SUDDEN RISE IN SWANNAHOA

A CONDITION THAT WAS TOTALLY UNEXPECTED.

There Has Been No Rain For Days. But the Sparkling Beverage Advances 50 Per Cent.—The Rise Acted on by the Aldermen Monday.

The Asheville who uses city water is not only called on now to pay his water rent for the current quarter, but he has to pay considerably more than he did last quarter, the Board of Aldermen having raised the rate.

This action was taken at yesterday's meeting of the Board. It would have been taken a week or two ago had it not been for the fact that until yesterday there had been no meeting of the Board since August 31. The increase in the water rate is 50 per cent., and it was totally unexpected to the great majority of the water consumers. It is done, it is said, because the city will need the increased revenue to be thus derived, in meeting its expenses.

At the meeting yesterday the finance committee submitted a report of the estimated receipts and expenditures of the city for the current year, and asked that, should the report meet the approval of the Board, a resolution be adopted voicing that approval, together with the resolve that every possible effort would be made to conform to the same. Then a resolution was suggested that the superintendent of the water department be instructed to increase the water rates by adding thereto 50 per cent., the increase to take effect on and after the first day of October. Which means it is in effect now.

The report was signed by Alderman Redwood and the Mayor and was adopted. According to this increased table of rates, each house occupied by one family of six persons or less will pay $7.50 a year instead of $5; each bath tub in private family, $3; each lawn or yard sprinkler, $7.50; each fountain, six months, six hours a day, 1/2 inch jet, $1.80 each a year. There will no doubt be murmuring but it's done now, and Superintendent Marcy has his notice to water consumers in THE CITIZEN today.

According to the finance committee's report the estimated income for the current year is:

Tax list	$2,500
Special tax list	45,000
Abstract "B"	4,500

Market house	3,000
Water rents	14,000

The expenditures are thus estimated:

Water department	15,000
Police department	10,000
Fire department	2,000
Prison	750

Commission tax collector	1,500
School tax	10,000

Total	$100,000

RENEWED INTEREST HAS BEEN AWAKENED IN THE ATLANTA, ASHEVILLE AND BALTIMORE ROAD, THE PROJECTED CONNECTION BETWEEN ASHEVILLE AND BRISTOL, TENN. MR. ATKINSON HAS RECEIVED COMMUNICATIONS WHICH SPEAK IN FAVOR OF THE LINE, AND HE EXPECTS SOON TO HAVE INTERESTED RAILROAD MEN HERE TO LOOK OVER THE GROUND WITH A VIEW TO TAKING SOME DECISIVE STEPS.

There Were Twelve Deaths in Asheville During September.

Reports filed with City Clerk Miller show that during the month of September there were 12 deaths in Asheville, nine white and three colored. The causes of death as reported were: Heart disease, 1; typhoid fever, 1; pneumonia, 1; pericarditis, 1; tuberculosis, 3; phthisis, 1; consumption, 2; other causes, 2.

Only two burials were reported for the month, and these were of white children.

Twenty-nine couples, upon application at Register Mackey's office, were granted license to wed in September. Of this number 26 were white couples and three colored.

ROBERT YULEE TOMBS.

He Was Rich, But Died Away From Home in a Hospital.

Chicago, Oct. 2.—Robert Yulee Tombs, a nephew of Robert Tombs, who attained fame as a United States senator from Georgia, died yesterday morning at a smallpox hospital in this city after a week's illness. Although he possessed an estate in Atlanta, Ga., valued at $80,000, which was in the care of his grandmother, he worked at his trade of a printer when he first came to Chicago several years ago. For the past two years he has been associate editor of the World, a weekly story paper.

HAVEMEYER INDICTED.

He Refused to Answer Questions Before the Senate Committee.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 2.—The grand jury has brought in indictments against Henry O. Havemeyer and John E. Searles of the sugar trust and Allen L. Seymour of the stock brokerage firm of Seymour & Young for refusing to answer questions put to them by the Senate sugar trust investigation committee. All the cases will come up for argument on demurrers on Nov. 1.

