

Asheville Daily Citizen.

VOLUME X—NO. 206.

ASHEVILLE, N. C., TUESDAY EVENING, JANUARY 1, 1895.

PRICE 5 CENTS

ENGLISH CURED BREAK.
FAST BACON AND HAMS.
WATAUGA BUCKWHEAT
FLOUR, NEW ORLEANS
AND FANCY PORTO RICO
MOLASSES, MACARONI,
CREAM CHEESE, SOUSED
MACKEREL, CAPERS,
QUEEN OLIVES, RECEIV-
ED THIS WEEK.
POWELL & SNIDER

"The White Corner."
H. T. ESTABROOK,
22 SOUTH MAIN ST.

KEEP WARM WITH A GOOD
ALL WOOL
SWEATER.
While we are offering them at reduced prices. Seven dozen on hand. All colors, white, blue and black. $1.00 will get you first class sweater; $1.50 will get you a sweater with double collar. Any size; $2.00 will get you one of the best sweaters you can buy in this city. Come before we run out of the size.
L. BLOMBERG,
17 PATTON AVE.

10 North Court Square
After getting on the square we had to increase our stock. The store was too large for a small stock. Our store is full to overflowing. All our goods are fresh. Don't forget the place. Goods delivered free and prompt.
G. A. Greer.

Oakland Heights Hotel
WILL GIVE
Reduced Rates
Until January 15th 1895.

FLOUR
Buckwheat Flour,
Graham Flour,
Flapjack Flour,
Self Rising Flour,
Gluten Flour,
Rye Flour,
Rice Flour.
And the best winter wheat flour sold on the market
A. D. COOPER,
NO. 2 COURT SQUARE.

GREAT BARGAINS
At Estabrook's This Week In
FRAMED PICTURES AND ALBUMS
Owing to my early removal from this place I offer all of above goods at a large discount. My whole stock for sale to any one who desires one of the best paying business in this city, will be sold in part or as a whole for cash only.
H. T. ESTABROOK,
22 SOUTH MAIN ST.

Happy He
who makes another so. A Christmas present makes two people happy. In toys of many and varied kinds, in a selected list of books that includes gifts for babies, children, youths and all other ages; in almost anything that is usually found in a book store, our stock is ample; our prices are reasonable. It costs you nothing to come, examine, ask prices and test the truth of our statements.
Morgan & Co.,
West Court Square

For Sale.
Our complete set of store fixtures:
4 Scales,
1 Oil Tank,
5 Show Cases,
1 Cash Drawer,
2 Paper Cutters,
1 Coffee Mill, Candy Jars,
1 Milk Shake Machine, Measures,
Tobacco, Knives, Etc.
GAY GREEN,
143 & 145 ROBERTS STREET.

HOLIDAY GIFTS
IN ENDLESS VARIETY DOWN AT THE
Crystal Palace.
It would be use as for us to attempt to tell of half what we have. We mention specially the attractive line of lamps, silk shades, wire shade frames. Dennison's paper for shades. Silk shades from $2.50 to $5 each. Cut glass and French China in everything that is pretty and useful. The line of Wedgewood and Copeland ware deserves mention. Quite the fad to have a piece in your home. Dolls, toys, books, etc. We have them lower than any place in town. Our Bargain tables, 5c., 10c., 15c., 25c., 50c., give double value for your money. Yours for a merry Xmas.
THAD. W. THRASH & BRO.

Thanking
Our Friends
For Their Patronage
We wish to say that we have a fresh stock of Buylers's and other fine confections on hand. Yes, we have some Toys left over which you can buy at great reduction. Sleds, wagons, dolls, doll carriages, etc.
OUR Baking Department is now supplied with the best bread and cakes in the city.
HEBTON

ONE PRICE STORE.
A MAGNIFICENT ASSORTMENT OF GOODS SUITABLE FOR PRESENTS, WHETHER OF THE USEFUL KIND, SUCH AS WEARING APPAREL, SHOES, HATS, ETC., OR THE ORNAMENTAL MERELY—SUCH AS DOLLS, XMAS CARDS, TOYS, CHINA, &c., &c.
CLOAKS AND MANY STYLES OF CLOTHING AT A SACRIFICE.
H. REDWOOD & CO.,
7 and 9 PATTON AVENUE.

