THE GOOD ROADS MEETING

MANY INTERESTING PAPERS DELIVERED.

The Plan of Getting All The Convicts On To The Highways—The Farmer And The Roads—Buncombe Resolutions. CHARLOTTE, Sept. 14.—[Special.]—The evening session of the road conference assembled at 8 p. m. The hall was filled, many spectators being present. Hon. S. B. Alexander, member of Congress from the 6th district, addressed the conference giving a history of Mecklenburg roads. He was followed by Capt. W. E. Ardrey, who was his colleague in the Legislature when the law was enacted. Captain Ardrey read an interesting paper on "What the good roads have done for the farmers of Mecklenburg." It showed how great benefits have been reaped by the farmers, financially, socially and otherwise, and how the building of these roads have brought about a revolution in public sentiment on the matter of road improvement by taxation.

Rev. J. R. Brooks, D. D., and Rev. J. A. Preston, D. D., delivered addresses upon the subject, "The relation of better roads to country church attendance." The addresses were strong arguments in favor of road improvement.

On motion of Maj. H. P. Schenk of Cleveland, a resolution to reimburse Secretary Holmes for expenses incurred was taken up. The amount realized was $40.

Mr. W. C. McMackin, superintendent of road building in Wake county, read a strong paper on "The use of convict labor on the public roads." He takes the position that the convict should be abolished and all the convicts be worked on the roads in the respective counties.

The following committee on resolutions was appointed: M. L. Reed, Buncombe; H. F. Schenk, Cleveland; J. C. Stevenson, New Hanover; S. H. Hearns, Stanly; I. A. Holmes, Orange. Mr. Mallory, Mecklenburg, offered a resolution calling upon the legislature to put all the convicts to work upon the public roads and abandon "the doubtful experiment" of farming.

This resolution, on motion of G. S. Powell of Buncombe was referred to the committee on resolutions after discussion by Messrs. S. H. Webb of Alameda, A. M. Lester of Iredell, and J. C. Stevenson of New Hanover.

Mayor T. W. Patton of Buncombe offered a resolution requesting the General Assembly to appropriate $300 to defray the expenses of the road improvement association, and Hon. R. B. King offered one relative to a general road law, both of which were referred to the committee.

WILL PROBABLY DIE.

A Former Asheville Man is Shot in Macon, Ga. News was received by Frank and John O'Donnell this morning to the effect that Charles Carr was shot and probably fatally wounded in Macon, Ga., this morning. Carr was until a few days ago a resident of Asheville having come here from South Carolina about four years ago. He was employed as bar tender during his stay by John O'Donnell and C. B. McIntyre. He left here Sept. 5 going to Charleston with an excursion. From there he went to Macon where he purchased a saloon and was in business. The telegrams announced that he was shot without cause in his own place and was expected to die at any moment.

Carr is a man of 44 and married a sister of the O'Donnells, Frank O'Donnell will go to Macon tonight.

Another telegram was received by John O'Donnell this afternoon saying that Carr was shot in cold blood and with the provocation by one Tom Allen and that Allen was in jail.

STATE DEMOCRATIC CLUBS

Asheville Delegates Appointed For The Meeting at Raleigh. The indications are that Asheville Democrats will be well represented at Raleigh next week at the meeting of the State convention of Democratic clubs. This convention will meet on Thursday, and a dozen good Democrats were today appointed delegates from the Asheville Democratic club by President D. M. Luther. The list is made up of C. T. Rawls, J. D. Murphy, J. E. Dickerson, T. R. Ransom, J. P. Kerr, Chas. A. Webb, F. M. Jones, M. W. Robertson, George W. Young, E. D. Carter, F. W. Thomas and R. M. Furman.

The convention will consider general campaign organization and will map out plans for carrying on an aggressive battle all over the State. It is believed that the work done at this meeting will result in the best campaign ever made in North Carolina.

AN ECLIPSE TONIGHT.

It Will Be a Moon Affair and Smoked Glass is Unnecessary. Asheville people will have a glimpse of a partially eclipsed moon tonight if the weather is clear enough to see the orb at all. The moon will be passing through the earth's shadow and the eclipse will last about two hours. Astronomers have figured that the darkening will begin at 9:36 in New York city and not far from that time in Asheville. The first part of the eclipse will be visible from the Western parts of Europe and Africa, but the most of it will be seen only by people in North and South America. Believes in Asheville's Future. A new real estate firm with strong belief in the future of Asheville has been formed and will do its best to promote the material interests of the city. The new firm goes into business today at No. 4 North Court Square. It is composed of Thos. B. Long, Beverly W. Hill, James H. Rumbough and C. H. C. Long and will do business under the firm name of Long, Hill & Co.

