WEBB AND McDANIEL SENTENCED

FRIDAY, JANUARY 11, THE DAY FIXED FOR THEIR EXECUTION.

Judge Jones Pronounced Sentence On the Murderers of Charley Erwin In the Criminal Court—Appeal to the Supreme Court.

Criminal court convened until noon today for the consideration of business not requiring a jury, and the most important work was the sentencing of Billy Mc-Daniel and Henry Webb, the colored boys who were convicted last week of the murder of Charley Erwin.

About 11:30 Judge Jones commanded absolute silence in the court room. A very unusual scene was about to be enacted, and the judge showed in his face a full appreciation of the solemnity of the occasion. There was a crowd in the court room and all turned their heads from judge to prisoners and watched the proceedings interestedly.

Solicitor Eug. D. Carter, rising, asked the judgment of the court in case 137, against McDaniel and Webb.

Clerk Young made formal proclamation, enjoining the crowd to keep silence upon pain of imprisonment.

Judge Jones commanded McDaniel to stand up, which the prisoner did, betraying very little feeling. In response to the judge's question as to had any reasons why sentence should not be pronounced upon him, McDaniel said something that sounded like "I am prepared to die."

Attorney Henry B. Stevens answered that there were no reasons. Then Judge Jones began the sentence.

"It is now my melancholy duty," he said, "to pronounce sentence. I will not lecture you; that is not for me to do. If you want consolation or comfort you can get it from men more capable of giving it than I am."

The judgment of the court he then delivered: that McDaniel should be taken in charge by John A. Brookshire, sheriff of Buncombe county, to be safely kept in the common jail until Friday, January 11, 1895, on which day, between the hours of 12 m. and 3 p. m. he should be taken thence to the place of execution and there hanged by the neck until you are dead, dead, dead. And may the Lord have mercy on your soul."

Henry Webb was called to stand up, and when asked if he had any reasons why sentence should not be pronounced, began in a tremulous voice, while he appeared about to weep, by saying he was not guilty of the crime with which he was charged, and he would like to have a new chance for his life. "I did not know," he pleaded, "that he [Erwin] was going to be killed, and it's awfully hard to have to die for something I didn't do."

Chas. A. Webb, esq., one of the prisoner's attorneys, then made a plea for a new trial. Judge Jones having stated that Webb was not guilty and could secure a new trial, no one would be gladder than he. Mr. Webb thought the new trial would never be granted, unless Judge Jones granted it. The judge said if any important evidence could be gathered he would consider the question of granting a new trial, but could not take the prisoner's declarations as the only reason for granting it. He finally declined a new trial, and the second man to receive his sentence, which was similar to that of McDaniel. Webb heard his sentence with arms folded.

The crowd started to disperse but stopped as Judge Jones said: "Wait a minute. I want to say a few words to the young men who have heard this trial and the sentence. Let it have some effect on you. You boys who are addicted to whiskey and fast women, for God's sake let this case have weight with you. The defendants are in your custody. Mr. Sheriff.

An appeal has been taken to the Supreme court in the McDaniel-Webb case.
Saturday in the Criminal Court Perry Hunt was convicted of larceny from Henry M. Steele, and sentenced to two years in the county jail.

Chas. Arner submitted on a charge of assault with deadly weapon, and was sent to the roads for six months.
"Dumps" Lane paid his fine of $200 and costs, about $40, and gave bond to appear next term and show he had not violated the law.

The rule against Constable R. T. Poor to show cause why he had allowed a prisoner to escape, was dismissed.
The jury was dismissed till Wednesday morning.

YOUNG PRIZE WINNERS.
Awards Made at the Chrysanthemum Exhibition Saturday.

The exhibition of chrysanthemums by children who were given plants last spring by the Idlewild Floral company, occurred at the Y. M. C. A. hall Saturday afternoon. Three prizes were awarded for the best grown of these plants, and the prizes were won as follows: First, $5, Mary Carr; second, $2.50, Cena Stevens; third, $1, Clara Whittington. The judges were Mrs. J.
B. Steele, Mrs. C. W. Woolsey and R. G.
Gould, and the prizes given away.

less than 50 were returned. Receipts at the door and from the sale of plants by auction amounted to $7.50, which will be donated to the Children's Home at Liberty Hill.

D. M. Luther speaks there Saturday Evening.

D. M. Luther, esq., spoke to a large crowd at Liberty Hill, Upper Hominy township, Saturday evening, and divided time with W. G. Candler, who said he would make a Prohibition speech, but evidently forgot what he had said. Mr.
Luther showed up Republican misrule in North Carolina in its true form, and made a long discussion. In replying to remarks on Swenson, Mr. Candler said he with a committee had followed Swepson to New York; and, he asked, "who do you suppose we found with him?" A boy in the audience answered: "Sarah Taylor!"

The exclamation caused a laugh that came near stopping the proceedings.

In Justice Carter's Court.

Robert Sams and E. L. Hunt had an altercation Saturday night in which a stick and a knife figured. Sams cut a man of the name of Hunt, but not the one he had the trouble with. The knife struck a rib, and this prevented a dangerous blow. Sams is under bond to appear before Justice Frank Carter Thursday in a preliminary hearing.

James Stevenson, white, and Cal Miller, colored, had an affray Saturday night, and their hearing was set for this afternoon before Justice Carter.