Hot Soda,
Hot Bouillon,
Hot Beef Tea,
Hot Chocolate,
Hot Clam Bouillon.
—AT—
Heinitsh & Reagan,

ALL THE WORLD WAS PRESENT
PRESIDENT CLEVELAND AND THE LADIES AT HOME.
The Dutch Custom Begun by George Washington Honored for the 104th Time—Those Receiving—An Immense Crowd in the White House.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 1.—The President was at home to all the world at the White House today, and the official family repeated the annual object lesson of the simplicity and impressiveness of American Republican institutions in the United States.
Representatives of foreign powers in the splendor of their court dress greeted the President in the names of their rulers; the army and navy paid their respects to their commander-in-chief; the members of Congress to their executive; the federal officials to the head of the government; and the public at large to the chief citizen of the nation.
In minor details alone did today's reception differ from any of its predecessors since George Washington officially inaugurated the national ceremony in New York city 104 years ago. The old Dutch custom especially pleased him.
The interior of the White House was flower and palm decorated today very much as it usually is upon the occasion of official functions. The approaches to the executive mansion were occupied by double columns of army and navy officers. Stretching away from the portico beyond the gates, the red tassels of the helmets of the military, the yellow of the cavalry, the white of the infantry, and the black plumed chapeaus of the navy showed distinctly above a sea of dark blue uniforms resplendent with gold trimmings. Crowding into the last inch of remaining space within sight of the White House were thousands who had been attracted by the gay scene.
Promptly at 11 o'clock the Marine band, stationed in the main corridor, burst forth with "Hail to the Chief." As the receiving party descended the broad stairway from their private apartments and took their places in the blue room, the President was in the nearest red room door, through which the guests entered. At his right stood Mrs. Cleveland, and beyond in the line were Mrs. Gresham, Mrs. Carlisle, Mrs. Lamont, Mrs. Olney, Mrs. Bissell, Mrs. Herbert and Miss Morton. Mrs. Stevenson was in North Carolina with the Vice-President at the bedside of their invalid daughter, Helen, Smith, which was the back of the receiving line were the invited guests of Mrs. Cleveland.
At 11 o'clock the reception began with the appearance of the cabinet, and continued for two hours.
AN EVENTFUL TRIP.
Schooner's Deckload Washed Off—Ashore and Off.
PROVINCETOWN, Mass. Dec. 31.—The Schooner Melissa A. Wiley, Captain DeLacey, from Savannah for Portland, with a cargo of hard pine put in here yesterday. When the vessel reached Boone Island, off the Maine coast last Friday, she was struck by a westerly gale, and shipped one sea that swept her decks from stem to stern, cutting away 15,000 feet of cargo. The crew had a narrow escape from being washed overboard. The forward deck house was completely cleaned out and the sailors lost everything except the clothes they had on. The cabin windows were stove, and the cabin flooded. The vessel was run before the gale and Minot's light was made Saturday afternoon. The vessel was then kept off for this port. While entering the harbor yesterday she went ashore on Long Point shoal, but was flung at flood tide and safely anchored with assistance from the cutter. Everything is being hauled up that the halyards had to be cut to get the sails down when the vessel anchored. The members of the crew are badly frozen, and were sent to the hospital. A new crew will be shipped to take the vessel to Portland.

