LETTERS BY THE PEOPLE

VARIOUS SUBJECTS FREELY DISCUSSED.

Dr. Baird And The Grand Jury And The Reynolds Case—Mr. Gudger's Letter Provokes Com- ment—Two Replies.

EDITOR THE CITIZEN:—I am informed that on last Monday while offering the affidavit of D. L. Reynolds in the contempt case against him before Judge Thos. A.
Jones, Judge J. H. Merrimon criticized my conduct as a grand juror in very severe terms, and endeavored to place me in a very bad light before the court and the public. I leave it to the public to say how far Judge Merrimon was warranted and how many it was in him to thus attack a man who was not present and whose hands he well knew were tied and whose lips he knew were sealed by the sanctity of a solemn oath.

I am aware that the public has had a surfeit of this matter and I am not disposed to urge it to the massing point.
I only wish to add a few words to what my friend Mr. H. A. Gudger said to the court in my behalf. If it is possible to so far remove the obligation of secrecy as to authorize the placing of every member of that grand jury, as well as every witness who appeared before it, upon the stand to testify as to my conduct throughout this whole matter, then I shall demand that it be done and that the conduct of at least some other of the jurors be investigated at the same time.

While I may not be allowed to speak of anything that occurred within our body I can certainly say without impropriety that a particular thing did not occur within our body, especially when it had been stated in open court by one of the jurors that this particular thing did occur.

It will be remembered that at one time when the grand jury was called before the court in regard to the contempt matter I asked the judge if the grand jury would be kept together until the whole matter was investigated, and he replied that they would. My object for asking this question was to ascertain whether I would have an opportunity of requesting that every member of the grand jury be put upon the stand and examined under oath touching this whole matter, and especially to settle the matter as to whether any one had gotten up while the examination of a witness was going on and brought up the matter of a juror having been tampered with as stated to the court by the foreman.

I assert that no such thing occurred as stated; and I leave it to all the grand jurors as well as the witness referred to, to say what in Reynolds' affidavit was and brought up the matter of a juror
the court by the foreman.

I have delayed the publication of this card some days because I had reason to believe that another person familiar with all the facts would publish a statement which would obviate the necessity of my saying anything. As to the statements in Mr. Reynolds' affidavit founded on information alleged to have been derived from Mr. J. N. Bell, I can only say that Mr. Bell emphatically and indignantly denies them all and says that they are totally and absolutely false from beginning to end. This denial has not only made me write this card, but makes it fully and without reserve to every one who sees proper to speak to him about the matter.

I do trust that the day may speedily come when every fact connected with this unfortunate affair may be laid before the public and when every man in connection with it may be made to stand in his proper place in public estimation.

I. S. T. Baird.

A Reply to Mr. Gudger.

EDITOR THE CITIZEN:—Mr. J. M.
Gudger, Jr., in a letter published in THE CITIZEN of yesterday, in trying to explain why he signed the call and then backed out, says he "joined the movement on the representation that the convention was called by a minority of the committee;" that upon investigation he found that several members had refused to act. He further says that the "resolutions made by the mass meeting, in scheme, the purpose of which was to create confusion in the Democratic ranks and thus enable that party to get into power in this county and city."

In view of the fact that we served on a committee with Mr. Gudger to prepare the call for the mass meeting, in the preparation of which he took the leading part, and inasmuch as he has publicly stated that misrepresentations had been made to him about the convention and that it was a scheme to turn the county and city over to the Republicans, all of which statements he makes without giving his authority, leaving the impression that all this scheme was being carried out by the Democrats who joined in the mass meeting call; and as we are proud of the part we took in this call, we wish this publicly to state that any insinuation on the part of Mr. Gudger that he was drawn into this movement by any misrepresentation on our part is absolutely false. And further, as members of the committee or participants in the mass meeting and as members of the Democratic club who signed the resolutions, we wish to say that the assen-sion made by Mr. Gudger that this movement was a scheme to turn this county and city over to the Republicans is a base reflection on those Democrats who are supporting the citizen ticket and whose Democracy is just as good as Mr.
Gudger's. Respectfully,

Geo. S. Powell,
A. T. Davidson.

