THE ASHEVILLE DAILY CITIZEN

PRINTED DAILY (EXCEPT SUNDAY) AND WEEKLY

SUBSCRIPTION RATES:

Subscribers who miss their papers are The Citizen wants to know that too

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 26, 1894.

SEVERAL Maryland conventions have already denounced Senator Gorman, and perhaps it will soon occur to him that his course in the Senate in obstruction to the Wilson bill was neither good policy nor done in representation of the wishes of his constituency. Gorman has already been heavily scored for his action in the matter of the tax on refined sugar. He boldly declared that the duty was necessary to secure the votes of the Louisiana Scnators, but they promptly denied this, and said they were as much surprised as any one when it was found that the trust had been favored. In his bitter attack on the President Gorman We will not attempt to seduce shortest time and smallest space. Very intimated that he was serving his State him to become one of us by the often fine English is effective, but the voice of that State so far as it has been expressed, does not bear out Gorman's statement. It will soon be in order for the Senator to confide in the public so far as to tell again why he was so solicitous for the trusts. Perhaps he can guess aright by trying hard once that if this is done we will have the cocan guess aright by trying hard once more.

THAT $100.

The Asheville Register, Richmond l'earson's organ, is urged not to forget that $100 will be added to its bank account any minute of the day or night between now and the election, when it will show that Pearson ever voted for the repeal of the present system of county government when he was a member of the legislature in 1887. This is no joke, term fitted so well, and such a hearty no bluff, but a straight proposition. It the Register can't show up and get this money, it ought to have the honesty to tell the Republicans of this district that Pearson never did vote to repeal the county government system, notwith standing he pledged himself to do so when he was asking the people for their votes in 1886.

Coalition! of what? of whom? Contemplate for a moment the men and their pretended purposes who are charged in this combination. Who are they? The disorganized and demoralized remnants of the life kepublican party, which the people of the life kepublican party, which the people of the life kepublican party, which the people of the life kepublican party which the life kepubli man off the Senatorial course. They publish for eulogies of Ransom and publish 15t 2 eulogies of Kansom and Jarvis, and talk about Ashe and Osborne and Merrimon, and other men whose names are not known outside of the little communities in which they live, but they try to boveott Major Stedman and fail on the flanks and shirk between the lines of refuse to marking his name." or refuse to mention his name.

NO CROWDING!

Our understanding of the matter is different. We have not observed any "disposition on the part of some newspapers in North Carolina to crowd Maj or Stedman off the senatorial course. We have it from close friends of Maj Stedman that he is not a candidate; that he is "not on the course" in the sense of pushing his own candidacy. He would undoubtedly be gratified-as who would not ?-to receive the office at the hands of a legislature elected not in any degree, in they are the least reliable and most datwhole or in part, especially in his inter- gerous men in the community. ests, and that he would make a Senator Reput that would do credit to North Caro- If they are honest in their political pro lina and be entirely satisfactory to Western North Carolina we have no doubt. THE CITIZEN has reason, moreover, to believe that Major Stedman is growing in streams have been as the policy of protection. The Por in strength as an available candidate from this part of the State. He is an all villainits. The Republicans are the interesting figure in North Carolina pol-has filled the land with his maledictions

But it is well for the Charleston News and Courier to be informed that there The Populist swears vengeance are other gentlemen from this part of trusts and national banks, and there the State who have hardly been mentioned that have their friends and their strong claims, too, on public recognition in connection with the senatorship.

Pearson in his present preposterous proposal to represent the Ninth Congressional district in Congress, must admit that the Duke has shown, thus early in his canvass, a capacity for acting the in his canvass, a capacity for acting the fool, politically, that amounts almost to tried in this State and ignonimously

Pearson makes statements in his abortive attempts at speaking, that are Alabama and Tennessee and met with conclusive proof that he knows no more utter defeat. Only a few days ago the about the feelings, the needs, the trials, the aspirations, the hopes or the ambitions of the people of the Ninth Congressional district, than it he were talking to natives of the cannibal islands.