EARNED THOUSANDS EASILY.
Robbers Take the Contents of a Railway Express Safe.
BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Jan. 1.—Two masked robbers held up the Alabama and Great Southern passenger train near York, Ala., last night and looted the express car of its contents.
The robbers boarded the train near Livingston, 10 miles north of York, as passengers. Before the conductor got around they sneaked out on the platform, where they masked themselves. The express messenger happened to open the car door. They covered him with a pistol and forced him to open the safe and give up its contents.
They rode to a point near York, pulled the bell cord, and jumping off, made for the woods before the passengers or conductor knew about the matter. The passengers were not molested.
The officials of the road have no idea as to the identity of the robbers. They have put dogs and detectives on their tracks. The quantity of money stolen is supposed to have been several thousand dollars.
STRIKING COBBLERS.
They Walk the Streets of a Great Shoe Town for More Money.
HAVERHILL, Mass., Jan. 1.—This city witnessed a big labor demonstration yesterday. A procession of shoe workers numbering 4000 marched to Chick Bros. and to Spaulding & Swett's shoe factories. At Chick Bros. factory nearly all the women stitchers, numbering about 120, including those who work in Barrett & Croyle's shoe fitting rooms in the adjoining building, left their work and came out. About 100 men, including all the lasters, also came out. About 150 employes quit work at Spaulding & Swett's factory.
Upon the return of the marchers a mass meeting was held in the city hall. The shoe workers say they are determined to break up the contract system and also to secure the adoption of a new price list.
The New Orleans Banks.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 1.—The report of the condition of the nine National banks of New Orleans, La., shows: Loans and discounts, $12,070,000; lawful money reserve, $3,132,000, of which $525,714 is in gold; individual deposits, $17,588,000. The average reserve is 30.05 per cent.

BURNED TO DEATH.
A Sad New Year's Eve to One Asheville Home.
Mrs. Manie Mag, colored, lives on Woodfin street near the head of Spruce. Late yesterday afternoon she went to the office of the Flower Mission after coal, leaving her two children, aged respectively seven and three years, at home, and the door partly open. She made the trip as quickly as possible, and when she returned found the door closed and smoke issuing from the building. She burst the door open and was horrified to find the room filled with smoke and some of the articles therein burning. The distressed mother gave the alarm, which was responded to by Mrs. Orr, who lives near by, and several others, who extinguished the fire.
Mrs. Orr discovered the oldest child, Alice, crouched in the corner behind the door, dead from its burns and suffocation. The younger child was standing near the fireplace unharmed. The manner of the starting of the fire which brought death to the girl cannot be told. The poor mother heard the dying child call her name just before she shoved the door open.
ON TO BREYARD!
A Trip of Inspection to be Made Up the French Broad.
A recent issue of a Cincinnati paper says that: "Capt D. K. Sprinkler, the boat builder, and Pilots Jim Martin and Billie Bing have received a proposition from Capt. H. C. Hunt, of Asheville, N. C., who is contemplating the organization of a company to navigate the French Broad river from Knoxville, Tenn., to Asheville, N. C., to make a trip over the 68 miles of the stream recently cleared out by the government, to see if the project, in their opinion, is a feasible one. They intend leaving after the first of the year, and their report is favorable a boat will be built and put in the trade. The Frisbie Engine and Machine company, of this city, has made bids for the construction of the machinery of the boat if built."
The article is mistaken as to the portion of the river under consideration. It is that part between Asheville and Brevard, and Maj. Hunt says that if the report is favorable and the people want it they can secure a steamer to ply between the Buncombe and Transylvania capitals.
BADLY BURNED.
Little Bonnie Williams the Victim of a Severe Accident.
Saturday afternoon Bonnie, the 3½ years old daughter of Conductor Branch Williams of the Asheville street railroad, climbed up on the grate in attempting to reach some article on the mantel, at the home, 153 South Main street. The child's clothing caught fire, and before Mrs. Williams could reach her, having been called by the screams of a child in the room with Bonnie, the daughter had been badly burned about the body and face.
Dr. M. H. Fletcher is attending the child. It is thought she will soon recover from the effects of the accident.
To Be Repeated.
By a request from many who saw and others who had heard of the beautiful and artistic entertainment given at the Christian church Christmas eve, it will be repeated Friday evening of this week. To defray expenses an admission fee of 15 cents for adults and 10 cents for children will be charged.
Local Fire Underwriters.
At the last meeting of the local board of Fire Underwriters, Chas. T. Rawls, of the firm of Aston, Rawls & Co., was elected president, and Frederick Rutledge, of the firm of Rutledge & Patterson, was chosen secretary.

