Everybody Ought To Come To Asheville This Summer

Last summer was the banner excursion season for Asheville but judging from the start made this summer will take the prize. There have been two excursions already, and the next one is scheduled for the 6th-the military excursion from LANSING, Mich., July 3.—Governor Spartanburg. One will run from Hen-Rich this morning received a message derson on the 11th, remaining here until from Sheriff Wilkinshaw at Battle Creek announcing that the strikers had full control of the Chicago and Grand Trunk and refused to let trains pass. The message said: "I may have to call on you for troops." Governor Rich at once ordered the entire first regiment to the same day. It will leave on the return trip at 8 a. m. on the 27th. An excursion is to go from Asheville to Hendersonville on the 28th. Asheville to Hendersonville on the 28th.

of This Character Should Be Organized.

The fact that Asheville has no organ ized body such as a Chamber of Commerce or Board of Trade is frequently commented upon by home people and hose from abroad. Circulars and information that would be of benefit to such an organization are often received, but they must go unnoticed because the Asheville business men have not deemed it of sufficient importance to keep up the Board of Trade they once had. It is indisputed that such an organization may be of great benefit to a city as well as to those in the organization. Why cannot Asheville have a Chamber of Commerce? Who will make the first Resolution To Impose a Duty Of to Per Cent. Refected.

WASHINGTON, July 3-The Senate re ssembled at 10 o'clock in continuation of Monday's session. Harris hoped the Senate would resolve to dispose of the tariff bill before adjournment so that the Senate might have a holiday tomorrow Platt agreed with Harris in his desire to have the bill finished today. Chandles also was willing if it could be done with due consideration.

The first vote was taken on Mills' m tion to put burlaps and grain bags or the free list. Agreed to, year 28 navs It was next resolved to vote on the committee amendment making the duty on collars and cuffs 30 cents a dozen pieces with 30 percent ad valorem; agreed toreas 43, navs 5.

The committee amendment putting a duty of 15 per cent ad valorem on wool was agreed to without opposition or di-vision. Sherman moved to insert a paragraph putting a duty of 30 per cent as alorem on wool.

After nearly two hours discussion a vote was taken on Sherman's motion to put wool on the dutiable list at 30 pe ent. advalorem, and it was rejected yeas 32, nays 37.
