MARION BUSINESS HOUSES BURNED

THE LOSS IS OVER EIGHTY THOUSAND DOLLARS.

The Insurance Only About $12,000—The Fire started in the Ark and Then Burned the Jail—Court House Saved—List of Losses and Losers.

MARION, N. C., Nov. 25, 1:30 p.m.—At about 11:30 a. m. an old rattle-trap building, the "Ark," just beside the county jail, caught on fire. In a few minutes the flames had burned it up, and went roaring through the jail. The great danger to the town was soon perceived and goods in nearly all the stores were removed. Then McCurry's warehouse and goods were burned. His store was threatened, as too, was the postoffice—in fact, at that time, it looked as though the whole eastern half of the business part of town would be destroyed, saving one or two brick buildings.

THE CITY'S OWN TELEPHONE LINE

A quorum of the Board of Aldermen was secured Saturday afternoon and a meeting was held, attended by Messrs. Blair, Hull, Jones and H. L. Gudge. Mrs. C. L. Pleasant appeared before the body to report that the sewer pipes leading from her store buildings on Court Place to the main sewer on West College had been broken by the city's steam roller. She thought the city should put the line in as good condition as it was before being broken. Referred to the street committee for a report.

A Magnificent Spectacle—All the Court Officials and Foreign Ambassadors Present—Cannons Boomed and the Crowd Turned Out by Thousands.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 26.—The wedding day of the Cazar broke cloudy and cheerless. THE NEWS IN ASHEVILLE.

J. B. S. McIntosh Gives an Account of the Big Blaze.

Among the passengers on the train from the east yesterday afternoon was J. B. S. McIntosh, formerly a Wayneville man but now living at Lynchburg, Va. Mr. McIntosh told THE CITIZEN that the train was held at Marion three hours on account of the burning of the bridge which spanned a deep railroad cut in the town, and the passengers left all the aid possible to the people of the burning town. The fire, according to the information he gathered, had started in a very old building adjoining the jail, known as "the Ark," and was said to have been caused by a defective gas pipe. The alarm was given just as the town people were going to church. Everybody went to the scene and began fighting the flames that were to almost destroy the town. There were no means of fighting fire, and the only thing to be done was to organize bucket brigades and rely upon the wells about the place. There, of course, were soon drawn dry. There were 28 prisoners in the jail, all of whom were taken out safely before the building burned.

Prof. Klebs will remain in Asheville this winter and treat tuberculosis at the Winyah with his newly discovered remedy, tuberculin, or anti-phthisin, and the results are looked forward to with much interest by the medical profession. Tuberculin is a modification of tuberculin as prepared by Dr. Koch.

WHAT WILL KOLB DO?

He May Be Sworn In, But That Doesn't Signify.

BIRMINGHAM, Nov. 26.—Will there or will there not be an attempt made by Kolb and his followers to set up a dual government in Alabama on December 1, the day fixed by law for the inauguration of the governor? That is the absorbing question in this State just now.

OUT AT KENILWORTH.

$5,000 Being Expended on Improvements There Now.

Great improvements are now making at Kenilworth Inn, where painters and carpenters are busy repainting, making changes where desirable, and kalsomining. The large building is to be repainted inside and outside, and the improvements will cost $5,000. The carpenter work is being done by O. D. Revell, and the painting by L. Swicegood. It is all looked after on the part of the hotel company by Ernest M. White. It is probable that a much larger amount is to be expended in improvements about the Inn later on.

IN THE OLD NORTH STATE.

The Statesville Landmark tells of a congregation near Statesville members of which refused to pay on the pastor's salary because he is a Democrat; of another case in which a congregation refused to pay the salary of a Statesville district to remove the pastor because he is a Democrat; and of another case, in which a member of a congregation told the pastor, just before the recent election, that if he (the pastor) voted the Democratic ticket he (the Pop. member) would see to it that his salary was not paid him.
