GLOVE CONTESTS IN ONE OF THE SUBURBS.

Punching-sprouting Contest Between Edward DeMund of New York and Oscar DeArmond of Knoxville, With Other Bouts.

A four-round glove contest came off in the suburbs last night between Edward DeMund, the New York bantam weight, and Oscar DeArmond of Knoxville. Later events on the card gave the crowd its money's worth, but the performance of the stars was a bang up fight.

The Knoxville party bunched his dukes and worked his left like a straightout pump handle; the muscles of his cheeks became rigid with a fit of grins, and he proved to be a handy man with his legs in his ability to keep out of harm's way and in his agility in getting to his seat on the call of time. DeMund, in his class, must be a clever fighter. He showed himself skillful in a round for points after the fake show, but there wasn't the ghost of a chance for him in the running match with the sprinter from Tennessee.

DeMund was born in Roumania 21 years ago, but has been in America the past 12 years, where his home has been made in New York City. He fights at 110 pounds and has met some good ones in his class. He fought George Bennet in the Brighton Athletic Club, Brooklyn, in what started out to be a ten rounds go, but the police interfered in the fifth round when Bennet was being brutally punished. Other amateur fights included a licking given to Henry Goodman in eight rounds, in the rooms of a club on Hudson street in New York. DeMund also sparred with George Dixon.

DeArmond stated that he laid no claim for pugilistic honors and that his only desire was to gain in exhibition bouts in the Arcade saloon kept by his brother in Knoxville. He weighed 160 pounds in the ring last night.

At nine o'clock between forty and fifty sports had come together to see the fun, and the purse was collected from the crowd by a young man whose name was not given, and he displayed the "long green" proclaimed him to be dead game and in the incipient stages of an inglorious jag. The young man with a jag announced that he "was elected treasurer" and retired with the purse, presumably for consultation with the principal. As he left the enclosure a contribution sum out, "Say, they won't throw this scrap for that dollar, will they?"

When the "stuff" was counted the supply was considered to be too "slim" for the original tip of a fight to a finish and the expected but non appearing fraternity from Asheville whose windy promises had gotten up the idea of organizing a "Democratic club" for Asheville.

For a day or two papers have been circulated for signers who will attend a meeting to further this plan. Between 100 and 200 names are said to have been secured, and the first meeting has been appointed for this evening at 8 o'clock in a room over the Western Carolina bank.

Madame Remor told THE CITIZEN today that "the meeting is to form a Democratic club for the purpose of keeping up the party organization. The Democrats connected with the move contend that there is now no Democratic organization here, no Democratic ticket in the field and no Democratic executive committee. Therefore, those taking part in this new move want to show Western North Carolina that the pending municipal contest is not a party fight."

COSTLY RUNAWAY

Mules, Wagon, Eggs, Chickens and Butter in a Heap
A Sandy Mule man came in yesterday with a wagon loaded with chickens, eggs, butter and other marketable stuff, and drawn by a pair of mules. He drove up to the south sidewalk of Central market to dispose of his stock. While there the mules took fright and carried the wagon in a wild promenade down Spruce street. The wagon made the trip down the market straight right, but when the mules got to Eagle street they fell and mules and wagon turned bottom upwards, the wagon wheels spinning around in whirling fashion to an accompaniment of chicken cackling and the breaking of eggshells. After saving all he could the man from Sandy Mule found that the runaway had cost him some $20 or $30.

SHOT A PRETTY GIRL

Insane Jealousy Makes a Priest Do Murder
CINCINNATI, O., April 25.—Mary Gil-martin, a pretty clerk employed by the Pulvermacher Galvanic Belt Co., was shot and instantly killed this morning while on the way to work. The man who committed the murder was arrested and gave his name as Geo. Reed, aged 30, but the letters in his pocket identified him as a Catholic priest named Father Dominick O'Grady.

Insane jealousy of the girl and her desire to get rid of her unwelcome attentions caused the tragedy. At the station house O'Grady attempted to kill himself by taking poison, but prompt use of the stomach pump saved his life.

