SHERMAN TALKS TARIFF

MR. MORGAN CHALLENGES A STATEMENT.

Some Kinds Of Lumber May Go On The Free List--The Hawaiian Resolution of Non-Intervention Passed

WASHINGTON, May 31.—Two resolutions, one offered by Hill, requiring Gray to select a committee to sit with open doors, and the other offered by Dolph for the arrest of Elisha J. Edwards, as a recalcitrant witness, went over till tomorrow under the rules.

The resolution reported from the committee on foreign relations was agreed to unanimously, declaring that it of right belongs wholly to the people of the Hawaiian Islands to establish and maintain their own form of government and domestic politics, and that the United States government ought not in any way to interfere therewith, and that any intervention in the political affairs of those islands by any other government will be regarded as an unfriendly act to the United States. The vote was taken by yeas and nays and the result announced was yeas 55, nays none.

Mills stated that if he had not been pointed he would have voted "no," not because he did not recognize the right of the people of Hawaii to institute their own government as they pleased, but because the government of the United States having overturned the government of Hawaii and having put the Hawaiian people under military power, against which they could not protect themselves, it was the duty of the United States to tear down the oligarchy established by force and permit the people of the Hawaiian Islands to institute their own government.

The tariff bill was taken up at 10:30 and the amendment offered by Hale, to make the duty on sawed boards $2 per thousand feet was defeated, yeas 22, nays 31. A vote was then taken on the amendment offered by Allen to place on the free list all logs, lumber and laths, shingles and building material commonly used in the construction of dwelling houses and barns or fences, defeated, yeas 4, nays 48.

On motion of Allen, on behalf of the Finance Committee, Paragraph 178, fixing the duties on "lumber of any sort, plain or finished," was struck out of the bill for the purpose of having such lumber at the duty on sawed boards. At 11:50 the wool schedule was completed, the remaining votes having been taken without debate.

The sugar schedule having been reached, Sherman began a speech on the pending bill. Almost all of the Senators were in their seats, while a number of the members of the other House occupied seats. The galleries were well filled, many ladies being present.

Sherman cited the Confederate constitution forbidding a protective tariff and said he believed opinion in the South was changing on this question.

Morgan challenged the statement made by Sherman that he (Morgan) had once said he doubted if the discovery of coal and iron in Alabama was fortunate as it interfered with the production of cotton. Sherman went on to show the industrial development of the South. The South wanted protection for its industries, he said.

Referring briefly to sugar, Sherman said his friends in the South were anxious but hopeful about sugar and expected to have a duty placed upon that article, and, if not a duty, at least a bounty. The McKinley bill, he said, had some demerits, one of them being the bounty on sugar, to which he was opposed at the time. Later on, he said, for the purpose of establishing the industry of beet sugar, and also for the purpose of protecting the cane sugar of the producers of Louisiana, a worse tariff vote for a duty of from 1 to 2 cents a pound on sugar imported into this country. He would rather do that than give a bounty, because that section of the country was prospering and it should do. The Republican party and the people of the West were indebted to the Senators from the South for the duty that had been placed on coal and iron. These would not have been granted, he believed, had not coal and iron been discovered in the South.

IN HONOR OF VANCE.

Graceful Tribute of The Salem Graduating Class

WILMINGTON, N. C., May 31.—[Special.]—The 92d annual commencement exercises of Salem Female college closed at 12 o'clock today. This was commenced day proper. The annual address was delivered by Rev. Robert Strange of Wilmington. "Holding the Vision of Life" was the subject of his oration which was full of excellent advice to the 37 young ladies comprising the graduating class.

The diplomas were presented by Bishop Rondthaler of the Moravian church. Music was furnished by the Salem orchestra.

Many sad farewells were exchanged between pupils and friends generally. The next session of college opens September 4th. The graduating class today started a fund for a memorial window to be placed in the college in honor of North Carolina's late Senator, Zebulon Baird Vance.

FORD'S THEATRE DISASTER.

The Indictment Against Col. Ainsworth Quashed

WASHINGTON, May 31.—The second indictment against Col. Ainsworth, chief of Pension record division of the War Department, for manslaughter in connection with improperly conducting the repairs to the old Ford's theatre building, which resulted in its collapse and the death of 22 clerks, was quashed this morning by Judge McComas on a demurrer. This practically ends prosecution of the case, and secures Col. Ainsworth's release upon his bond.

Twoed School Closes

TWBER, N. C., May 23.—The school taught at this place by Miss Lizzie Stroup closed today. Appropriate exercises consisting of recitations, declamations, etc., were had, after which a short address was delivered by J. H. Cooper, esp. of Asheville. The excellent manner in which the boys and girls acquitted themselves reflected credit upon their competent young teacher and themselves. Miss Stroup will have charge of the school at Mt. Calvary this fall.

