FOR THE FLOWER MISSION. Entertainment at The Battery Park This Evening.

A feature of the entertainment for the benefit of the deserving Flower Mission this evening at Battery Park will be the tableaux of familiar advertisements presented by children. The living pictures will be of unique attraction and well worth the attendance of a large audience. The musical program will include singing by the Misses Andrews of Norfolk, Va., and the Kinder symphony.

The entertainment will be given this evening, beginning at 8:30, without regard to possible inclement weather. The admission fee will be 50 cents.

HYPNOTISM.

Curious Doings in the Grand Opera House.

The hypnotic exhibition at the Grand opera house last evening was in some respects remarkable. While there were many who were very skeptical as to the genuineness of the performances, some of the hypnotic suggestions that were carried out were of convincing enough proof to shake the doubts of almost every one present. Some of the performances were very amusing and at times the audience was in a roar of laughter.

Two of the young gentlemen present were put into a cataleptic state and placed with their feet on one chair and their heads on another. There was not a quiver in their muscles though they were in this very trying position for some little time.

After close examination by several gentlemen present the two subjects were found to be as rigid as wood.

One of the most trying feats was "the card trick." A blank card was handed up by one of the spectators and the subject, Mr. Dempsey, was told that it was his photo. It was then handed back and marked along with the other cards in the gentleman's possession. Mr. Dempsey was told to go down and get his picture. He went down in the audience and picked out the card he had before him immediately. He was then told he would see the picture for 12 hours. After the performance THE CITIZEN tested Mr. Dempsey on the street with the card in every conceivable way, but without success to his doubting soul, he continuing to affirm that the blank card was his photograph.

The most remarkable power yet shown was when Fred Miller, who had just come in, was hypnotized and was told that his hearing was very acute. One of the gentlemen present sat about 15 feet from young Miller and whispered in as low a tone as was possible in the formation of words, and Miller repeated every word. Dr. Watson, who was seated by Miller, did not hear a word. The latter then sat in the chair and whispered so low that he was not heard even by those who were very near him. Miller repeated the words, however.

Whatever one believes about hypnotism it is interesting to investigate the matter.

FOR BETTER ROADS.

Chairman Rankin Calls a Meeting of Great Importance.

It is with pleasure THE CITIZEN directs attention to the call issued through the advertising columns today by J. E. Rankin, chairman of the County Commissioners. The call is for a meeting to be held here Wednesday, July 25, at noon, of citizens together with the Commissioners to consider the question of road improvement for Buncombe county.

The Commissioners are greatly interested in this all important matter, particularly as they are considering the question of procuring the equipment necessary to the building of roads that will be of lasting benefit. This is a subject in which every citizen of Buncombe is interested no less than the Commissioners, and Chairman Rankin's call should be responded to by great gathering.

A feature that will add to the importance of the meeting will be the presence of Col. Roy Stone, special agent and engineer of the office of road inquiry, a branch of the United States Department of Agriculture. Col. Stone will address the meeting upon the subject, and his extensive knowledge of the road question makes it certain that his advice will be of great benefit.

Let there be a large crowd at the meeting.

IT IS ACCEPTED.

Rev. Mr. Brunson's Resignation Voted on Sunday.

The subject of the Rev. J. A. Brunson's sermon Sunday morning at the French Broad Baptist church was "Exclusive Devotion to God," founded on Matthew 3:24.

After the sermon there was a congregational meeting. R. F. Drummond, of the board of deacons, reported that Mr. Brunson had handed his resignation to the board Thursday night, and that the resignation was now before the church in conference for action. An earnest discussion followed. Messrs. R. F. Drummond and Geo. Starnes urged that the resignation of Mr. Brunson be not accepted. Messrs. R. H. Lee, Jesse R. Starnes and others thought that it should be. Mr. Brunson insisted that his resignation be accepted, and by a vote of 32 to 9 his request was granted, several of the members not voting.

Mr. Brunson states that his plans for the future are as yet unshaped. He does not know how long he will be in Asheville, but hopes to deliver several lectures on the Prophecies of Daniel and Revelation, showing therefrom that we are really in "the last of days." He thinks the present political disturbances, the strike, etc., have been foreshadowed in Scripture.

