NEW YORK STATE APPLES

Are among the finest grown; certain kinds retain all their flavor and are even improved by canning. We have that kind, they will take the place of fresh fruit.

Wm. Kroger.

A gentleman who returned this week from Asheville, North Carolina, brings us an interesting item: He was walking along one of the business streets in Asheville, when one of the first objects that attracted his attention was an enamel plate sign, in blue and white, bearing this legend: "Agency for Chase & Sanborn's famous Boston coffees." This sign was at the store of A. D. Cooper, dealer in staple and fancy groceries, corner of Main and College streets. Mr. Cooper stated that they sold a great deal of these celebrated coffees, and that they have customers who buy it, even if they have nothing else. This speaks highly for the superior quality and high grades, so well and honorably maintained, of Chase & Sanborn's coffees, and it is, moreover, a compliment to Boston which we cannot allow to pass unrecorded.—New England Grocer, Boston.

PROHIBITION PLATFORM
ADOPTED BY THE MEETING IN ABSEVILLE.

There Was a Good Attendance
a d Twelve Townships Sent Representatives—Convention to Be Called by Committee.

There was a good attendance upon the meeting of Prohibitionists of Buncombe in the court house today. Twelve townships were represented. W. R. West, sr., presided and Rev. Wm. Ward was secretary.

A finance committee, consisting of one member from each township, was ordered appointed, which will be done later.

The county Prohibition convention will be called by the executive committee.

The principal work of the meeting was the adoption of a platform for the party in this county.

The platform expresses belief in the Prohibition party as promising reform most in accordance with the eternal principles of right and the highest standard of American liberty; that the liquor traffic debauches our citizens, breeds disorders and absorbs the people's money to the detriment of legitimate trade, terrorizes politicians and corrupts and controls the government; that any form of license is wrong in principle; that all other political parties are prostrated before the liquor influence and cannot antagonize it; that three-fourths of the crimes are traceable to alcoholic liquors; that the present fearful financial depression is caused by the liquor traffic absorbing $900,000,000 from the pockets of the people. The remaining planks of the platform are:

6th. We believe in a government of the people, for the people, by the people; therefore, we believe that the fundamental principle of true democracy requires and always demands a government, national, state and county, wherein the people shall directly choose by their ballots all officers in whose hands are placed a public trust, hence we demand a change in the county government system of North Carolina.

7th. We believe in a change of the election laws of our state so that a free and fair expression of the will of all citizens can be had at all our elections.

8th. We believe in an amendment of our road laws, so that the burden of making and repairing our public highways shall fall equally upon all according to interest in the same, and that no minor shall be polled for road working.

9th. We believe in prohibition entire and complete, and we are not local optionists, per se, but we demand, that as long as local option shall prevail as the present, we insist that it shall be the instrument of our principles and in spite of us, that the special law governing Buncombe county be so amended as that, when an election shall be ordered to determine whether or not Asheville, the question shall be decided by polling the entire vote of the county.

10th. We are opposed to all official fees, and favor reasonable salaries.

11th. We sound the key note of our principles, the principles of reform: Suppression of the liquor traffic; free and unlimited coinage of both gold and silver on a basis of 16 to 1; government control of railroads and telegraphs; opposition to indiscriminate immigration; election of all officers by the people; all burdens of taxation to be measured by the financial ability of the citizen; no more government bonds for any purpose in time of peace; all money to be issued direct by the general government and to be full legal tender for all purposes; equal rights to all and special privileges to none; no individual or corporation should be allowed to make any profit through the issue of money by the government.

12th. We invite all lovers of God and home and country to join us on this platform of reform.

STEVENSON OVERRULES.
The Vice-President After Sugar Trust Havemeyer.

WASHINGTON, June 23.—Vice-President Stevenson has certified to the district attorney the cases of H. O. Havemeyer, president, and John G. Searles, secretary, and treasurer of the American Sugar Refining company, who refused to give the sugar trust investigating committee the details of the company's contributions for political purposes. In doing this, the vice-president overruled Senators Gray and Lindbergh and sustained the two Republicans and the Populist on the committee, who recommended that criminal prosecution should be had with reference to Havemeyer and Searles, as was done in the cases of the other recalcitrant witnesses.

A Moderate Improvement.
NEW YORK, June 23.—Bradstreet's says there are indications of a moderate improvement on the various lines and enough instances to render the fact of some significance. A notably favorable feature is the practical ending of the coke and coal strikes together with those related industries, which will put to work at once or soon more than 250,000 men.

Anti-Option Bill Passed.

JARVIS FALLS ON HILL
INCOME TAX AND THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY.

