CITY FATHERS HAVE A SESSION

SOME CITY BUSINESS LOOKED AFTER BY THE BOARD.

The Street Committee to Consult With the County Authorities—The Committee on Charter Amendments Makes a Report.

The adjourned meeting, from last Friday, of the Board of Aldermen met at 11:15 today.

The water rent of the Hotel Berkeley was placed on that basis with the Glen Rock and Swannanoa.

T. R. Ransom read a petition from Frank Jackson to establish a billiard and pool room at No. 9 Eagle street. Referred to the finance committee.

The Mayor read the report of the finance committee, which was accepted, Mr. Gudger voting "No!"

The Mayor asked that one of the Board of Aldermen submit a resolution for the consideration of the Board that, as improvement on the county roads is of vital importance to the prosperity of this city, and as certain tools and implements for street work belonging to the city, are not used at this time, the street committee be authorized to make such terms as may seem just and fair, whereby the County Commissioners may use these tools, either by renting the same or in any other way calculated to protect the city's interests and at the same time enable the said Commissioners to carry on the road improvements advantageously. Referred to the street committee with power to act.

The following report of the committee on charter amendments, W. W. Jones, chairman, was read by the Mayor:

"Whereas, at former meetings of the General Assembly of North Carolina, many bills have been introduced, purporting to be amendments to the charter of the city of Asheville, some of which have been passed, and

"Whereas, some of said bills are inconsistent with others, thus tending to confusion and uncertainty as to what is the charter law of said city; and

"Whereas, it has been deemed important that the said bills should be revised, and so altered as to make each agree with all others, and a committee has been appointed for that purpose; now therefore be it

Resolved, That the Mayor of this city be instructed to apprise each and every candidate for either house of the next session of the General Assembly that such a bill is in course of preparation and to ask his aid, in the event of his election, in securing its passage, and further that he will oppose the passage of any measure purporting to be an amendment to the charter of this city, or in any way affecting its corporate laws until it shall be certified to him by the Mayor and city clerk and under the seal of the city:

"1st. That each section of such amendment has been considered and favorably reported by said committee.

"2d. That each section of said amendment has been considered and approved by the Board of Aldermen.

"3d. That each section of said amendment has been published in the newspapers of Asheville and an opportunity afforded for its discussion at a public meeting, an announcement for that purpose and by such meeting has been approved."

The following bills were ordered paid: H. T. Estabrook, 56 cents; B. M. Lee, $11.00; H. M. Smith, $6.00; W. E. Wolfe, $22.00; F. M. Miller, $1.03; Geo. R. Collins, $27.40; T. C. Smith, 73 cents; S. R. Chestnut & Son, $7.71; The Register, $5.29; R. P. Foster & Co., $1.50; Kelly & Elliott, $2.00; J. E. Lindley, $7.30; J. C. Brown, $1.25; N. Y. Filter, $30.60; W. H. Westall, $25.30; Asheville Printing Co., $1.40; Fred A. Hall, $1.00; S. P. Mosely, $2.75.

The board then went into executive session.

CHILDREN'S DAY.

Exercises at the First Baptist—Miss Lottie Price's Farewell.

Yesterday was Children's day for the Sunday school of the First Baptist church. The public was promised an interesting program at 3 p. m., and the crowd gathered in the auditorium of the church was not disappointed. Superintendent J. H. Tucker conducted the services. The very spirited song service was a special feature of the occasion. Prof. M. M. Lemmond as leader, with a strong chorus and an orchestra of several pieces, led the school in song. Perhaps one of the most impressive features of the exercises was the rendering of two beautiful songs by about 100 children who were marched in splendid order to the rostrum. They showed excellent training.

It being mission day for the school Prof. J. S. Dickey made a short and appropriate talk, giving statistics bearing upon mission work. Miss Emma Kate Gudger recited very beautifully "The Silver Plate," and Rev. J. L. White delivered an eloquent short address upon missions.