Y. M. C. A. COLLATION

Baseball and Cycle Clubs to Be Entertained

Unique invitations are out, and THE CITIZEN has received one, for the collation to be served by the Y. M. C. A. to the members of the Asheville Baseball club and Asheville's Cycle club in the association rooms tomorrow, Friday, evening at 8:30 o'clock.

The occasion promises to be one of the most important and enjoyable events in the history of the organizations taking part. There will be supper for the inner mental man. The menu will include soups, bread, ham, chicken salad, pickles, olives, bananas, oranges, strawberries and cream, coffee.

Nat S. Rogers is to be the toastmaster of the evening and the program is as follows:

"Cycling for Recreation," E. E. Egan. "Modern Baseball," E. H. Lewis. "Cycling for Fat Men," L. P. McLoud. "Baseball for Business Men; or, Reminiscences of We Uns and You Uns," John P. Kerr.

"The Racine Man," John S. Pleasants. "The All Round Athlete," George G. Stephens.

"The Triangle," General Secretary Willis.

The catchy invitations were designed by Alderman Fred A. Hill, and were printed on the Noostyle by Mr. Stevenson of New York, who is here introducing the Noostyle in Asheville.

GREENVILLIANS BERY.

South Carolina Ball Men Come to Play Asheville.

The Greenville, S. C., baseball team, which is on the books for a series of games with the Asheville, came in last night on the A. & S. train. They are plumed and primed for the contest and hope to win, remembering their late last season. On the other hand Asheville is determined, if it be possible, to do some winning for herself. These are the first important games at Allendale, and the interest they have awakened assures good crowds.

The batting order of the Greenville team in today's game was: Williams, Morgan, Barhoge or Farris, Hahn. The batter will be Hahn and Gibson. The cranks regret that Haines, the concher, did not come with the Greenville.

A letter received yesterday says that the Knoxville team will come here on the 2 o'clock train June 7 for their series with Asheville June 7, 8 and 9. The team with one exception will be made up as in the games last year.

Negotiations are pending whereby there will be three games in the week following the Knoxville games. The Spartanburg and Columbia teams are chosen for this series. The Charleston, W. Va., nine has been corresponded with, but no definite answer has been received.

OBSTRUCTING TRAINS.

That Seem To Be The Business Of Coal Miners Today.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., May 21.—Gov. Matthews last night issued a proclamation commanding the striking miners who are obstructing the passage of trains in the counties of Clay, Parke, Vigo, Sullivan and Vermillion to disband, and calling upon the sheriffs of these counties to enforce the law. The governor says that if the proclamation is not obeyed at once, he will proceed to enforce it with militia.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., May 31.—The committee appointed by the citizens' mass meeting here to confer with the coal operators and miner's committee with a view to adjusting the strike if possible, has met the operators, but after a prolonged conference, nothing was accomplished, the operators declining to reply to their original proposition for a 20 per cent. reduction. The operators believe they have about won the fight, but the strikers are still firm.

GREAT FLOOD AT PUEBLO.

The Depot Platform Under Water--No Trains Running

PUEBLO, Col., May 31.—The greatest flood in the history of the town, rivaling the historical flood of 1865, caused a damage amounting to upwards of $150,000 last night. The entire business part of the town from the bluffs to Fourth street is inundated, the water standing on the Union depot platform to the depth of a foot. Hundreds of families were driven out in the night but no deaths are reported. The electric light stations, gas works, telegraph and telephone offices are rendered useless. The levee is broken in a dozen places.

No trains can either enter or leave the city in any direction.

News.—Several people have been drowned in the flood. The damage will exceed half a million dollars. The damage throughout the State will doubtless be very great.

FIRE CUT OFF ESCAPE.

Children Thrown From Upper Windows--One Life Lost.

NEW YORK, May 31.—A terrible explosion, followed by fire, occurred at 4:30 this morning in a distillery on the ground floor of a double tenement, 129 Suffolk street, resulting in the death of Lizzie Vaega, a four years old child.

Twenty families were tenemented in the building. The explosion and fire cut off all means of escape and 15 children were thrown from the upper windows.

Breckinridge Will Appeal.

LEXINGTON, Ky., May 29.—Col. Breckinridge said today that he would carry the matter of Judge Bradley's refusal to allow his counsel to file a bill of exceptions to the Supreme court. He declined to express opinion as to the judges' refusal.

YESTERDAY'S BASEBALL GAMES

Afternoon games—Brooklyn 5, St. Louis 2. Boston 20, Cincinnati 11. Chicago 12, Philadelphia 6. Washington 14, Louisville 9. Cleveland 3, New York 2.

Both games at Pittsburgh with Baltimore were postponed by rain.

Southern League—Mobile 14, Charleston 11. Nashville 8, Atlanta 0. Memphis-Macon, no game.

LONG LIST OF INJURED

THEY ARE NEARLY ALL ALABAMA PEOPLE.

A Decoration Day Escursion Train Overturned to Roll Down a Steep Embankment--On the Albany and Columbia Branch.