HOW WHITMAN CAME.
He Left Chicago in a Hurry—A Sample of Chicago Weather.
Special Officer H. C. Jones has had another interesting experience in bringing back men wanted in Asheville who make bitter fights against extradition. His last experience was in the A. S. Whitman case. Whitman for days had the courts on his case, and Mr. Jones could not tell whether he would have to come home alone or with his man. Finally, last Friday, Whitman was delivered into his hands by the sheriff of Cook county. Mr. Jones a minute later signed a receipt for Whitman and at once was on the move. Up to that time all papers in the case had been served on Inspector Shea, and the North Carolina officer knew that after Whitman was turned over, papers served would be on him. To avoid all possibility of further delay Mr. Jones hurried to a suburban railway, bundled his companion aboard and went to Kensington, a suburb, where he took a train for home.
Mr. Jones got a chance to sample Chicago weather during his stay. The mercury trailed around 10 degrees below, and there were eight or 10 inches of snow on the ground. Last Wednesday the storm was so driving that one could scarcely see a person 10 feet ahead of him.
CHRISTMAS TREAT.
A Happy Time Down at the "Wooden Tenement."
By the kind aid of a few friends, the cotton factory people living in and around the "Wooden tenement" were treated to a feast last evening which they will long remember. Three rooms in this house have been rented, in which there is a service every Sunday afternoon and a prayer meeting every Friday evening, the work being done by members of the Central and Riverside Methodist churches.
Last evening these rooms were tastefully fitted up with certain pictures and evergreens, and presented a most cheerful and homelike appearance. By 8 o'clock the place was packed with people, there being no less than 200 who gathered to enjoy the festivities. After the singing of a few favorite hymns, and short addresses by Fitch Taylor and Mrs. Turner, the good things were distributed—candy, popcorn and oranges for the little folks, coffee and cake for the older people.
Substantial packages of warm clothing had already been delivered to many needy families, so that with the outer and the inner man looked after the people went to their homes with brighter hopes for the incoming new year.