THE COOKING SCHOOL.

Miss Clarke Will Probabably Have One Here Soon.

It is expected that the cooking school that met here early in the summer with such success, will soon open for another session. So many ladies who, for various reasons, were prevented from attending the previous lessons, expressed their regret and their eagerness to join a class at some future time, and the former scholars were so enthusiastic for a further course that Miss Clarke has about decided to give Asheville the benefit of the opening lessons, in her tour of the Southern cities.

Miss Clarke's work during the summer has all tended towards the preparation of a varied and instructive program for the fall lessons. It will be very different from the one pursued in the summer school. Asheville's market, which Miss Clarke assures us is the best in the South, is now stocked with different vegetables, fish, etc. Oysters, no doubt, in a variety of forms, will be prepared and served to the class.

Young housekeepers, especially, will be interested in learning a number of new and delightful ways of preparing the hearts, and it is said there will be a great many brides and youthful matrons among Miss Clarke's pupils. As the race of good old-fashioned colored geniuses of the kitchen passes away, and no new dynamic artists in their stead, the Southern women are beginning to take matters into their own hands.

We may live without poetry, music and art. We may live without conscience and live without heart. We may live without friends, we may live without books, but without a good cook we cannot live without cooks.

EIGHTY ODD FELLOWS

They Came And Will Be Entertained Handsomely. Definite news as to the number of Odd Fellows who are to visit Asheville this afternoon was received this morning by Capt. I. P. Sawyer of the local committee in a telegram from Jersey City. The dispatch announced that 80 delegates would reach this city at 4 p. m. on their way to Chattanooga to attend the meeting of the Sovereign Grand Lodge.

The visitors came in the regular train and were met at Black Mountain by Capt. Sawyer, Lewis Maddux and W. H. Penland. The program arranged was for the Odd Fellows to leave the train at Biltmore and take a special train on George W. Vanderbilt's private road for a visit to the millionaire's mansion and grounds. Leaving the building at 5:30 o'clock, after a thorough inspection, the visitors will return to Biltmore, where carriages will be in waiting and they will be driven by way of Kinnelworth Inn, the ridge drive and Beattont to the city.

A supper with informal speeches will be given at the Battery Park at 8 o'clock and a reception will be held after this in the parlors of the hotel. At 9:30 the party will be taken by special cars on the Asheville Street road way to the depot and will leave for Chattanooga on a special train. They are traveling in their own Pullman sleepers.

DEPARTED HER BABY.

A Woman Knocks at Mr Sumner's Door and Leaves a Child. There was a loud knock at the door of Samuel Sumner's house on Years an avenue about 3 o'clock this morning and Mr. Sumner was aroused in time to see a woman deposit a bundle on the door step and hurry away in the darkness. An investigation showed that the bundle was a newly born girl baby wrapped in a piece of an old dress. The woman who left it there is supposed to have been the mother of the child, but there is no clue to her identity. J. E. Sumner, father of the young man at whose house the babe was deserted, notified Chief of Police Harkins of the affair and an investigation will be made. In the meantime the child will be cared for by Mr. Sumner.

A CHANGE OF DATE.

Senatorial Convention Will Meet Friday Instead of Saturday. A decision was reached today to change the date of the Democratic Senatorial convention, which is to be held in Asheville next week. The original call was for Saturday, September 21, but a call was issued today by Chairman J. M. Gudger, jr., changing the time to the day previous. The convention will accordingly assemble Friday, September 20, at 3 p. m. This change was made on account of the running of the trains on the Murphy branch. There is no train on Sunday, and the Haywood delegates would have had to stay in Asheville over Sunday if the convention had been held on Saturday.

GEN. HAMPTON MARRIED.

He Sole Away Without Notice and Brought Back a Bride. There was surprise among the friends of Gen. E. R. Hampton today when it was learned that the General was a newly married man and had been for more than a week. General Hampton stole away from Asheville a week ago last Monday and was married at Knoxville the day after to Miss E. Belle Ross of Chattanooga, N. Y. The marriage took place at the palace hotel, Miss Ross having come from Chattanooga for the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Hampton are making their home at Sylva.

Life on Pistol Street.

A shot from a depot caused the arrest today of Mrs. Emma Else. She was given a hearing before Justice Frank Carter on a charge of assault on Lemina Slaton. The women are neighbors on Depot street and Mrs. Slaton claimed that during a quarrel this morning Mrs. Else threatened to shoot her and did fire one shot from a revolver. The ball, however, went into the ceiling over Mrs. Else's head. She was fined $5 and costs and took an appeal.