MACON, Ga., May 31.—The rear coach of a train on the Albany & Columbia branch of the Southwestern railroad, a division of the Central Railroad of Georgia, was overturned by a broken rail at Holts yesterday morning and 10 people were injured.

The train consisted of six coaches loaded with excursionists from Andersonville to attend the Decoration Day exercises at the National cemetery.

Those fatally injured are John Smith, of Bluffton; Andy Jones, of Edison, and Mrs. Little, of Hilton, Ga.

About 1000 people were on the train, each coach of which was crowded almost to suffocation. The derailed coach rolled down a steep embankment and it is a miracle that many were not killed outright, as it contained over one hundred people, many of whom were standing at the time of the accident.

The names of the injured are: John Smith, Bluffton, may die; Andy Jones, Edison, may die; C. F. Butler, Arlington, G. F. Pennell, Hallsburg, Ala.; John T. Norris, Columbia, Ala.; Loft Anderson, Corider; L. M. Free, Damascus; I. J. Sloppy, and Miss Sloppy, Hilton; K. Williams, Columbia; Master Frank F. Talley, L. A. Talley and Master Julius Talley, Arlington, Capt. C. M. Holt, Columbia; Mrs. G. F. Little, G. T. Little, and Mrs. L. T. Talley, Hilton; John C. Chamcey, Blakely, C. O. Thompson, Columbia; William B. Field, Bluffton; W. H. Spurling, Millard; Henry Batiss, Damascus; J. J. and W. E. Fulton, Clay county; E. G. Brown, Bluffton; A. G. Tonguefield, Asheville, Ala.; Tilden Watkins, Edison; J. F. Mills, and C. A. Sheppard, Edison; W. T. Hall, Hallsburg, Ala.; Miss Emma Keems, Hilton.

CRUSHED TO DEATH

A Fatal Accident On the Old Colony Railway.

SHARON, Mass., May 31.—Between 12 and 1 o'clock this morning two freight trains came together at Sharon Heights, on the Providence Division of the Old Colony railroad, wrecking the engine and three loaded cars, killing three and injuring two persons, one badly.

The local train reached Sharon Heights about 12:40 and was switching. In doing so, some of the cars were still on the south-bound track when the strawberry train came along at a great rate of speed and ran into it. It is thought that the flagman did not go back far enough with his signals.

Mathew Chapman of Roxbury, Mass., the engineer, was thrown through the cab window, but escaped with a few bruises. Ed. E. Goodwin of Roxbury, the fireman, was instantly killed. Las was also the head brakeman, Ben McLeod of Boston, who was riding in the engine. A young man, who from papers on his person was probably Frederick Lawrence, about 18 years of age, and Christopher Murphy of Pawtucket were riding on the buffers between the tender and the first car. Lawrence was crushed to death and Murphy was badly injured.

A CRIMINAL PROCEEDING.

It Will Be Necessary To Make New-Paper Men Talk.

WASHINGTON, May 31.—Vice-President Stevenson said this morning that he would send to the District Attorney today his certificate with reference to the refusal of Correspondents Edwards and Shriver to answer questions asked by the sugar trust investigating committee with the request that the government enter a criminal proceeding against these gentlemen before the grand jury.

The investigating committee resumed its investigations today. Senator McPherson, a member of the Finance Committee, was the first witness examined.

Denounced and Predicted.

RICHMOND, Va., May 31.—At the reunion of Confederate cavalry in Richmond yesterday Gen. Thomas L. Rosser, one of the speakers, said that the principles of the lost cause were not dead. He compared the Federal troops to devastating locusts and denounced the pension system. He said we would yet see Yankee armies pull down our Confederate monuments.

One Company May Be Retained

COLUMBIA, S. C., May 29.—The military inquiry into the conduct of the Columbia companies during the dispensary riots continues. The indications are that Captain Alston's company, the Richmond Volunteers, will be retained in the service and that the Governor's Guards and the Columbia Zouaves will be dismissed.

CONDENSED TELEGRAMS.

The United States Court of Appeals at New Orleans has decided in the aged Italian case of Abagnette against the city that the city is not liable for damages done by mobs except to property.

The Maryland Biocesan convention was started by a sensational address by Bishop Paret who denounced priests who broke over the church ritual as perjuring themselves.

Arrangements are being made by St. Louis tobacco manufacturers to erect an immense cigarette factory there to be run in opposition to the Cigarette Trust.

Emma Juch, the famous prima donna, will on June 26 be married to Assistant District Attorney Francis Wellman of New York city.

The overflow of the Proyer river in British Columbia is causing great loss of life and damage.

The Pittsburg, Fort Wayne & Chicago railroad is burning old ties in lieu of coal.

Several big concerns at Erie, Pa., have shut down on account of the scarcity of coal.

Chicago Chinamen are establishing a masonic lodge. Ye Chow is grand master.
