is both agreeable and safe if it is cooked with Cottolene, the delicious vegetable shortening. No ill effects ever follow the eating of food cooked with Cottolene, as is the case with lard and inferior butter. Odor, grease and dyspepsia are remembered only as things that have been in the homes where is used. Being composed of refined cotton seed oil and the choicest beef suet, it represents the most acceptable product ever offered to the lovers of good food. Try Cottolene yourself and you will add your praise to that of the many thousands who have forsaken lard forever. The genuine is sold in 3 and 5 pound pails by

COTTOLENE

Wm. Kroger.

MINE PROPERTY BLOWN UP WITH DYNAMITE.

A Cripple Creek, Col. Quiet Today In The Pennsylvania Mines—Dead and Wounded—Alabama Miners Moving.

CRIPPLE CREEK, Col., May 25.—The shaft house at the Strong mine at Victor was blown up by dynamite this morning at 9:25. Twelve men were in the shaft guarding property, but no particulars of their injuries has yet been learned, as all the telephone lines are cut.

After wrecking the shaft house, the men went over to the Portland and Independence mines, which they captured, and placed under the guard all men found there. They took possession of all their arms.

UNIONTOWN, Pa., May 25.—In the Stickle Hollow mines conflict yesterday both sides were in fighting shape. 75 armed deputies contending with a mob of from 1,500 to 2,000 strikers, about 200 of which were armed with all kinds of guns. Five strikers were killed and eight or more wounded and three deputies were wounded.

The Hollow was quiet this morning, and work was going on at the mine as usual. Not one of yesterday's rioters have ventured to return near the scene and it is thought that the plant will not be again molested.

St. Louis, May 25.—The strikers of the Pullman works held a meeting behind closed doors last night, at which the men voted themselves into local branches with the railway union. A grievance committee of nine was elected and it was decided to stand by any action it might take. The question of a strike is still in abeyance, to be decided at the meeting next Sunday.

WASHINGTON, May 25.—A special from Birmingham, Ala., says last night it was reported to Sheriff Morrow that two armed bands of striking miners were seen passing the Pratt mines going in the direction of the Dolomite mines and Woodward furnace. The miners at Dolomite have been at work since the strike began. Sheriff Morrow sent out 40 armed deputies as scouts to search for the marauding miners and arrest them at all hazards as they are violating Governor Jones' proclamation, prohibiting the gathering or moving from place to place of armed bodies, except when led by an officer. The miners at Dolomite, on hearing that a mob was headed that way, became alarmed and are leaving there in great numbers. Governor Jones wired Sheriff Morrow to arrest the members of the mob and use the military if necessary.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., May 25.—The sheriff's posse that went in search of the mob of strikers that were marching to the Dolomite mines last night, failed to find them. The mob took to the woods and evidently dispersed before reaching Dolomite.

'SHOW YOUR PERMIT'

They Hadn't One And Trouble Resulted

One of the most hotly contested cases that has come before Justice Frank Carter was heard yesterday afternoon, the defendant being Thos. Hester, a colored gateman on the Vanderbilt estate. A carriage occupied by two colored couples, the men being Preston Smith and Joe Dively, drove on the estate and succeeded in passing Hester, the first gateman, without a permit. They were turned back, however, by John Thompson, the second gateman. When the carriage reached Hester's station on the return, Hester assaulted Smith and Dully, hitting each of them on the head with a rock. When the trial came on Hester said the men in the carriage tried to drive over another road on the estate instead of returning for a permit, and he assailed them to prevent their carrying out this intention. The defence was represented by James H. Merrimon and S. H. Reed, and the prosecution by Dull Merrick and K. S. McCall. Justice Carter held the three parties to the trouble to court in a bond of $100 each.

FOR JUDGE CARTER.

The Brevard "Hustler's" First Choice in the Twelfth

The Brevard Hustler, in an editorial on the decision of the Supreme court concerning the judgeships, says: "The most available and competent son in the district should be selected—one in whom our people have the utmost confidence, one who will uphold the Democratic banner and by the influence of his personality bear it on to victory, and one who will never faint or fail to cheer his followers on to ultimate success. Such a man we believe is Hon. H. B. Carter, ex-magistrate of the Criminal court of Asheville, and he is, therefore, the Hustler's first choice for the position. Should he decide to announce his candidacy we predict success for him in the judicial convention, and victory for the Democratic party in the 12th judicial district. He is thoroughly fitted for this honorable office, and if put in nomination will bring to the support of his party a personality which presages success."

