PRINTED DAILY (EXCEPT SUNDAY) AND WEEKLY... SUBSCRIPTION RATES: One Year, $10.00; Six Months, $6.00; Three Months, $3.50; One Month, $1.00.

STATE NEWS.

Governor Carr has reprieved until July 6th Richard Broadbax, who was under sentence to be hanged at Milton June 24th for murder.

Fred Douglas (colored), Pension Agent at Newbern, is charged with making charges in excess of what the government allows. United States District Attorney Aycock will prosecute him.

Hail storms have been remarkably frequent this month. A great one swept through Pitt, Greene and Lenoir counties; another through Grayville. The fall of hail was in some places five inches deep.

Chatham Record: Within a month's time three old citizens in the same neighborhood, near the Wake and Chatham line, died from cancer. They were Messrs. John Upchurch, Jeff Mitchell and Mark Baker.

There was a severe storm in Richmond county last week. It wrecked the houses on the farms of Messrs. John Briggman, Wilson Rogers, William Hamer, W. H. Dobbs, W. T. Dobbs, Ben Liles and Dan Watson. The crops were greatly injured.

Shelby Aurora: The Aurora regrets to chronicle the tardiness of our farmers in cultivating clover, a crop that pays better than cotton. Our farmers do not plant one-tenth enough clover and do not appreciate its value.

Shelby Aurora: It is said that two lady teachers of culture, Miss Parson of New York, and Miss Phelps of Ohio, and more recently teachers at Saluda Seminary, propose to start a first class school near Chimney Rock and to build up a first class and cheap school like Jones Seminary at Allendale in Gaston county.

New Postmasters: Ewart, Buncombe county, Mrs. C. R. Keith vice F. M. Redman, resigned; Grantville, Buncombe county, S. O. Weaver, vice S. O. Weaver, resigned; Myrtle, Rutherford county, M. C. Harlin, vice N. L. Caldwell, resigned.

Marion Record: The Benoni property in this county containing 6000 acres and known as Benoni's cross roads was sold under a mortgage sale for cash on Tuesday. The property was bought by Mr. Wm. McCarry for $1,000.

Morganton Herald: Everybody is interested in the improvement of that beautiful section of North Carolina which is the Lanville Improvement company get on its feet again.

Shelby Aurora: The developments at Columbus, just now, are of the most interesting nature. Some years ago Mr. Frank Stearns of Berea, Ohio, purchased a large portion of Tryon mountain and Dr. Stearns, his brother, erected a new hotel on Tryon to which excellent roads have been graded up the mountain. At the base of Tryon, streets and lots have been laid out, connecting with those of the town.

AN EDITOR CURTIS SEES IT. A kind of reform he does not sympathize with.

Every good citizen, who has read the plain statement of facts published by the proprietors of THE ASHEVILLE CITIZEN concerning the trouble given that paper last week by the recently elected mayor on the "reform" ticket, is bound to sympathize with the proprietors on account of the unjust and unbecoming action of the said mayor, and at the same time condemn the action of Judge Curtis in all the circumstances it is very easy to understand the cause of such malicious prosecution, and to see that it was prompted by a spirit of revenge.

We do not see, however, that the situation is materially different from that created when any information is given by one gentleman to another under the expressed or implied understanding that he is not to betray the source of his information. Even if it could be shown that public interest demanded that the original source of the information should be known, the consent of the originator to that effect must first be had, under ordinary circumstances at least. So it is in the case now on in Washington. Unless the informants of the newspaper men are willing to be known they never will be; one gentleman does not betray another unless the provocation be very great, as, for instance, it should be found that false information were given for the sake of personal advantage or from a bad motive.

In the present case it will be strange, provided the Senatorial committee is in earnest, if it cannot, by a little strategy, secure as much and the same information as did the newspaper men whom the committee is now wasting their time with.

A Smith Family. Forty years ago a little girl named Mary Smith, then 10 years old, moved with her parents from this county to Liberty, S. C. After growing into womanhood she married a man of the name of Smith. They lived happily together until he died, and, after wearing mourning a year or two, she showed the public that she was not ashamed of that uncommon name and again married a Smith. She outlived her second husband, and again put on widow's mourning by marrying another man, and his name is Smith. She is 50 years old, was a Smith when she started, is a Smith now, and always was a Smith. She has children by her two former husbands, and it is said that they are all named Smith.

North Carolina Saved It. We are still heartily ashamed of the pitiful figure the South cut as a whole, in the grandest national and international exposition ever collected; but we are proud of the fact that some Southern States—notably Texas and North Carolina—did themselves high credit at Chicago.

PIERCE GUARANTEES A CURE OR MONEY IS REFUNDED. Disease follows a run-down system with the liver inactive and the blood disordered. Pimples, Boils, Sores, Carbuncles, Ulcers, and like manifestations of impure blood, should be driven out of the system with Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery.

The Judgeship. As before stated in former issues, we regard Mr. Shuford as no candidate for re-nomination, giving proper interpretation to his conduct about the matter. And therefore, as we understand it, the race for nomination lies between Mr. Carter of Asheville, and Mr. Ferguson of Waynesville, only. Or at least, these two gentlemen are the only candidates as yet announced.

Short-handed Knight. Isaac Pitman, of stenographic fame, has been knighted. The English nobility may now be considered short-handed.

HE'S A CRAWFORD MAN.

A Vote For He Who Ploughed His Way to Congress. Editor SHELLY AURORA.—Your important correspondent is busily engaged in an effort to manufacture sentiment in this district favorable to sending Col. Crawford to represent us in Congress. He misses no opportunity to say something flattering the Colonel.

After carefully examining his little pleasantries, I have failed to find a single reason assigned why we should turn down Crawford with the knowledge and influence he has gained by experience, and substitute Col. Cox with nothing in the world to recommend him but his money.

Now against Col. Cox personally I have nothing to say. He is as able and as approachable as any millionaire in the country, but altogether unsuited to represent this or any other district in the Congress of the United States.

In the first place we need men in Congress who are willing to work, ready to respond to every roll call and vote upon every question. The present Congress is an object lesson that makes Democrats everywhere blush to see a House of Representatives with a clear majority of over 70 per cent, worthless and ineffective that the speaker cannot send out of his time, muster a quorum to do business.

We need men that stick to their business, do their duty, remain at their posts and help to make a government something else.

Now, it is not to be supposed that Col. Cox, with his great wealth and the indulgent habits that such wealth engenders would be likely to continue much in the routine work of Congress. To send such a man is going the wrong way to cure the ills afloat.

Truly, I don't think Col. Cox's ability to make a campaign against an estate and coal-mining opponent, and so that fashion he should not be nominated for fear we should have to blush for our own district.

Those who fear the matter with the hope that they will see Crawford with a full vote. What's the matter with the man that has stood at the post and given a correct vote upon every important question. Why should we abandon a leader that we have to be a certain amount of a good citizen.

There is a gentleman who has been called Spokesman's remark in a town that Mr. Crawford was one of the best promising young men in Congress. We know that he is a man of brains and is a splendid campaigner. We can make no mistake in nominating him. We would most likely make a mistake in nominating Col. Cox.
