What the Democralic Party Has Done and Will Do-No Hope in the Republican Party Populists's Wild

Senator Jarvis was introduced at the Farmers' warehouse yesterday by Louis M. Bourne, who said he was glad to present to the people the trusted leader of Democracy, who for 20 years had proven loyal to every trust repesed in him, in war as well as in peace.

When the applause following Sounter Jarvis' appearance died out he legan. "I thank my young friend," he said, "for his kind words. I wish to get acquainted with you; to find the true relation ex isting between you and me. If no rastern market to purchase the holiday stock Englishman were on English soil he for the Crystal Palace. We ask all who are owing us accounts past due, to please settle in full. Here the people are the sovereigns, no by the end of the month, as we will not extend the subjects. Each man is a sovereig and each woman an uncrowned queen and we are all their subjects. What am 1? If I am what bought to be I am your servant. This is the people's country You are the final arbiters on every polit

"How do you govern? You canno lo it except through the medium of par ties, representing principles. The par-ties are the agents of the people. Today the Democratic party is in power. Th question has often been asked of late What has the Democratic party done It is a proper question. To me it bring no serious concern, it shows that th people are taking an interest in publi matters. I will try to tell what the Democratic party has done and what i

The People Can Understand. Government is no profound mystery If the people will take active, intelligent interest they can readily understand what is right. I wish to lay down tw or three plain proportions. Pirst: Officers, from President down to the lowest, should be guidel by principles. There should be the least burdenson the people ourdens on those best able to bear then 500 LOAVES OF BREAD TO agree to that. It they do they should THE CONFEDERATE REUNION get out of the Republic to party and into AT BRYSON CITY. OUR BREAD wealth-producers. Why? The laboring people produce the wealth of this country. The Republican party talks of being the friend of the people! If a farma pay him $20, he is $20 poorer and th awyer $20 richer, but the country wealth is the same. But when a fare tills the soil and raises crops be l added to the accumulated wealth of the accumulate, So with the maker of brack from the soil. Now, these people should be favored. Does it pay itself? Let me tell your sit comes from the people. No tax collector comes and gets it, but every merchant from whom you buy collects it from you. They are the indirect tax collectors, with this distinction: If they collect money for foreign goods bought they collect for for foreign goods bought racy concerning the government; if they collect for goods made in America they collect for northern manufacturers. vou wonder that you are hard up? The New England states and New York, New Jersey, Fennsylvania and Delaware-less than six per cent, of population-possess one half of all our wealth, one-half of the banking capital, one-half of all the mony. How did it get there? In natural resources that section does not compare with North Carolina. For 30 years the Republicans have made laws so that all this wealth has been going in this one direction. You have been sending it there compelled by Republican laws to do so family and most intimate friends were even if you bought only a 10 cent knife for your boy, or a 50 cent dress for your were charged with was robbing their uncle. The defendants were represented Glori agreed and the work of drawing by J. M. Gudger, jr., of Asheville and leter C. Pritchard of Marshall, They were sentenced to be hanged, Mr. Gudger thinks, tomorrow, but an appeal for new trial was pending in the Supreme court, and the sentence would not have een executed at the time set.

W. R. Nelson, who came up from Mar-shall today, tells THE CITIZEN that the prisoners effected their escape by horing a hole large enough to permit the pas sage of the bodies through the wall which is about 16 inches thick. The jail is a wooden building. The men had outside aid in securing an auger One of the prisoners, a negro charged with rape, stopped with a colored friend a tew miles from Marshall and told him he escape was effected about 3 o'clock Then the refugee went on his way, and at the time Mr. Nelson left nothing had been heard from the prisoners.

THE MIDNIGHT CANDIDATE. He is still Flounding in the Midst o Ills Frivolities.

