

AROUND TOWN.

Washington, Sept. 12.—Forecast till 8 p.m. Thursday.—Showers; northeasterly winds.

The heavy rain yesterday was followed by much cooler weather today.

Acting Mayor Hull heard one case this morning and the offender was sent to the roads for 30 days.

The entertainment given Saturday evening at the Library is to be repeated next Monday evening.

Congressman Crawford came in yesterday and stayed over to hear Senator Kansan speak today.

The Lutheran church services will be conducted Sunday in Lycett's hall, north Court Place, by Rev. W. C. Schaeffer, D. D., of Savannah, who will preach at 11 a.m.

J. N. Bohannon, a Hickory knight of the grip, came up yesterday. He says the speech of Senator Kansan is charming all air, including a brief allusion to Bill Nye's part.

Robert V. Miller will lead the devotional meeting of the Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor of the First Presbyterian church in the lecture room of the church this evening at 8 o'clock. All young people invited.

A large number of Odd Fellows from Canada and the Northern States will arrive in Asheville Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock, and will remain until to that night. The local Odd Fellows will give the details of this charming affair, including a brief allusion to his name in Franklin.

L. T. Power of Greenville, Ind., and Rev. Mr. Livesey of Richmond are among the guests of the Swannans.

Sam L. Adams, traveling representative of the Raleigh News and Observer, is in Asheville in the interest of his paper.

Rev. J. S. Woodard, the Democratic nominee for the House from Swain county, is in the city, coming over to hear Senator Kansan's speech.

Col. C. T. C. Deake of the Idlewild Electric company has gone on a trip to points in Iowa, Illinois and Minnesota. He will be away two or three weeks.

Mrs. Barbot and family of Charleston, S. C., who have been spending several months at Balton, will come to Asheville this week to spend the remainder of the season.

Chief Justice R. C. Brinkell of the Supreme Court of Alabama, Mrs. Brinkell and R. C. Brinkell, Jr., are at the Swannans, stopping here on their return from Haywood county, where they have been spending the summer.

Savannah Dispatch—Master Sigmond H. Berg has gone to Asheville, where he will remain until the opening of school.—Mr. L. M. Frank left for Kentworth Inn, Asheville, via the Florida Central and Peninsula railroad, today.

Dra. and Mrs. John H. Williams and Roy Williams left this afternoon for New York, whence they sail on the Etruria Saturday on a European trip. Dr. Williams will return to his practice here in a few weeks, but Mrs. Williams and Roy will make a prolonged stay.

PERSONALLY SPEAKING.

A LINE OR TWO ABOUT THE PEOPLE AS THEY PASS.

R. K. Gilbert is at the Perley from Richmond, Va.

E. M. Powell of Charleston, S. C., is at the Asheville hotel.

Congressman Thos. Settle came in from the east yesterday.

"Mr. W. H. Powell is back from Asheville," says the Charlotte Observer.

Rev. Edward S. Jones of Columbia, S. C., is visiting Rev. H. F. Christberg.

Theo. F. Klutz and family of Salsbury came up on a visit to Asheville yesterday.

At the Berkeley, L. Vass and Julius Elbel of Cincinnati and M. M. Alessberg of New York.

Mrs. J. L. Carroll of Chapel Hill is visiting her son, J. L. Carroll, Jr., on Chestnut street.

Jule S. Robinson is back at his desk in Collector Carter's office after a visit to him in Franklin.

L. T. Power of Greenville, Ind., and Rev. Mr. Livesey of Richmond are among the guests of the Swannans.

Sam L. Adams, traveling representative of the Raleigh News and Observer, is in Asheville in the interest of his paper.

Rev. J. S. Woodard, the Democratic nominee for the House from Swain county, is in the city, coming over to hear Senator Kansan's speech.

Col. C. T. C. Deake of the Idlewild Electric company has gone on a trip to points in Iowa, Illinois and Minnesota. He will be away two or three weeks.

Mrs. Barbot and family of Charleston, S. C., who have been spending several months at Balton, will come to Asheville this week to spend the remainder of the season.

Chief Justice R. C. Brinkell of the Supreme Court of Alabama, Mrs. Brinkell and R. C. Brinkell, Jr., are at the Swannans, stopping here on their return from Haywood county, where they have been spending the summer.

Savannah Dispatch—Master Sigmond H. Berg has gone to Asheville, where he will remain until the opening of school.—Mr. L. M. Frank left for Kentworth Inn, Asheville, via the Florida Central and Peninsula railroad, today.

Dra. and Mrs. John H. Williams and Roy Williams left this afternoon for New York, whence they sail on the Etruria Saturday on a European trip. Dr. Williams will return to his practice here in a few weeks, but Mrs. Williams and Roy will make a prolonged stay.

THIRTY CAROLINA NEWS.

The Goldsboro Roll have succeeded in making up a fund of $500 for the purchase of a monument to be erected over the graves of the Confederate soldiers who were killed at the last battle of the war, Bentonville, Johnston county. The monument will be unveiled about October 10.

Rev. C. C. Newton, a well known missionary who was at Lagos, Africa, is dead. The death of his wife, who was a missionary, was reported a month ago. Their daughter is left, and she will continue his missionary work in that country.

Bakersville Enterprise—one of the most and largest towns in men ever seen in Bakersville was brought here to die. It was sent in by P. H. McRae, of Black Mountain, and weighed 3000 pounds. It was brought to Maj. J. L. Robison.