Two Murders Over a Girl.

CANTON, Ga., Oct. 1.—In the neighborhood known as Cherrydale R. L. Pace and Ulysses Aarum were applicants for the hand of a neighbor's daughter. They quarreled as to who should escort the girl home from church Sunday. Both had pistols and they began firing simultaneously. Pace received three bullets and Aarum two and both were fatally wounded.

The Smallest Number Since 1888.

Superintendent W. S. Cornell of Riverside cemetery tells THE CITIZEN that during September there were only nine interments in the cemetery. This was the smallest number for any month since December, 1888.

JIM FLOYD RUNS AMUCK.

He Had a Burning Desire to Give Somebody a Clubbing.

At the last term but one of Criminal court Jim Floyd, alias Dave Floyd, white, was given a berth with Capt. White's zebras on the gang. But Floyd finally got out, as convicts will do. With him things went along smoothly for awhile, but the pressure of enforced peace keeping was too great for him bear always. So last night, bubbling over with a desire to be real devilish and tough, Floyd ran amuck through West End. On West Haywood he met Landon Erwin.

"I don't believe you would do anything if a man would beat you to death," Floyd said to Erwin.

Thereupon Floyd clubbed Erwin vigorously and went on to the railroad at the old depot, where he came across J. E. Sumner, who was carrying a lantern. Floyd told Sumner he must not let the light shine in his face and fell to beating Sumner. As soon as he tired of this conquest Floyd went to the bridge where he met Robert Erwin, a white man, a stick. He commanded Robert to drop the knife into the French Broad, but Robert demurred and Floyd began belaboring the youth.

But there is such a thing as having too much fun, and Floyd found it out. He met his match in a policeman who was called in, and the result of his little performance was an interview with Justice Frank Carter this morning. The bond was $100 in each case, $300 in all, and Floyd will go to court once more.

BACK TO CANADA.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Weir to Return to Their Old Home Again.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Weir will learn with regret of their departure from Asheville. They return to their old home in Montreal, where Mr. Weir has business interests requiring his attention.

Mr. Weir and family came to Asheville two years ago for the benefit of their son and daughter, who were in delicate health. Both have completely recovered. All who know Mr. Frank Weir can testify to this. Mr. Weir remarked to THE CITIZEN today that his son never once required the services of a physician while in Asheville. "This," he added, "speaks volumes for Asheville climate."

Mr. Weir is a great believer in the future of Asheville and backed his opinion by investing in Asheville property he sides his home on Cumberland avenue, which he sold last May to Mrs. Bestor of Washington. Mrs. Bestor and family will occupy their new home at once.

During their stay here Mr. and Mrs. Weir met many warm friends, whom they regret having to leave. During their residence Mr. Weir was the means of bringing a great many Canadians to Asheville. All Asheville hopes to see them here again.

INTEREST REVIVING.

Railroad Men Talking About the Bristol and Asheville Line.

One subject dear to the heart of the late Capt. Nat Atkinson was that of railroads. He took a lively interest in any movement that tended to bring additional railroad facilities to Buncombe county. When Capt. Atkinson died considerable correspondence with regard to railroads had accumulated. This has been taken up by his son, E. B. Atkinson, who is now in correspondence with many prominent railroad men who live in cities which turn toward Asheville as an objective point for a new connecting link.

Renewed interest has been awakened in the Atlanta, Asheville and Baltimore road, the projected connection between Asheville and Bristol, Tenn. Mr. Atkinson has received communications which speak in favor of the line, and he expects soon to have interested railroad men here to look over the ground with a view to taking some decisive steps.

ONE PERSON'S RIGHT TO STRIKE

THAT IS DIFFERENT FROM A COMBINATION.

Judge Jenkins' Decision That Employees of a Road in the Hands of the Court Could Not Strike, Reversed in Part—Conspiracy to Damage Illegal.

CHICAGO, Oct. 2.—The United States court of appeals this morning rendered a decision reversing in part Judge Jenkins' famous decision in the Northern Pacific injunction case. The injunction restrained railroad men from striking.