They Get Something

WASHINGTON, April 25.—The comptroller of the currency has declared a first dividend of 30 per cent. in favor of the creditors of the First National bank of Cedar-town, Ga., on claims proved amounting to $16,000.

To Settle a Strike

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., April 25.—A committee of the A. R. U., headed by President Debs, has entered into a conference with President Hill of the Great Northern for a settlement of the strike.

Bounced

WASHINGTON, April 25.—Secretary Carlisle today requested the resignation of John W. Oast, supervising inspector of steam vessels for the 3rd district with headquarters at Norfolk, Va.

IT'S A GRAND CONVENTION

TWENTY THOUSAND VISITORS IN BIRMINGHAM

All the Distinguished Ex-Confederate Generals Present—Unblended History Wanted for the Schools—Tableaux of Beauty.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., April 25.—More than twenty thousand visitors are in Birmingham in attendance upon the fourth annual reunion of the United Confederate veterans which convened here today. The city is gaily decorated with national and Confederate flags, and bunting floats from every building. Immense flags and streamers are stretched across the streets. The scene is a gorgeous one.

Excursion trains arrived last night and this morning from every part of the South, bringing in immense crowds of veterans. All the distinguished living ex-Confederates are in attendance, as well as governors of five Southern States: Gov. Jones, Alabama; Gov. Turner, Tenn.; Gov. Tillman, S. C.; Gov. Hogg, Texas and Gov. Stone, Miss.

The convention met in the Winnie Davidson hall at 9 o'clock. The wigwam was a seating capacity of 10,000, but it was full to overflowing. General Ferguson, commander Alabama department, called the convention to order. Bishop Ellison Capers of South Carolina, chaplain, led in prayer. Governor Jones then delivered an address of welcome in behalf of the State, followed by Mayor Fox, who welcomed the veterans in behalf of the city.

General John B. Gordon, commander in chief, responded eloquently in behalf of the United Confederate veterans. Then followed the enrollment of delegates and the organization of the convention, and the report of the historical committee of which General Stephen D. Lee, of Mississippi, is chairman. It has been in session here for two days. The report says that while the South has had much to do with making the history of the nation, it has done little toward writing it. Historians that have been written by Northern historians have naturally been biased. It is recommended that data be gathered for correct Southern history and that the legislatures of Southern States and the authorities of schools be urged to adopt books for use in schools.

Addresses were delivered this afternoon to the convention by Senator Berry of Arkansas and Gen. Cleman A. Evans of Georgia. Tonight a tableaux of states, in which the prettiest young married women from each Southern state will participate, will be represented at the wigwam.

TO "ORGANIZE"

Meeting of Democrats With a New Idea This Evening.

A number of those Democrats who have veered off into the Reform fold, feeling, so they state, that they are representing the "really true Democracy," have conceived the idea of organizing a "Democratic club" for Asheville.

For a day or two papers have been circulated for signers who will attend a meeting to further this plan. Between 100 and 200 names are said to have been secured, and the first meeting has been appointed for this evening at 8 o'clock in a room over the Western Carolina bank.

COMMONWEAL SMALL POX

WHAT COXEY ARMIES WILL SPREAD.

Lawlessness Followed By a Battle—United States Troops Will Take a Hand—A Warning That May Well Be Heeded.

NEW YORK, April 25.—Dr. Alva H. Doty, chief inspector of the division of contagious diseases of the board of health, says there is great danger that the small pox will be spread all over the country by Coxeys' army. Dr. Doty has had much experience in fighting this disease, and gives warning of the impending menace to the public health. He asserts that nothing can prevent the small pox being carried from one city to another by Coxeys' followers.

