Just to Draw Attention

A gentleman who returned this week from Asheville, North Carolina, brings us an interesting item: He was walking along one of the business streets in Asheville, when one of the first objects that attracted his attention was an enamel plate sign, in blue and white, bearing this legend: "Agency for Chase & Sanborn's famous Boston coffees." This sign was at the store of A. D. Cooper, dealer in staple and fancy groceries, corner of Main and College streets. Mr. Cooper stated that they sold a great deal of these celebrated coffees, and that they have customers who buy it, even if they have nothing else. This speaks highly for the superior quality and high grades, so well and honorably maintained, of Chase & Sanborn's coffees, and it is, moreover, a compliment to Boston which we cannot allow to pass unrecorded.—New England Grocer, Boston.

IT WAS A VICTORY INDEED

AND THIS ONE WAS WON OFF CHARLOTTE, TOO

The Asheville Ball Tossers Under Captain Lanier Play Ball For What it is Worth, and the Score is 27 to 5.

Captain Lanier's Moonshiners were the bright particular stars at Allendale yesterday. They got in the game from the first and no amount of trying on Charlotte's part could trip them up. They were there to win if there was any win on the ground. And there was apparently something of that kind to be had. The grounds were heavy from the recent rains, but that did not deter the locals from giving the good-looking boys from the Dude City a razzle dazze that was bewildering and at the same time the greatest surprise, probably, they have had this year.

Hahn, the Augusta man who pitched here with Greenville, was in the box for the visitors. Some thought it was his "off" day; it was Asheville's "on" day. The homers merely donned their batting clothes and with the handy willow took turn about knocking scrapers that trimmed the whiskers off the lawn or flyers that threatened to punch a hole in the blue dome above. It was a beautiful exhibition of batting and fielding on Asheville's part. Everybody had a war dance in the batter's box, and singles, doubles and triples were constantly turning up. And to hear on the night Stephens lined the flying roundness over the right field fence. Jack Green was in Asheville's box, and while Charlotte occasionally batted him their hits were so scattering they were of little material benefit. Green's support was well nigh perfect.

Ure Guy Rankin went out behind the pitcher at 4:45 and play began by Oldham (of course) getting his base on balls. He did, however, before getting around. McClung got a hit and Stanley fanned the health-laden zephyrs. Lanier, Green and Young got on base, but no further, Stephens losing his life for that inning from Gray to Torrence. Robertson, W., strode up for the visitors and got credit for a hit to left. His follower, Gray, meant something but it came to naught as Young's center fielder stepped in to make a beautiful try. King made first on Stanley's error, and Craig trotted to bat and had to expire for batting out of order. Time was called for a kick, but the decision went. James and Hahn singled, on which Robertson and King scored before Ross Robertson flew out to Metz.

The second was good for nothing all around, and the playing presaged a good close game. Asheville tied the score in the third, Capt. Lanier taking a base on four and scoring Stephens. Metz closed on it after a beautiful try. King made first on Stanley's error, and Craig trotted to bat and had to expire for batting out of order. Time was called for a kick, but the decision went. James and Hahn singled, on which Robertson and King scored before Ross Robertson flew out to Metz.

The entire team and some, overhauled Metz doing the usual thing of making two of the outs, being forced out at second. Charlotte's hopes sank like unto a plummet, but she went in for three runs in her half, Gray getting a triple and King a double.

Gray caught two hard hits off Asheville in the fifth, but one man crossed the plate before the side retired. For the visitors Hahn and James were so luckless as to knock the sphere to Lanier who threw to first unerringly, and then retired the side by taking Ross Robertson's fly. The apparent end of the cap- tain's cap, Charlotte's column on the blackboard then kept up the ciphers to the end. Asheville was goose-egged in the sixth, the feature of which was Gray's stop of Stephens' ball. He fell and the man recovered himself in time to shut Stephens off. McClung and Metz did good deeds by which two were mowed down and Gray got a strike out. Five runs went up, for the Moonshiners in the seventh, McClung taking a triple and Stephens obeying the injunction "over the fence" by sending a beauty over right field for a home run. Everybody was on the lookout now, for it had gone abroad that Charlotte's seventh was always the winner. But it was six, although at one time they had two men on bases and only one had out—time when Oldham always calls "Play the game."

In the eighth, after McClung's hit, two men were out, but Asheville rounded up six runs. Lanier and Young doubled, and Metz did likewise with the bases covered. Lanier's hit three runners scored. Six more were added to the murderous total in the ninth. Stanley and Stephens pounded three bags each, Green doubled and sundry others took singles. McClung got two of the outs this time. Charlotte's life was fast going and when Stanley took King's red hot liner without moving the visitors heaved a sigh which was made more pronounced when Hahn retired the side. The score:

SUMMARY.

Barred runs—Asheville 13, Charlotte 1. Two base hits—Lanier 2, Green 1, Young 1, Metz 1, King 1, Craig 1. Three base hits—McClung, Stanley, Stephens, Hahn. One run—Stephens. Base stolen—Hahn. Green 2, King 1, Hahn 1. Bases on called balls—Off Hahn 6, off Green 1. Bases on hit by pitched balls—Williams, Hahn. Struck out—By Green 3, by Hahn 3, by Metz 1, by G. Rankin 2. Time of game, 2 hours.