BOTH EARTH AND PEOPLE QUAKED
A STAMPEDE IN A CITY OF MEXICO THEATER.
Frightened Persons Kneel in the Streets and Pray for Deliverance—Out in the Street in Night Clothes—Repetition of the Earthquake Expected.
ST. LOUIS, Jan. 1.—A special to the Globe-Democrat from the City of Mexico says that at 10:53 o'clock Sunday night an oscillatory earthquake shock was felt in that city and other parts of the valley of Mexico. The movement was east and north and of short duration.
The disturbance caused great alarm from those who feared a repetition of the disastrous earthquakes of November 2, which killed 18 people and did great property damage. In Arben theater a stampede occurred. Women leaped from the lower boxes, and the audience struggled for escape at the narrow exits. The manager appeared on the stage and tried to calm the fear-crazed people, and at last a degree of quiet was restored, but not until most of the audience had taken refuge in the streets, which were full of frightened people, many of them in their night clothes, who had rushed out at the first alarm.
The scene of November 2 was repeated in large part. Thousands of penitents knelt in the open streets and prayed and cried in a loud voice for deliverance from death. In Helim prison were thousands of wretches huddled together, and pandemonium reigned, and the guards had hard work to prevent hundreds from breaking out of their quarters and flinging themselves over the walls. The large supply pipes leading to the city burst, flooding the streets and causing considerable damage to property.
Not until daylight yesterday could a majority of the people be persuaded to enter their homes. A repetition of the shock is expected in a few days.
"AKIN TO ANGELS."
But Superintendent Eggleston's Words Were Not Properly Understood.
A story that reveals a good joke on Superintendent Eggleston and some of the pupils of the schools, is here given publicity for the first time. On the day of the closing for the holidays, the children in Miss McLou's room at Orange street were very liberal in bringing gifts for less fortunate children than they. The Superintendent, desiring to show appreciation of the children's goodness, made them a little talk.
In the course of his remarks, the Superintendent said "I believe children are akin to angels." This was said in possibly a lower tone than usual—at any rate, he at once perceived that something like a damper had been thrown over the spirits of his auditors. After he had retired from the room, the storm burst, and the indignant little ones ran to their teacher with the question: "Did Prof. Eggleston say we were kin to Indians?"
All of which calls for a treat from the Superintendent.
BURNED THE CHILDREN.
They Were Locked Up in a Canal Boat, and the Lamp Exploded.
NEWARK, N. J., Jan. 1.—Two girls, aged three and five, named Anne and Florence Glover, were burned to death in their bunks in a canal boat in winter quarters on the Morris canal at 9 o'clock last night.
The father of the children, John Glover, and his wife attended a meeting at Bethel church, leaving the two children asleep in their bunks, with a dog in the cabin. The door was locked. An oil lamp was burning on the table, and it is supposed the lamp exploded. When the parents returned the children were found dead in their bunks, and the dog was dead on the floor.
A COUNCIL OF SAFETY.
China Now Concerned in Saving Her National Existence.
NEW YORK, Jan. 1.—A special cable to the Herald from Shanghai says: The whole British squadron has been suddenly ordered to Che Foo from Chusan. This indicates that some new development in the situation is impending. Chang Yit Hoon, formerly Chinese Minister to the United States who was imperial peace envoy from Peking in en route for Japan. It is stated that the council of safety has superseded the Grand council in the management of affairs and in devising means for saving the Empire.
No military movements worth recording are reported.
HOWGATE IN COURT.
He Pleads Not Guilty and Falls Back on the Statute of Limitations.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 1.—Judge McComas has overruled the demurrers filed by the attorneys of Captain Howgate to three indictments returned by the grand jury. Captain Howgate was then arraigned and pleaded not guilty, but appended a further plea that the indictments were not found within three years after alleged offenses therein charged were committed. The question as to whether the indictments were barred by the statute of limitations was thereupon argued.
Decorated By The Pope.
ROME, Jan. 1.—The Pope has decorated Prince Lobanoff Rostovski, Russian ambassador at Vienna, with the order of Christ. This is the highest of all orders in the gift of the Pontiff. His Holiness has also authorized the establishment of a Catholic section in the Paris exposition which it is proposed to hold in 1900 for the exhibition of all objects sent by various Catholic missions throughout the world.
Morton Is Governor.
ALBANY, N. Y., Jan. 1.—The Hon. Levi P. Morton was today inaugurated as Governor of the State of New York for the ensuing two years. He is the first Republican to assume the duties of this office since 1879.
License to Wed.
From Register Mackey's office license to wed has been issued as follows: Zion Clement and Annie Summerco, colored.

