CUT THE SHIP INTO TWO PARTS

THE STEAMSHIP PARIS IN A COL-LISION AT SEA.

The Crew of the Sailing Vessel Sent to a Watery Grave With but a Moment's Warning—Not Even the Name of the Lost Ship Known.

SOUTHAMPTON, Eng., Oct. 25.—The steamer Paris, from New York, which arrived last night, reports having encountered terrific weather with mountainous seas. On the morning of October 24, at 1:30 o'clock during the height of the storm, she came into collision, 80 miles west from the Scilly islands, with a full rigged ship, the name of which it was impossible to learn. The officers of the Paris believe the sailing vessel was cut completely in two. The Paris stood by for five hours until daybreak with her boats in readiness to rescue any of the crew of the unfortunate vessel, but saw no trace of the ship.

The vessel was struck amidships and thought must have foundered immediately, all hands on board going down with her. The lookout on board the Paris believes the sunken vessel to have been a ship of about 2,500 tons. She was not seen until the Paris was so close to her that it was impossible to avert the collision. The bow plates of the Paris were slightly indented, but otherwise she was not injured.

IN A REPUBLICAN STRONGHOLD.

A Very Small Turnout in the Duke's Honor.

MARS HILL, N. C., Oct. 25.—This has been the grandest day for Crawford and Democracy ever witnessed in the Republican county of Madison. At an early hour this morning we were met at Whitt's store midway between here and Marshall by a large cavalcade of horsemen, and by the time we reached Mars Hill the procession was over three quarters of a mile long.

Pearson sent men out in every direction last night to drum up a crowd, but it would have made his lieutenant, Harrison Brown, red behind the ears to have seen it with Dr. Harris at the head. The Doctor had his few men in line, and when the great Crawford procession passed you could have seen faces 18 inches long with turning your head. By and by Pearson drove up with his little handful of men, and after driving under the Crawford banner, quietly retired to his hotel and took a dose of some kind of nervine.

Pearson was expecting a grand uprising of the people at Marshall yesterday, and early in the morning went up to Gen. Pritchard's to wait for the boys to call on and escort him to the court house at the proper time. But when the hour for speaking arrived, W. W. Rollins, who is always present on such occasions, was appointed a committee to show the Duke down town again.

If Pearson carries Madison county this year he will have to shell out the money, and that before the ballots are deposited.
Crawford's speech here was one that will be remembered by the good people of Mars Hill for years. Pearson's little three-legged platform would not stand on the hills of Madison county, where pure Republicanism has stood king for so many years. He made a desperate outlaugh on the Catholic church and tried to prejudice the Christian people against Crawford, but he made a complete failure and the crowd went away disgusted with his effort.

This closes the campaign in Madison and from the best information I can gather, the Democrats have never been in better shape. G. W. T.

FELL DEAD.

Death at Canton—Personal Mil-Social.

CANTON, N. C., Oct. 24.—Mrs. Betsy Chambers, aged 86 years, fell dead at the breakfast table this morning after having assisted in preparing the meal.
C. J. Jeffers and family have returned to their home in South Boston, Va., after a visit of two weeks here.

Jack Mann has returned home from Evansville, Ind., where he has lived for the past four years.

Thompson's mills will be running entirely by Monday. There is a good and room for a set of rollers also, should anyone desire to put in such machinery.
The gearing of the mills, formerly so popular, will be all new.

Many straw-rides, candy stews, etc., occupy the time of the young people these evenings.

Mr. J. H. Hensens, one of Murphy's oldest citizens, and for many years has been hotel keeper there, died this morning (24th) of paralysis.

THE 'VARSITY' WINS.

And These Boys Will be Here to Play Saturday.

CHAPEL HILL, N. C., Oct. 25.—[Special.]—In the game for the State championship, played at Chapel Hill, between the University of North Carolina and Trinity College, the University won by a score of 28 to 0.

Twenty-five minutes' halves were played. The game was skillfully played and well umpired. There was no slugging or ungentlemanly playing, and no player was so hurt as to retire from the field.

Bankville, Guyon, Collier, Moore, Denson, Stephens and Slocum played brilliant for the University. Durham and Maytabby did the best playing for Trinity.

It Was Built to Kill.
BREST, France, Oct. 25.—While the cruiser Arethuse was testing her engines today preparatory to sailing for the East in order to reinforce the French squadron in Chinese waters, a boiler explosion took place on board, killing six men and badly scalding 20 others.

A Green Goods Man Landed.
PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 25.—Seiba King of Georgia, the green goods steerer, charged with a conspiracy to cheat William L. Fulton of Savannah, Ga., out of $350, was convicted yesterday and sentenced to imprisonment to two years in the Eastern penitentiary.

He Waves It Off.
NEW YORK, Oct. 25.—Congressman Edward J. Duquoy of the eighth district has declined the nomination of the New York State Democracy for Congress.

ONLY A SUGGESTION.

But a Marine Hospital May Grow Out OF IT.