One View Of Mr. Gudger's Letter.

EDITOR THE CITIZEN:—Mr. J. M. Gud-ger's letter of yesterday is about the "deedest give away" the writer has ever seen in print.

He gives notice thus early, in advance of the defeat which he clearly now sees is in store for his faction, that the defeated band of disaffected Democrats will take their "revenge, revenge," in November next, by assisting Richmond Pearson to defeat the Democratic nominee for Congress. This is not the first time Richmond Pearson ever ran against a Democratic nominee, nor will it be the first time that a number of the so-called Straightouts, now attempting to rule or ruin the party, supporting Richmond

Pearson in his ambitious schemes.
Facts are facts, and history is history. It is not at all necessary to call names. The people know these men. They know how much reliance is to be placed in their Democracy, when the crucial test of self interest is applied. We have thought all along that we could trust our own Democracy when political issues properly the subject of party contest was involved. We have thought all along that we knew from what element of the Democratic party Mr. Pearson expected to draw whatever support he will get from it. Mr. Gudger may calm his fears. The support Mr. Pearson will get from the Democratic party will be exceedingly weak in numbers, and weaker in point of weight and influence.

Keown Democrat.

Did Not Refuse To Act.

EDITOR THE CITIZEN:—In a letter of Mr. J. M. Gudger as published in THE CITIZEN of yesterday, Mr. Gudger makes the statement that several members of the executive committee had refused to act.

I wish to say that so far as I am concerned, this is not true. The only invitation I ever had to act with the committee was given while I was confined to my room with sickness, and, as I understand, was the only meeting the committee ever held.

EDITOR THE CITIZEN:—I noticed in a card to your paper signed by Messrs.
Chambers, Weaver and Vandiver, that the country is all for Capt. Thos. W.
Now I will not say here, that if he was running in Leicester township he would get left.

MAKING READY.

Sub Committees to Prepare for the Pharmacists.

The citizens' committee on entertainment of the American Pharmaceutical association's convention, to be held in Asheville September 3 to 8 inclusive, met at the Battery Park hotel yesterday afternoon. Fred A. Hull was made a member of the general committee and the following sub-committees were appointed:

On finance—Geo. S. Powell, W. B.
Gwyn, W. C. Carmichael, Fred A. Hull, Dr. John Hey Williams, Dr. J. A. Burroughs.

On printing and advertising—Nat. S.
Rogers, W. F. Randolph, E. P. McKissick, Dr. C. S. Jordan.

On excursions—C. V. Murphy, L. P.
McLoud, Chas. McNamee, Dr. T. C.
Smith, Dr. W. D. Hilliard, Dr. S. Westray Battie.

On livery—H. E. Heintsh, B. S. Wor-then, R. P. Steele, J. T. Amis.

The Mayor and Capt. White G. Smith as local secretary of the A. P. A., will act in conjunction with and as members of these sub-committees. A sub-committee on the program, consisting of the Mayor as chairman, Nat. S. Rogers as secretary, White G. Smith and the chairman of each of the four sub-committees was appointed to act on reports of the committees. The chair requests that these sub-committees elect their chairmen and inform the secretary at the earliest date possible.

The committee on printing and advertising was instructed to prepare an article setting forth the advantages and activities of Asheville as a meeting place for the association and to insert this in the various pharmaceutical journals.

F. W. Hancock, secretary of the State association, addressed the meeting and stated at the last convention both Hot Springs, Ark., and Montreat made strong bids for the meeting this year, but that Asheville won by about 20 votes.
It will be four months before the convention, but the time is none too long to successfully prepare for the task of entertaining in Asheville style, over 500 visitors. The least cooperation of citizens, with the members of the committee, will make the affair a success worthy of the city.

WITH A RAZOR.

An Indignant Wife Blames Louisa Phillips on Hall Street.

Mrs. Anna Paine, who lives on Hall street, objected to the attentions which she suspected her husband, John Paine, bestowed on Louisa Phillips, the 29 years old daughter of Mrs. Nancy Phillips, also of Hall street. About 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon Mrs. Paine went to the home of Mrs. Phillips and found Paine there. The indignant wife drew a razor and cut Louisa a number of times on the shoulders and in the back and breast, inflicting dangerous wounds.
Mrs. Paine then ran to her daughter's aid, and the outraged wife was made to desist.

