"Where Was The Asheville Team At?"

As our boys could hardly be said to have been in yesterday's baseball game the above is a fair question. Probably they were so anxious to get some of Tenny's delicious candies at the extremely low price at which we are now selling them. The prospect of buying the finest candies made at 40c. and 60c. a pound is apt to occupy their thoughts. Prices that loosen your purse strings. Superfine cream bonbons, 60c.; superfine walnut creams, 60c.; superfine chocolate creams, 40c.; chocolate Jordan almonds, 60c.

Nineteen to Five,

Or about 4 to 1, that's the score; pretty heavy odds. That's the odds we are offering on our 5c. novel counters, 20c. novels, written by best authors only 5c. Several hundred new 20 and 25c. novels at 10c, received yesterday, notable among them 25 different titles by the famous family story paper writers, only 10c. Ships That Pass in the Night, 15c.; Dodo, 15c.; Yellow Aster, 15.; The Broom Makers, by Beatrice Harraden, 15c.; Heavenly Twins, 50c.

Darby Knocked a Fly Out-

Side the Allandale fence. That's one way of knocking flies out. A better and surer is to use Tanglefoot Fly paper. It knocks more flies out than any thing made. We keep it.

WHAT A TALE THESE FIGURES TELL!

The Dispensarians Come To Town, Give Our Boys a Hard Knock-Down, Doing The Thing Up Neat and Brown.

It matters not how sincere the regrets of patriotic Ashevillians, the naked fact remains, and the truth must be told—Asheville was not in it to a great extent in yesterday's game with the boys from the South. The game was a sort of walk 'round for the visitors, and it can't be helped now. Hahn's delivery was one thing all the way through and Capt. Lewis' players persistently insisted that the pitcher's work was made up considerably of balks, and so it looked to many, but Umpire Champlain couldn't see it that way, shook his head and his decisions had to be swallowed. The Greenvilles spread out over the field like a big fan and little else than a clean hit got by them. Asheville was weak on some of the points and several of the players apparently lost their heads at critical moments, and Greenville took advantage of it. There was a good crowd out and considerable enthusiasm until the score got too tall to allow hopes of an overtaking. There was, also, a good free seat crowd on the rise outside the fence. The new desk for scorer Bouis and his associates in keeping game was on trial for the first time and proved acceptable.

It was a little past 4:30 when game was called, Asheville going to bat. Young hit the first ball Hahn threw, but was put out at second from Gibson to "Little Breeches" Williams. Lewis flew out to left and Williams failed to reach first because of a throw from short. Greenville got Williams to first on Williams' error, and he and Gibson scored, Craig striking out, Turner flying out to Lewis and Green being forced out at third.

In the second Lanier, Darby and Clarke were the three batters, and they were unable to reach second. Greenville came in for two more runs, Morgan and Farris being the lucky ones. Asheville, through White, got her first tally in the third and shut the visitors away from a sight of first base. Darby made a good catch of Sullivan's foul fly.

Williams, in the fourth, started round on an error at short and managed to score before Lanier went out at first and Clarke, J., and Reed struck out. Greenville trotted in and swiped three runs, then gave way to the home team. White took four balls but died with Clarke, A., on a double play between Williams and Morgan. The visitors failed to visit first in their half, Farris going out from Lanier to White and Williams and Craig dying because of Darby's throwing to first.

The sixth was another whitewash for Asheville, while Greenville was able to get one. In the seventh Baird took the place of Reed, who injured his arm, and three men out of four to bat went down. Greenville's half was a slaughter, seven men trotting over the plate in a way that delighted the champions of the men from Tillmania. Green got a three-bagger to center. Hahn made a small hit but died at home, and Morgan and Farris made three out by a double play between Darby, Williams and White.

Lewis, Lanier and Darby scored for Asheville in the eighth, in which Darby knocked a ball way over right field fence right in the teeth of the blast that every minute cast dust in the players' eyes. Of course that meant a score. But in their half Greenville went this one better, Gibson and Sullivan knocking one each over the left fence. They rolled up four in this half. Asheville made nothing in her ninth and the game was over and Asheville had her first defeat this year to gulp down. It was distasteful medicine, but it is hoped that it may be the last. The tabulated score speaks thus:

Foul Tips.

Tillman was sure on top yesterday.

"Little Breeches" Williams played all over the Greenville field.

The Palmetto brand is too strong (on Thursdays) for this mountain altitude.

The din in and around Bankers' Row was something frightful at times.

The jewsharp will please beat out, "Hearts bowed down with weight of woe."

The Greenville pitcher made 723 balks yesterday—and it was a poor day for balks, too.

Sandy Mush and Little (real little) Ivy, it seems, would have been more our size yesterday.

