A LANDSLIDE FOR CRAWFORD

EVEN MADISON COUNTY HAS NO USE FOR PEARSON.

Shook J. Wiley Trying to Get the Duke to Deliver a Prepared Speech, But R. P. Is Coy—Just a Candidate, Nothing More.
SPRING CREEK, N. C., Oct. 20.—We are now in the land of Rollins, the home of Pritchard and the burial place of the Rev. Ammons, who recently descended from the ministerial altar to accept a place on the Senatorial ticket with J. M. Moody. What are the young men of the country going to think when they see a clergyman leave the pulpit to be filled so long, and abandon every political principle that has ever been near and dear to him, and join the Republican party in order to reform the county? A few months ago this same reverend gentleman was around talking temperance, and now you see him in partnership with a government distiller, or at least, the chairman of his committee has an old still over in Jackson county.
Messrs. Henderson and Craig are making fine impressions in this and Haywood counties, and their elections are conceded. Ammons will not get half the Republican strength in Madison county. They don't take very much stock in fop-doodles and bolters down this way.
Pearson has been building his hopes hereabout on Madison county Republicanism, but I think his pin feathers dropped off today when we reached Spring Creek. Crawford was met at the county line by 150 horsemen and Pearson's face looked as long as a saddle blanket as he and Shook J. Wiley brought up the rear. After the speaking J. Wiley took his boss out to one side and gave him a going over for not declining the speech he had written for him last week.
I think Wiley is a little too hard on Pearson. A man cannot commit 18 sheets of foolscap in one week and keep up with his bank account, too. It has been a regular landslide for Crawford and Democracy this week. Pearson admitted today that Crawford had had the crowds on him so far, but consoled himself with the thought that Pritchard and the Rev. Ammons would have him a majority drummed up for Marshall Monday. I hope they will be successful, as he is getting more lights on the "Hurray for Crawford" and "What are your politics, Mr. Pearson?"

The speeches today made many votes for the Democratic ticket, and when the meeting closed several penitents were seen lingering around the Democratic altar, asking for more lights on the subject. A leading Republican told me this afternoon that Pearson's majority would be less than 400 in Madison county. Crawford asked Pearson to define his politics today and this is what he said: "I am not a Democrat—I am not a Republican—I am not a Populist, I am just a candidate; that's all." Now, this is as near the shore as he will venture, and you can readily see where he stands; and how in the name of Heaven any patriotic citizen can support a man in politics more than I can see. Pearson is the only man that has ever aspired to Congress from this district that absolutely refused to define his position and tell the people what he could do for them, or where he stood. Madison county Democrats are in line and will give an increased vote this fall.

CRIMINAL COURT WORK.

Judge Jones Files a Juror for Contempt—Other Business.

In the Criminal Court yesterday afternoon Jacob Stevens, charged with retailing, was found not guilty. The case has been on the docket for about two years, and has been to the Supreme court and back. Stevens was bound over till this morning, to be dealt with in another case.

The case against J. A. Lance, Pink Lance and Andy Lance, J. B. Sumner and J. H. Sumner, for an affray, was taken up, the jury impaneled, and two witnesses examined before the afternoon adjournment.

P. C. McIntire gave a justified bond in the sum of $500 to appear at the next term and abide by the decision of the Supreme court.

RAILROAD NOTES.

Officials Go Down to Knoxville—Two Shifts and Lots of Freight.
No. 11 pulled out from Asheville yesterday with eight cars. Two of them, Nos. 99 and 103, were the private cars of General Manager C. H. Hudson of the western system, and Third Vice-President Baldwin of the Southern. These officials went down to Knoxville. Mr. Baldwin had been at Knoxville several days, under treatment of Dr. Wm. D. Hilliard, and left improved.
Two shifting engines are now used on the yards of the Southern here. One runs day and night and the other from 12 noon to midnight, and they are kept busy. The lines running into Asheville now handle from 300 to 350 loaded cars daily, which means freight business is good.

SENATOR HILL IN CONFERENCE

A POLICY OF CONCILIATION NECESSARY.