Paine skipped through a window when his wife entered the house.
Mrs. Paine, with a babe in arms, was taken before Justice Frank Carter, where she said she was a hard working woman and supported her husband, who in return gave her nothing but blows.
She said also that when she went to the Phillips' house she found her husband holding Louisa in his lap.

Justice Carter fixed Mrs. Paine's bond at $200 and released her on her recognizance for appearance at court.

THEY'VE GOT TOGETHER

DEMOCRATIC SENATORS CAU- CUS ON THE TARIFF

The Income Tax Feature Modi- fied So As To Satisfy All Demo- crats Except Hill of New York— Outline of Amendments.

WASHINGTON, May 4.—By a vote of 37 to one, six of the 44 Democrats being absent, the Democratic Senators in caucus yesterday adopted a resolution agreeing to support the tariff bill of the finance committee, including the comprehensive amendments that have been agreed upon.

The vote showed what those who had called the caucus expected. The roll was called in order to place all on record and 37 seven senators voted in favor of the resolution and one senator (Hill) against it. The vote was received with genuine gratification as many of the senators believed it signified that the tariff bill would pass.

In the Senate today Mr. Vest, member of the Finance committee, presented the amendments to the tariff bill agreed upon in this conference. They all relate to the income tax to be collected from corporations, providing for a tax of 2 per cent, on net profits or income (above ordinary expenses) of all banks, trusts, railroads, insurance and other companies, not to apply, however, to building and loan associations that make loans to their shareholders.

The amendments were laid on the table and ordered printed.

HELP THE JUNIORS

What the Order Has Done—Na- tional Council to Meet Here.

EDITOR THE CITIZEN:—In Thursday's paper you had an article concerning the National Council Junior Order of United American Mechanics meeting in Asheville in June, and we called upon the citizens of Asheville to contribute to entertain them while here. I want to say it will pay from a financial standpoint.
This body of representatives will number from 120 to 150 besides their families.

Suppose they leave only $15 apiece here —that will be nearly $2,000. That is putting it at a very low estimate, for they will be here four or five days. It will pay in another way—in advertising our city. There will be people from 28 different states, besides from all over this State, and if we entertain them nicely we all know that it will do more to advertise this town than $1,000 worth of literature. Then Asheville will be entertaining an organization that has done as much or more than any other organization to uphold the American institutions, especially the schools. We believe if the people of Asheville knew the principles of our order they would not hesitate to give liberally to entertain this noble body that is to meet here in June.

This order has met every attack that has been made on our public schools in this country, and has defeated their adversary in every case. We did not think we would have to call on the good people of Asheville for this purpose when we invited them here, but owing to the hard times and the scarcity of money we are obliged to call on the people to help us.
We only ask for $2.50, and we hope when the committee waits on the citizens they will respond as liberally as they can and we know they will never regret it.

Geo. H. Burnham.

SCHOOL DAYS ARE O'ER

Graduating Exercises at Orange Street School.

Bouquets and pots of flowers were bountiful at the graduating exercises of the Orange street school this morning.
There were four full graduates and four partial graduates. The "sweet girl graduates" looked their best. The exercises opened with prayer by Rev. Mr. Banks of Connecticut, and after essays, music, etc., the diplomas were presented by Superintendent Eggleston, Chairman West being unavoidably absent.

At Bailey street school the children were first taken into Mrs. Fenner's room and had exercises consisting of songs and recitations. While this part of the program was taking place, the teachers and friends took tables and chairs in the little grove near the school and upon the tables spread a delightful lunch of which the children partook with full enjoyment. The treat was donated by friends, teachers and patrons of the school. All the children went home very happy.

At Montford avenue and Catholic Hill schools, songs, recitations, drills, etc., appropriate to the end of school work and the beginning of vacation, occupied the children until about 11:30, when the schools adjourned.

The class day exercises given yesterday afternoon by the graduating class were unusually interesting. The class history and class poetry were humorous, the hits at the teachers being thoroughly enjoyed by the pupils.
