You Can't Afford

To travel without consulting me. A little knowledge is a dangerous thing especially to a man desirous of using railroads. He might even do that and then not know how to apply his knowledge. Here studying railroads and cutting of rates five years, ought to know something now. Know too much to fool with silly people.

Don't Waste Time

Telling what you know, tell what you want to do, I'll do the figuring. Don't expect the earth, if my knowledge is worth something to you, I must be paid. Not working for amusement.

You Consult a Physician

When sick because it is his business to manage sickness, then let me manage your traveling. I want to handle either, I charge reasonable prices and get them. Every ticket sold with guarantee, money back if not as represented. Once a customer always a customer. It's money in your pocket, why not call, write, telephone

NATIONAL COUNCIL JR. O. U. A. M. CONVENES TODAY.

Reports show an increase last year of near 7000 Members—More Delegates Here Than Were at Detroit—The Reception.

The Junior Order of United American Mechanics, the supreme body of which is now in session in Asheville, had its birth on the night of May 17, 1853, in the old Concord school house, Germantown, Pa. The council then organized, Washington, No. 1, has preserved a continuous existence, and one of its members is in attendance upon the present session. Its membership is more than 500, and its financial condition in keeping with its age. Therefore, though comparatively new in the South, it will at once be seen that the Order is not an experiment, but is now in its 42d year and day by day advancing.

Asheville Council, No. 6, held its regular weekly meeting last evening—Vice Councilor R. C. Bollinger presiding. The hall was crowded, business was quickly dispatched, and the entire evening devoted to speech making. The meeting was thoroughly enjoyable. The speeches were practical and intensely patriotic. The speakers were Past State Councilor Uvey of Virginia, National Representative Koss of Ohio, State Councilor Ferguson of Kentucky, State Councilor Spear of Georgia, National Representative Cray of Indiana, State Councilor Macabee of Indiana, State Councilor Kerr of Pennsylvania, National Councilor Kibbe of New Jersey, Past National

Jr. Past National Councilor Cranston, Pa.

Councilor Boblitz of Maryland, National Representative Read of New Jersey, National Representative Chase of Massachusetts, National Representative Mueisinger of Ohio, National Representative Wilkin of Pennsylvania, Past National Councilor Orange of Virginia, Past State Councilor Shaler of Illinois, Past National Councilor Calver of Pennsylvania, the first national councilor of the order, 1850-70; National Representative Shanor of Pennsylvania, and National Representative Powell of Nebraska. At 11:35 the council adjourned.

At Work. The National Council convened at 11 o'clock this morning. National Councilor H. A. Kibbe of New Jersey presiding, assisted by the National Vice Councilor, J. G. A. Richter of Ohio.

The Scriptures were read and a fervent prayer offered by Past National Councilor Boblitz, of Maryland, after which the National Council proceeded regularly to business.

The committee on Credentials presented their report, which was accepted, and the new delegates admitted in due form.

The hours of the day were fixed from 9 a. m. to 1:30 p. m., and from 3 to 7 p. m.

The invitation of the local fraternity to visit the Vanderhilt estate tomorrow morning and to participate in the parade tomorrow afternoon, was accepted with thanks.

Roll call showed 89 delegates present, and a dozen or more are yet to arrive. National Councilor Kibbe presented his annual report, showing the work done during his administration, and giving a resume of his official actions. The report was considered in its entirety, and finally approved as a whole.

The report of the board of officers was presented, when similar action was had. The election of officers was set for 4 o'clock this afternoon.

A Large Increase. National Secretary Deemer next presented his annual report. In addition to being a thorough resume of the year's work, it gave abundant statistical matter. It shows, among many other things, that the increase in the order has been 6,994 and that the present membership is, in round numbers, 175,000.

THE SOUTHERN RAILROAD

ORGANIZATION EFFECTED AT RICHMOND.

Leases Assumed—Little Change To Be Made In The List of Officers—The Directors Elected Later.

RICHMOND, Va., June 19.—The organization of the Southern Railway company, the successor of the Richmond & Danville Railroad company, was effected yesterday by the delivery of the deeds to the new corporation, and by the execution of the articles of the association. At the first meeting of the board of directors of the new company officers were elected, who will assume their duties on the morning of July 1, when the properties of the Richmond & Danville Railroad company will be turned over by the receivers to the new company.

The Southern Railway company assumes the leases of the Atlanta and Charlotte Air Line, Western North Carolina railroad, Washington, Ohio and Western railroad, Piedmont railroad, North Carolina railroad.

The lines will be brought in later, as the several legal formalities are carried out.

The officers of the new company elected are: Samuel Soener, president; A. B. Andrews, second vice president; W. H. Baldwin, jr., third vice president; Francis Leavelle Stetson, general counsel; W. A. C. Eason, secretary; John W. Hall, treasurer; George S. Hobbs, auditor. A permanent board of directors will be elected later. It is also understood that Capt. Green will be continued as general manager and Mr. S. H. Haas as general traffic manager.

THEY WERE LOVERS.

The suicide of Jasper J. Beall in New York.

New York, June 19.—It developed this morning that there was a tinge of romance connected with the suicide of the man who registered as A. J. Ostry of Atlanta, Ga., at Smith & McNeil's hotel last night. A young woman called at the hotel this morning and asked permission to view the remains, saying perhaps she might be able to identify them. She said she had read the story of the suicide and if her surmise were correct she knew the dead man. She explained further that Jasper J. Beall, with whom she had been intimately acquainted at one time, went under the name of A. J. Ostry. He was a Southern man, she said, and for many years had lived in Atlanta, Ga., with his step mother, Mrs. Alexander Beall. About three years ago, she continued, he came north and located in Perth Amboy, N. J., and worked for a paper there.

Later he severed his connection with this paper and went to live in South Amboy. About a year ago he left this place and returned again to the South, remaining there until a few days previous to his suicide.

The woman was taken to Morney's undertaking rooms where the body is and she identified it as that of Jasper Beall. The woman gave her name to Superintendent Wardell of Smith & McNeil's hotel only upon condition that he would keep it secret. It is understood that she is related to him and that they were engaged to be married, that for some reason the girl broke off the engagement. It was at this time that Beall returned to the South. Returning a few days ago, he called upon the girl and renewed his suit, requesting an early marriage. The girl declined to have anything to do with him and he left her. She heard nothing from him or of him until today.

It is understood that the girl's home is in North Amboy; that she belongs to an excellent family and that she is both pretty and cultured.

The suicide has again been identified, this time as George W. McCormack, a lawyer of Charleston, S. C.

PRESIDENT AT WASHINGTON

Back at His Desk Much Improved in Health.

WASHINGTON, June 19.—The light house tender Maple with President Cleveland on board returned from her cruise down the Lower Chesapeake bay and outside capes at 6:30 this morning. The President remained on board until the White House carriage and Secretary Thurston arrived. He was then driven to the executive mansion, arriving there at 8:15. He has been much benefited by the trip. When the carriage reached the White House, the President alighted as lightly and firmly as after any of his fishing excursions and he seemed to be quite strong again. His face was bronzed and he was evidently in excellent condition. The party did no fishing, the Maple being kept under way all the time. Secretary Lamont joined the President soon after he entered his office and the business affairs of the nation were resumed before the President had been in the executive mansion an hour.

Speaker Crisp Better

WASHINGTON, June 19.—Speaker Crisp had sufficiently recovered today from his indisposition to be out of bed and Dr. Sowers said the Speaker will be well enough to return to his Congressional duties tomorrow.