Strong Sentiment Expressed—Hill's Motion to Reduce The Exemption Falls Of Passage—Call And The Florida Elections

WASHINGTON, June 23.—The resolution heretofore offered by Call for the appointment of a special committee of five Senators to investigate the subject of the organized efforts of corporations to control the election of members of State legislatures and members of Congress and to influence legislation in Congress was taken up immediately after the meeting of the Senate, and after remarks by Call it was suggested by Sherman that the scope of the proposed investigation was too broad, covering as it did the whole United States and that no sufficient foundation seemed to have been laid. If it were confined to the State of Florida he would not make any objection. The resolution so modified went over without action.

At 10:30 the tariff bill was taken up, the question being on the various amendments to the income tax provision. Hill immediately renewed the debate of yesterday, the day which would be known, he said, in the future history of the country as "Populist day." There might never occur again, he said, a time in the history of the government when one of the principles of the Populist party would occupy so much of public attention as attracted so much interest as it did yesterday. The Populists had succeeded—whether by manipulation, by negotiation, by argument, by entreaty, possibly by reason of its intrinsic merits—in having incorporated in the Democratic tariff reform bill one of the essential principles of their own party, and undoubtedly they naturally felt proud of the success of their efforts. He did not begrudge them their victory. He differed with them in regard to the propriety of the tax itself, but was willing they should have all the glory that attached to their triumph.

Hill then moved to reduce the exemption to $1,000. Rejected—yeas, 18; nays, 42; and the exemption remains at $3,000.

Mr. Jarvis advocated the income tax. Referring to Mr. Hill's prediction that the passage of an income tax would sound the death knell of the Democratic party Mr. Jarvis said: "If the Democratic party has no higher mission than to bow at the foot stool and worship at the shrine of the accumulated wealth of the country, the sooner it dies, the better." (Applause in the galleries.)

TAR AND FEATHERS
The Adjutant-General of Colorado Badly Treated.

COLORADO SPRINGS, Col., June 23.—Shortly after midnight, Adjutant-General Tarsney of the Colorado state national guard was called from his room at the Alamo hotel and informed that somebody at Cripple Creek wished to speak to him over the telephone. When he appeared to answer the call he was confronted by a masked man armed with revolvers who requested him to accompany him. Tarsney called for help, but was quickly clubbed into submission. Several more kidnapers appeared and carried him to the sidewalk where two carriages under guard were waiting. He was forced into one carriage and both carriages were then driven at a rapid rate to Austin Bluffs. Tarsney was removed from the carriage, stripped nude and a coat of tar and feathers quickly administered. After the tar and feathering Tarsney was warned against returning to the Springs. He said he would never return.

Gov. Waite is greatly excited over the outrage committed upon Adjutant-General Tarsney, and has offered a reward of $1000 for the arrest and conviction of any of the participants. Tarsney is a brother of Congressman Tarsney of Missouri and was the personal representative of the Governor during the police board troubles when the militia were opposite the city hall. His undaunted bearing at that time antagonized the police and their sympathizers and it was freely stated that if shooting commenced he would be the first man to fall.

Crisp on Deck Again.
WASHINGTON, June 23.—Speaker Crisp reappeared in his chair today after a week's absence and was greeted by a round of applause from the members present.

The Senate amendments to the Lodge bill incorporating the Grand Lodge Knights of Pythias were concurred in. The House took up the general deficiency bill in committee of the whole, Bynum in the chair.

Sensible Action
AUGUSTA, Ga., June 23.—At yesterday's session of the colored teachers' association of Georgia which has been here three days, resolutions endorsing the course of Ida B. Wells, the negro woman lecturing in England on the South and vilifying white women of this section were quelled by President Wright with the approval of the great majority of the delegates.

Chicago's Derby.
CHICAGO, June 23.—Derby day dawned bright and clear; track and day perfect. The probable starters are Senator Grady, Domino, Dorian, Hornpuff, Despot, Prince Carl, Alconer, Royal, Santa Anita, Replendent, Lucky Dog and Grinda.

Concentrates Her Fire.
LOUISVILLE, June 23.—Atlanta has withdrawn from the fight for the National Encampment, G. A. R., and is now using all her energy on the international exposition. She will aid Louisville to secure the encampment.

CONDENSED TELEGRAMS.
Berlin has a sensation caused by the arrest of one Von Kotze on the charge of sending anonymous letters making all sorts of shameful accusations against the character of leaders of Berlin society. Von Kotze has always been one of the masters of state functions.

The committee on organization of the Southern development association adjourned to meet again in New York. Each of the 25 members is to submit a plan of procedure.

Jemeppe, a village of Belgium, has had 60 cases of cholera and 15 deaths.