The Astute Leader of the New York State Democracy Straightening Out the Rough Places in the Democratic Situation, Especially Regarding Congressional Nominations. Senator Faulkner, Chairman of the Congressional Committee, Breakfasted with the Senator. They are said to have agreed that a policy of conciliation will be necessary.
After the conference Faulkner returned to the Imperial hotel to meet Police Commissioner Martin and other Tammany leaders to see if terms could not be arranged. Among Hill's callers this morning were F. M. Scott, ex-Mayor Grace's right hand man who was the reform labor candidate for mayor in 1890 against Grant; Ellery Anderson, August Belmont and George W. Green, one of the county democracy congressional candidates. Hill had a long conference with Lieutenant Governor Sheehan and Major Hinkley of the Democratic state committee.

THE FALCON LOST.

She is Ten Days Overdue and Given Up For Lost.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 23.—It is learned that the steamer Falcon, which conveyed the Peary party to and from Greenland, has been lost with her entire crew of 16 men.
After landing the members of the Peary party who returned this year and the members of the auxiliary expedition and their baggage, the Falcon took aboard a cargo of anthracite coal for her port, St. Johns, N. F. She sailed from Philadelphia, October 3, and nothing has been heard of her since. Nineteen days have passed since the vessel sailed, and allowing the nine days in which it was estimated she would make the voyage, she is 10 days overdue. Westergaard & Co., her consignors, have virtually given her up, and although a possibility exists that she may be still afloat, there is little doubt but that she has met with disaster. The Falcon's crew of 16 men were all residents of Newfoundland and most of them live at St. John's.

THE PRODUCTION OF COTTON.

Taking Steps to Get Earlier Advances as to the Amount.

ATLANTA, Oct. 23.—

J. L. Watkins, cotton statistician of the department of agriculture, Washington, appeared before the Southern Railway and Steamship association this morning to petition the association to furnish the government with reports of cotton handled by all the railroads south of the Ohio river and east of the Mississippi. The department reports will then give the total production of each year six months earlier than any of the commercial reports and will be of benefit to the planters. President Sherman promised to appoint a committee and furnish the information to the government as requested. Watkins will make similar arrangements west of the Mississippi river.

WHY ONLY GIVE WHAT HE CAN SWEAR TO BY LAW.

NEW YORK, Oct. 23.—When Levi P. Morton, at the opening of the State convass, was asked to make a contribution to aid in his election as governor he drew a check—some say for $5,000, but others say $10,000. As he passed it to a Republican leader, who was supposed to see that it reached its proper destination, he is reported to have observed: "That is all I intend to give. I will not contribute a cent more than I can swear to by law."

WHEN THOMAS C. PLATT AND CHARLES W. HACKETT AND OTHERS INSTRUMENTAL IN MAKING MORTON THE REPUBLICAN NOMINEE.

learned of the comparatively small sum he had donated they are said to have thrown up their hands and experienced feelings of mutual disgust and despair.

IT CANNOT BUY UP QUITE ALL THE EARTH.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Oct. 24.—The Supreme court of this State today halted the Standard Oil company in its process of absorbing the independent oil refineries in the country. A deal had been made to buy out the Producers and Refiners Oil company. John I. Carter, of Franklin, Pa., a stockholder objected and secured an injunction in the Venango county court by which the deal was stopped. Today the Supreme court, without discussing the questions involved, made the injunction permanent.

THE SHERIFF ARGUED THE MOB OUT OF THE NOTION.

GENOA, Ill., Oct. 23.—A mob of 500 surrounded the jail here last night with the intention of lynching Charles Stebbins, accused of assaulting a 12 years old girl. Sheriff Ostrander, who lives at Sycamore, arrived here in response to a telegram and prevailed on the leaders of the mob to desist from their intentions. The sheriff then took Stebbins to Sycamore without the mob being aware of the fact and placed him in jail there.

TO BE MARRIED TO THE CZAR'S SON.

BERLIN, Nov. 23.—The Cologne Gazette prints a despatch from St. Petersburg saying that immediately upon the arrival of Princess Alix at Livadia tomorrow the ceremonies of her reception into the Orthodox church will take place and her marriage to the Czar will be at once quietly celebrated.