—There are now 85 acres in cultivation at the Agricultural and Mechanical college farm and Superintendent Skinner says the crops are the finest ever grown there.

—The temperature Monday in Robligh was 92, as high as the highest record there during September. Tuesday it reached 93, and so broke the record.

—The primaries in Wadie were watched with some interest, to see if they would show leaning toward Riles or Jarvis. They did not.

—Mr. J. D. Miller, now a citizen of Greensboro, is to be ordained to the Episcopalian priesthood by Bishop Cheshire September 23.

—Sheriff Cook Givens disappointed by the court receiver of the Bradford cotton mill, formerly of the Crown cotton mill.

—The Montgomery convention endorsed him for the short term and Jarvis for the long term in the Senate.

—Reports show that the number of dogs in N. Carolina this year is larger than at any time since the war.

—The Wayne county Populists and Republicans have voted on legislative and county tickets.

—Captain Edward B. Englehardt resigned as chief of the Raleigh Fire department.

—Lacy Giles (colored) whose age was 110 years, died Monday in New Hamon county.

—The delegates from the third ward are M. E. Charles, T. L. Leatherwood, H. B. Brown, John Gaze and H. Lauar Guder.

The fourth ward announced its delegates: E. F. Chindley, Stanley Forney, G. W. Freeman, J. L. Freiway, J. B. Sims, S. Bailey, G. S. Hawkins, W. T. Land, W. M. Mays, G. W. Cannon, J. C. Henninger, Taos, Humphries and Chan, Monday. They are instructed to vote for Fanning.

—The delegates from the third ward are M. E. Charles, T. L. Leatherwood, H. B. Brown, John Gaze and H. Lauar Guder.

The fourth ward announced its delegates: E. F. Chindley, Stanley Forney, G. W. Freeman, J. L. Freiway, J. B. Sims, S. Bailey, G. S. Hawkins, W. T. Land, W. M. Mays, G. W. Cannon, J. C. Henninger, Taos, Humphries and Chan, Monday. They are instructed to vote for Fanning.

—WEDDED AT MIDNIGHT.

A COUPLE WHO COULD NOT WAIT ANOTHER DAY FOR THE CEREMONY.

Squire E. F. Howell was aroused from his midnight slumbers soon after 12 o'clock last night by a couple who were in such haste to get married, that they could not wait till daylight. The Squire lives on Short street, and the pounding on his door aroused nearly everybody on that brief thoroughfare before Howell himself was roused out of bed. The midnight visitors gave their names as J. H. Hayes and Miss Nancy Duncan, and it required but a few moments after they had succeeded in waking the Squire for them to be man and wife under his official ministrations. They did not explain their haste, but left the Squire to make guesses on the romance that might be hidden there.

The Right Rev. Dr. Cheshire, Bishop of the diocese, has appointed to hold service at the Church of the Redeemer (down the French Broad river road, about two and a half miles from Doubleday) on Friday, September 14, at 3 p.m. Friends are invited. Strangers are welcome.

REDUCED RATES.

City Passenger and Ticket Agent Frank R. Darby has instructions to sell reduced rate tickets as follows:

For the North Carolina Health Conference, Salisbury, on rail Sept. 11-13, limit Sept. 16, for $6.35.

For the Sovereign Grand Lodge I. O. O. F., Chattanooga, Tenn., on rail Sept. 13-20, limit Sept. 24, for $10.

For the meeting of the N. C. Road Improvement association, Charlotte, on rail Sept. 9-13, limit Sept. 19, for $6.50 by Spartanburg, $7.60 by Salisbury.

TO ADVERTISERS.

To insure change of advertisements in regular or regular contract, copy must be sent in to 10 o'clock a.m.

Special railroad rates—See Clarke.

THE MARKETS.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, Sept. 12.—Cotton futures opened yesterday at 100¢ per bushel, and closed at 100¢ per bushel. October, 65¢; November, 65¢; December, 65¢; January, 65¢; February, 65¢; March, 75¢; April, 75¢; May, 75¢.

CHICAGO.

CHICAGO, Sept. 12.—Wheat, 55¢; Corn, 55¢; Oats, 55¢; Pork, 55¢; Lard, September, 55¢; Butter, Sept. 25, 55¢; Eggs, 55¢; Apples, dried, 55¢; Chickens, 55¢; Pumpkins, each, 55¢; Turkeys, 55¢; Sorghum, 55¢; Potatoes, sweet, 55¢; Honey, 55¢; Wheat, 55¢; Turnips, 55¢; Bacon, 55¢; Meats, 55¢; Cabbage, per lb., 55¢; Oats, 55¢; Beans, per bushel, 65¢; Rye, 65¢; Peas, 65¢; Celery, per dozen, 55¢.

ASHEVILLE.

ASHEVILLE, Sept. 12.—Corresponded daily by Powell & Snider, wholesale and retail grocers. These prices are being paid by the merchants of the city today:

Apples, dried, 55¢; Eggs, 55¢; Apples, dried, 55¢; Chickens, 55¢; Pumpkins, each, 55¢; Turnips, 55¢; Sorghum, 55¢; Potatoes, sweet, 55¢; Honey, 55¢; Wheat, 55¢; Turnips, 55¢; Bacon, 55¢; Meats, 55¢; Cabbage, per lb., 55¢; Oats, 55¢; Beans, per bushel, 65¢; Rye, 65¢; Peas, 65¢; Celery, per dozen, 55¢.

INDEX TO NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

FIRE-EXTINGUISHERS.

FIRE-EXTINGUISHERS.