THEY AGREE TO DISAGREE

SENATE AND HOUSE AND THE TARIFF BILL.

The House Conference Will Not Meet The Senate's Changes In The Sugar, Coal, Iron, Cotton, Wool and Glass Schedules.

WASHINGTON, July 17.—This morning Senator Voorhes issued a notice to each Republican member of the conference committee informing him that there would be a meeting of the full conference committee on the tariff bill at 2 o'clock this afternoon.

It is understood that there are wide differences between the conferees of the House and Senate along line of bill and including especially sugar, coal, iron, wools, cotton and the glass schedule. The House members of the conference committee stand out for a majority of the House provisions, while the Senate conferees are equally firm in demanding that the bill in the foregoing particulars must remain as the Senate fixed it.

DEMOCRATIC CLUB.

Meeting In The Court House Last Evening.

The meeting of the Democratic club in the court house last evening was not largely attended, but there was an interesting session. President Luther presided. Judge Jones made a talk in which he declared that whatever might have been the differences in the municipal contest, they should all be thrown aside now that the county and State contest was on. While he and Mr. Luther differed in the city election, he was pleased in seeing Mr. Luther made president of the club. There was the nucleus of a good club here, and members ought to come out and talk together. Not very many votes were made by speeches; it was hard work that told. There should be speeches once in a while, but there should be meetings for club members only. He suggested that a room be secured for these club meetings. He because of his position as judge, would not work for the nominees, and before he would give up his right to do this he would resign.

F. W. Thomas moved the appointment of a committee on the selection of a club headquarters. J. D. Murphy thought it probable that the congressional, judicial and county committees would establish headquarters here, and it might be best to wait and all would probably secure a suite of rooms together. He moved as an amendment that the matter be referred to the executive committee, with power to act, and the amended motion carried.

Mr. Murphy asked time for the committee to select an executive committee and it was given to next meeting.

Mr. Luther urged the members to bring in names of all who would join the club. All Democrats should be united in this contest.

T. R. Ransom made a short speech, declaring the Democratic party would win and said no one could point to prosperity in this State under the Republican party.

On motion of C. D. Blanton an advertising committee was appointed. It consists of C. D. Blanton, T. R. Ransom and F. W. Thomas.

Judge Jones moved that the next meeting be held Friday evening, July 27, by which time he thought an Asheville man, Judge Carter, would be nominated, and there would be an enthusiastic meeting. This carried and the meeting adjourned.

The following new members were added to the club rolls: F. W. Thomas, J. H. Hampton, A. O. Whitlock, A. Rankin, P. L. Hostie, J. P. Jarvis, J. M. Brannan, A. B. McLean, P. Corcoran, J. R. McCollum, W. M. Jarrett, T. R. Ransom, J. W. Summers, Will Aiken, T. W. Shelton.

LIKE WAR.

Explosion of a Calson in The Streets of Chicago.

CHICAGO, Ill., July 17.—This afternoon a caisson belonging to a Hotchkiss gun of the Second regular artillery exploded at 40th street and Grand Boulevard, a fine residence district. Three Federal soldiers were killed and several fatally wounded. Other soldiers were made deaf by the explosion.

Four of the horses drawing the caisson fell in their tracks, shot through and horribly mangled, while three others were blown fifty feet ahead along the boulevard. The caisson was blown to atoms. The boulevard looked like a battle field.

There was a quick series of explosions after the first report and shrapnel shot rained like hail among the troops on the boulevard and pierced the surrounding buildings. The concussion broke every window in the houses for blocks around. The walls and roofs of the dwellings showed the terrific effect of the missiles. The damage will amount to $10,000.

The Vigilant Takes One.

BANGOR, Ireland, July 17.—The Vigilant and Britannia had their eighth contest today. The Vigilant sailed grandly in the strong wind which prevailed. The Britannia carried away some part of her sails coming home. The Vigilant was six minutes ahead when this mishap occurred, and won the race.