Funeral of Fred. H. Roberts

The funeral services over the remains of Fred. H. Roberts, who died yesterday, will be held in Central M. E. church, South, this afternoon at 5 o'clock, conducted by Rev. H. F. Christberg. The pallbearers will be Eugene Bearden, Cicero Nichols, John Wagner, T. E. Brown, Jr., Ed. Davidson, and T. H. Lewis. Honorary pallbearers: Dr. G. O. Roberts, C. D. Cushing, Harold Johnston, P. H. Branch, Julian Woodcock, George Williams, Mark Erwin and Ed. Fletcher. The interment will be at Riverside.

Mr. Roberts had many friends in Asheville, to all of whom the news of his death was saddest.

Death Of Dr. Bonzano.

NEW ORLEANS, May 25.—Dr. M. P. Bonzano, for the past 20 years a prominent figure in Louisiana politics, died last evening at his Hermitage plantation in St. Bernard Parish, aged 73. He had occupied many positions of trust and honor.

DR. DROUGHTON REMAINS

He Will Preach This Evening at The First Baptist

When Dr. Droughton arose to announce his text at the First Baptist church last evening he said that while he had been here the feelings of the people had been most cordial toward him. He thanked them for taking so much interest in the meeting, thanked Pastor White for his hospitality and the choir for the singing every night, and added he hoped they would all sing around the great white throne in heaven. Dr. Droughton also thanked THE CITIZEN for the reports of the meetings and for the benefit it had been to the meetings. Thanks were extended to the members of other churches for helping. There had been, he said, about 200 conversions during the meeting.

Dr. Droughton took his text from the 24th Psalm, a part of the 11th verse—"They looked upon Him and were lightened." The preacher said he thought the last of the verses of this psalm should be devoted to a subject of this kind. "We cannot," he continued, "look unto God except through Jesus Christ. As we look unto Jesus in His life on earth there is encouragement and comfort. How beautiful the life of Christ was! How enduring, how precious, and unshakable a life was given upon the cross for us poor sinners. As we look at the life of Christ we can find no man that loved like He did. And He loves us when we come to Him. If you are a child of God, I come with a comforting thought for you. Come into Christ and be comforted.

"Christ lasted 33 days. You never tasted that long, nor did that much for Him. He had no place to lay His head, he takes poverty unto himself. Sometimes you think you are nearly at the top of the ladder, when some disappointments come and you find yourself going down on the other side. If you are a child of God come to Him, on the other side of the picture there is brightness, for all things work together for good to those who love God. Let come what will we know everything is all right if we love God. I often find Christians who are persecuted for His sake. As we think of His persecutions and think of ours, I feel like going out and fighting for Him.

"As Peter walked on the sea he was all right just so long as he kept his eyes on Christ, but so soon as he began to look down, his faith failed him and he began to sink. So long as our eyes are on Christ we are all right, and if we keep in that way we will land safely in heaven. There is a pleasure in looking unto Him even if you are a sinner. There is a comfort to every sinner in divine presence tonight. May every sinner in the house trust in the Lord Jesus tonight and be saved."

When Dr. Droughton concluded, Pastor White asked that all who wanted the meeting to continue should stand up. Nearly every one in the house arose. Then Mr. White said there would be services this evening at whether Dr. Droughton stayed or not, but he would have him stay if possible.

WELL DONE!

The Early Closing Movement Assumes Definite Shape

Commencing June 1, 1894, we, the undersigned, hereby agree to close our stores at 7 p. m., Saturdays excepted, until further public notice. In taking this step we see no inconvenience it will work to the public. It will allow our help as well as ourselves a little outdoor rest and recreation during the long hot days of summer.

The Cooking Class

The cooking class at Watlock's store room on South Main, had a most practical lesson at 10 a. m. today. The ladies were evidently greatly pleased with the demonstrations given of the "stuff of life" in various forms. Delicious chocolate and several tempting dishes of eggs were served with the breads. The serving at the class is a very pleasant part of the lesson, as the "bread of the pulping" is in the eating. Puff pastry, pate a choux, fruit sandwichee, fanchonettes, strawberry vanity, etc., will be given tomorrow at 10. This lesson on puff pastry is always important and fascinating, and no doubt will be largely attended by the enthusiastic housekeepers. Miss Clarke's visit to this city presents a rare opportunity for gaining much practical knowledge in the art of cooking.

He's No Populist

A rumor has been circulated of late to the effect that Hon. H. A. Gulger would ally himself with the Populists. THE CITIZEN, on Mr. Gulger's authority, enters an emphatic denial of the rumor.

To Blow Up Public Buildings.

BENSON ABERNETHY, May 25.—A plot to blow up the Parliament buildings and House by the use of bombs has been discovered here. The police found several bombs and have arrested two Austrians and an Italian, charged with complicity in conspiracy.

The Tax On State Banks

WASHINGTON, May 25.—It is probable that today in the House will be devoted to the consideration of private bills, which will postpone until next week consideration of the 10 per cent. tax bill.