Aiken Was Delighted.

The Charlotte Observer has the following to say about an Asheville pilgrim: "Mr. Will Aiken of the ASHEVILLE CITIZEN, arrived here last night to join the Asheville delegation to the road Congress, on their trip North. The CITIES representatives are always welcome in the Asheville office, and none more so than Mr. Aiken. Mr. Aiken visited the Manufacturer's club last night, and was delighted with its elegance and comfort."

THE ASHLAND CAMPAIGN

THE LADIES OUT IN GREY FORCE.

They Are Working Mainly Against The "Silver Tongued" Congressman—An Attack on Owens Which He Resents. LEXINGTON, Ky., Sept. 14.—The friends of Hon. W. C. Owens here this morning are denouncing in most scathing terms Breckinridge's efforts to cover their candidate with dishonor at this late date. After being advised by his friends that Col. Breckinridge had given out to press here an interview in which he was charged with being ejected with a young woman from a Louisville hotel, he telephoned the following statement at 1 o'clock this morning:

"I am informed that Breckinridge says that, with a woman I represented to be my wife, I sought admission as a guest of some hotel in the city of Louisville, and that admission was either refused or that I was required to leave the hotel after having been admitted as a guest thereof. I am unable to learn the time, place and circumstances of the alleged incident and am therefore unable to contradict the infamous falsehood as circumstantially as I would desire, but I can, however, and do now pronounce the story as communicated to me as absolutely false, and I will further say that at no time or place or under any circumstances did I ever, in company with a woman, represented to be my wife, ask to be received at any hotel in the city of Louisville or elsewhere; that at no time or place and under no circumstances whatever have I been refused admission to any hotel in Louisville or elsewhere on account of any actual or assumed relation to any woman, or turned out of any hotel in Louisville or elsewhere, on account of any actual or assumed relation to any woman."

Without qualification, I pronounce the whole story as a base and baseless fabrication, made with intention to drive the Democrats in Ashland district from supporting me, and who are determined that district shall not be dishonored."

The women are all over Breckinridge's district today urging voters out for tomorrow's primaries. Their presence is having much to do with preventing a night. Ballots have been printed and distributed. The election officers have been notified of their duties from headquarters, checks have been cashed and money divided and sent through the district. The best work on election day, on all sides, will be done in this city. The prospects are that it will be "give and take" the day long. There does not seem to be any chance for fraudulent voting or false counting, as each candidate has a representative as election officer. The best politicians are behind Breckinridge, and all of the known methods for vote making are being employed by them. They are working as though it were a matter of life or death and concede that the influence of the ladies is their greatest difficulty.

SOUTHERN BUSINESS.

It is in a Hopeful Condition, Says An Expert. BALTIMORE, Md., Sept. 14.—A special to the Manufacturers' Record states that the Standard Oil company has purchased the great sulphur deposit near Lake Charles, La., for $175,000.

The general condition of Southern business interests, the Record says, is very hopeful. Bank clearings and railroad earnings continue to show large gains. A number of manufacturing enterprises are enlarging their works.

WILL TORTURE SPIES.

Missionaries In Danger In China From The Soldiers. LONDON, Sept. 14.—A despatch from Shanghai says the foreign missionaries in Shih King province are fleeing to New Chung, fearing violence at the hands of the Chinese soldiers, who, it is reported, are burning Christian chapels.

Two Japanese who were arrested on suspicion of being spies have been sent to Nankin, where they will probably be tortured and beheaded.

This Is A Flyer.

QUEENSTOWN, Sept. 14.—The Cunard Line steamer, Lucania, passed Dunnsrock at 3:47 o'clock this morning, having made the passage from the Sandy Hook light ship in five days, eight hours and 38 minutes, being the best time of the westward record, which she holds, and eclipsing all previous records for the eastward voyage by over two hours.

Burned a Soldier's Home Barn.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 14.—Fire early this morning destroyed the big barn of the National Soldiers' Home, north of this city, causing a loss of about $10,000. It is thought some discharged soldier or crazed inmate of the home is responsible for the fire.

Swaine Was Poisoned.

HOT SPRINGS, N. C., Sept. 14.—[Special.]—The coroner's jury verdict was that H. M. Swaine came to his death by strychnine, the poison being administered by unknown hands.

He Killed, And Died.

HOPKINSVILLE, Ky., Sept. 14.—Beverly Adams, colored, was hanged at 8:20 this morning for the murder on May 6th, of Ott Campbell, also colored.