Then 13 children, coming upon the rostrum one at a time, each recited a missionary verse, at the same time hanging a letter, carried upon an invisible wire stretched across the front of the rostrum. These verses formed an accretive and when all recited the words "Our Missionary" appeared suspended in midair. Then Superintendent Tucker escorted to the front Miss Lottie Price, who goes from the First church as a missionary to China next week. Standing under these letters she made a formal farewell to the school in a most excellent and impressive talk. The school having promised $100 per year to support her, a collection was taken by classes, when the sum of $77.10 was raised. The school numbers about 300 members.

The classes whose contributions are most worthy of note are as follows: Prof. M. M. Lemmond, $18.05; Prof. J. S. Dickey, $14.47; Mrs. M. M. Lemmond, $10; Miss E. Hildebrand, $5.17; Mrs. J. H. Tucker, $3.62.

After the very appropriate song "God be with you till we meet again" by the school, sung "mid many tears, the benediction was pronounced by the Rev. J. L. White.

An Army Officer Accused.

RAWLINS, WYO., Oct. 1.—Captain P. P. Ray, United States army, acting Indian agent at Shoshone agency, has been arrested. The warrant charges him with willfully misbranding live stock with an intent thereby to steal the cattle and prevent their identification.

A DREAM OF COOKERY.

Attractive Program at the Cooking School Saturday.

At the cooking school Saturday afternoon the class assembled promptly and the lesson began at exactly 3:30. The program included French toast, chicken rissoles, fried oysters, and what Miss Clarke had rightfully promised should be "the prettiest salad ever seen."

When the cover was lifted from the bread bowl and the beautiful spongy mass revealed, the ladies felt that they had been wise to brave the rain and mud for a bread lesson that promised so well. Miss Clarke proceeded deftly to cut and shape the pretty loaves and set them to rise, explaining meanwhile the process of setting the sponge in the morning, and the long hard kneading that is necessary to bring this French bread to perfection.

The preparation of chicken rissoles was next in order, and the class exclaimed at Miss Clarke's clever handling and shaping of these dainties. One lady remarked that it was an invaluable object lesson. The delicious rissoles, served upon a bed of parsley, were enjoyed, while the oysters were prepared and fried to a turn in fat so hot it would light a match when passed rapidly above its surface. The salad was next in order: tomatoes filled with a mixture of chopped cucumber, celery, onion, salad oil and tarragon vinegar, and garnished with lettuce, parsley and celery tops. All said it was too pretty to eat but—well, it disappeared rapidly, accompanied by bits of the crisp bread.

So delightfully white, light and palatable that even Miss Clarke expressed her satisfaction. Gluten wafers were begun but as the class was to be dismissed promptly at 5:30, were not baked, but will be served at Tuesday's lesson.

The Asheville ladies who are attending this course are missing a great opportunity. The careful and scientific preparation of food has so much to do with the health and happiness of the household. No conscientious housekeeper can afford to remain ignorant of the details of this branch of the domestic sciences.

During the rest of the course, domestic duck, chicken in an entirely new way, soup, a variety of breakfast dishes, English plum pudding and a new dessert of peaches are promised. All who can should join the class on Tuesday.

The program for Tuesday, 3:30 p. m., will be desserts, and will be one of the most practical and useful lessons of the entire course.

"What shall the desert be to-day?" is often the trying question that meets the housekeeper.

Wednesday at 3:30 p. m. an ideal breakfast will be cooked and served. This menu has been requested by many.

W. C. T. U. MEETING.

A Letter from the New State President—Other Matters Considered.

Owing to the failure of announcement of the monthly meeting of the W. C. T. U., the attendance on Thursday afternoon was small. The president was in the chair, but both secretary and treasurer were unavoidably absent. Several suggestions of departments of work, however, were present and their reports evinced wide-awake endeavor.