HIGHLIGHTS.

It was a sad day for Charlotte. Read the tabulated score closely. By and by Asheville will play an errorless game. Salisbury can find more consolation in this game. McClung's rain toad given to Lanier Monday was a mascot. Green plays an article of ball that is very near the standard. Lanier got more runs than all the

LABOR AGAINST CAPITAL

THE PULLMAN STRIKE A TREMENDOUS STRUGGLE.

Railways Must Go Back on Pullman Contracts or Give Up Running Altogether—Several Roads Already Tied Up—Life or Death.

CHICAGO, June 27.—The strike growing out of the Pullman boycott is spreading rapidly to every road out of Chicago which handles Pullman's cars. With the almost complete tie-up of the Illinois Central last night and this morning the American Railway Union has firmly fixed a basis for dealing with railroads which refuse to abrogate Pullman contracts. It is announced that the men on the Western Indiana, Wisconsin Central, Chicago and Eastern, Illinois and Chicago and Great Western will be ordered out today.

As the boycott becomes effective it marks the beginning of what is expected to be the greatest struggle between capital and labor ever inaugurated in an effort to secure better wages, and while the boycott is ostensibly declared as a demonstration of sympathy in behalf of the strikers of the Pullman shops, it is in reality a life and death struggle between the greatest and most powerful railroad labor organization and capital. Success in the Pullman boycott means the permanent success of the one organization through which it is sought to unite all employees of railroads. For this reason the strike on the Illinois Central will be of great moment both to the employees and to the railroads.

FRANCE'S NEW PRESIDENT

Elected For Seven Years By The Senate and Deputies.

PARIS, June 27.—M. Cassimir-Perier was elected president on the first ballot receiving 451 votes of the combined strength of the Senate and Chamber of Deputies.

PARIS, June 27.—The public were admitted to view the body of President Carnot today. The coffin, with the head slightly raised, has been placed in the middle room of the palace. A cushion covered with decorations lies at the feet of the corpse. The entablature is square, sustained by four columns. Immense crowds of people have visited the palace to express their sympathies.

The funeral obsequies of President Carnot will begin on Sunday with services in the cathedral of Notre Dame and conclude with the ceremony of depositing the body in the Pantheon.

MARSEILLES, June 27.—Everything is quiet here this morning. An anti-Italian demonstration last night was promptly suppressed, and no further trouble is anticipated.

LYONS, June 27.—The trial of Sauto, the assassin of President Carnot, is fixed for July 23d.

LYONS, June 27.—Forty Italian shops in this city have been gutted and burned by the mob. The police are either powerless to suppress the disorders or else are disinclined to do so.

DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION.

Illinois Pathfinders Meet To Nominate State Officers.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., June 27.—The hall of the House of Representatives presented an attractive appearance when the Democratic State convention assembled today. Eleven hundred delegates occupied the main floor. In the galleries the members of local and visiting clubs and various organizations were packed like sardines. The heat was frightful. Representatives Springer, Filliam, Forman and Durbin had seats of honor behind the chair.

Promptly at noon the State chairman opened the proceedings with a brief address of welcome. Ex-Congressman Scott was elected temporary chairman.

Sup. Eggleston Re-Elected.

The June meeting of the city school committee was held last night. W. W. West and W. F. Randolph were re-elected to the positions of chairman and secretary, and Prof. J. D. Eggleston was re-elected superintendent. The election of teachers for the 1894-'95 term will be held July 5.

A vote of thanks was unanimously tendered by the committee to Mayor Patton for his interest and assistance in school work and for his efforts that resulted in placing the funding bonds, thereby relieving the schools of their burden of debt.

NORTH CAROLINA NEWS.

Salisbury Herald: Mr. Victor Shackle, a young man of Norwood, while at church last night, swam a way and was unconscious and cold for about two hours. The attending physician says it was caused by smoking too many cigarettes. He smoked sixty yesterday, we understand.

John Logan Jamison, jr., assistant overseer on the Thompson orphanage farm near Charlotte, was killed by lightning Monday under a tree, under which he took shelter. Last Wednesday young Jamison was married to pretty Ruth Brown, one of the wards of the Thompson orphanage.

The Confederate monument fund continues to increase. Some $300 was added to the amount in the hands of the treasurer during the past week. Hand-some donations were received from Mrs. C. C. Lyon of Columbus county, and Mrs. John H. Hill of Goldsboro.

A Fayetteville letter says: "Some fine specimens of American blue have been sent from here this season to Northern markets, and the results of the sales seem to indicate that the culture of this crop in parts of the South may yet lead to large fortunes."

Miss Wimberly, the young lady who was assaulted by George Mills near Apex, Wake county, one day last week, is not dead as reported, but is improving. Though her condition is yet critical, it is thought she will recover.

H. H. Crane, a gentleman from Indiana, has discovered and is now developing a large and valuable deposit of kaolin near Bryson City. He expects to erect a large mill upon the property this fall.

The Governor has refused to pardon or commute the sentence of Dick Broadnap, to be hung in Caswell county July 6. Broadnap was convicted of rape.

State Geologist Holmes and his force are now at work on the State geological survey in Chatham and Moore counties.
