COXEY IS OUT ON BAIL

HE WILL BE ON TRIAL NEXT FRIDAY.

An Unusual and Not Creditable Scene in the Capitol Grounds—Browne Is Roughly Handled—Wild Kansas Talk.

WASHINGTON, May 2.—There was a critical moment here yesterday at the capitol just after Coxeey was hustled off the steps. The "wealers" in the parade were jammed and jostled by the crowd, some being thrown about in every direction.
The clanging of the bells on the cable cars and the yelling and surging of the people made the scene hideous. The mounted police dashed into the crowd endeavoring to get them back on the sidewalk and restore some semblance of order, but for some time it was of no avail. It became necessary to use their clubs as a menace. Some of the Coxeeyites were jostled and crowded until they reached the wall of the grounds, and it looked as though they were about to head for the capitol. A rush was made by a mass of people upon the scene, and many ran pell-mell to the plaza, over lawns, tramping down the shrubbery and vines.

About the east of the capitol panthe-onium reigned, and the mounted police made a charge to clear the way. Then occurred a scene scarcely ever before witnessed about the big building. Men, women and children rushed for the sidewalks, falling over and trampling on one another in their attempt to reach a place of safety. Finally a way was cleared, and out in the street could be seen the Coxeeyites, presenting a deplorable and comical sight in their rage and rattle after their contact with the yelling and surging populace.

Browne's personality was then on exhibition. He rode his mettlesome charger in forbidden paths of the capitol grounds and jumped him over the stone opposite the entrance of the capitol.
A mounted officer started after him, and, as he resisted arrest, he received a clubbing. His head was cut, but it is not thought that he was badly hurt. This incident started rumors about as to general fighting, but no such thing occurred.

The plaza in front of the main portion of the capitol building then took on its usual appearance just as on every day when Congress is in session. This whole affair of Coxeey lasted not over 10 minutes.

Carl Browne, chief marshal of Coxeey's army and Christopher Columbus Browne, leader of the Philadelphia contingent, were placed on trial in the Washington city police court this morning on the charge of violating the United States statutes and interfering with an arrest, respectively. Coxeey was in court and force was used by the police in unlawfully entering the United States capitol grounds, and displaying a banner and injuring certain plants and shrubs in the grounds.

Browne demanded a jury trial for each prisoner, which was granted, and the cases went over until Friday. Bail in $500 was demanded in each case, and Coxeey, Browne and Jones were locked up until shortly after 11 o'clock when Frank Hume, wholesale liquor dealer, gave bond for Coxeey and Jones, and they were released. Browne furnished bail last night.

In the House today Johnson, Democrat, presented as privileged matter a resolution directing the committee on public buildings and grounds to investigate the occurrences on the capitol grounds yesterday, to determine whether unnecessary force was used by the police, whether any offending citizens were cruelly beaten, and whether the dignity of the House had been violated. The Speaker held that no privilege attached to the resolution, whereupon Johnson asked unanimous consent for its consideration, but this was refused.

DES MOINES, Ia., May 2.—Kelly's army of Coxeeyites is still here, unable to get transportation. Provisions are scarce and the citizens are not inclined to furnish more.

INCENDIARY TALK

KANSAS OFFICIALS Predict a Revolution.

TOPEKA, Kas., May 2.—R. S. Osborne, Secretary of State, when told that Coxeey had been arrested, became much excited and gave utterances to some wild remarks. He said: "I know what the charge is. I expect that this uprising must be put down. There will be no overt action by the people until the next election. Then, simultaneously with the returns, flames will be shot up into the air from the Atlantic to the Pacific and every palatial residence in the land will be destroyed in this spontaneous uprising of the people. We onto them who have sought to stay this tide for the last six months.
The farmers are preparing for this. They are selling a horse or a cow and buying rifles with the proceeds, and many mechanics are doing the same.

Governor Lewelling believes that the arrest of Coxeey will prove to be a serious blow. He said: "It will have the effect of uniting the masses in a common cause. The Populists as a rule look upon the demonstration in Washington yesterday as the beginning of a revolution."

Biggest Felt Mill Burned.

ALBANY, N. Y., May 2.—The Kenwood mill, owned by Mrs. Sarah Townsend and operated by Haycock and Argersinger in the manufacture of felt goods, was completely destroyed by fire this morning, together with the store house of the firm and three tenement houses. The mill's output was the greatest of any felt mill in the United States. Loss, $250,000; insurance, $130,000.

A Bimetalle Conference.

