MINERS AND OPERATORS STILL AT ODDS.

The Great Coal Strike Will Go On Indefinitely, Unless a Pittsburgh Operator's Prediction Come True.

CLEVELAND, O., May 18.—The great conference between the representatives of 200,000 striking miners and operators representing every coal mining district in the United States, has ended in failure. The two interests came together, presented their demands, discussed the condition of the mining trade in all its bearings, found their differences irreconcilable, and departed for their homes leaving the situation at the mines in apparently the same condition of suspense it was before the conference was called. But that condition is in fact more apparent than real.

The operators' offer was 65 cents in Pennsylvania and 56 cents in Ohio, while the miners held out for 70 and 75 cents. Finally Col. Rend of Chicago urged both sides to make a concession, proposing a compromise of 60 and 60 cents. His remarks were applauded by both miners and operators, but nothing came of them.

One of the most prominent operators in the Pittsburgh district said last night that within a week the miners would be at work, and that they would receive practically the scale of wages for which they have been contending in the conference that has just adjourned.

CHATTANOOGA, May 18.—The coal miners' strike at the Shoddy mines is beginning to be serious. Factories are closing down or reducing their forces on account of the scarcity of coal. The miners have been out so long that distress prevails. Their children cry for bread.

WENT THE "WHOLE HOG"

Extensive Dealings of Fred Lawrence, Colored.

Judging from developments since the arrest and holding of Fred Lawrence, colored, on a charge of robbing the store of the Baltimore Clothing, Shoe and Dry Goods company, Lawrence conducted one of the most extensive thieving games ever known in Asheville. The thieves must have been going on for several months. Yesterday and last night officers were busy making search for stolen goods. Some of the goods were found at the Bailey street school, of which Lawrence was janitor, but the bulk were found at his home, and as ascertained as it seems, it is asserted after looking through the stolen goods that Lawrence's stealings will amount to nearly $1000. Whether he had confederates is not yet certain. The company had been missing goods since Christmas, but had until a few days ago been unable to get a clue as to the thief. Lawrence is an ex-convict.

The work of recovering the goods has been prosecuted by George Greenlee and Henry Cowan, colored detectives connected with the Finton age. Some of the goods were recovered from persons who had bought them at a nominal price, and who were unwilling to give them up. Chief Deaver of the Finton regards Greenlee and Cowan as his best colored detective material.

A SHATTERED LEG

Ugly Accident To T. C. Hare Thursday Evening.

A most distressing accident befall T. C. Hare, the well known young commission merchant, about 8:30 last evening, as he was returning on horseback from Blountmore. As he was riding up the grade on South Main street and at a point near the factory of the Asheville Tobacco Works and Cigarette company, the horse became frightened and reared up, then fell backward upon its rider. Mr. Hare's left leg was caught under the horse and the shock rendered the rider unconscious. A street car passing the scene of the accident a minute or two afterwards brought Mr. Hare to the square and from there he was taken to his home, 216 College street.

Drs. James A. Burroughs and E. C. Starnes were at once called in and an examination showed that the bones of the left leg were broken, the large bone being literally shattered between the knee and ankle. It was feared that Mr. Hare had sustained internal injuries, but today it is said his only hurts are to the leg and face.

HELPLESS AND ALONE

The Pitiable Plight Of Edward Caldwell.

Last night Edward Caldwell, colored, was brought in on the A. & S. train, coming, as he said, from Greenville, S. C., at which place the chief of police of that city purchased a ticket to bring him to Asheville. Caldwell is in a pitiable plight, being paralyzed in legs and arms and, therefore, perfectly helpless. He is here who would assist him to Stateville, his old home. He has been in the R. & D. waiting room since he came here. His case is one that suggests attention by the authorities.

A Cooking Class.

The ladies of Asheville are much interested in the prospect of a class in cooking, to be opened soon by Miss Clarke of the Milwaukee Cooking school. Some of the ladies of the city know Miss Clarke's national reputation as a teacher and will fully appreciate the opportunity afforded by her visit. The following extract from a testimonial from Mrs. R. G. Pearson will interest all housekeepers: "I had heard much of Miss Clarke's work in Atlanta, Ga., and was glad when our paths crossed, giving me an opportunity to attend her lessons (in South Carolina). Her light bread lessons are alone worth the fee for the term."

Democratic State Convention.

RALPH, N. C., May 16.—The Democratic Central committee met here today, Chairman Simmons presiding. It called a meeting of the State Executive committee at 8 o'clock p. m. June 12th. It is the sentiment of the Central committee that it is best to hold the State convention not earlier than the last of July or later than August 1st.—Richmond Dispatch.

Items For The Baseball Cranks To Talk About.

T. Lanier, of whom great baseball is expected this year, got into his practice clothes Wednesday, and went out to Allendale with the baseball boys for a couple of hours' work. After general practice Lanier stood in the points and gave an exhibition pitch. His drops are so phenomenal that Bouis, who was watching the twirl, fell off the players' bench as he bent his head to follow the ball's erratic flight. Bouis declares that there is a ball of six feet, the sphere's course four feet on each side of the batter. Lanier is a son of Judge T. Lanier of Oxford, N. C., a distinguished lawyer of Eastern North Carolina, and of the same family as Sidney Lanier, the famous Southern poet. Young Lanier began his education at Horner's school in Oxford and has just finished the law course at the University of North Carolina. It was at the University while playing with the Varsity baseball club that he acquired the reputation of the best all round ball player in the South. For the last two years he has played third base on that team, alternating in the pitcher's box with Stephens, the crack North Carolina pitcher, who made such a reputation for himself in Chicago last summer while pitching for the University of Virginia in the inter-collegiate championship games.

