MORE ASSOCIATION LITERATURE

INTERESTING SAMPLE OF "HOME ARTISTS" LETTERS.

The President, J. C. Howard, had not this afternoon given the $1,000 bond required by the U. S. Commissioner.

The president of the "Universal Association of Home Artists," J. C. Howard, had not at 2:30 this afternoon furnished the $1,000 bond required of him by U. S.
Commissioner Summey.

Some of the "Universal association's" literature has come to THE CITIZEN in the shape of a letter sent by Howard to a gentleman in Hancock, Mich., who is designated as No. 70115. The letter, dated August 21, 1894, follows:

"Good news. Your name now stands at the head of our list of eligible home artists—that is you will be the next eligible home artist to be employed on a salary as per our Form 2, home artists contract at $87.50 a month, guaranteeing you steady employment.

"We do not always pay this price to beginners, but as you have come on the demand for shading pen work is so great that we have to offer special inducements in order to secure more home artists. I trust, therefore, you will not hesitate, but send in your order immediately.

"Probably I show a little partiality in writing this letter and advising you of your good fortune, as I do not write to all the members, but your work was so promising and your penmanship so neat that I felt it my duty to write, so that you might know just how you stand with the association.

"Our gentlemen members are delighted with their positions as home artists and when they once take up the work they never think for a moment of dropping it.
We do not ask our home artists to work ten hours a day, nor in fact do we ask them to work very hard at all. All we ask of them is to execute the work which we send them, and for which we pay cash as soon as it is finished.

"Please write us immediately as to your decision in regard to the matter, as it is quite important that every number should be taken. I feel safe in saying that you will never regret becoming our home artist, and you are now in a position which is greatly coveted, and eagerly sought for by those who are trying to learn the use of the shading pen.

"Write me by return mail, and I trust you will send in your order with your letter. You can also send with your remittance your best specimen of block shaded alphabet, as we may be able to give you a small contract in the near future.

"Trusting you will not delay the matter, but order your outfit at once, I remain, yours very kindly,

"J. C. Howard, Pres't.

With this a letter, marked "Important. Read this carefully." It is headed "This is a copy of the original letter," and is dated Bustard's Shatt, Steubenville, O. August 20, 1894, addressed to Howard. The letter says:

"My Dear Sir:—I received your draft for $10, for which please accept my thanks. I also received the other lot of 100 text sheets which I will complete and send back as soon as possible. I am more than satisfied with the association. You have fulfilled your contract to the letter, and I was surprised to find how soon I received work from you. I have written and answered every advertisement for good writers that I ever read, and I believe you are the best firm in America that actually employ writers to write at home. I can recommend you to anybody as honest and true to your promises. I am supporting a large family with what I receive from you.

"I enclose a paragraph signed by the association:

"Persons writing Miss Travis must enclose a self-addressed, stamped envelope with paper in it for a reply. Miss Travis is one of the many who write us encouraging letters. What she can do you can do also. All we ask of you is a trial."

G. A. R. INVESTIGATIONS.

Misdirecting the Appropriation of Funds is Alleged.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Oct. 31.—The charges publicly made by department commander Watrous of the G. A. R. of Milwaukee with reference to the conduct of Phil. Kearney Post of Richmond, Va., in misdirecting funds contributed by veterans to defray the expenses of decorating graves of Union soldiers in the South, have resulted in an investigation being instituted by Commander-in-Chief Lawler as directed by the national encampment. Lawler has appointed the following committee to make a thorough investigation: John C. Linehan, Pensacola; Robert Boles of Macon, Ga.; and W. R. Manning of Newton, Iowa.

KILLED IN A COLLISION.

The Accident caused by an Open Switch
—The Injured.

SCRANTON, Pa., Oct. 31.—Three persons were killed and a dozen injured at Foster, 27 miles north of here on the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western railroad at 1 o'clock this morning. The accident was caused by an open switch, into which a through express train dashed while running at a high speed, crashing into the rear of a freight train which had taken the siding to allow the express to pass.

The killed were Engineer Lynatt and Fireman Elmer Scull of the coal train, and Engineer Valentine Butler of the passenger train.

AN EMPRESS' SUICIDE.

The Chinese Emperor's Slipped His Wife And She Quit.

NEW YORK, Oct. 31.—The Herald's Shanghai special says the young Empress of China has committed suicide.
She was rebuked by the Emperor who slapped her face, whereupon she took poison.

Governor Flower on His Campaign.

ALBANY, N. Y., Oct. 30.—Governor Flower set out today upon his six days of political campaigning through the State. His first stop on his way westward to Buffalo was at Schenectady.
He spoke for ten minutes, controverting the statements made by McKinley at that place. At Amsterdam Governor Flower had an audience of about a thousand people. His address there was in the same line as the one at Schenectady.

MURDER IN THE FIRST DEGREE

BILLY McDANIEL AND HENRY WEBB FOUND GUILTY.