Pearson is a rich man, with a rich man's ideas, with a rich man's babits, with a rich man's instincts, with a rich man's tastes, with a rich man's hopes and ambitions; and the toiler on our hills, the poor boy on our creeks, the ploughman on our mountain sides, are individuals as far removed from Pearson in interest, in thought and in destiny, as in the neatest of neat dresses, and thus though they belonged to another sphere. These things account for the fact that Pearson has time and again from the stump, referred in a flippant manner to Crawford as the "statesman from Crabtree." It also accounts for the still grosser utterance, which has been repeated by Pearson on several occasions, that because Crawford had plowed an ox on the hillsides of Haywood county, was no indication that he was fit to be a Congressman-that the people do not send a man to Congress to plow oxen, but to legislate for their interests. No man who eyer had a pulse beat in No man who eyer had a pulse beat in common with the brave people of Western North Carolina could use such language as this. No man who ever felt what it is to be fettered by poverty, and oppressed by the necessity of having to work for his daily bread, could have ut work for his daily bread, could have ut tered such a sentiment as this.

son referred to the fact that Crawford had plowed an ox, and in his rejoinder Crawford declared that it was a fact; that he had never thought it dishonor able to do honest work of any kind; that he had plowed and hoed, and chopped, and grubbed, and mauled rails, but that in so doing he had never thought he was degrading himself. He issued every was only doing his duty as a man, and when the people of this district took requested to make complaint at the office as soon as possible. If the hour of it had not caused him to forget the delivery is later than 6:30 or 7 oclock struggles of his vounger days, or to grow unsympathetic toward the people who were now doing what he had once

The Ploughboy of Crab Tree is perfeetly willing that the people of this district shall choose between himself and the Duke of Richmond Hill.

REPUBLICANS AND POPULISTS.

rom Hon, Theo, F. Davidson's Speech Befor the Asheville Democratic Club. I trust that we are all Democrats behe will be welcomed to this club and all throw around like bones to hungry dogs to secure the co-operation of political freebooters and adventurers. But we do appeal to all men to consider dispas-sionately the principles and methods of operation of every man who sincerely desires the welfare of his country. We want and will have no "coalition"; we gladly leave that disreputable female to the effectionate attention of Lusk and Morgan, to Pearson and Harrison Coalitim! I believe that is what disorderly and incongruous erowd that is arraighted against the Democratic party now calls itself. At first it was called fusion, until some old darkey u an innocent but lapty moment spoke shout went up all over the State that they were compelled to desert their own christening, as they have deserted everything else, and choose another name. Coalition! of what? of whom? Con of North Carolina have been repudiating with unceasing and refreshing regularity The Charleston News and Courier says, and probably believes:

"There seems to be a disposition on the part of some of the newspapers in North Carolina to crowd Major Stedman off the Senatorial course. They larger and more dangers, and that they are Populists. And that larger and more dangerous gang of un-principled men, who have in every age of contending armies, true to neither, despised by all, without name, without reputation, but not without greed they may always be recognized by their love of plunder alike. Some time ago they were Democrats; then independents. Vesterday they were Republicans; today they are coalitionists. Tomorrow they will be—God only knows, what. But you may be sure they will be found wherever power and plunder can be had—if they can get in. You all know them; you have some shining illustrations. you have some shining illustrations of this class in your county at present; and it is not necessary for me to tell you that

What views, what principles, have the fessions, it is not possible to conceive of a more illogical and ludicrous combina-tions. If the Republicans believe in anyities just now, and the chances are that interest will increase rather than diminiely.

Has nied the land with his maleulctions upon them for their policy in that respect. The l'opulist has insisted since he could first talk, and that has not been a great while, upon an income tax; the Re publican has fought it at every step not, and never has been, a trust or tional bank that is not the creature and favorite of the Republican party. And I might go on almost indefinitely in pointing out to you the absurdity of

THE DUKE AND THE PLOUGHBOY. the idea of a "coalition" of principle between these people. Ah: I am sure The most violent opposer of Richmond gentlemen, that no honest man is de ceived by or will be inveigled into sup left of it in disguise, and very thinly dis-guised. This dodge has never succeeded beaten. In 1884 it was tried again and was overwhelmed, and last year it failed people of Arkansas sat down on it most decisively; and mark the prediction: when the vote is counted in North Carolina on the 6th of November next, it will be found that the people of this con-servative State will not be less emphatic. North Carolinians have sometimes been

> they are not likely to be deceived by a which other communities have rejected as dishonest. Thanks, But New Dress! O. No. From the Wilmington Messenger, THE ASHEVILLE DAILY CITIZEN is out twitted with being "slow," but they have never been regarded as fools, and

THREE LETTERS to remember P. P. P. They'll help to remind you of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets — and those are the things to keep in mind whenever your liver, your stomach, or your bowels are out of order.