A letter was read from Mrs. Mary Cartland of Concord, the newly elected State president. Her letter was full of encouragement and breathed hope for the cause of temperance. Some excellent suggestions contained in the letter were immediately acted upon. But a pang of regret was experienced on learning that Mrs. Mary C. Woody, North Carolina's brave little W. C. T. U. president, had been forced to resign her leadership, which she had held since the work was first organized in the State by Miss Willard in 1883. Mr. Woody has moved to California since resigning as professor in Guilford college, and North Carolina can well regret how her loss proves California's great gain.

Former committee members were appointed for several local matters, the president introduced Mr. Hill, representative of the Prohibition club. He spoke in behalf of the Prohibition meeting to be held in Asheville Oct. 4, and furthermore of The Ballot Box, a local Prohibition organ to be published in Asheville. Co-operation of the ladies was asked in order that 1000 copies of The Ballot Box might be distributed throughout Buncombe county. As much space as desired was also offered to Mr. W. C. T. U., for publication of any articles they might choose to print. A vote of thanks was given in return for this offer, and a committee was appointed to consider the subject of a permanent editor for the proffered space.

A BRITIAL HUSBAND.

Inhuman Treatment of His Wife May Have Fatal Results.

A story of brutal treatment of a wife by her husband comes from the vicinity of Fairview. Friday afternoon A. F. Causey, who was under the influence of liquor, began abusing his wife, finally hurling an oven lid at her. Mrs. Causey, who was in a delicate condition, was struck by the missile and badly hurt.

Not long after, Mrs. Causey was seized with convulsions, and up to yesterday when Dr. L. B. McBrayer reached her bedside, she had suffered no less than 25 of these spasms.

Dr. McBrayer thinks there is a probability that the mother will recover, but not much hope is expressed as to the child, which was prematurely born because of the abuse. Causey was arrested Saturday and taken before Justice I. Will Jones, who fixed the man's bond at $1,000. This he could not give and he was jailed here.

THEY PLAY TOMORROW.

A. L. L. and A. C. C. to Bat Nine Rounds for the Kindergartens.

And the game will be played tomorrow. The weather clerk has recovered from an attack of dyspepsia and has promised good baseball weather, so that the Asheville Light Infantry and Asheville's Cycle club are marshaling their forces for the great game of baseball that is to be played at Allendale tomorrow afternoon. The proceeds are to go to the Kindergartens and there should be an attendance that will spread all over the grounds. Both teams are nursing a grim determination to win or "go broke."

It will be a tight game and everybody ought to be there to see. The game will open at 4 o'clock.

MAJ. H. C. HUNT SPEAKS PLAINLY

WONT AFFILIATE WITH HIS PARTY IN BUNCOMBE.

Another Prominent Republican Refuses to Support the Ticket—Something to Interest a "Few Jackknives Who Have Usurped Their Power."

The Republican battlecry of "Anything to beat the Democrats!" may be alluring to some portions of the g. o. p. organization, but it by no means suits many of the leading men who have been fighting for principle these many years and do not like to see a total surrender for office's sake. It means something when leading men, such as Harkins and Deaver and the men on Hoaming and Big Ivy who have subscribed to a strong protest against Morgan, become disaffected.

There has been another prominent desertion from the ranks in the person of Maj. H. C. Hunt, who is known all over Buncombe as a stalwart Republican worker. In an interview with Maj. Hunt THE CITIZEN was told:

"It was not altogether my fault that I was a candidate for the nomination for the Legislature. I was approached fully three months ago by B. F. Buckner and Mr. Myers, of Flat Creek township, who said, 'We want you to run for the Legislature.' I had not thought of such a thing before, but I said 'All right; Barkis is willing.' I afterward talked with the Republicans of several townships—such men as Sam Davidson, James Nichols, Dr. Brock and others—and they all said they were for me.