Asheville, the heart of the Land of the Sky, the city that more than any place of its size in the country has been written about and talked about because of its glorious climate, its inducements to the health-seeker, and its universal air of push, may be selected as the place for a new government building, the location of which will mean much for the city.
Just what it is to be told in Robert M.
Lynch's Washington letter to the Charleston News and Courier. In printing the item the paper headed it, "Did he never hear of Summerville?" He probably did; but he thought more of Asheville. But to the story:

There is to be established at Asheville, N. C., a hospital under the direction of the marine hospital service, for the treatment of consumptives in the marine service. Surgeon General Wyman, who has the matter in hand, will recommend an appropriation for the purchase of a suitable building for the purpose. He has had the subject under consideration for a long time, and he has finally concluded that Asheville, with its health-giving climate and surroundings, is the most desirable place in the South to locate such an institution.

It appears, however, that the News and Courier correspondent was too fast. THE CITIZEN sent a telegram of inquiry to Washington this morning and received this answer:

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 25.—[Special.] —Walter Wyman, supervising surgeon-general of the marine hospital service, Washington, has visited Asheville and is very favorably impressed, but the establishment of a marine hospital there is only a suggestion. No definite steps have been taken yet. W. F. Tompkins.

CRIMINAL COURT.

New Attorneys Admitted—A View of the Circus Parade.

The Sumner-Lance affray case was given to the jury in the Criminal court about 11 o'clock this morning. About noon a verdict was rendered finding the defendants guilty. The attorneys for the Lances moved for a new trial, and the hearing of this motion will come up tomorrow.

Messrs. Mark Erwin, Zeb Weaver, and Robert M. Wells, recently licensed as attorneys at law, were sworn and admitted to practice in this court. Judge Jones welcomed the new disciples of Blackstone in a few words, which included the remark that "misery loves company."

A. M. Penland, who heretofore submitted on a charge of assault, was fined a penny and costs.

In the case of Robert Abernethy, a charge with assault with a deadly weapon, the grand jury ignored the bill and Abernethy was discharged.

State vs. Will McIntire and Bad Mc-Bee, affray; defendants submitted and judgment suspended on payment of costs.
The case of State vs. W. A. Hines, a charge with deadly weapon, in which there was a mistrial last term, is on trial.

Judge Jones adjourned court for 15 minutes in order to allow the Sumner-Lance jury to see the circus parade, which passed around the court house.
The Judge was interested in the show, especially the sacred llama and the music, and fined nobody for playing near the temple of justice.

MRS. MARINO'S CASE.

She Had About $40 When She Reached Chattanooga—Her Divorce.

Poor Mrs. Hulda Marino, the Swedish woman who was poisoned in Chattanooga by her own hand, probably with suicidal intent, had with her when she reached that city about $40. She represented to one lady that she was a widow, had seen better times, and it almost broke her heart to have to manage as closely as she did. She was very reluctant. She told that she had a box of effects on the way from New York, and that they would come to Asheville.
Tuesday's Chattanooga Times prints a picture of Mrs. Marino, which is pronounced by Asheville people who knew her as a good likeness. A dispatch to that paper from Chicago says:

"She was married to Joseph F. Marino, the divorcee bill says, in 1879, and lived with him for five years. They resided somewhere on Randolph street, and her husband was employed in the southside cable shops. In July, 1884, according to the charge, Joseph deserted his wife and made no further provision for her support. Their married life had not been happy and Mrs. Marino complained that her husband was accustomed to come home intoxicated and beat her. After several unsuccessful attempts to live happily he finally disappeared and was not seen afterwards." The divorce was granted without opposition September 27, 1889.

THE W. N. C. DIVISION.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., Oct. 24.—In reference to the Western North Carolina division of the Southern becoming a part of the Western system Mr. Spencer said here yesterday that nothing in that direction had yet been done, but when it suited the convenience of the Southern that portion of the division in question from Point Rock to Asheville would be added to the Western system.

TO TRY TO REVIVE ASHEVILLE.

BRUNSWICK, Oct. 25.—Application for a charter for the High Point Cumberland Island company has been made. The capital stock is to be $3,000,000. The company will transform its thousands of acres of lands on Cumberland Island into the finest all year round resort in America, and will erect a hotel to rival in magnificence the famous St. Augustine hostelries.

HE CAN GO BACK NOW.

DUNKIRK, N. Y., Oct. 25.—Requisition papers for the return to Virginia of Morganfield, the express robber under arrest in Cincinnati, were signed by Governor McKinley at Ashtabula, Ohio, at 3 o'clock this morning.

COMMANDER EVELYN DEAD.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 25.—Commander William Evelyn is dead, aged 73. He was appointed to the naval academy from Virginia. His last command was on the receiving ship Independence stationed at Mare Island.

THE CZAR NO BETTER.

ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 25.—A bulletin from Livadia at 11 o'clock this morning says the Czar's condition is unchanged.