If you're troubled with coativeness, wind and pain in the stomach, giddiness or disturbed sleep, you'll find these little Pellets just what you want—tiny in size, sugar-coated, pleasant to take and pleasant in the way they act. They tone up and strengthen the lining membranes of the stomach and bowels, and do permanent good.

ered such a sentiment as this.

At Hendersonville on Monday Pesr
At Hendersonville on Monday Pesr-

NEWSPAPER ENGLISH.

Plain and Orators Use It to Great Advantage.

"No statesman who is worth his salt will be hampered by tradition," said Lord Rosebery in a recent speech. And the saying is a good one in itself. Traditions are useful only when they help. They are a good deal worse than worthless when they hamper. But Lord Rosebery's saying is chiefly remarkable as an illustration of the fact that he is not hampered by the traditions of stilted English oratory. Worth is salt," is a breezy colloquial ism which expresses in three words which could not have been so well expressed in three sentences of the finest oratorical English.

The fine oratorical English in which our grandfathers delighted seems insufferably stilted to us of this genera tion. We demand plain English, and the man who wishes to reach the largest number of people will use the plainest of plain English.

The newspapers, which have a hand in nearly everything, have done this cause we believe in the principles of true speaking in intelligible language They have shown the advantage of Democracy, if there is one within the They are condemned by college profes sound of my voice who has hitherto sors for using colloquialisms, vulgar been denied that great privilege and opportunity to serve his country I know which Lord Rosebery enforces his he will be welcomed to this club and all tries to do is make itself intelligible to bait of office; we have no nominations to oftener still a colloquialism will ring the bell where the English of Addison would not strike the outer rim of a tar

> The orators are finding this out and conforming to it. Something is lost, perhaps, but more is gained, for it means another step away from the exclusiveness of an intellectual aristocracy; another concession to the in tellectual needs of the masses, the despised Toms, Dicks and Harrys, over whose heads the orators of our classical period fired the resonant salvos of their heavy artillery. -N. Y. World.

TEA-HOUSES IN CHINA.

They Take the Place of the (lub-Re of the West.

The restaurant or tea-house in China takes the place of the western clubroom, write Messrs. Allen and Sachtleben in the September Century, de-scribing their bleyele tour in Asia. All the current news and gossip is here circulated and discussed over their eat-ing and gambling. One of their games of chance, which we have frequently noticed, seems to consist in throwing their fingers at one another, and shout ing at the top of their voices. It is really a matching of numbers, for which the Chinamen make signs on their fingers, up to the numeral ten. The Chinese of all nations seem to live in order to ent, and from this race of epicures has developed a nation of excellent cooks. Our fare in China outside the Gobi district, was far bet ter than in Turkey or Persla, and, for this reason, we are better able to endure the increased hardships. A plate of sliced meat stewed with vegetables, and served with a piquant sauce, sliced radishes and onions with vinegar, two loaves of Chinese mo-mo, or steamed bread, and a pot of tea, would usually costs us about three and a quarter cents apiece. Everything in China is sliced so that it can be eaten with the chop sticks. These we at length learned to manipulate with sufficient dexterity to pick up a dove's egg-the highest attainment in the chop-stick art. The Chinese have rather a sour than a sweet tooth. Sugar is rarely used in anything, and never in tea. steeped ten-flowers, which the higher classes use, are really more tasty without It.

PERIER AT SCHOOL.

the New President of " Plunked."

Once, during the school days of the new president of the French republic, his professor in geography asked him: "Perier, give us the exact position and indicate the latitude of the Gambier group." Casimir-Perier crossed his for Congress, and Richmond Pea son, arms tightly upon his chest, looking independent candidate for Congress, will very perplexed. One of his neighbors whispered to him a wrong answer whereupon the professor gave him the exact position of this little group, which belongs to the more important French establishment of Tahiti, and, after a short pause, and with a little point of irony, said: "You ought to know that, Perier, because it is thanks to your grandfather that France acquired the ascendency in these parts of the world; it was through his efforts and entreaties that the dusky queen of these islands was induced to come to France; and the men of my genera tion still remember the comical songs which celebrated the event." Perier blushed considerably; but, holding his head still higher, answer the professor with his quick and peculiar diction: "I will most certainly go over this lesson again and try to be more proficient at the next lecture; but, so far as the deeds of my grandfather go, they are so numerous that I am not old enough yet to know them all."