CRYSTAL PALACE.
The Dutch Custom Begun by George Washington Honored for the 104th Time—Those Receiving—An Immense Crowd in the White House.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 1.—The President was at home to all the world at the White House today, and the official family repeated the annual object lesson of the simplicity and impressiveness of American Republican institutions in the United States.
Representatives of foreign powers in the splendor of their court dress greeted the President in the names of their rulers; the army and navy paid their respects to their commander-in-chief; the members of Congress to their executive; the federal officials to the head of the government; and the public at large to the chief citizen of the nation.
In minor details alone did today's reception differ from any of its predecessors since George Washington officially inaugurated the national ceremony in New York city 104 years ago. The old Dutch custom especially pleased him.
The interior of the White House was flower and palm decorated today very much as it usually is upon the occasion of official functions. The approaches to the executive mansion were occupied by double columns of army and navy officers. Stretching away from the portico beyond the gates, the red tassels of the helmets of the military, the yellow of the cavalry, the white of the infantry, and the black plumed chapeaus of the navy showed distinctly above a sea of dark blue uniforms resplendent with gold trimmings. Crowding into the last inch of remaining space within sight of the White House were thousands who had been attracted by the gay scene.
Promptly at 11 o'clock the Marine band, stationed in the main corridor, burst forth with "Hail to the Chief." As the receiving party descended the broad stairway from their private apartments and took their places in the blue room, the President was in the nearest red room door, through which the guests entered. At his right stood Mrs. Cleveland, and beyond in the line were Mrs. Gresham, Mrs. Carlisle, Mrs. Lamont, Mrs. Olney, Mrs. Bissell, Mrs. Herbert and Miss Morton. Mrs. Stevenson was in North Carolina with the Vice-President at the bedside of their invalid daughter, Helen, Smith, which was the back of the receiving line were the invited guests of Mrs. Cleveland.
At 11 o'clock the reception began with the appearance of the cabinet, and continued for two hours.

CRYSTAL PALACE.
The Dutch Custom Begun by George Washington Honored for the 104th Time—Those Receiving—An Immense Crowd in the White House.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 1.—The President was at home to all the world at the White House today, and the official family repeated the annual object lesson of the simplicity and impressiveness of American Republican institutions in the United States.
Representatives of foreign powers in the splendor of their court dress greeted the President in the names of their rulers; the army and navy paid their respects to their commander-in-chief; the members of Congress to their executive; the federal officials to the head of the government; and the public at large to the chief citizen of the nation.
In minor details alone did today's reception differ from any of its predecessors since George Washington officially inaugurated the national ceremony in New York city 104 years ago. The old Dutch custom especially pleased him.
The interior of the White House was flower and palm decorated today very much as it usually is upon the occasion of official functions. The approaches to the executive mansion were occupied by double columns of army and navy officers. Stretching away from the portico beyond the gates, the red tassels of the helmets of the military, the yellow of the cavalry, the white of the infantry, and the black plumed chapeaus of the navy showed distinctly above a sea of dark blue uniforms resplendent with gold trimmings. Crowding into the last inch of remaining space within sight of the White House were thousands who had been attracted by the gay scene.
Promptly at 11 o'clock the Marine band, stationed in the main corridor, burst forth with "Hail to the Chief." As the receiving party descended the broad stairway from their private apartments and took their places in the blue room, the President was in the nearest red room door, through which the guests entered. At his right stood Mrs. Cleveland, and beyond in the line were Mrs. Gresham, Mrs. Carlisle, Mrs. Lamont, Mrs. Olney, Mrs. Bissell, Mrs. Herbert and Miss Morton. Mrs. Stevenson was in North Carolina with the Vice-President at the bedside of their invalid daughter, Helen, Smith, which was the back of the receiving line were the invited guests of Mrs. Cleveland.
At 11 o'clock the reception began with the appearance of the cabinet, and continued for two hours.

