NORTHERN AND SOUTHERN PRESBYTERIANS APART.

The P. proposal Voted Down by the Southern Assembly at Nashville—The Northern Church Seemed Anxious To Bring About The Reunion.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., May 24.—The chief topic before the Presbyterian assembly was organic union. At the afternoon session, a motion carried to prosecute the Means case to a conclusion. The question of organic union was again taken up and Dr. Otts spoke. He argued that the question was an open one and he favored a conference with the Northern church. A new generation had come on the scene and the church must meet the issue. Dr. Otts said he was for co-operative only.

Dr. Parcell argued against organic organization. Dr. Walden said the two churches were distinctly separate. Dr. Daniels opposed organic union. Elder McPheeler opposed union and said the only question now was would the church appoint a committee on conference.

Other speeches were made and Dr. Summers read the committee's report. An amendment to accept the proposals from the Northern church was offered and rejected, 90 to 68. The committee report recommending the rejection of the proposals from the Northern church was adopted.

SARATOGA, N. Y., May 24.—In the Presbyterian General Assembly yesterday the floor was given to Dr. Duffield of New York, chairman of the committee on correspondence, who introduced Rev. Dr. Markland of Baltimore as a representative of the Southern Presbyterian church. In this connection Dr. Duffield expressed the hope that the dawn of the day may be near at hand when a theological orator shall no longer mark the Presbyterians of the United States.

Mr. Markland spoke at considerable length and was occasionally interrupted by applause. In opening, he expressed the hope that the time might come when the effort to bring back the Southern church like a daughter to the bosom of the mother should be crowned with success.

In replying, the moderator charged Dr. Markland to take back to the Southern church the message that the Northern church is longing to be one again with the Southern church, adding: "It is a crime for us to be separate any longer."

PROF. SMITH'S APPEAL

He And Briggs Heard By The Assembly at Saratoga.

SARATOGA, N. Y., May 24.—Interest in the case of the appeal of Prof. Smith was early manifested this morning during the devotional service which occupied the first half hour of the assembly. Mrs. Smith was present, accompanied by Mrs. Dr. Briggs, New York; Dr. Henry M. Field, Dr. Rolin A. Sawyer and Prof. Smith, mother and brother.

At ten minutes past ten the assembly was constituted as a court and the reading of the records in the case proceeded with. These papers contain the record of the Synod, notice of appeal and the appeal of Prof. Smith.

After reading these papers the assembly, without opposition, voted to entertain the appeal of Prof. Smith and at half past ten arguments on the appeal was begun by Dr. Smith. The reading of the full records was waived except so far as they were to be used in argument. Prof. Smith stated that he proposed to argue only six of the grounds of appeal instead of two. His argument at the start concerned the existence of a prejudice in the members of the Presbytery which originally tried him.

LOOK OUT FOR IT.

The Treasury Department Has Discovered a New Counterfeit.

WASHINGTON, May 24.—A circular just issued from the secret service division of the Treasury Department announces the discovery of a new counterfeit $5 certificate. It is described as a lithographic production. The Grant portrait and the work are poorly executed and the figure five on the left face of the note has a crooked, distorted appearance.

From the description as given in the circular, the defects in the note are very general and close scrutiny would readily detect it as a counterfeit. The maker and his two confederates were captured in Topeka, Kansas, by the police and a secret service agent, and $1,015 of the notes and the plate from which they were printed secured.

THE TARIFF ON TIN.

It Is Being Considered In The Senate.

WASHINGTON, May 24.—In the Senate today Kyle's Hawaiian resolution was laid before that body. After a short discussion Hoar asked unanimous consent that the resolution be adopted without further debate, but White of California objected and the resolution was laid aside. At 10:30 the tariff bill was taken up, the question being on the tin plate paragraph and the pending amendment, being the one offered by Aldrich to make the duty 1 1/2 cents per pound.

Death of a Noted Ex-Confederate

RICHMOND, Va., May 24.—Col. Fred G. Skinner, who was colonel of the First Virginia regiment during the war, died at Charlottesville yesterday aged 82 years. He was born in Maryland and was educated in West Point. He was for some years after the war on the editorial staff of the Turf, Field and Farm of New York.

WILSON-WEAVER.

Wedding Bells at Acton Wednesday Afternoon.

A very pretty and impressive wedding ceremony was that at Acton M. E. church, South, this county, yesterday afternoon at 5:30, when Dick Weaver of Asheville and Miss Blanche Dale Wilson of Acton were made husband and wife according to the ceremony of the Methodist church. Rev. H. F. Chreitberg, pastor of Central church, Asheville, officiating. The church had been handsomely decorated with evergreens and flowers and the edifice was filled by those who witnessed the marriage.

The attendants were T. F. Reeves and Miss Annie Wilson, J. S. Coleman and Miss Nan J. Weaver, L. B. Alexander and Miss Georgia Harkins. Messrs. Geo. L. Hackney and Frank M. Weaver were the ushers.

