REPUBLICAN.

How the Day Went in New York-Disfranchisement of Voters-Some Consolution in the Extreme West and South, But Not Much.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7 .- (Special.)-The New York City election was remarkable for the general quiet that prevailed. Despite the intense party feeling that ran with great fierceness in every district from the Battery to Spuyten Dyvil, with the exception of a few ordinary encounters, there was no happening that could be called riotous in any section. Four of the districts watched by close observers resulted in no discoveries that were more striking than the ordinarily serious, determined mood the average voter seemed to be in. Men who never dream of taking breakfast before 9 o'clock in the morning were everywhere at the polls long before they were 'agally open for voters. They stood in the chilly air reading the city papers, calming waiting till the time came for business to begin. In the big districts on the west side

Thrash's Crystal Palace there were long lines of men who stood for hours without being able to get anywhere near the polls till two or three while Pearson's majorities are deemed hours after they had got a place in single files on the sidewalk. At one time in two to three hundred appears certain: some of the brown stone districts where the Republican strength was voting many of the voters became suspicious as to the real cause of the slow movement ahead of them at the ballot boxes, feeling that the delay was caused by malicious inactivity of their enemies. In many instances there was some basis for this view of the situation, and when it become apparent to inspectors and watchers that too much time was being taken up by slow coachers there was a ery: 'Get a move on you!' and things became rustling. There was actual dis-franchisement in hundreds of cases. In various parts of the city the unfortunate fellows who were allowed no guideposts behind the scenes, were unable to make belied ends meet legally and had to give up the job finally. They were many, but they were not the only men who had gone to the trouble of being registered and lost their vote. The cause of it all was unquestionably lack of booths. It is true the law says there has to be a booth for every 50 voters and that in several dis-tricts extra booths were quickly put in place the night before election day; but all that did not after the fact that hundreds of men in the city yesterday stood in line and had finally to see the poils in their faces before they could each the boxes. The insp ctors in some of the districts were in full sympathy with the men far were in tall sympathy with the heads of the back in the line when the hands of the clock neared the hour of four, but, they assert, they were not to blame; that the infernal ballot system was at the bottom of the whole lamentable business, and booths had little to do with the condition of affairs. Anyhow, it is the west side where there was the most cause for complaint that the next election day there will be better faculties for votes if the next legislature is furnished

The only exceptions to the rule appear to be in California and Nevada. In Nevada the silver party, which exists as a party in that State, only, has, to all appearance, beaten the Republicans, the Democrats and regular Populists, elect ing its State ticket and Congressman. There is also an element of doubt in Nebraska, where the election of Major (rep.) over Holcomb (pop.-dem.) is by majorities in every county in this con- no means assured. With these excepgressional district. It is likely that tions, however, the tide of Republican success appears to be overwhelming.

Ohio has given the largest Republican majority in its history, wiping out not only the McKinley plurality of $5,000, but going above the high water mark set by John Brough in 1863 of 101,000. It is thought that the official returns will show a Republican plurality of from 140,000 to 150,000.

Colorado has repudiated Populist doc trines and swung back into the Republi-can column, electing the full Republican ticket and both Congressmen. Kansas. too, has returned to the Republican faith, and lerry Simpson is buried under the landslide along with the other Pep-

Republicans claim that the official count will retire the great objector from the national legislature.

Minnesota is Republican by 30,000 to 40,000 plurality, Nelson winning against the Democrats and Populists. Michigan gives the Recublicans a plurality of 40,000 and unless the official count changes the outlook greatly the entire Corgressional delegation will be Republican Practically the same may be said of lown, although the Dem crats there have a prospect of saving one Congressnight from Cooper's, where he had gone to hold an inquest on the body of the State of Washington is Republican by 9,000 to 10,000 plurality, including Con SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 7.—Chairman night. When asked what he wanted the man replied that he which retain their allegiance to the Demonstructure. ocrats: Arkansas returns a solid Demo-cratic delegation, but by a reduced plu-rality. In Kentucky it is probable that that the Ashland district, heretofore a bulwark of Democracy, will be be represcuted in the 54th Congress by Denny, Republican. This will be due more to the disaffection of Breckinridge Democrats than to any growth of Republican sentiment. In Louisiana the Democrat pluralities have been cut down to such an extent that the Republicans claim two congressmen, whether upon good ground or not the official count will de-termine.

Tennessee is all mixed up. There are conflicting claims as to congressmen and even the result of the gubernatorial con-test appears to be involved. It can hardly be doubted, however, that re-turns will show the election of Turney (Democrat) by a safe plurality. Down in Texas two congressional districts, the tenth and twelfth, are in doubt. In Missouri the prevailing drift is mani-fest in reduced Democratic pluralities for the State ticket, and claims of Republicans that they will gain one or two con-gressmen. Mississippi stands firm in the emocratic faith. This about completes the list and it is not likely that the situation outlined will be changed materially by the officia count. The Prohibitionists have shown their usual small strength, and the mucl discussed A. P. A. influence has appa rently vanished in the air. The whole verdict of yesterday's election seem to b that the two great parties were squarely opposed to each other and that the Re publicans got the most votes.

AND REED SMILED. What He Had For Breakfast This

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7 .- (Special.) -At 1 this morning Chairman Babcock sent the following telegram to ex-Speaker Reed, Augusta, Me .: "Returns so overwhelmingly Republican that it is difficult to give an estimate of our majority in the next House. New York sends not less than 24, Illinois 16; Michigan, Connect icut and several other states send solid Republican delegations. Free Traders Wilson, West Virginia, Johnson, Ohio, both defeated. Our majority cannot be less than 25 in the next House and may be 50. We will also have majority by states of not less than 26.

HOUSE AND SENATE.

Both Will be Republican According W. A. LATIMER'S, to Latest Advices. WASHINGTON, Nov. 7 .- This morning' returns indicate that the Republicans will gain six United States senators over the number now sitting in that body. The House will be Republican also.