LONDON, May 2.—The international bimetalle conference was formally opened today in the Mansion house.
The opening address was delivered by ex-Lord Mayor Sir David Evans. A large number of delegates were present, including some of the best known British and foreign financiers.

DESTRUCTION BY A MOB

INTENSE EXCITEMENT IN CLEVELAND, OHIO.

SIX THOUSAND MEN DOING ALL THE Damage They Dare—The Full Force Of The Police Called Out.

CLEVELAND, O., May 2.—A mob numbering 6,000 or 7,000 assembled in the public square this morning and marched on a mission of destruction. On Seranton avenue every window was broken; at the Variety iron works the entire force of men working was driven out. At the Upton Nut and Bolt works the windows were broken, machinery smashed and the men forced away. Twenty-five men were driven from the Church furniture works. At this point the police charged the mob, and drove them up the hill on Jennings avenue.

2 p. m.—The police are being hurried to the scene from all available sources.
All the reserve force of police, including the mounted men, have been ordered out.
Many arrests have been made. Intense excitement prevails in the Southern part of the city.

JUNIORS' NATIONAL COUNCIL.

It is To Convene in Asheville June 19

The National Council of the Junior Order of United American Mechanics will meet in Asheville June 19, and will remain in session from four to six days.
The meetings will be attended by between 85 and 125 delegates representing 26 states and nearly 150,000 Juniors.
The local councils of the order are planning a trip to Vanderbilt's for the visiting delegations, and a parade taken part in by all the Juniors, the military and all organizations of the city. It is also desired that the city shall be decorated when this patriotic order meets here. The last meeting was held in Detroit, and Asheville won over many bidders for this year's meeting.

The coming of these Juniors will be no small affair for Asheville and the local members of the fraternity expect some help towards entertainment, as the council here are not yet very strong. A committee has been appointed to canvass for funds to this end and hope to raise $250 or $300. The committee is composed of W. C. McConnell, C. W.
Brown, J. I. Mackey, R. C. Holliger, Jesse R. Starnes, Geo. H. Burnham, R.
L. and T. W. Fitzpatrick and R. S. Stewart. There is no doubt they will accomplish their task.

The hotels of the city have made special rates for the visitors.

A FAIR APPLE CROP

Reports From The Section Near Cooper's

Mark M. Jones, one of Buncombe's progressive farmers, living near Cooper's, was in the city today. Speaking of the crop in his section Mr. Jones told THE CITIZEN he was confident that there would be a fair apple crop, of both early and late apples. One-half of the peach trees, however, were killed by the freeze.
Wheat, which was badly damaged by the cold, is coming out wonderfully, and, generally speaking, the farmers are not nearly so bad off as they feared they would be.

Mr. Jones also tells of a Southdown buck in his flock of sheep, from which he realized a rather remarkable amount of wool. The buck is only a year old. It was sheared Monday and the fleece weighed even 12 pounds. Mr. Jones says this is one of the finest sections for sheep raising to be found in this country.

AT CARRIER'S

Stakes At The Track Friday Afternoon

Among the racing events at Carrier's track Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock will be a half-mile bicycle race. The entries are Thad. W. Thrash, John S. Pleasant, Eugene C. Sawyer, I. Marshall Heizer, T. A. Griffith, J. W. Blair and Jas. G.
Stiddecher. The racing board of Asheville's Cycle club, composed of Nat. S.
Rogers, Clarence Sawyer and E. B. Egan, will meet in the Hotel Berkeley this evening to decide as to the prices and details of the race.

PLAY TOMORROW

Stephens and Oldham Join The
A. B. Club

The Avery's Creek boys will come to Allandale field tomorrow to bat against the Asheville baseball team. The visitors have the appearance of heavy hitters and Asheville has learned at her cost that the boys from that section can play ball.
Game tomorrow will be called at 4 p. m.

Lovers of the pure and unadorned article of baseball will be glad to know that Stephens and Oldham have joined the Asheville baseball club and will come here prepared to help shove the national game about the 1st of June.

A Notable Shipment.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., May 2.—The Alabama Rolling Mill company of this city today shipped a train of cars loaded with merchant car iron manufactured by them, to San Francisco.

Big Fire In France.

TOULON, May 2.—The enormous saw mills of Arsenal at Mourillon, burned last night. Loss, $1,250,000.

CONDENSED TELEGRAMS.

The Marietta and North Georgia shops at Marietta, Ga., burned last night. The shops were the largest and best on the line of the road.

The strike on the Great Northern road involving 5,000 men, is over. The strikers gained nineteen-twentieths of the points made.