At the conclusion of the ceremony the wedding party returned to Asheville, where a wedding supper, spread in the Berkeley's best style, was enjoyed at that hotel. This morning Mr. and Mrs. Weaver went to the home of the groom's father, Wm. Weaver, near Weaverville, where a reception in their honor occurred at 2 p. m. today. The newly wedded couple will visit relatives in that section for a week and will then return to Asheville to live, making their home at Clover Nook cottage, corner East and Hillside streets.

Mr. Weaver, the groom, is a member of the livery firm of Chambers, Weaver & Co., a baseball player of reputation, and a worthy young man. The bride is a daughter of Mrs. L. E. Wilson, a grand-daughter of Joshua Jones, one of Buncombe's well known citizens, and she is, besides, a handsome young woman of wide popularity. Congratulations are extended to the couple by their hosts and friends in Asheville and throughout Buncombe county.

SUPREME COURT.

Opinions Handed Down of Interest in Asheville.

The State Supreme court has handed down opinions in the following cases which went up from the Buncombe court: Harris vs. Harris, reversed. This was a habeas corpus case in which Mrs. Florence J. Harris and C. J. Harris were the parties concerned, Mrs. Harris endeavoring to get the custody of her child. The case was heard by Judge Shuford, who gave both the father and mother possession of the child for a certain time each year.

Joseph M. Hayes Woolen Co. vs. D. R. McKinnon and H. Petrie. This was an action brought for alleged breach of contract. Both parties appealed; error in both appeals.

Geo. W. Cannon vs. C. J. McCape. Mr. Cannon applied for a restraining order to prevent Capt. McCape, as trustee, from selling certain property. Judge McIver dissolved the injunction. The plaintiff appealed. The higher court affirms Judge McIver's decision.

ELECTRIC LIGHT REPORT.

Deficiencies Pointed Out By The S. E. T. A.'s Electrician.

The Southeastern Tariff association has issued in pamphlet form, and sent to persons concerned in Asheville, the report of Chas. H. Smith, assistant electrician of the association, on the result of the electric light inspection. The report includes the condition of the wiring, etc., done by the electric light companies in this city. The plants at the Battery Park, Oakland Heights, Kenilworth Inn, and the Asheville Cotton mills are also reported upon. In each instance defects are pointed out and a remedy suggested, and in a few cases it is stated that in the opinion of the electrician it is not safe for insurance companies to continue their lines until the dangerous defects are removed.

EIGHT STRIKERS KILLED

HUNGARIANS AND SLAVS SHOT DOWN.

AT THIS DISTANCE THE AFFAIR LOOKS LIKE A MURDER—DEPUTIES ALL TOO READY TO FIRE—THERE WILL BE A LONG LIST OF WOUNDED.

FAIR CITY, Pa., May 24.—A battle occurred at daybreak this morning between Washington Run deputies and about 1,800 strikers. Eight strikers were killed and at least 20 wounded.

The strikers have made two ineffectual attempts this week to bring out the men working, but were not successful. Arrangements were made yesterday whereby strikers from the Fourth Pool would meet the Youghiogheny men and attack Washington Run in a body. Seven hundred men left here at 11 o'clock last night and were joined by other squads from near by points. The Youghiogheny men, principally Hungarians and Slavs, numbered about 1,000. The strikers, headed by the Smithton brass band, marched along the public road fronting the works. The deputies who had been reinforced during the night, were fortified behind two box cars.

As soon as the men turned into the road fronting the works, the deputies stepped forward and shot a man who had stumbled and fallen into the ditch, killing him instantly.

This was the signal for a general fusillade from the deputies. Three times they fired into the air and then discharged their Winchester into the body of strikers who had not left the public road. Three fell dead, and two were wounded. The strikers fired but few shots, they broke and ran for a wheat field above the works. The deputies continued firing as long as the fleeing strikers were in range. John Troy, fatally injured, was taken in charge by Sheriff Wilhelm, who headed the deputies.

The men killed were all foreigners, principally Hungarians, and at noon their bodies were still lying on the road where they fell.

WONT DECORATE GRAVES.

Because Breckinridge Is Of The Veterans' Association.

LEXINGTON, Ky., May 24.—Political, Confederate and social circles are more excited than ever because a young woman's auxiliary to the Confederate association had a stormy meeting and refused to decorate the Confederate graves because Breckinridge was a member of the Veterans' association.

The president of the auxiliary says it will take no part in the Breckinridge case as a body, and that there will be no refusal to decorate graves.

Mrs. A. M. Harrison, secretary, and Miss Mary Harrison, vice-president of the auxiliary, resigned their positions today. They are severe in condemnation of Col. Breckinridge, and while they give no open reason for resigning, they say plainly it ought not be difficult to infer why they quit the organization.

Mrs. Harrison is a daughter of the late Confederate General Withers, and Miss Harrison is a daughter of the late Jas. O. Harrison, kinsman, historian and administrator of Henry Clay.

Breckinridge Won't Retire.

WASHINGTON, May 24.—Col. W. C. P. Breckinridge said yesterday of a report that prominent Kentuckians were coming here to urge him to withdraw from the race for Congress in favor of his son, Desha: "You can say for me that the old man will be in Congress next time. After that the young man may be allowed to take his chance in the race."