-English firemen were greatly admired at the international congress held at Antwerp. The Belgians and the foreign delegates warmly praised the smart condition of men, horses and engines, while the firemen were most enthusiastically cheered for the steadiness of their march past the parade.

Did You Know

That We

Are Now Doing

THE Finest Engraving

That Has Ever Been in Asheville?

As we are now making an entirely new and ruperior line of Souvenir Spoons we will offer our old ones at greatly reduced prices.

ARTHUR M. FIELD

LEADING JEWELER,

THE MAN WHO TOILS

Is the man who ought to have the best things to eat, because his system requires it. Workingmen and everybody else who want the best meat come to my shop. My stall is clean. The meat I sell i tender and fresh. The prices I ask are low enough to suit anybody. If you know how particular I am to give satisfaction, you'd never buy elsewhere.

JAMES WOLFE MEAT CO.,

This may be the warning cry heard some night, and whether it refers to your store, office or residence, it means that all of your valuable account books, securities, deeds, insurance policies, notes, receipts, mortgages, etc., will be destroyed if not protected by a fire-proof sale. Can you afford to run this hazardous risk? The loss of an insurance policy alone in nine cases out of ten would cause you endless trouble and expense in going to law to secure a settlement, and then your chance of coming to a satisfactory adjustment with insurance company would indeed be very slim. It is a duty you owe to your business, to your family and to yourselt to protect these things against both fire and thieves. That old tin box or drawer in which you have been in the habit of keeping your papers.

A safe will last you a life time, and it is the best investment that any business man can make. You make no mistake in buying a Victor. Out of forty thousand sales manufactured and shipped by this company, upwards of four bundred bave already gone through very severe fires and not one has ever

VICTOR SAFES.

Wholesale and Retail Druggist.

TAN OXFORDS

Are reduced in price. The misses sizes 11 to 2 now

75c. were $1.00. The

$1.40 grade now $1.10.

Woman's common sense

Oxfords reduced from

$1.50 to $1.00. Men's tan shoes that were

$2.50 now $2.00. These are all genuine bargains,

pick them up while they

J. SPANGENBERG,

4 N. COURT SQUARE.

15c. and 8oc. pound. Foreign and domestic fruits

ARRIVAL AND DEPARTURE OF MAILS.

OPENIAG AND CLOSING OF MAILS.

W. J. Postell,

4 00 p m BAST 11 20 p m BOUTH 6 20 p m BOUTH 2 15 p m DUCKTOWN

DON'T

FOR SALE BY

DR. F. C. SMITH,

Asheville, N. C.,

PUBLIC SPEAKING.

Appointments Made for Western North

State Chairman James H. Pou has made the following appointments for Democratic speaking in the western rnesville, Friday, September 28. Webster, Saturday, September 29. Franklin, Monday, October 1.

W. T. Crawford, Democratic candidate

address the peop'e the f llowing times and places: Bryson City, Friday, September 28.

Robbinsville, Monday, October 1.

Murphy, Wednesday, October 3. Shoal Creek, Thursday, October 4.

Hayesville, Saturday, October 6. Aquone, Monday, October 8.

Franklin, Tuesday, October 9. Highlands, Thursday, October 11.

Hon, C. M. Stedman.

Columbus, Polk county, Monday, October 1, 11 a. m. Shields, Polkcounty, Tuesday, October

Henriette, Rutherford county, Wednes day October 3, night. Ellenboro, Rutherford county, Thurs-

ASHIVILLE, N. C. Sept. 3, 1894.

ASHIVILLE, N. C. Sept. 3, 1894.