The May-Day parade in New York was not very successful. Socialists dominated it.

Republicans were generally successful in Indiana municipal elections.
Geo. W. Abell, proprietor of the Baltimore Sun, is dead.

NOW THIS IS THE STUFF

THERE ARE SOME REAL DEM-OCRATS LEFT.

The Third Congressional Ohio
District Returns a Democrat And Reverses Its Returns On McKinley

COLUMBUS, O., May 2.—The Third Ohio Congressional district, in the special election held yesterday, went Democratic by about the usual majority, 3, 000 votes, electing Paul J. Sorg, over C.
E. Rathbone, Republican. Sorg's home, Middletown, strongly Republican, gave him 108 plurality, while ex-Governor Campbell's home, carried by Republicans at the last municipal election, gave 1-183 plurality, and Dayton, carried by McKinley by 465 votes last fall, went Democratic yesterday by 196. The Democrats here are jubilant over the apparent turn in politics in their favor.

AND NOW HE'S OUT

But Mere Requests Don't Go With Jailer Jamison.

Henry Smith is a colored man who, it is believed, can control some colored votes. Yesterday afternoon Smith was in Justice Frank Carter's court on a charge of false pretense and was held to court in a $200 bond. Smith was sent down to Jailer Jamison's "house under the hill." The jailer heard Smith say to someone outside the jail that he would work in the coming election for the party that secured his release.

Late in the afternoon Jailer Jamison received a note from Mayor Patton, in which that official said that if Mr. Jamison would release Henry Smith from custody, he, the Mayor, would "fix the matter in the morning, and I assure you I will stand between you and all danger."

The jailer declined to grant the request, informing the messenger that nothing but an order for release from the committing magistrate would be heeded. About 10 minutes later, Mr.
Jamison says, the messenger returned, accompanied by Constable Poor, who assured the jailer that the note was really from the Mayor and not a fake or forgery. But this did not change matters, and Mr. Jamison still declined to grant the request.

This morning the Mayor became bondsmen for Smith and he was released.
Referring to the matter the Mayor told THE CITIZEN he had asked Mr. Jamison to release him, but the jailer preferred to wait until the bond was made. Smith is one of the Mayor's tenants and the Mayor says he had the right to go on his bond if he felt so disposed.

Corbett Stirred.

LONDON, May 2.—The Sportsman publishes an interview with Corbett, the pugilist. Corbett said that he felt "sore on the things" Parson Davies had been reported as saying about him, and declared that Davies was playing a game of brag for advertising purposes. He said:
"If Davies will make it worth my while to forfeit my engagements, say by making a heavy side bet, I am willing to shorten my dramatic tour and fight Jackson whenever and wherever he likes."

Mr. Carnegie's Two Mummies.

PITTSBURGH, May 2.—Andrew Carnegie's trip to Egypt has resulted, among other things, in his purchase and shipment of two mummies for the Schenley Park Museum and library. These are said to be of royal lineage, and fine specimens of the ancient art of embalming.
They are now in the Philadelphia custom house.

Starvation Threatens Them.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., May 2.—The mine situation remains practically unchanged.
The force of negroes put to work at Blue Creek has been increased, and the strike at that place has about broken. At other places the strikers are threatened with starvation, but are firm. Many are leaving.

Speedy Justice.

STAUNTON, Va., May 2.—The jury in the case of Lawrence Spiller, the negro charged with the rape and murder of Lottie Rowe last week, was found guilty of murder in the first degree, and sentenced to hang June 1.

Fusion Did Not Work.

SPokane, Wash., May 2.—The returns thus far indicate that the Republicans have carried the municipal election over a fusion of Democrats and Populists by majorities ranging from 100 to 300.

JUST IN NORTH CAROLINA.

—The boiler in John Roberson's steam saw mill at Williamston, N. C., blew up Monday. Isaac Bright, colored, was killed outright. Two or three will probably die and 15 are badly wounded, all colored except one.

—The missing railway engineer, Dan Litaker, of the Richmond and Danville railway, who disappeared at Charlotte, was found Saturday near Harrisburg.
He is insane.

—Some persons from the North write to Raleigh that they wish to purchase 40,000 or 50,000 acres of land in the eastern part of the State for a game and fish preserve.

—The officers and employees of the Atlantic Coast Line have built a monument costing $1,000 over the grave of the late B. D. Dunn, chief engineer of roadway.

—The date of the commencement of the State Agricultural and Mechanical College is June 20. There are eight graduates this year.

—The State University's summer school of geology will have its headquarters the coming summer at King's Mountain.