"Of course I was very much encouraged. When the convention met I had a clear majority of the delegates, but some of the leading Republicans, not only of this county, but Mr. Pritchard of Madison, took a very active part against me in the convention in favor of Weaver, who received the nomination. I received the next highest vote, which gave me the nomination after Mr. Weaver declined to make the race. And then for a few jackknives to usurp the power to take the matter in their own hands and give the place to another who is not identified in any way with the Republican party!

"It is my opinion that the course of the committee in placing Mr. Burnham on the ticket will not only defeat the whole county ticket, but will weaken Mr. Pearson several hundred votes in the county.

"Of course everybody who knows me knows there is not a Republican in the county who has done more than I have for the good of the party and it grieves me much to receive the treatment I have."

"What do you propose to do now, politically speaking, Major?" he was asked.

"While," he replied emphatically, "I am a Republican in national affairs, so far as Buncombe is concerned, I can no longer affiliate with the Republican party in this county."

And those who know the Major know that he means what he says.

FROST ON IVY.

The Forerunner of Fall—Marshall Personalities.

MARSHALL, N. C., Sept. 28.—We are having some much needed rain in this section. There was a heavy frost on Ivy one morning last week. The tobacco crop in this county is rather small, but the best that has been made for several years.

Mr. B. O. Harrison of Franklin was here yesterday. Dr. Gudger and daughter, Miss Mary, have returned from Pine Creek and are stopping at Mr. W. J. Gudger's. Mrs. C. W. Tweed and Miss Pauline Hardwick visited at Mr. George Bryan's, near the Madison Seminary, Monday. Miss Robbie Gagne of Asheville is here on a visit to her old home and friends. Dr. L. K. Hardwick made a flying trip to Asheville Wednesday.

Dr. Harris, of Ivy, was in town Tuesday. Mrs. John Hendricks was in town Friday, the guest of Mrs. Hardwick. Mrs. J. E. Swann has gone to Hendersonville on a visit to her mother. Mr. George Bryan was in town Saturday on business. Mr. W. C. Sprinkle paid a flying visit to town Friday morning. Mr. John Jarrett and Miss Bertha Lilly went out to Mr. G. W. Bryan's Sunday. Rev. H. C. Sprinkle was in town last week. Misses Cora and Minnie Sprinkle visited Mrs. W. R. Fisher this week. Master Cornelius Redmon, who is attending school at Weaverville, is at home for a few days visiting his parents.

IN THE Y. M. C. A. CIRCLE.

Good Meeting Sunday—A "Young Men's Congress" Talked Of.

A good audience was out yesterday to hear State Secretary L. A. Coulter at the Y. M. C. A. Those present heard an earnest and touching appeal to young men to give their hearts to God before it is eternally too late.

There will be a meeting of the board of directors, committees and friends of the association at 8 o'clock this evening.

The Auxiliary met at 4 p. m. in today instead of 5 p. m. as announced.

A "Young Men's Congress" is suggested for this winter instead of the usual debating society. Any interested to know more about this may consult Secretary Willis.

Last quarter subscriptions to the association are due and Secretary Willis and Collector Frank Smith are going to bustle to get the promised funds and close the quarter free of debt. Have your checks made out so that this worthy institution may not be hampered in its work.

FAST NON-RECORD MILE.

Flying Jib Paces 5280 Feet in Less Than Two Minutes.

CHILLICOTHE, O., Oct. 1.—Flying jib, hitched to a running mate, paced a mile in the phenomenal time of 1:59 1/2, lowering the record of 2:01 3/4 made by Westmont in Chicago, in 1884 at this style of racing by 2 1/4 seconds.

The performance does not constitute a record as the running mate method is not recognized as legitimate, and has no bearing on Robert J.'s valid record of 2:01 1/2.

DESTROYED 17 HOUSES.

HAVANA, Oct. 1.—The storm which raged throughout the island of Cuba recently destroyed 47 houses in Santa Cruz del Bux. The pier there was also wrecked.
