The posters that you see on the court house door and other public places announcing the speaking of "Hon. Pschmond Pearson," the plat-formless, prince eless candidace of the Lord only knows what, and "Hon. W. S. Barnes" of coalition fame are an eyesore to the passersby. Crawford has net Mr. Pearson at all of his appointments and the latter's "hired man" has not shown up. The people are wonder ing what Pearson will resort to next. Crawford has been brought before the bar of justice and acquitted without the testimony of Barnes, Pearson's main witness; and the Alliance card, the negro Saxon matter and the mileage question are all the issues the Duke has to discuss

Pearson opened the discussion, and as usual spent fifty-five minutes of his hour and quarter talking about the worn ou: and quarter talking about the worn out and stale Alliance demands, the negro Saxon matter and the mileage question, all of which were disposed of in short order by Mr. Crawford in his reply, to the entire satisfaction of the audience irrespective of party. It was shown to be a huge piece of demagoguery on the part of Pearson with the view of diverting the minds of the people from his own personal inconsistencies.

Crawford made Pearson admit that he (Pearson) would take from the treasure.

(Pearson) would take from the treasury of the United States $1,200 of the people's money and pay it to a clerk to do the work which it would be his duty to do, if the people should ever send him to Congress.

Congress,

He claims to be conversant with four or five different languages, but the ver-dict over here in Henderson is that he or five different languages, but the verdict over here in Henderson is that he don't seem to know his own mother tongue very well. Crawford has to show from the records almost every day that Pearson is absolutely ignorant of the great issues that now confront the American people.

This work has been to know his own mother to many keep the outcome in doubt until the Majestic arrives and Whitney speaks. Senator Murphy called the Democratic state convention to order at 1:12 p. m. He named David B. Hill, as the choice of prescut system of county government. But the collapse came when Crawford showed from the records that Pearson showed from the records that Pearson had never east a vote nor introduced a bil to repeal such a law. His little cheap John bill simply provided for the election of commissioners under heavy bond and penalties and submitted the proposition to a vote of the people and ordered a special election for the purpose of testing public sentiment when the State had already gone Democratic by more than already gone Democratic by more than 30,000 upon that very issue, for it is always an issue. And this in the face of the fact that the constitution provides that the legislature may change the methods of electing commissioners and institution of the commissioners and methods of electing commissioners and justices of the peace without submitting it to a vote of the people, and the Pinnix bill did, with the Pritchard substitute, repeal the whole system as Mr. Crawford showed, and Pearson voted against it.

The Duke was so thoroughly crushed and humilated by this unexpected turn that he did not attempt to make any explanation, as there was none to make. It is nitiable to see even a demonstrative by little frivolous personal charges aside and discuss the living issues, but no one believes he can do it. G. W. T.

THE GAYNOR BOOM DEAD. nator Hill Presides at the Demo cratic State Convention

SARATOGA, N. Y., Sept. 25 .- The convention day opened with dark clouds on the horizon and a suspicion of dark horses in the air. The sun soon drove the dark clouds away and the Democrats took that to indicate a clearing of the political atmosphere. The collapse of the Graynor boom revived all other booms which have been struggling along bravely for the past few days. The Albanians shouted John Boyd Thatcher until they were hoarse. The Democrats from the central cities declared Frederick Cook the man. The machine Democrats from Eric and Tammany again talked of David B. Hill as the man to save the party from defeat; and the Cleveland Democratic reformers, silk stockings and even many of the old time machinists, revived the talk of Wm. C. Whitney for governor. It is pretty well understood that Hill does not want Whitney nominated, but if it were certain Whitney would accept, there would be a stampede in his direction.