Justice Harland's decision says: "In the absence of legislation, the right of one in the service of a quasi-public corporation to withdraw therefrom whenever he sees fit must be deemed so far absolute that the courts cannot interfere. It is one thing, however, for a single individual or several individuals, each acting on his own responsibility, to quit work and quite a different thing in the eye of the law for many persons to combine or conspire together with the intent not simply of asserting their rights by peaceable methods, but of employing their united efforts to injure others or the country. It seems entirely clear that any combination or conspiracy on the part of these employees would be illegal which had for its object the crippling of property in the hands of receivers."

SEAMEN WASHED OVERBOARD.

Thrilling Experience of the Steamer Knickerbocker.

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 2.—Captain Halsey and his crew and passengers of the steamer Knickerbocker had a thrilling experience in the big storm last week. The vessel arrived here yesterday very much battered and with two of her crew missing.

The Knickerbocker left New York last Saturday and had good weather until Tuesday. That evening she encountered a tremendous storm and for 36 hours was at the mercy of one of the worst gales her officers have ever experienced.

As soon as the hurricane struck the vessel the passengers were ordered below, and Captain Halsey made every preparation to ride out the gale if possible.

Wednesday, while the sea was washing furiously over the Knickerbocker, a big wave carried away the main mast and her bulwarks were stove in. The crew were set at work at once to clear away the wreckage and while performing that task, and holding on to life lines for safety, a tremendous mountain of water struck the ship and carried into the sea Second Officer O'Neill and Seaman Hansen. Nothing more was seen of the two men. The gale subsided Thursday morning and the Knickerbocker proceeded again on her journey. She had about 40 passengers.

EMPEROR WILLIAM'S HOAST.

Says He Will Be in Paris in 1900 to See the Fair.

PARIS, Oct. 2.—A Paris newspaper says that Emperor William recently received a Frenchman who was passing through Berlin, and said to him: "I shall meet you again at the Paris exhibition of 1900."

The Frenchman showed surprise, and the Emperor thereupon said: "I know French character. Once more I say, I shall go to their exhibition. I know what I have to do in order to carry out my intention."

LONDON, Oct. 2.—A dispatch from Paris says that La Patrie has a flaming article on the report that Emperor William proposes to visit Paris during the next exposition. The paper declares that the German emperor will never be suffered to enter Paris until he shall have returned Metz and Strasbourg to France.

CONNECTICUT IS REPUBLICAN.

The Popovers Make Something Like a Landslide.

HARTFORD, Conn., Oct. 2.—Returns from 60 towns in this section of the State show that the Republicans gain 10 towns. There has been a large increase in the Republican vote in every town and the Democratic vote has fallen off in nearly a corresponding degree. The flipovers from the towns so far heard from, indicate a Republican landslide throughout the State.

A DETHRONED EMPEROR.

China's Chief and Li Hung Chang Will Go Off the Scene Together, Perhaps.

SHANGHAI, Oct. 2.—The Emperor of China will very likely be dethroned in favor of Prince Kung's son who will treat with the Japanese. Li Hung Chang has been succeeded in supreme command by General Sang Tsing.

Saved From the Mob.

PRINCETON, Ky., Oct. 2.—Willie Grifey, a repulsive looking negro, was lodged in jail here yesterday afternoon for safe keeping and to escape a mob's vengeance. He assaulted Miss Davis, white, near Lafayette Saturday. The officers had hard work to keep him away from a mob.

Trouble for Foreigners in Peking.

SHANGHAI, Oct. 2.—The foreign residents of Peking are subject to constant insult by the natives and a number of them have been assaulted on the streets, including several British subjects, among them the interpreter of the British legation and Dr. Dugan.

Stedman on the Battle Field.

TRON, N. C., Oct. 2.—[Special.]—Stedman and Ewart met in joint debate at Columbus yesterday. Stedman made a great speech. Ewart was as good as could have been made from the radical standpoint.

Cholera in Constantinople.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 2.—A brief cablegram received at the State department from United States Consul General Short at Constantinople announces the outbreak of cholera there.

Hatters Burned Out.