Rditor of The Chizen:—Will you please give space for this notice at my expense from this date until the next election:

Until recently 1 did not know that betting on elections was a violation of the law in North Carolina, and I am sure that this injurious cus tom has been indulged in, by many good and loyal citizens of our State who love her too well to wilfully disregard her laws. To such persons it is only necessary to refer to Section 2717 of the Code and it will be readily obeyed. Should we unfortunately have among us any person who is so wanting in patriotism as to offer or accept a bet upon the result of any election hereafter, to such person I give fair notice that it is both my duly and my pleasure to uphold and enforce all laws of my State, as well as I possibly can, and that disregard of the law referred to in past days will not, after publication of this notice, be taken in any degree as an excuse for a repetition of this offense. Very Respectfully,

We heartily concur in the above and will lead

We heartily concur in the above and will lend all the assistance in our power to the enforcement of the law.

FRANK CARTER, J. P.

Jd&wam

Port Royal & Western Carolina R. R

AUGUSTA, GA., AND AMEN. S. C.

VIA SPARTANBURG.

TRUSTER'S SALE—By virtue of a deed in trust executed to A. T. Summey by Nancy Barl on the 30th March, 1850, to secure the payment of a certain note mentioned therein, addituat deed being duly registered in the office of the Register of Deeds of Buncombe county in book No. 15, at page 36, mortgage records default having been made in the payment of said note, I will sell for cash to the highest bidder, at the court house door in Asheville, K. C. on the 7th October, 1896, the property described in said deed in trust, said land situate east of Pine street, adjoining lands formerly belonging to H. B. Brown and others. This 3: Bept., 1894.

A. T. SUMMEY, 9.5644-wed

day, October 4, 11 a. m.

Glenville, Friday, October 12.

Andrews, Tuesday, October 2.

SENATOR T. J. JARVIS.

Bryson City, Tuesday, October 2.

Marion, Thursday, October 4.

yet failed to preserve its contents when put to a test.

would be of no service whatever in case of fire.

Telephone No. 43

Stall "A." City Market

Everybody knows how to empty pocket books, but few know how to fill them.

Crammed Purses

Not required by those why buy bousehold necessities in the way of choice meats at

W. M. HILL & CO . City Market.

Before buying your new bicycle look the field over carefully. The superiority of Victor Bicycles was never so fully demonstrated as at present. Our '94 line will bear the most rigid scrutiny, and we challenge comparison.

There's but one best---Victor.

OVERMAN WHEEL CO.

DETROIT

Edison Phonograph & Typewriter Co.,

84 PATTON AVE.

TELEPHONE CALL 40.

ASHEVILLE WOODWORKING CO.

Is Now Prepared to-

--Furnish all Kinds of

BUILDING MATERIAL

Fine Church, Cabinet Work and Bank Fixtures

SKNO FOR ESTIMATES.

Asheville Woodworking Co

H. Kauffman, Supt.

Telephone, 164.

NOTICE—Trustee's Sale—By virtue of the power of sale contained in a deed of trust made the ryth day of July, 1801, by and between D. C. Waddell and his wife, Mary W. Waddell, and Edward M. Needles, trustee, for the purpose of securing a debt of $6,000 therein described to The Penn Mutual Life insurance company, which deed in trust was duly registered in the office of the Register of Deeds for the county of Buncombe, North Carolina, book 25, at page 415, and whereas the said D. C. Waddell and wife. Mary W. Waddell, have made default in the payment of said debt and the same is past due; and whereas by a decree of the Superior court of Buncombe county, North Carolina, made in the case The Penn Mutual Life Insurance company, plaintiff, vs. D. C. Waddell and wife. M. W. Waddell, and Edward M. Needles. Railway PIEDMONTI AIR LINE.) In Effect June 17, 1894. This condensed schedule is published as information and is subject to change without notice to the public.