The wind blew through the whiskers of every error Asheville made—and the wind was very busy.

Some of the epithets howled out to the Greenville players yesterday would have disgraced a New York street gamin.

Greenville has only five professionals—Hahn, Gibson, Craig, Williams and Green. Craig is an old Western Leaguer.

The Greenville boys should know that Asheville did not invite all South Carolina up here to play ball, with, also, a section or two from Georgia and other states.

One of the prettiest things of the day was Jim Clarke's catch of Farris' fly. The trim left fielder had a hard run, took in the sphere and fell in doing so, but his right went up as he touched earth and the ball was there—safe.

A WESTERN DEMOCRAT.

Bland Comes Into the Ring Early in the Day.

NEW YORK, June 1.—Congressman Bland will be a candidate for the Presidential nomination in 1896, and he will be supported by the Western Democrats. His name will be presented to the next National Democratic convention, and the choice of Missouri will be supported all through the South.

This is what Lon V. Stephens, State treasurer of Missouri, said today. Mr. Stephens is an authority on Western politics.

He added: "We should elect the Democratic ticket in Missouri this fall. We will elect all our Congressmen except the three from St. Louis. No one can tell what big cities will do. There is no tendency to go into Populism among our people."

"If Bland receives the nomination," concluded Mr. Stephens, "he will receive the undivided support of the South and West. The Western Democrats are determined to nominate a Western man and they will settle on Bland."

DESERTED THE NAVY.

Gen Kelly's Force Divided—Bad Conduct Alleged.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., June 1.—At daylight this morning General Kelly ordered the hawsers cut loose from the levee where the navy has been tied up some days and the fleet started on its way down the river to Cairo. Owing to dissension in the navy over charges of misappropriation of funds and the improper distribution of supplies, about 200 of the commonwealers, under the leadership of Col. Speed, deserted the navy this morning, and refused to continue with Kelly. They are still encamped on the levee and debating whether to go to Washington overland or follow the regular contingent.

Mrs. Edna Harper of Council Bluffs, who with Mrs. Annie Hooten of Omaha has been with the army since leaving the latter city, deserted the party yesterday. She alleges her departure is due to indignation over the improper conduct of Mrs. Hooten and General Kelly.

HOUSES SHIFTED ABOUT.

Destructive Storm of Wind And Rain In Texas.

HILLSBORO, Tex., June 1.—A destructive storm of wind and rain passed over this city at 2 o'clock yesterday morning. The Episcopal church was completely demolished. The residence of John Hodge was blown down and part of it with most of his furniture was blown into the lake. The grand stand at the fair grounds was blown away, a portion of it being blown nearly a mile across the lake. Every church in town is damaged. Several houses are reported blown down in the country. The cresting on the court house was blown off and the roof badly damaged. Fifty houses were shifted on their foundations. The corn and oat crops were seriously damaged. No lives are reported lost. The railroads are suffering severely from washouts. The losses will amount to several thousand dollars.

CHOLERA.

Advices Showing The Spread of The Disease in Europe.

WASHINGTON, June 1.—Surgeon General Wyman, of the Marine Hospital service, has received cablegrams announcing the presence of cholera in Silesia, Prusia and Poland. The dispatches are from Surgeon Irwin at Berlin and are as follows: "Cholera prevails at Myslowitz, Upper Silesia, and is spreading over the Russian border and in district of Stettin." The second message says: "Cholera prevails at Mlava in Poland, near the district of Stettin, but not in town."

Referring to these dispatches Dr. Wyman said the disease so far was not epidemic.

DOWN BEFORE THE FLOOD

Mines Flooded And Trains Delayed—Great Damage.

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo., June 1.—Chicago Creek and Clear Creek are raging torrents. Telegraph poles and trees are going down before the flood, and thousands of dollars worth of property have been destroyed. Many mines have been flooded and tunnels caved in. Freight and passenger trains are many hours late.

Freight Rate War.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., June 1.—The Louisville and Nashville railroad, the East Tennessee, Virginia and Georgia railroad, the Tennessee Midland, the Kansas City, Memphis and Birmingham and the Nashville, Chattanooga and St. Louis railroads have posted a notice that a reduction of 60 per cent. on freight to and from Eastern points would take effect June 2.

Two Girls Drowned.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., June 1.—S. W. King and two daughters, aged 18 and 16 respectively, were crossing the Tennessee river at Hobbs Island, Alabama, yesterday in a frail skiff, following in the wake of a transportation steamer, when the strong suction from the steamer pulled the skiff under the waves. The two girls were drowned.

Well!!