FREDERICK, Md., April 25.—The last night camp site of the Coxeys army was a bad one, and the men were eager to get on the road once more. The recruiting office is closed and no more men will be enlisted. Coxeys says he is afraid to take more than 350 men over the stretch of road from here to Rockville for fear of suffering from hunger.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., April 25.—Private dispatches at Northern Pacific headquarters this morning are to the effect that a sheriff from Livingstone, Mont., with a large posse has succeeded in overhauling the Butte Coxevites at Columbus, and that there is a pitched battle now in progress for possession of the Northern Pacific train stolen by the Commonwealers. It is stated by a Great Northern official that Organizer Hogan is at the head of a Butte contingent, and this is the reason he left the Great Northern conference committee and returned to Montana. Later dispatches state that troops have been sent from Fort Keogh to assist the sheriff.

WASHINGTON, April 25.—Col. Swain, who is in command of the department of Dakota in the absence in Europe of General Merritt, was today instructed by telegraph to use troops to intercept the mob of Coxevites which seized the train at Butte, Mont., and restore the railroad property.

THE NICARAGUA CANAL.

President Cleveland Very Axious To See It Built.

BIRMINGHAM, April 25.—Senator Morgan made an elaborate speech here yesterday in favor of the Nicaragua canal. He referred to an interview of more than three hours' duration with President Cleveland, just prior to his leaving Washington. He said that Mr. Cleveland told him he was in favor of the canal and that it ought to be built, that it would be the crowning glory of the nineteenth century, but that nevertheless, the President said, we must be cautious about it, that he had examined the safeguards that had been put in the bill, and they seemed to him sufficient, that he could not see that any loophole for any fraudulent action under the provisions of the bill, as prepared, had been left.

Senator Morgan said to the President, "When I go South I want to be able to tell my friends that you desire this canal built," and he remarked, "I very earnestly desire to see it built. I don't know that I shall have any impediment to offer it."

TRYING TO HURRY A LITTLE.

Proposition to Ask The Senate to Work Harder.

WASHINGTON, April 25.—After the introduction of bills and a resolution on the subject of the expected arrival in Washington of Coxeys and his followers, the tariff bill was, at 1 p. m., laid before the Senate, and Harris asked unanimous consent to have the bill taken up each day this week at 1 p. m. and consideration continued till six p. m. Objection was made by Aldrich, acting for the Republicans, to continuing daily sessions later than five o'clock. Harris then put his request in the shape of a motion, and an objection to it went over until tomorrow, when he will call it up for a vote. Harris gave notice that he would submit his motion every day until some result is reached.

THE MINERS' STRIKE.

It Has Spread to the Pennsylvania Railway Mines.

PITTSBURG, April 25.—The miners' strike has spread to the mines operated by the Pennsylvania railroad and it is expected the big system will be tied up within a few days. Yesterday 3,000 men were employed by the Pennsylvania railroad in mines along the Kiski-menos river stopped work.

Samoas Going to Zealand.

LONDON, April 25.—Sir Thomas Esmond has given notice that in the House of Commons tomorrow he will ask the government to give its assent to the annexation of the Samoan Islands to New Zealand, the Samoans themselves having repeatedly given expression to their approval of such administration of their government.

The Cholera in Portugal.

LISBON, April 25.—Eighty-four fresh cases of cholera were reported yesterday. The number of cases now under treatment is 244.

JUST IN NORTH CAROLINA.

The trial of Grant Massey for the murder of Lee Davis in Haywood county has ended, resulting in his acquittal. The cause of the killing was the unfaithfulness of Massey's wife. Massey fled to Texas, but came back in order to take away his two little children. This led to his arrest, an executive reward having been issued for him.

Lenoir Topic: Married at the Residence of Mr. Pink Bumgarner, on Sunday, the 22d.

Mr. Robert McCull and Miss Hester Howard. The groom is about 60 years of age and the bride is a blushing young girl of 18 summers. Rev. Austin Craig performed the ceremony.

Detectives are at work along the line of the Richmond and Danville railway endeavoring to get some clue to thieves who are doing a great deal of stealing from cars.

It is alleged by some newspapers that there is a strong anti-Ransom sentiment among the farmers in all parts of the State.

The monument erected on the battle ground of Alamance is nearly ruined and about to fall. The foundation was bad.