2 49pm 2 30pm 3 52pm 4 33pm 5 17pm 5 69pm 6 20pm 10 05pm 11 40pm 11 40pm Morganton. Hickory ..... Newton.... Statesville. Salisbury. Greensboro Danville.... r. Lynchburg Washington 12 36am 2 18am 7 13am 8 23am 10 46am 1 23pm WESTBOUND 37 & 11 4 30pm 6 55pm 9 20pm 10 43pm 3 43am 5 30am Baltimore 12 50am 5 40am 6 58am 5 50ppm 15 45am 8 45am 8 45am 10 30am 11 19am 12 02pm 1 2 22pm 1 00pm 1 46pm 4 08pm 5 36pm 5 36pm 5 5 50nm past oue; and whereas by a decree of the Superior court of Buncombe county, North Carolina, made in the case The Penn Mutual Life Insurance company, plaintiff; vs. D. C. Waddell and wife, M. W. Waddell, and Edward M. Needles trustee, defendants; which said decree is dated the seventh day of September, A. D. 1894, and was rendered in a cause then regularly constituted in said court; the said Edward M. Needles, trustee as aforesaid, was removed as such trustee in said deed in trust and T. H. Cobb, the under; signed, was appointed in his stead and vested with all the powers which the said Edward M. Needles had for the execution of the powers of sale and other duties contained in said deed in trust, said suit in which said decree was rendered as aforesaid being brought before the Clerk of the Superior court of Buncombe county under the provisions of the code of North Carolina and all parties in interest having been made parties there to; and whereas the default in the payment of said debt and interest thereous continues, and other default having been made in the performance of and compliance with other stipulations contained in said deed in trust and the same still exist, and The Penn Mutual Life insurance company aforesaid have demanded of the undersigned that he sell said property mentioned in said deed in trust, now, therefore, the undersigned, T. H. Cobb, trustee as aforesaid, will sell at public sale at the court door in the city of Asheville, North Carolina, on Monday, the 22d day of October, 1894, at 12 o'clock noon, the property described in said deed in trust, being the house and property in and upon which the said D. C. Waddell formerly resided in the northwestern part of the city of Asheville aforesaid, lying at the corner of Broad street and Merrimon avenue, or Baver Dam road, having about 143 front on said Merrimon avenue and about 25; feet front on said frond street and areference is hereby made to the said deed in trust hereinbefore referred to the said deed in trust hereinbefore referred to the said

YOU

THINK

THIN

It would be to your fadvantage to call and ex-

AND SALK—In pursuance of a decree of the Buperior control Buncombe county, filed in the special proceeding therein pending, catitled Nannie J. Alexander and others, ex parte. I will sell at public sale, at the court house door in the city of Asheville, on Monday, the first day of October next for cash, that certain piece, parcel or tract of land, iving and being in the county of Buncombe on the cast side of the French Broad river, and south side of Flat creek, constaining one hundred and eighteen acres more or less, it being the tract designated as lot No. 5, on the east side of the river in the survey and sale of the lands of the late A. M. Alexander and purchased by H. A. Bunner at the sale made on with November, 1850. The sale now advertised in to be made to satisfy the amount now due from said Summer on his purchase at the said sale of November 20th, 1850. August 27, 1854.

5-2644-tace

A. & S. RAILROAD No. 14 No. 16

Lv. Asheville. 8 4-Jam 7 00pm

Hendersonville 9 33 am 7 56pm

Plat Rock 9 4-2am 8 07pm

Plat Rock 9 4-2am 8 07pm

Tyon 10 30 am 9 00pm

Columbia 3 56pm 1 20pm

Columbia 3 56pm 1 20pm

Columbia 3 55pm 1 30pm

Charleston 8 4-5pm 1 30pm

Savannah 5 5-Jpm 5 300m

Jacksonville. 10 10pm 10 15am Baluda..... Plat Rock... Henders'nv' + MURPHY BRANCH †Daily excepty Sunday.

**Super Standay.

**SLEEPING CAR SERVICE.**

**Nos 11 and 12 Sieeping Care between Richmond and Greensboro, and trains 37 and 38 ill pullman sieeping car between New York, Asheville and Hot Springs being hand ed on Nos. 11 and 12 on R. and D. and W. N. C. divisions. Pullman Sieeping Car between Asheville and Colembia, via Knozville.

**Trains Nos 13, 14, 15 and 16 solid trains between Asheville and Columbia with 8. C. R. y for Charleston and All Florida points. Pullman sieepers on Nos. 15 and 18, between Jacksonville, Asheville and Hot Springs.

**W.A. TURK.**

**S. H. H. HARDWICK.**

**Gen'l Pass. Agt., Asst. Gen'l Pass. Agt., Washington, D. C. Atlanta, Ga. V. B. W. BBB. Gen'l Supt., Columbia, S. C. J. M. CULP, Traffic Manager, Washington, W. H. OREEN, Gen'l Manager, Washington.

No. 15 No. 13