ASHEVILLE'S HARD LUCK AT SPARTANBURG.

In yesterday's game the South Carolinians were shut out six straight and then Asheville couldn't keep the game.

Asheville lost the last game of the series with Spartanburg yesterday after the sixth inning, the South Carolinians being shut out up to that time. Game was called at 4:30, with Spartanburg to bat. Metz reached first on error by James, and was hit, Robertson striking out.

Thomas led off the seventh with a hit. King took first on an exorable error by Stanley and James and Crawley flew out with safe hits, scoring Thomas and King. Green threw wild to retire Sullivan, James and Crawley scoring. Evans went out from Stanley to first. Huggins hit safely, as did Bennett, Huggins scoring later on a wild pitch. Stanley reached first on error by Lanier, Lanier took first on error by Bennett, Oldham scoring on the play. Metz made a scratch hit, scoring Stanley. Robertson flew out to Crawley.

The pavilion was thronged with happy couples and the dancing was kept up for several hours. ## AROUND THE WORLD.

Bill Nye Contemplating a Trip For Next Year.

Bill Nye and Mrs. Nye were in the city yesterday, stopping at the Battery Park and remaining until this morning. In a conversation with THE CITIZEN Mr. Nye said he would not lecture at all the coming season. He has, however, promised the syndicate for which his weekly letters are written, the American Press association, to take a trip around the world and "write it up." It is possible that he will start on this globe-girdling mission in January. But he is in correspondence with the association with a view to deferring this trip, and spending the winter in Washington City, where his daughters, Misses Rose and Winnie, will be in school. "I think there is some material there for a letter," he added, with a seriousness that made them remark the more suggestive of the fun there would be in a series of Nye letters from the North Pole.

Mr. Nye would prefer the latter trip this winter, but it is as yet undecided. If the association should prefer him to go around the world first he will make the start from New York about the first of January. He can obey his own sweet will as to the trip, and can put in anywhere from five months to a year in his travels from Asheville around the earth and back again. He will go alone. Just imagine the time Mr. Nye will get out of a trip like that! His experiences, real and imagined, will make millions laugh.

Mr. Nye is now a dived in the wood citizen of Western North Carolina and says he expects to live here all his life. He has a handsome residence and 75 acres of land near Mr. Vanderbilt's (to say nothing of a 400-foot well, to draw from which, as he says, requires so much effort that the exhausted drifter must drink what comes up in the bucket as soon as it reaches the surface. The tract is large enough for a garden and a patch for "loos feed," and there, in a ravine of Asheville, and surrounded by all the comforts of home, America's great humorist lives and enjoys life. May he live to be one of our best citizens!

WHERE'S THE MESSAGE?

And Who is the Owner of These Animals?

There is a state of anxiety of the intensest variety at Belmont these days and unless something turns up in a little while there will likely be some cases of nervous prostration. It is all on account of a newspaper story or stories sent out from New York. One was a special to the Philadelphia Times in which it was stated that W. K. Vanderbilt was the owner of a menagerie that had arrived on the steamship Elysia, that had come all the way from Calcutta and that was to be shipped immediately to Mr. Vanderbilt's (W. K. mind your own place in the mountains of North Carolina).

The story as printed in New York papers named Cornelius Vanderbilt as the owner of the animal circus, and a story sent out by a press association added to the mix-up by declaring the owner is Perry Belmont, but it says that "some one said the animals were sent to Mr. Belmont, who wants them for his big ranch." This menagerie makes several hundred animals there in a long time and there is no prospect of the coming of a menagerie the people of that sturdy little town want to know about it. These various stories have caused the talking between two or more opinions, and the suspense is becoming painful on the estate. If the animals do come there, the people are contemplating a grand procession, a sort of triumphal entry, as it were, in which Col. Herndon and other notables on the estate will be seen leading the sacred cattle of Balaam or acting as custodian of the oxen. Let the circus come and relieve the pressure!

ENDORSED CLEVELAND.

But It Was Not Done Easily With Balloting.

GUTHRIE, O. T., August 2.—Red hot times were had at the Democratic electoral convention at El Reno yesterday. The report of the resolutions committee precipitated a long battle between the administration and anti-administration crowds. The resolutions, as finally adopted, endorsed the administration, declared for free coinage of American silver and demanded that Congress at once pass the tariff bill based on the Chicago platform. The convention is now holding on for delegates to Congress, with Hon. Joseph Wesley of Guthrie in lead. There are nearly a dozen candidates and the ballot may last all day—if a dark horse is not sprung.

EVERYBODY ACQUITTED.

