OUTSIDE OF HUNCOMBE.

Dad Wilkes of Charlotte died Sunday after two weeks' illness in Washington City Saturday evening.

Raleigh has granted a franchise to the general Electric company to put in an electric light and power plant.

A big "strife" has been made at the Mann-Arrington gold mine in Nash county, the ore assaying $15 a ton.

New Hanover county appropriated $200 to the State Commercials' movement, and Wilmington will appropriate a like sum.

Governor Carr accepts an invitation to attend the Southern Congress at Augusta, Ga., May 30. Hon. Patrick Walsh tendered the invitation.

Tuckasegee Democrat, Mr. Geo. Hughes caught a white ground squirrel on his farm on the Cullowhee mountain while planting corn a few days ago. It was perfectly white with pink eyes.

The Raleigh Board of Aldermen have granted a franchise to the old D. H. McLaughlin telephone company, and the latter will commence work on installing a system in opposition to the Bell monopoly.

The Supreme court has had a decision giving Edward J. Fuller a new trial. Fuller was under sentence of death for the murder of Parker at Fayetteville, and the case attracted widespread attention.

There are intimations that the Soldiers' Home will be removed from its present location in Raleigh to a point in the country, so a fine farm can surround it. The present quarters are too cramped.

Raleigh contributed $500 for the purpose of making the ceremonies at the laying of the corner stone of the Confederate monument a success. Letters are pointing into Raleigh from all parts of the State, which show that the crowd there on the 27th instant will be very large.

Tuckasegee Democrat: When Judge Mecher remarked that the criminal docket of this term could have been disposed of in two days but for those cases in which whiskey was the most prominent factor, he stated a fact which the records will substantiate, and at the same time delivered a most impressive temperance lecture.

A SESSION'S WORK
A Look At The Last Term Of The City Schools.

All the next features added to the city school work during the session just closed, nothing has exceeded in the amount of interest engendered the literary and debating societies organized under the auspices of the teachers and higher grade pupils. The society has met every week since its organization last winter, the attendance has been large, and the debates have been of an exceptionally high quality.

The session closed on the 31st of the second graduating class in the public schools, and started this year what is likely to prove a permanent feature for graduation classes—the "class day" celebration, with its history prophesy poem, etc., which are usually of a humorous nature.

The full graduates of the year were: Moses Tracy Cooke, Nora Ware and Annie Chapman and Frances Smith. The partial graduates were: Misses Mollie Bernard and Maggie Cruise, Dwight Moore and Love Whitlock.

The music furnished by the school choir in these and other entertainments has been favorably commented on by very many of the hearers. The Glee club of the high school department, consisting of about 40 members, has brought out some excellent musical talent.

The day concluding at Mountain View is a good deal of remark from visitors during the past session. One teacher, from New York, declared some of it as good as any she had ever seen. Work of this kind ought to be put on exhibition occasionally.

The monthly report for the schools for the six months, they will be three grades with a record of over 98 percent attendance, while others push this record.

A grand majority of the city school teachers will attend summer institutes at Mountain View, where Parker, Frye, H. L. White and others will teach. Still others will go to the University of North Carolina.

THE Y. M. C. A.
What Secretary Willis Reports—Woman's Auxiliaries

A general Secretary Willis in his address at the men's meeting in the Y. M. C. A. Sunday took for his subject "What the Y. M. C. A. is doing in North Carolina."

"The work accomplished in this State for the year just ended," he said, "is one of which every Y. M. C. A. in North Carolina should be proud. No man in the State has worked more faithfully than State Secretary Coulter, whose record is 118 visits to 100 different points, met with boards of directors 27 times, conducted 30 camps, visited 27 churches, 182 general services for boys, 29 for mixed audiences, $3 for men only, raised for association purposes $110, traveled 15,114 miles. And much other laborious work."

In the State the associations number 25, with a membership of 1,816. Number of associations in colleges, 15; with a membership of 947 out of 1,770 men in the school; number of reading rooms, 12; gymnasiums, 6; bath rooms, 7. There are seven buildings owned by associations in the State. The furnishings for 24 associations are worth $13,774. And greatest of all reports, 379 conversions in 23 associations.

The Ladies' committee Thursday voted to attempt the organization of a woman's auxiliary to the Asheville Young Men's Christian Association. That means that it will be formed and that the Y. M. C. A. here has taken a new lease on life.

The reception committee is making up and "getting on a hustle." The members and friends will be assured of that fact on Monday, May 14, at the members' meeting.

WELCOME WORDS TO WOMEN.

Many times women call on their family physicians, suffering as they imagine, one or more of the ailments of the liver, another from heart disease, another from liver or kidney disease, another with pain here or there, and in this way they all present to their easy-going doctor, separate diseases, for which he prescribes, assuming them to be such.

When, in reality, they are all only symptoms of a common cause, they are all only symptoms of a common cause, they are all only symptoms of a common cause.

by some womb disorder. The suffering patient gets no better, but probably worse, by reason of the slow wrong treatment and consequent complications. A proper medicine, like Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, directed to the cause would have promptly cured the disease.

Mrs. HARRY TAPPAN, of Reynolds, Jefferson Co., N.C., writes: "For two years I suffered. A part of this time had to be carried from my bed. Was racked with pain, but hysteria, was very nervous, no appetite and completely discouraged. A few bottles of 'Favorite Prescription' effected a perfect cure." Sold by all dealers in medicines.

AB OUTRAGE.
Raleigh, N.C., Charlotte Observer.

In an eastern county not long ago it was found that a respectable white woman who was insane was confined for months in an apartment in a jail, with three men. The excuse which was given was the other portion of the jail was out of repair.

FROM WEAVERVILLE.

The College Commencement—Visitors—A Good Farmer—Fruit.

WEAVERVILLE, N. C., May 5.—Weaver ville college is making preparation for their commencement June 13. The Delphian society had the honor of selecting the annual orator. Rev. C. W. Byrd, presiding elder of the Asheville district, was first chosen, but declined to accept on account of his proximity to the college. Rev. S. D. Turcutt of Winston was next chosen, and accepted.

Rev. H. J. Christberg of Central M. E. church Asheville, will deliver the benediction at the commencement before the graduating class of this year.

Visitors have begun to arrive at the noted Dula springs. This is a fine mineral property as is to be found in Western North Carolina. Visitors and the water specially beneficial.

R. W. Chambers, lessee of Dr. H. B. Weaver's farm, has his farm work under fine headway. He has made such extensive improvements that the Doctor will have to use his spectacles to recognize his old farm.

It is gratifying to the farmers that, judging from the amount of bloom, there will be a small crop of late apples. This and the crop of small fruits, blackberries, strawberries and grapes will be a considerable help on their tables next autumn.

There is a case or two of the grip in the community at present.

FAIRVIEW NOTES.

FAIRVIEW, N. C., May 4.—We have yet to see a small quantity of fruit blooms. The farmers are well up with their work, corn planting about finished.

Among our visitors attending the commencement exercises were—Hon. M. C. Tomson of Hendersonville, Messrs. G. C. Hostie and Morgan of Rutherford, Rev. J. L. White, I. H. Tucker and C. B. Way of Asheville.

The tobacco crop in our section will not be so large as usual owing to the scarcity of plants having been killed by the freeze.