GOOD DEMOCRATIC WEATHER.
Mud and snow in Northern New York State.

SARANAC LAKE, N. Y., Nov. 5.—A heavy snow storm has raged in this vicinity since 3 o'clock this morning. It is now four inches deep, which will make roads deep in mud and almost impassable.

Caught in the Act.
This morning Mr. Randall, who is in charge of the Hazard house on Bear-mont, discovered a man breaking into the house, and captured him. In doing so, the housebreaker was shot in the hip and legs, but not hurt seriously. He proved to be a colored man named Avery, janitor of the City Hall.
He went to the scene in response to a telephone message for an officer, but before he reached there the man had been brought down in Dr. Battle's buggy and placed in jail.

KITCHEN BACK IN THE PARTY

SICKENED ON THE POI-RAD, COM-BINATION.

The Entire Populist Ticket Withdrawn in Halifax County—Republicans Coming Off Their Ticket—Coalition Going to Pieces Fast.

RALEIGH, N. C., Nov. 3.—A telegram received here today says ex-Congressman Kitchen and the entire Populist ticket in Halifax have withdrawn and that Kitchen will support the regular Democratic ticket in Halifax. He repeatedly stated during the campaign that he would support the Democratic State ticket. His act was not unexpected by the Democrats.

In an interview tonight Chairman Pou said evidences were strong of a breaking-down of fusion; that respectable Populists are coming down from the ticket in various counties; that some R. publicans are coming down in each county, and that in Johnson county only one man, white or colored, could be found to acknowledge that he would vote for the full fusion ticket. He says positively that the Democrats will carry Wake county.

There was a great gathering of Democrats at Morganton Saturday, one of the largest during the entire campaign in the State, and Burke county will give 400 to 500 majority. Pou is positive of Cook's election in this district.—Charlotte Observer.

ALL EYES TURNED ON NEW YORK both Sides Now Claim the State As Safe.

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—All eyes are upon the Empire State. With every condition favoring a sweeping Republican victory one month ago David B. Hill has thrown himself into the breach and attempted to stop the tide.

He has made a campaign that will be memorable for years to come. He undoubtedly greatly diminished the avalanche of votes which was going to the Hon. Levi P. Morton.

Whether he has changed the tide or not will be known Tuesday night.
Should he win, his untiring fight for Democracy has raised him in the estimation of most people, irrespective of party.

The Sheperdists and anti-Hill men have kept Everett P. Wheeler in the race but he will draw only a few thousand votes and his candidacy is not expected to effect the result.

The betting is in favor of Morton at odds of 10 to 7, and many heavy wingers have been laid that Morton's plurality will exceed 25,000.

The Democratic managers declare themselves satisfied that Hill will be elected. Claims of a 10,000 or 20,000 plurality are made and the enthusiastic receptions given the Senator are pointed out as certain indications all over the State.

MORE JAPANESE VICTORIES.
Driving the Chinese Before Them Like Sheep.

YOKOHAMA, Nov. 5.—Advices received here from the front show that there has been heavy fighting in the country just north of Port Arthur. Kinchow, which is a walled town and which was believed to be held by a large garrison, was attacked Saturday. The Chinese made little further resistance and the Japanese fleet which had conveyed transports opened a heavy fire on Talienwan and Hayenko. The firing scarcely ceased for many hours. Covered by the fire from the ships the land force attacked and captured Talienwan in a brilliant fashion.

LONDON, Nov. 5.—A Central News dispatch from Tokio under date of today says that nothing has yet been heard there regarding the operations of the Japanese at Port Arthur. All fear that the Chinese will raid the Japanese coast has been abandoned. Orders have been issued to remove the torpedoes from Tokio Bay.

CLEVELAND WRITES A LETTER.
It Does Not Say I'll, But It Reads Democratic.

ALBION, N. Y., Nov. 5.—Robert L.
Thacher of this place, a life long Democrat and friend of President Cleveland, today made public a letter received by him from President Cleveland in answer to one written by Mr. Thacher to the President upon the political situation.
In his letter President Cleveland said:

"I am enough of a Democrat myself and have enough faith in the Democracy of those who profess allegiance to our party to believe that in the face of the common enemy we shall present a united and solid front."

W. L. Wilson's Chances.

FAIRMONT, W. Va., Nov. 5.—The Democratic leaders claim William L. Wilson's election and seem much encouraged by the large meeting he had here, but give no figures on his plurality. Considering that Wilson carried the district two years ago by 1051 plurality and taking the views of both sides it looks very much as if chances were equal today.

Republican War Horse Dead.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 5.—Wm. R. Leeds, for nearly 30 years a prominent figure in Pennsylvania and national politics, and for nearly a quarter of a century one of the Republican leaders in this city, died this morning.

CONDENSED TELEGRAMS.

Mrs. Jefferson Davis denies again that her daughter, Miss Winnie Davis, is in favor of woman suffrage, and also a rumor that she had said she would be a Republican if she had a vote.

Princess Alice was received formally into the Orthodox church of Russia, Saturday. After the ceremony she exchanged rings with her betrothed, the Emperor Nichols.

The presence of Mrs. W. K. Vanderbilt's lawyer in Newport gives rise to the rumor that she is preparing to begin a divorce suit.

At Raleigh, N. C., Charles Walton fatally stabbed James Davis. Both colored. Walton had killed one man before.

John Walter, proprietor of the London Times, died Saturday.
