In view of this situation, your committee recommend that you authorize them to settle your hands a balance to be distributed among creditors, pro rata. Respectfully submitted, "Henry Keilwood, "T. W. Patton, "Finance Committee."

A short consideration of the report followed, and it was adopted open motion of Mr. Jones. He stated that the city wanted to pay all its honest, legitimate debts, but that some -a very few-of the debts were composed partly of improper charges, and such as these ought to be investigated. Mr. Redwood inquired how it would do to ask each creditor to make a sworn statement as to his account, but it was not thought necessary to do this, and the Board adjourned, with an evident teling of congratulation over having consummated a deal of such importance to Asbeville.

It is calculated that of the $65,000 o the debt, exclusive of the school debt, $41,000 will be paid to local creditors, while $10,000 or $15,000 of the schoo money will be paid out here.