Michigan Democratic Convention

DETROIT, Mich., May 25.—The Democratic State central committee has decided to call a State convention at Grand Rapids, June 28. The convention will nominate two United States senators as well as State officers.

SILENT NEWSPAPER MEN

THEY CAN WRITE, BUT WON'T TALK.

Washington Correspondents Refuse To Say Who Gave Them Information As To The Influence Of The Sugar Trust On Certain Senators.

WASHINGTON, May 25.—The special committee appointed to investigate the charges of attempted Senatorial bribery on the part of Chas. Butt today submitted their report to the Senate. Butt is found by the committee to have made an attempt at bribery despite his denial, and Senators Hanton and Kyle are exonerated from all blame.

The bribery committee continued its inquiry today into the allegations concerning the sugar trust and its connection with the tariff bill. John S. Shriver, Washington correspondent of the New York Mail and Express, was the first witness called, and the committee endeavored to ascertain from him some thing more about the identity of the manufacturers who appeared in Shriver's dispatch as authority for the statement that certain Democratic Senators had yielded to the demands of the sugar trust's action at the Washington Hotel in this city.

Shriver refused to give any information whatever, and said he would abide by the Senate's notwithstanding he was told he might place liberty of inquiry by refusal. He informed the committee that he had retained Judge Dittenboffer who also represents Edwards, another newspaper man, as counsel.

Dittenboffer appeared before the committee and argued that the committee had no authority to compel his clients to answer.

GOVERNMENT BUILDING.

Atlanta Has a Chance to Secure It.

WASHINGTON, May 25.—Representative Livingston of Georgia and Secretary of the Interior Smith had a conference today with Secretary Carlisle regarding the government building at Chicago which is wanted at Atlanta for erection on the exposition grounds of that place. Carlisle stated that the building was sold on the 12th inst. to the Chicago Wrecking company, that a contract had been made out and the company's check received, but that the contract was not signed as yet, nor had the money been turned into the treasury. He stated that he would be governed by the wishes of Congress in the matter, that if Congress desired that the sale should be withdrawn he would do so, and the building should be removed to Atlanta agreeably to the wishes of the exposition managers.

NOW IN THE MOUNTAINS

Foliage, Plants and Early Vegetables Get a White Blanket.

CASPER, N. C., May 25.—The very unusual sight of snow mixed with the full foliage on the timber and the green vegetation on the ground was presented here yesterday. The cold mountain spurts of the Blue Ridge were white with snow and in some places it was three inches deep. The mercury was near the freezing point and beans, sweet potatoes, etc., are damaged. Some of the more tender foliage of the trees is killed. While some damage has been done throughout the mountain district, it will not be heavy, according to best reports so far obtained from the different counties.—Atlanta Constitution.

THE CANDIDATES THERE.

Breckinridge's Fate Will Be Decided at Frankfort.

FRANKFORT, May 25.—The city is crowded with politicians from every county of the district. Among the prominent Breckinridge leaders here are Col. John O. Hodges, Desha Breckinridge, Hon. W. P. Thorne and Col. W. L. Crabb. Hon. W. C. Owens is here, and the leaders are Judge Ashlew of Scott, Harry Clay, Logan Locker and Ed. Farrell of Lexington, and Edwin Dickerson of Burdette. Hon. Ivan E. Settle, the third candidate, is also here and is the idol of about 100 enthusiastic country men who are yelling for him.

THEY WERE OFFERED WORK

But Refused It, Preferring to Starve or Beg.

WASHINGTON, May 25.—It became known today that the Coxeyites in their camp near Highlands, Md., have for the past three days had no other bread than bread and water. The suffering has been borne for the most part without a murmur. During this time there have been but few desertions. Their pitiable condition was relieved by a greater variety of supplies furnished by the citizens of Washington than the commonwealthees have had at any previous time since leaving Massillon.

Effect Of The Coal Miners' Strike.

BREDSOCK, Penn., May 25.—The Edgar Thompson steel works closed down yesterday in all departments but one. The cause is lack of iron and coke. The severity of iron results from the shut down of so many furnaces.

Presidential Nominations.

WASHINGTON, May 25.—The President today sent to the Senate the following nominations: Collector Customs, Wm. Miekler, St. Augustine, Fla.; Postmasters: Virginia, W. O. Blakely, Gordonsville; Tennessee, Ella Lewis, Gallatin.

CONDENSED TELEGRAMS.

Jack Davis, a well known citizen of Eagle Pass, Texas, has been convicted of attempting to bribe a custom house officer to smuggle Chinamen in from Mexico. He offered $50 a head.

Lazarone won the rich derby stake at Latonia yesterday in the slow time of 2:51. There were only four starters.

The Atlanta and Marblehead have been ordered to relieve the New York and San Francisco at Bluefields.
