

Statesville

Morganton Marion Round Knot

Newton. Hickory

Jas, H. Loughran, Prop.

NO. 58 SOUTH MAIN STREET, - - ASHEVILLE, N. C.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES: DAILY One Year. Six Months Three Months. One Months. One Week, paid to carriers. THE WEEKLY CITIZES, issued Wednesday, in advance, $1.

asylum is now 187

oth tals and bear.

Taylor

Subscribers who miss their papers are requested to make complaint at the office as soon as possible.

THE ASHEVILLE DAILY CITIZEN

KINTED DAILY (EXCEPT SUNDAY) AND WEEKLY

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 6, 1894.

At one time there was a good deal of talk about building a road from Spartanburg to Hendersonville, but the pro-ject fell through,-Wilmington Star.

ing made two'or three journeys over the "road from Spartanburg to Henderson ville" were under the impression that the road was built, opened, in fact, in the road was built, opened, in fact, in him twice. Hanes made his escape. 1874

A SLANDER.

The Hendersonville Times suis:

"The Asheville Register published last week a powerful half-page cartoon rep-resenting the disgraceful whoping of Sarah Taylor, a white woman, who was stripped to the whist and lished upon her nased back in a most ornel and in-human manner. The off rise for which she was thus fortured was her use sile refused to do heavy minimal labor unsuited to a woman

The campaign is a thing of the post, and perhaps the Times, with other doabove the counting of the ballots.

One material statement in the Links' One material statement in the Lines' mg intravement of buildings and comment is accurate-that the R gister crounds were $4,000. Secretary Aver did publish a halt page cartoon-the rest is rubbish, full of half-truths more misleading than many out-and-out his.

The woman was not stripped to the fair is bearing the finest results. walst. She was not whisped in a cruel and inhuman manner. She was not tortured, and she was not asked to do Let the Weired and Malevolent som heavy manual labor.

The State of North Carolina ought not send anything in the shape of woman to the road, to be about or near a convict thought the war was long since over camp; the thing is wrong on its face; a We had supposed its passions were mistake there is no excuse for ever make dead and its minnosities had given was ill-treated, or that she was morally contaminated or physically injured in disappeared from the learts of our Capt. White's convict camp the editor prople as they had disappeared from

of the Register knows to be not the fact. The accordant beautiful land. We had The editor of the Register sin ply chose haid to our souls the dittering unction as a citizen of Bancombe county and the that the blue and the gray had clasped conductor of a compaign paper to so hands tenderly and sincerely in the new pervert and misrepresent the facts in this made love of a partect reconciliation, honest men of something worse than lying: he was and is guilty of slandering the good name of a community; of injuring its fair name, and this, too, for the sake of securing a partian advander, fixe hostile ghosts, amid the tumultage for a candidate not of his own, or tuous and sanguinary scenes of that unany, political faith. The editor of the Register deliberately and repeatedly slandered his follow citizens, not to scener a reform, but to create the impression, be heaving a reference to the the bloody shot the value of the value of the bloody shot the value of the value of the bloody shot the value of the reference of the value of the value of the value of the value of the reference of the value of the valu a reform, but to create the impression, he knew was tabe, that Boncombe citi-zons of a certain political faith were in-different to suffering, carcless of their ob-ligations to society, and in the habit or countenancing the torture of criminals,

The cartoon of the Register and the accompanying comment form the black-est, most disgraceful part of a comparign fought by a few Republican leaders for negative partices, parge their souls of all bitter-negative partices, parge their souls of all bitter-negative partices and with the ideal personal advantage, and with no idea promoting a spirit of brotherhood and that they were either more competent or more popular in the eyes of the masses of the people to govern Buncombe r1-.

county and the State of North Carolina of people who are rushing themselves to min of health as fast as they can They not only rush but worry 201 and, between those two, subject their nervous systems to more year and tear

an anything short of wroment steel

NOV. 5, 6 & 7.