But Great Industrial Combinations Bring Pressure To Bear.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 2.—The report of the committee to investigate the alleged sugar scandal exonerates everybody and says there is no evidence to support the allegations that members of the sugar trust used other than proper arguments with Senators whom they saw with reference to the sugar schedule. Occasion is taken by the committee, however, to denigrate the importunity and pressure to which Congress and its members are subjected by representatives of great industrial combinations whose enormous wealth tends to suggest undue influence and to create in the public mind a demoralizing belief in the existence of corrupt practices.

Two North Carolina Nominations

RALEIGH, N. C., August 2.—The Populist convention nominated W. F. Stroud for Congress from fourth district. The Democratic convention at Salisbury re-nominated J. S. Henderson for Congressman seventh district.

YESTERDAY'S BASEBALL GAMES.

New York 5, Boston 4; Philadelphia 6, Brooklyn 5; Pittsburg 15, Cincinnati 5; Chicago 26, St. Louis 8; Cleveland-Louisville, no game; Baltimore 6, Washington 5; second game, Baltimore 7, Washington 4.

RICHMOND HAS A DOUBT

REPUBLICANS MAY NOT ENDORSE POPULIST NOMINEES.

Two Democrats on the Supreme Bench Named By The Populist Party. Issue an Address.

RALEIGH, N. C., Aug. 2.—[Special.]—The machine worked perfectly at the Populist State convention. Faircloth was nominated for chief justice, Furches, Walter Clark and Connor for associates; W. H. Worth for treasurer.

Clark says that unless the Democrats also nominate him he will not be a candidate. The Republicans were in session until late last night. They issue an address signed by Lusk, Ewart and three others in which they say their party favors fusion and that fusion arrangements with the Populists are materially satisfactory. They ask their party to send delegates to the State convention who favor fusion and who are also in favor of endorsing the Populist nominees for the Supreme court and treasurer.

While this is all done it is yet evident that all is not harmonious in the Republican ranks. Some negroes are greatly stirred by what has been done. Pearson intimates that there is a doubt whether the Republican convention will endorse all that has been done. Some other Republicans say there will assuredly be endorsement.

GEORGIA DEMOCRATS.

Great Gathering For The State Convention At Atlanta.

ATLANTA, Aug. 2.—The meeting of the State Democratic convention fixed for noon today has attracted to the city the largest attendance of Democrats from all over Georgia known in recent years. Besides the 350 delegates entitled to seats in the body as representatives of the 137 counties in the State, there is a large delegation of citizens, many of them from remote sections, swelling the number of visitors in the city to fully 800.

The convention is called to nominate candidates for governor, secretary of state, comptroller general, treasurer, attorney general and commissioner of agriculture for a term for two years respectively. For governor, Hon. W. V. Atkinson, ex-speaker of the house of representatives and former chairman of the State Democratic executive committee, has no opposition, his sole competitor in the primaries, Gen. Clement A. Evans, having retired from the race when the result was practically decided in the local elections several weeks ago. The only contest is for secretary of state, for which office there are two candidates, Allen D. Candler, present in ambient, and Wm. Clifton of Chatham.

JAPANESE REPULSED.

Russia Will Not Permit Possession of Korea.

SHANGHAI, Aug. 2.—An official telegram received here from Tien-Tsin says in the battles fought July 27 and 28 at Yashan, the Japanese were repulsed with a loss of over 2000 men.

APPROACHING AGREEMENT

Sugar The Only Micking Point Of Importance Now.

WASHINGTON, July 2.—The Senate conferees are today very sanguine of a speedy settlement of the tariff snarl. The only disagreement of importance now is the sugar schedule and that appears to be in a very fair way of settlement by a change in the text of the schedule which will, it is expected, give the House opportunity to claim a victory, but which will, in reality, retain the differential duty on refined sugar. Some senators look for agreement on this basis.

DEBIL LEARNS.

But At What Awful Cost To The Country.

CHICAGO, Aug. 2.—"I will never again be connected with any strike organization," said President Debs of the A. R. U. today. "This strike has developed the fact that the sentiment of the people of this country is against strikes and that the government stands ready to put down such movements at the point of the bayonet. I shall hereafter advise all workmen to seek redress by the ballot."

CONDENSED TELEGRAMS.

Work at the American watch factory at Waltham, Mass., was resumed yesterday after a month's shut down. The concern employs about 1800 people.

The Florida Democrats endorsed the Democratic House, and condemned the Senate arbitrators.

South Carolina dispensaries are open, but the saloons are not closed.