The Case Given to the Jury Late in the Afternoon, and a Verdict Rendered at One O'clock Today—The Boys' Crime.

Billy McDaniel and Henry Webb, colored, have been found guilty by a jury of 12 men good and true of the crime of murder in the first degree, the penalty of which is death.

The case against these boys, for such they are, neither being over 19 years of age, was given to the jury in the Criminal court at 4:15 yesterday afternoon after the closing speech had been made by Solicitor Carter, and Judge Jones had delivered the charge.

At 9:30 this morning the jury had not agreed and the court proceeded with other business. A large crowd remained in the court room to await the verdict, but it was not until nearly 1 o'clock that the twelve agreed. They entered the room and in reply to the question if they had agreed answered in the affirmative. Through W. B. Clayton, its foreman, the jury made answer:

"Guilty of murder in the first degree."

The counsel for the defence demanded that the jury be polled. This was done, and each juror as called gave the same answer.

Judge Jones recalled the jury as it was leaving the box and started to speak of the righteousness of the verdict, when Attorney Chas. A. Webb interposed an objection, saying that if a new trial were granted the words of the court might prejudice the case, and Judge Jones thereupon withdrew the remarks. A motion for a new trial was made, and the noon recess was taken.

On August 20 McDaniel and Webb went to the house of Hannah Winters, colored, in Happy Hollow. In the house was Charley Erwin, a colored lad who had apparently displaced Mc-Daniel in the affections of the Winters woman. Webb called Erwin to the door and as the boy responded McDaniel fired twice at him. Erwin started for the rear door and McDaniel fired two more shots. Erwin fell out of the door and rolled almost into the branch which runs in the rear of the house. Erwin died almost instantly. Webb and McDaniel were captured a few hours after the crime was committed, at Biltmore.

In the case of A. F. Causey, who recently injured his wife near Fairview, the defendant's bond was reduced by Judge Jones to $500.

State vs. Amos Patterson and Lon Carson, larceny, heretofore convicted; Patterson was sentenced to six months in the chain gang. In the case of Carson, the defendant consented to the prayer for judgment to be continued.

A rule was taken for R. T. Poor, constable, to show why he had allowed John Gibson to escape.

State vs. C. J. Alston and Jim Alexander, larceny and receiving; a verdict of guilty was returned to in the case of Alexander. Alston's case is on trial.

RETURNS THE $100.

Col. Turk Writes That It Was Collected
Under a Misapprehension.

Nat. S. Rogers, secretary of the citizens' committee which had in charge the arrangements for the recent meeting of the American Pharmaceutical association in Asheville, has received the following letter from Col. W. A. Turk, general passenger agent of the Southern railway, under date October 27:

"I beg to say that the $100 collected for the two movements, Biltmore and the Vanderbilt estate and return, accommodating delegates to the A. P. A. convention, was made under a misapprehension, and I take pleasure in advising you that I will make voucher for $100 in your favor, as secretary of the citizens' committee, which should reach you about November 15."

WILL VOTE FOR HENDERSON.

Isaac Rice, a Lifelong Republican of Madison County.

THE CITIZEN had a pleasant call today from Isaac Rice, of Briggsville, Madison county. Mr. Rice has been a Republican all his life, but he is a strong admirer of Chas. A. Henderson, one of the Democratic candidates for the State Senate, and called to say that he intended to put in a ballot on the 6th of November for Mr. Henderson.

Senatorial Candidates Here.

The Senatorial candidates will speak in the court house Saturday at noon.
Every Democrat should turn out and give Messrs. Craig and Henderson a great welcoming audience. Reports of the way Mr. Craig completely handles Moody have come in from every quarter and this appointment will afford a good opportunity for seeing how well it is done.

Appeal For Irish Political Prisoners.

DUBLIN, Oct. 29.—Mr. John Morley, secretary for Ireland, received today a deputation which had called upon him to demand the release of the Irish political prisoners now confined in Irish and English prisons. Mr. Morley informed the deputation that the cabinet had decided that the law must take its course. He would never release these prisoners, as the decision in the cabinet might be considered.

Burned to Death.

STOCKHOLM, Sweden, Oct. 31.—An asylum for the insane at Jonkolping has been destroyed by fire. Fifteen of the inmates were burned to death.

CONDENSED TELEGRAMS.

Rev. Dr. Washington Gladden investigated the labor situation at Columbus, O., and found that more men are employed than last year; that the number employed is rapidly increasing and that a day's wages will buy as much as in 1892.

Charles Beattie, brother of Admiral Beattie of the English navy, died at Mobile, Ala., Tuesday morning from heart disease.

A Berlin telegram says Prince Hohenlohr Langenburg has been appointed governor of Alsace Lorraine.

The president has appointed to be postmaster H. D. Floyd, vice S. T. Poiner, at Spartanburg, S. C.

Chicago has 313,676 voters; New York, 308,401.