HILL SHAKES HIS HEAD SADLY

HE HAS NO WORD FROM PRESI-DENT CLEVELAND.

The Tangle in the Political Situation in New York No Nearer Being Straightened Than Ever—Grace Asks Too Much—Tammany Won't Yield.

NEW YORK, Oct. 25.—No endorsement of Senator Hill's candidacy has so far been received at Democratic State headquarters from President Cleveland. If it is dependent upon the settlement of the Congressional difficulty it may never come. Senator Faulkner left for Washington today, apparently satisfied that his work for reconciliation had amounted to nothing. Vice-President Stevenson is expected in the city about five o'clock this afternoon. He will be entertained at the Manhattan club.

Whether the fault of failing to secure harmony lies with Mr. Grace or the Tammany people cannot be definitely ascertained. Mr. Grace asked for more than Tammany was willing to give. It is still thought that Mr. Grace will withdraw some of his Congressional candidates.

When Senator Hill was asked today if he expected to hear from President Cleveland he shook his head and said: "I really cannot tell you."

SUPREME COURT DECISIONS.

Opinions on Two Cases Sent Up From Buncombe.

The Supreme court has filed an opinion in the case of Whitesides vs. Cooper, from Buncombe, affirming the decision of the lower court. John B. Whitesides made a will in which he provided that his wife should have an estate for her life in certain lands in the village of Ramoth and gave to his seven sons the remainder interest therein in fee, subject to be divided as to such said sons as should die before the wife. The sons, before the death of the wife, undertook to have a partition of the lands, and the same were sold by a decree of the court as theirs for this purpose, and were purchased by persons under whom C. S. Cooper and others claim. Some of the sons died before the wife, and the court now holds that as to those sons dying before the wife no title was conveyed to said purchasers. M. E. Carter represented the plaintiffs and F. A. Sondley the defendants in the Supreme court.

The Supreme court dismisses the petition to rehear in the case of Penniman Brook vs. B. I. Alexander, a suit involving payment for material furnished. The decision of the lower court was in favor of the plaintiffs.

A CRANK AFTER CLEVELAND.

He Once Called Out Emperor William to a Duel.

NEW YORK, Oct. 25.—A crank, and one of note, called this morning on Joseph Bryant, 53 West 36th street, where President Cleveland is stopping and demanded to see the President. The man's name is Richard Goerdeler. He is the same crank who some years ago wrote to Emperor William of Germany calling him to a duel.
Goerdeler went to Dr. Bryant's house about nine o'clock. Bryant reasoned with the crank and told him that it was impossible to see the President at that hour. Goerdeler was finally argued into going away.

ENTHUSIAST FOR WILSON.

He Speaks to Good Audiences on His West Virginia Telp.

PROCTOR, W. Va., Oct. 25.—Mr. Wilson's special train went down the Ohio River Valley today, the first stop out of Wheeling being made here. Mr. Wilson talked for five minutes on the tariff to 1,000 people. He spoke especially of cheaper woolen goods.

STEVENSVILLE, W. Va., Oct. 25.—At this place, the heart of the oil region, an enthusiastic crowd of 1,000 people were addressed by Senator Camden and Wil- son in 10 minutes speeches.

A BRAVE PRINCESS.

She Refuses For a Throne to Denounce Her Religion.

BERLIN, Oct. 25.—The Lokal Anzeiger prints a dispatch from Livadia confirming the report that Princess Alix steadfastly refuses to anathematise her former faith in obedience to the rights of the Orthodox Greek church, which requires such renunciation as a prerequisite to baptism. Even the efforts of the Czar have not been successful in shaking her determination.

WOSE THAN THE CHINESE.

An Earthquake Wins a Death Victory in Japan.

YOKOHAMA, Japan, Oct. 25.—Three thousand houses have been destroyed by a succession of violent earthquake shocks. So far as known, 250 lives have been lost and a large number of people injured.

AN ECHO FROM THE PAST.

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., Oct. 25.—Mrs. Rosetta Saffon, mother of the late millionaire banker, A. M. Saffon, is dead of old age. She was born in Virginia October 12, 1792. She retained her faculties to the last and remembered many things connected with the beginning of the century.

CONDENSED TELEGRAMS.

Hon. Patrick Walsh has no opposition for election to fill the unexpired term for Senator of Georgia, but for the long term there are four candidates: Hon.
A. O. Bacon, Hon. Patrick Walsh, Congressman H. G. Turner and Hon. L. F.
Garrard.

Secretary Hoke Smith today issued a general order that every body in the Interior Department shall be vaccinated forthwith, in view of the prevalence of small pox in Washington. The Secretary was inoculated two days ago.

A special from Sturgin, Ky., says: "A fearful and death dealing plague of diphtheria is raging opposite Caseyville, Illa., and coffins can hardly be furnished fast enough with which to bury the dead."

The President will soon go duck shooting on the lighthouse tender Violet. Secretary Carlisle will be his companion, and the hunting grounds of North Carolina and the Chesapeake Bay will be visited.