FRANKLIN, N. C., Oct. 9 .- Pearson has een saying for several days that he was going to have Shook J. Wiley of the Asheville Register here today to give him a send off through the paper. Wiley was here as per previous arrangement, but what he can say for the man that owns him is a mystery to even the Republicans time after July 1st next at the Florida Athletic club, Jacksonville, the club to fix and Populists.

Pears on led off in his usual harangue of personal abuse of Crawford, but the people of Macon county, as a rule, are a reading, thinking people, and his speech tell as that as a flounder. His heretofore supporters left the court house utterly disgusted with him. Pearson has made his fight and spent his money, but some say he has not kept the political faith All the blowing and puffing J. Wiley or any other man can do will not change the situation now. The tide has turned from Richmond Hill and nothing remains out a wornout, broken down, disgrunted into the Republican party again after the 6th of November.

The Republicans don't find in Pearson that true exponent of Republicanism at the dead hours of midnight. I know the Republicans of this county person o'clock. The claborate out de v, as I was brought up with them. number will not support Pearson. They are true blue and will not sacrifice their sought, which only accommodate la por principle for Mr. Pearson or any other tion of the crowd of visitors, principally

Pearson devoted a great deal of his time today pleading with the Populists to support him, but his pleadings were in vain, as quite a number publicly dein vain, as quite a number publicly de-nounced his scheme to catch votes, and assured Crawford that he would get their support on the day of election. Pearson admits over his signature that the Republicans and Populists are as far part as the East is from the West of ational issues, but he thinks they might come together this one time for his spe-cial benefit, although he did not tell them one thing he could do for them, exopt vote for Thos. B Reed of Maine for speaker. This is the only relief be has offered the people and a true Southerner doesn't care to be relieved that way udge Crisp of Georgia is good enough for them. 15, 20 and 25 per cent, if the Democratic great combination scheme to redeem the the conclusion of the address which d party has made it possible for you to save this, you should be fair chough to say so. I will make this bargain with you: I have never voted anything but the Democratle ticket, but if you don't find you can buy all these things cheaper's living but the discussions, but he would not have thought so, had he been with me this morning. I drove out a few miles into the country and on my way I met several plodding through the mud in the several plodding through the mud in the living scheaper's living the fair conclusion of the address which did not please him, Vincent arose to reply whereupon many of the address which did not please him, Vincent arose to reply whereupon many of the address which did not please him, Vincent arose to reply whereupon many of the address which did not please him, Vincent arose to reply whereupon many of the address which did not please him, Vincent arose to reply whereupon many of the address which did not please him, Vincent arose to reply whereupon many of the address which did not please him, Vincent arose to reply whereupon many of the address which did not please him, Vincent arose to reply whereupon many of the address which did not please him, Vincent arose to reply whereupon many of the address which one may be address the please him, Vincent arose to reply whereupon many of the address which did not please him, Vincent arose to reply whereupon many of the address which did not please him, Vincent arose to reply whereupon many of the address which did not please him, Vincent arose to reply whereupon many of the address which did not please him, Vincent arose to reply whereupon many of the address which did not please him, Vincent arose to reply whereupon many of the address which did not please him, Vincent arose to reply whereupon many of the address which did not please him, Vincent arose to reply whereupon many of the address which did not please him, Vincent arose to reply whereupon many of the address which did not please him, Vincent arose to reply whereupon many of the addr say so. I will make this sound the say so in the Democratle ticket, but it you don't find you can buy all these thing scheaper, I will yote the kepublican ticket. [Great applause.] Now, you kepublicans and Populists should make the same bargain.

"How did the Democratic party make "How did the Democratic party make heard that little song the boys sing: "I amgoing to the wedding, Sally Ann," but they have changed it out here to the same bare to the skinning." they have changed it out here to the "Skinning of Richmond Ann."

Crawford made one of his best speeches here today. Macon county will give a handsome Democratic majority this fall, and that true and tried exponent Democratic principles, Hon. J. Frank Ray, will be returned to the Legislature by an increased majority. The Demo crats have nothing to fear out here.