THE SITUATION IN NEW YORK

HILL AND HIS MEN CONFIDENT OF VICTORY.

Speaker Crisp to Talk to the Democracy of New York State, Having Cancelled His Other Engagements to do It—The Betting.

NEW YORK, Oct. 31.—The Hill men are as confident as ever, referring with satisfaction to the personal fight their candidate is making and to the enthusiasm with which he is being received by his supporters. Most of them, however, do not seek to conceal their disappointment or anger that his candidacy has not received open and active encouragement from the national administration. The Republicans abate none of their claim, and insist that, with the general Republican tendency this year and the Democratic defection from Hill, the latter will be snowed under.

There has been but little betting so far in the campaign, but the representatives of wagers at the stock exchange and elsewhere show odds on Morton, not infrequently of two to one.

Smaller odds are given on Strong against Grant, the perfection of the Tammany organization throughout the city making the supporters of the committee of 70 rather cautious about risking their money, however much they anticipate a great anti-Tammany uprising.

The Hill Democrats are pleased by the announcement that Speaker Crisp of the House of Representatives, has cancelled engagements in order to speak in this city or Brooklyn. They were also much pleased by a letter from Hill from Chauncey F. Black, chairman of the national league of Democratic clubs. The fact that Col. Strong made brief speeches at a number of meetings this afternoon in the downtown eastside districts is regarded with much favor by the practical politicians who are allied with the committee of voters, as they think it will have a good effect on a class of voters who always wish to see their candidate and know something of his personality.

THE CZAR DYING.

Announcement of His Death Expected at Any Moment.

LONDON, Oct. 31.—A dispatch to the Pall Mall Gazette this afternoon from Livadia says that the Czar is dying. His left lung is so seriously inflamed that all hope has been abandoned and news of his death may be expected at any moment.

ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 31.—An official bulletin issued at 10 o'clock this morning says that the Czar slept for a few hours last night, and that the bleeding has somewhat subsided. Otherwise the condition of the patient is not changed.
The bulletin is signed by the physicians in attendance upon his majesty.

MARRIED IN OCTOBER.

Wedding of Prominent Persons in Washington—The Cabinet There.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31.—William Leonard Davis of New York and Miss Mattie Thompson, daughter of ex-Congressman Phil. Thompson of Kentucky, were married at noon today at the residence of Secretary Carlisle. Members of the cabinet with their wives, a large number of people prominent in official circles and many from New York and Kentucky witnessed the ceremony. This afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Davis left for Turin, O. T., to spend their honeymoon. Later they will go to Colorado Springs for the winter.

SEVERE RUNAWAY.

R. Q. McCracken May Not Recover—
Will Penland Injured.

CANTON, N. C., Oct. 30.—Yesterday afternoon R. Q. McCracken and Will Penland, son of Reed Penland, were driving on Upper Pigeon when the horse ran away. Penland's arm was broken, and Mr. McCracken sustained severe injuries on the head, rendering him unconscious. He was still so this morning. It is feared that he cannot recover.

Mr. McCracken was a candidate for Clerk of Superior Court, but had demonstrated convention, and had served a term as Register of Deeds for Haywood county.

Much Fire, Little Water.

NEW BURYPORT, Mass., Oct. 31.—11 a. m.—Fire is raging on both sides of Water street. Dodge & Co.'s shoe factory is burning and part has been destroyed. The fire threatens great damage, owing to a short supply of water.

Later—Burley and Uppers shoe factory and the Newburyport car works were destroyed. Loss, $150,000; insurance, $100,000.

Now, Tillman.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 30.—The attorney general of the United States holds "that the provisions of the South Carolina dispensary law of 1893 must be regarded as ineffective as against distilled liquors held in a United States bonded warehouse under the control of the collector of internal revenue."

IN THE OLD NORTH STATE.

An interesting trial has been in progress in the Superior court in Raleigh. F. W. Haynes of that city, who married a daughter of Chang Bunker, one of the Siamese twins, sued the Raleigh Gas and Electric Light company for $10,000 damages for the killing of his young son, a newspaper carrier, who was killed there two years ago while carrying papers.

—Dr. William J. Hawkins of Raleigh died recently at Jefferson medical hospital, Philadelphia. He was 78 years of age, and was a native of Franklin county, N. C. His family is a very prominent one. For many years he was president of the Raleigh and Gaston railway. He was for a time also president of the Raleigh and Augusta Airline.
He leaves a fortune closely estimated at $300,000.

—Joe Haynes, a whiskey distiller at Mt. Airy, waylaid and shot Emmett Atkins, who had given information to the revenue officers. Atkins is fatally hurt. Haynes escaped.

—Ex-Governor Holt has entered the campaign and makes his first speech at Greensboro today.

—The State Guard encampment fund of $4,000 was all used this year as a report made shows.

—Raleigh's local cotton receipts this season are 10,765 bales, against 8,442 last season.