Mr. Lanier, while playing with the Fayetteville team last summer received an offer from Arthur Irwin, the manager of the Philadelphia League team, to play during the summer season with the team at Atlantic City, N. J., but was unable to go on account of sickness. He has been offered salaries by nearly every manager in the South, but has always preferred to play in his own State with amateur teams. He will spend the summer in Asheville and will also play with the Asheville team, and the cranks can bank on it that he, with Stephens and Oldham, will carry the white and red to victory every time. If they don't, they'll "mos."

The success that has attended the effort of the cranks to give Asheville a good ball with a first class equipment, has made the club jubilant, but there is yet a drop needed to make their cup run over. The club needs a set of silk, long flags, well, white with a red A in the center would be quite proper, but the boys would like before they would ask the lady friends to present a set.

The new uniforms for the team arrived yesterday and will be donned in the play with Arden on Saturday.

They eulogized Vance's noble character as a citizen, soldier, statesman and politician from his youth to his death. There was a large number of people present.

W. F. Tomlinson.

Strikers Couldn't Stop Them.

UNIONTOWN, Pa., May 18.—The coke strikers at the Kyle works made another attempt to prevent workmen going to work this morning. At daybreak they surrounded the houses of the men, and held them prisoners. The officials, noticing their absence, sent deputies to find out the trouble, and the strikers dispersed. The Kyle works are in operation today with an increased force of men.

Steamer In Peril

MILWAUKEE, May 18.—The schooner Cummings is ashore near here; two of her seamen are reported drowned. The life saving crew's boats capsized in an attempt to get out to the schooner. The Racine life saving crew has been asked to assist the Milwaukee crews.

Fishermen In Danger.

THEY WILL OR THEY WON'T

SENATE REPUBLICANS AND THE TARIFF BILL.

They Appear To Be Divided As To Whether To Come To A Vote On The Tariff Bill—Two Announcements.

WASHINGTON, May 18.—In the Senate today the resolution for the meetings of the Senate at 10 a. m. daily was taken up and agreed to without division. Immediately afterwards, however, a discussion was started by Sherman who was not in the chamber last night when it was offered and knew nothing of the circumstances. In the course of the discussion, Frye expressed the opinion that it was the duty of the Republican side to defeat the tariff bill and resort to any and all parliamentary methods in doing so. He had not been able, however, to persuade the Republican side that that was the true policy to pursue. On the contrary, it seemed to be the determination of the Republican side to permit the bill to come to a vote after its full consideration.

The discussion closed with the frank notice to the Democratic side of the chamber by Chandler not to act upon the theory that it had been decided by the Republican side either that they would or that they would not filibuster against the passage of the bill.

The resolution was voted on a second time and agreed to, and then, at 12:15, consideration of the tariff bill was resumed.

PRESBYTERIAN WORK.

Appointments of Chairmen of The Committees at Saratoga.

SARATOGA, N. Y., May 18.—In the General Assembly of the Presbyterian church, Rev. Arthur I. Brown of Portland, Ore., was elected moderator after a most exciting contest yesterday.

As usual on the morning after the election of the new moderator the main interest was felt in the committees to be appointed to attend to the details of the Assembly's work. The chairmanship of the committee on bills and overtures goes by custom to the retiring moderator, Dr. Willis G. Craig. Dr. Gardner was named chairman of the committee on judicial business. Dr. Marquis of Chicago was placed in charge of the committee on church policy. Dr. Holmes of Pittsburg presides over the interest of education, and Dr. Fox of Brooklyn will present the subject of ministerial relief. Elder Franklin L. Sheppard will have again, for the third time, charge of mileage, and elder James Yerrance that of finance. The other chairmen are to be named later.

According to the new rule of the body, the first report read was that on deacons, ministerial periodicals, Dr. McIntosh of Philadelphia speaking.

COXEY TURNED DOWN.

He Didn't Get Into Clover In Philadelphia.

PHILADELPHIA, May 19.—Coxey made a sensation here last night by appearing at the Clover club dinner clad in a full dress suit. After he was invited, Col. A. K. McClure, ex-Minister Charles Emery Smith, Major General Snowden, Col. John L. Rogers and other members of the club said they would not sit at dinner with Coxey. They were told he would not be there, so they came, but Coxey came too.

When Col. McClure walked in with ex-Governor Curtin there was a lively scene. Coxey was invited to the Bellevue hotel where the dinner was spread and taken to an art club by Col. Thomas Donaldson. Then the clerics resumed. Gen. Snowden told the Cloverites that he would not dine with Coxey as he might soon have occasion to meet that "general" in a sterner conflict. Coxey was angry over the turn down, but sought solace with some genial friends elsewhere.

EX-TREASURER O'BRIEN

To Be Enjoined Against Selling Certain Property.

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., May 18.—The Fidelity and Casualty company of New York has filed a bill in the Chancery court against ex-Treasurer M. J. O'Brien praying that his individual bondsmen be enjoined for selling certain real estate to satisfy judgments rendered against them. The company also prays that a receiver be appointed to take charge of the property. The Catholic Knights of America are also made defendants in the suit.

OATES HAS IT.

Result of The Alabama County Conventions.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., May 18.—The Age-Herald prints a tabulated report of the results of the county conventions as compiled from results, as follows: Oates, 268 1-20; Johnson, 233 19-20.

This includes 10 contested votes for Oates from Lee county and nine contested votes from Hale for Johnson. Necessary to a choice, 253, thus showing Oates has a majority, giving Lee to Johnston.
