and the organ of Richmond Pearson, is talking loud for the Reform ticket. A blind man should see the point in this.

Is the people of Asheville think it is right to have a Democrat in the White House at Washington, they are bound to think it is right to have a Democrat in the city hall in Asheville. If it is right to have a Democratic president it is right to have a Democratic policeman. This is common sense—this is principle applied.

THERE is no need of trying to muddy the water and becloud the present municipal situation in Asheville. The whole question, simply and sententiously stated is: Will Democrats vote for a clean and capable straight Democratic ticket, or will they vote for a clean and capable opposition, whose success means Democratic defeat with all that such a result implies.

THE CITIZEN would not roll at upon the intelligence of any Democrat in Asheville by saying that there is one who thinks that the political fortunes of Richmond Pearson will not be advanced by the election of the Reform ticket in this city. This being true every Democrat should think deeply and pray earnestly before lending himself to the furtherance of the claims of such a political monstrosity as R. P.

MAYOR PATTON seemingly thinks it a light matter to ask hundreds of Democrats in Asheville to leave their party organization and step up to the polls and vote for him. Mr. Patton is a N. C. Carolinian, and a native of Asheville and if he has lived so long amongst us without seeing the imperative necessity of keeping the Democratic party in control of our State affairs, he has been an indifferent observer politically, at least. This being so, why did not Mr Patton submit his name to a Democratic convention. By so doing he would have gone with hundreds of the best men of Asheville, instead of asking the same hundreds to go with him to the detriment and disintegration of the Democratic party.

THE only reasons so far urged by the opponents of the Democratic ticket in the election of Julius C. Martin for Mayor of Asheville are that he is too young, and that he is a Democrat. No one had almost conquered the world before he was Mr. Martin's age, Pitt was at the head of the English government before he was 25, and Zebulon B. Vance began his wonderful career of public usefulness when he was Mr. Martin's junior by half a score of years. And it is to be hoped that the day has not yet come in North Carolina when a man is to be the thought unfit for the suffrages of his fellow citizens because he is a Democrat. Mr. Martin is old enough, brainy enough, and Democrat enough to make the best Mayor Asheville has ever had, and he will be elected.

THEY WILL COME AROUND

It is becoming apparent at this early stage of the municipal contest that it will be impossible for the Reformers to hold to the support of their ticket everything like all of those Democrats who have taken the position in the past that clean and capable men must control in our city affairs. It is known and acknowledged by every conservative man in the so-called Reform ranks that J. C. Martin and the Aldermanic ticket associated with him are just as clean and just as capable as their opponents.

This being true, by the day of election there will be few Democrats who will vote any other than the straight ticket. They will see that to do so will be to discredit and cripple the great party to which they owe and still claim a most faithful allegiance, and that no advantage to Asheville could possibly accrue thereby. In other words, they will see that everything will be to lose and nothing to gain by opposing the Democratic ticket, and they are too true and patriotic to allow themselves to be led into making that sort of a mistake.

A Vacant Niche.

EDITOR THE CITIZEN:—The seat which Senator Vance graced in the Senate chamber may be empty, but there is a place which he may permanently occupy. That place is in the nation's capitol just south of the great dome, known as Statuary hall, set apart by act of Congress for the graven images in marble or bronze of the two most illustrious sons of each of the several States. They form a galaxy of great men. Virginia has chosen Washington and Jefferson; Massachusetts is represented by Adams and Story; New York by Hamilton and Jay; Ohio by Garfield and Allen; North Carolina has as yet made no choice.

Among the many eminent men whose lives have illustrated the pages of her civic and military, judicial and forensic history, I venture now to say that when she does proceed to fill the two niches assigned to her in statuary hall, there may be some dispute as to who shall fill the second place, but the first with one universal acclaim will be given to Zebulon Baird Vance. Richmond Pearson.

They Sang Together.

From the Statesville Landmark.

Gov. Vance did not join the church until after his wife's death. She was the daughter of a Presbyterian clergyman and an earnest Christian. Mr. Anderson relates that while they lived here he passed their home one night on his way to prayer meeting and heard the Governor and Mrs. Vance singing together the hymn, "How firm a foundation ye saints of the Lord." While he listened he remembers that they sang these two lines:

"And when hoary hairs shall thy temples adorn
Like lambs ye shall still in my bosom be borne."

Just received new styles neckwear; also large stock neglige shirts and belts.

PLAIN WORDS FROM RUSSELL.

The Democratic Party Has Kept His Faith—Small Personal and Factional Quarrels Wreck It?

Ex Governor William E. Russell has contributed an article to the forthcoming (May) number of the Forum, on "A year of Democratic administration." He clears the way for a frank statement of what has been done by explaining the proper point of view to judge the success of the party. There is, he points out, a radical difference of doctrine and purpose between the parties, and every man who wishes to make a fair judgment will keep in mind that the purpose of the Democratic party is to limit the powers of the government to prevent its interference with private business, and both for political and economic reasons to reduce the tariff to a revenue basis. It is from this broad point of view that it is fair to judge the party. Matters of administrative detail are important, but they are subordinate. Personal and sectional matters may be important, but they, too, are subordinate. The one leading question is, has the administration kept faith with the people who ... our fiscal system? "If," he says, "consid... one question up... of the people, as ... of 1860 dealt with ... on of 1864 with a ... of the war."