DENVER, Col., June 1.—It is reported that arrangements were made by the United States army authorities to indict Governor Waite for sedition if he sent the militia to Cripple Creek to prevent deputy sheriffs from discharging their duties. This was done under instructions from Washington, it is said.

Not Ordered Troops.

CADDO, I. T., June 1.—Governor Jones yesterday denied that he had ordered troops to be sent here to protect mines and remove intruders. He says if the order was sent with his signature attached it was a forgery.

JARVIS READ A PAPER

INTIMATES CHANGES IN GOVERNMENT ARE NEEDED.

The Southern Industrial Congress Adop's Resolutions Urging Co-operation To Secure Immigration.

AUGUSTA, Ga., June 1.—The second day's session of the Southern Inter-State Immigration and Industrial Congress was full of speech making. The report of the committee on resolutions was adopted. It recommends: That county and state immigration associations be formed whose officers shall constitute a State Board of Immigration. That the Immigration Congress urge the co-operation of all railway lines, state and county officers in the work proposed. That Congress be asked to establish a permanent exposition of the products and resources of the different states and that Congress be asked to make appropriations to carry into effect the recommendations of the Immigration Congress. That the Congress appoint a committee of five to devise a plan to lay before immigrants the advantages of the South.

That a committee of five with Gov. Northen of Georgia as chairman, be appointed to confer with the officers of the Southern Railway and Steamship association in regard to rates on Southern products. The Congress endorses the movement toward direct trade with Europe and that immigration be encouraged through Southern ports. That the several states be asked to collect and publish statistics.

A resolution endorsing the Nicaragua canal and commending the work of Senator John T. Morgan in connection with it was unanimously adopted.

United States Senator Jarvis of North Carolina, read a paper on obstacles to Southern development in which he advocated the establishment of such State, county and city governments throughout the South as would give the fullest assurance to the would be settler that his life, liberty and property would be as secure as in any section of the country. With reference to the presence of negroes in the South he said the negroes are the responsible party for being here, but are here to stay. All plans for their colonization elsewhere or their exportation are wild and visionary.

In the course of his remarks, he also advocated the repeal by Congress of the ten per cent. tax on state banks and the coinage of silver on the same terms with gold.

There is some discontent expressed among the representatives of distant states that so much time has been occupied in talking on matters extraneous to the purpose of the convention.

CORBETT AND JACKSON.

The Fight To Come Off In Jacksonville, Fla.

NEW YORK, June 1.—The international heavy weight championship battle between Jim Corbett and Peter Jackson will not take place in England. Corbett has declined the National Sporting club's offer of a $15,000 purse and will only consent to fight the colored champion in America.

Corbett also states that he had decided to accept the $35,000 purse offered by the Jacksonville Athletic club of Jacksonville, Fla., and he authorizes Mr. Welty to sign articles of agreement.

A Little Coal Moving.

MINONK, Ill., June 1.—Everything is quiet here, and in the surrounding mining towns this morning. Trains are running on time and hauling more or less coal. No trouble is anticipated unless the strike continues into next week. A relief committee is attending the wants of all miners actually in need.

Militia Insubordinate.

HUNTINGTON, W. Va., May 31.—When the order calling out the militia to Camden was received here today most of Company G refused to go, not having been paid for doing duty before. They will be prosecuted by the State military authorities. They seem to sympathize with the coal strikers.

Senator Gorman Improving.

LAUREL, Md., June 1.—Senator Gorman passed a good day and is improving. He was able to see his Secretary for a short time, and disposed of some of his correspondence. It is thought that he will be able to go to Washington the last of next week.

Breckinridge Need Not Speak.

FULTON, Ill., June 1.—This town some time since invited W. C. P. Breckinridge to deliver the Fourth of July oration here. The invitation which was accepted has since been withdrawn and Col. Breckinridge will not be called upon to make a speech.

Cyrus W. Field Dying.

NEW YORK, June 1.—The condition of Cyrus W. Field, lying ill with consumption at his home 166 west 65th street, is reported very grave. It is feared he cannot live more than a few days.

CONDENSED TELEGRAMS.

The thermometer at Port Jervis, N. Y., Tuesday morning stood at 38°, while at Monticello, Sullivan county, and Milford, Pa., it reached the freezing point. Ice formed an eighth of an inch thick and fruit and vegetables were much damaged.

Judge Taft has decided at Cincinnati that the receivers of the Queen & Crescent (Cincinnati Southern) had the right to reduce the scale of wages or lessen the number of hours, thereby accomplishing the same result.

A Buenos Ayres dispatch to the London Times says that business is paralyzed in the Argentine capital owing to the rise in the gold premium and the falling off in exports.

Doctors of different schools quarrelled over Mrs. Mary E. Lease, but now that a change in treatment has been made it is said she is recovering.