Governor Russell ... tical discussion on ... damental principles. ... es," he says, "rather ... ved, of little public ... ive of permanent ... ill agree that the ... last few years have ... a public benefit in ... this rut of person... the higher plane of ... manship: and how ... success is now to ... ed." He then pro... lar and fully has ... met its imperative ...

Hence with high protection as to some McKinleyism is to be repealed ... and the country gradually brought back to the principle of tariff ... for revenue only, both as a sound economic policy and as a sound principle in a great power of government. It is for the main purpose and result ... it is comparatively unimportant that its details may be open to criticism and criticism.* It protects ... is destructive and radical ... too conservative, ... is proof of its ... fundamental policy. ... and prudent basis."

Concerning the financial legislation of the year, he says:

"The ... of President Harrison's ... saw the crisis ... and ... extraordinary measures ... relief; then failed ... this trouble ... unsettled as a ... Confidence was ... and the crisis ... dent duty rest... party. For its ... had but to be ... ion and profes... sly opposed the ... law; it had but ... Congress, con... in its ranks, it ... on, repealed the ... ry, so far as in ... sound financial ... the remedy de... itself and the ... financial panic, ... were beyond the reach of legislation.

Another important point Mr. Russell discusses as follows:

"It was perfectly understood that the Davenport Lodge bill was inspired by hostility to the South, and a determination through Republican machinery to gain a partisan advantage. The country repudiated the motive, purpose and principle of the bill; it had grown heartily sick of the bloody, sour and sectional prejudice and hostility ... believed and said that the South had a right to be let alone, and every State the right to be free from such national interference. It directed the Democratic party to repeal the Federal Election law because a menace, creating sectional ill will, breeding evils and curing none; and the party has speedily and gladly done that duty."

In conclusion Governor Russell sums up the Democratic work of the year, and adds a warning:

"A year of Democratic administration can show as a worthy record:

"1st. Loyalty to its main duty of repealing McKinleyism, reversing the tariff policy of the country, and making public not private interests its fundamental principle.

"2d. Placing the currency of the country upon a sound basis by the repeal of dangerous Republican legislation.

"3d. Repeal of the Federal Election law, and reuniting of the country more closely in love and loyalty.

"4th. Economy retrenchment and reform in appropriations, expenditure, and the administration of all the departments.

"These things it has done not only in adherence to its principles but also in obedience to the explicit mandate of the country.

"Last and perhaps not least—honorable conduct of our foreign relations, with justice, to a small and weaker power.

"The Democratic party in the past has achieved success only by courageous loyalty to principle; it never has succeeded by substituting tactics for statesmanship, or compromise for courage, and it never will. If now in the high tide of its power it should fritter away its opportunity in quarrels over petty things, forgetting the larger; if in the face of a united, aggressive enemy it should become rent by factional or sectional discord; if it should neglect the demands of the people who have trusted it, or the manifest duty they have placed upon it, —there will be ample leisure in the future for it to ponder on its fatal blunders and wasted opportunity. We cannot and must not overlook this danger. Personal politics, local interests and sectional influence, which create discord and impair ... must yield to a higher view of party duty and responsibility."

CHILDREN WHO SUFFER from scrofulous, skin or scalp diseases, ought to be given Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, for purifying the blood. For children who are puny, pale or weak, the "Discovery" is a tonic which builds up both flesh and strength. What is said of it for children applies equally to adults. As an appetizing, restorative tonic, it sets at work all the processes of digestion and nutrition, rouses every organ into natural action, and brings back health and strength. In recovering from "grippe," or in convalescence from pneumonia, fevers, and other wasting diseases, it speedily and surely invigorates and builds up the whole system.

For all diseases caused by a torpid liver or impure blood, as Dyspepsia and Biliousness, if it doesn't benefit or cure in every case, the money is returned.

Every owner of a piece of land should know its history—
the names of all its previous owners, the names of those who have held incumbrances against it; the nature of the instrument by which any and all of those persons conveyed his or her interest, or released his or her claim against it; boundaries of the land, and whether there are conflicting calls in deeds of adjoining property; apparent irregularities in any instrument conveying the land, etc., etc., etc.
The careful man never buys land or loans money on real estate of any kind without first requiring an up-to date Abstract of Title, certified to by an attorney or one whose business it is to be informed in such matters.

If people would only think, the young as well as the old, and our best instructors will tell you the battle they have to fight so hard is half over when their students learn to think for themselves. Now that is my object, to get you to think. A man who is already up in life need not think about how to get up, but how to stay up. So if you have plenty of money and need not to economize, don't read another word of this article. Be sure it's not for you, but for those who wish to make the dollar go as far as possible. It is intended to save you money and make money for me.
READ AND THINK
It's for you to decide whether I have given you plain facts. I am now selling a splendid solid leather shoe for 98c. Had you just as soon pay some other fellow a dollar for the same shoe? I say no. Why? Because you can take that 2c. left and saved, and get a 5c. box of good shoe blacking for 1c. and a 10c. paper of needles for 1c. Is there any saving in this transaction? Only 15c. We sell you a genuine brass pin for 4c. Had you just as soon pay 5c. somewhere else? I say no; because you can take the remaining 1c. and get two papers of hair pins—a saving of 6c. Had you as soon pay 10c. for a pair ladies' hose that we sell for 8c.? I say again, no. Why? Because we will give you the 10c. hose, one ball good sewing thread and a good thimble for 10c. Any saving there? Only 8c; that's all. Now, go all through our store, and it's the same way. We are here for business, and want every parent and student to test this advertisement by coming to our store or sending order and see it true.