CRYSTAL PALACE.
The Dutch Custom Begun by George Washington Honored for the 104th Time—Those Receiving—An Immense Crowd in the White House.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 1.—The President was at home to all the world at the White House today, and the official family repeated the annual object lesson of the simplicity and impressiveness of American Republican institutions in the United States.
Representatives of foreign powers in the splendor of their court dress greeted the President in the names of their rulers; the army and navy paid their respects to their commander-in-chief; the members of Congress to their executive; the federal officials to the head of the government; and the public at large to the chief citizen of the nation.
In minor details alone did today's reception differ from any of its predecessors since George Washington officially inaugurated the national ceremony in New York city 104 years ago. The old Dutch custom especially pleased him.
The interior of the White House was flower and palm decorated today very much as it usually is upon the occasion of official functions. The approaches to the executive mansion were occupied by double columns of army and navy officers. Stretching away from the portico beyond the gates, the red tassels of the helmets of the military, the yellow of the cavalry, the white of the infantry, and the black plumed chapeaus of the navy showed distinctly above a sea of dark blue uniforms resplendent with gold trimmings. Crowding into the last inch of remaining space within sight of the White House were thousands who had been attracted by the gay scene.
Promptly at 11 o'clock the Marine band, stationed in the main corridor, burst forth with "Hail to the Chief." As the receiving party descended the broad stairway from their private apartments and took their places in the blue room, the President was in the nearest red room door, through which the guests entered. At his right stood Mrs. Cleveland, and beyond in the line were Mrs. Gresham, Mrs. Carlisle, Mrs. Lamont, Mrs. Olney, Mrs. Bissell, Mrs. Herbert and Miss Morton. Mrs. Stevenson was in North Carolina with the Vice-President at the bedside of their invalid daughter, Helen, Smith, which was the back of the receiving line were the invited guests of Mrs. Cleveland.
At 11 o'clock the reception began with the appearance of the cabinet, and continued for two hours.

CRYSTAL PALACE.
The Dutch Custom Begun by George Washington Honored for the 104th Time—Those Receiving—An Immense Crowd in the White House.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 1.—The President was at home to all the world at the White House today, and the official family repeated the annual object lesson of the simplicity and impressiveness of American Republican institutions in the United States.
Representatives of foreign powers in the splendor of their court dress greeted the President in the names of their rulers; the army and navy paid their respects to their commander-in-chief; the members of Congress to their executive; the federal officials to the head of the government; and the public at large to the chief citizen of the nation.
In minor details alone did today's reception differ from any of its predecessors since George Washington officially inaugurated the national ceremony in New York city 104 years ago. The old Dutch custom especially pleased him.
The interior of the White House was flower and palm decorated today very much as it usually is upon the occasion of official functions. The approaches to the executive mansion were occupied by double columns of army and navy officers. Stretching away from the portico beyond the gates, the red tassels of the helmets of the military, the yellow of the cavalry, the white of the infantry, and the black plumed chapeaus of the navy showed distinctly above a sea of dark blue uniforms resplendent with gold trimmings. Crowding into the last inch of remaining space within sight of the White House were thousands who had been attracted by the gay scene.
Promptly at 11 o'clock the Marine band, stationed in the main corridor, burst forth with "Hail to the Chief." As the receiving party descended the broad stairway from their private apartments and took their places in the blue room, the President was in the nearest red room door, through which the guests entered. At his right stood Mrs. Cleveland, and beyond in the line were Mrs. Gresham, Mrs. Carlisle, Mrs. Lamont, Mrs. Olney, Mrs. Bissell, Mrs. Herbert and Miss Morton. Mrs. Stevenson was in North Carolina with the Vice-President at the bedside of their invalid daughter, Helen, Smith, which was the back of the receiving line were the invited guests of Mrs. Cleveland.
At 11 o'clock the reception began with the appearance of the cabinet, and continued for two hours.

CRYSTAL PALACE.
The Dutch Custom Begun by George Washington Honored for the 104th Time—Those Receiving—An Immense Crowd in the White House.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 1.—The President was at home to all the world at the White House today, and the official family repeated the annual object lesson of the simplicity and impressiveness of American Republican institutions in the United States.
Representatives of foreign powers in the splendor of their court dress greeted the President in the names of their rulers; the army and navy paid their respects to their commander-in-chief; the members of Congress to their executive; the federal officials to the head of the government; and the public at large to the chief citizen of the nation.
In minor details alone did today's reception differ from any of its predecessors since George Washington officially inaugurated the national ceremony in New York city 104 years ago. The old Dutch custom especially pleased him.
The interior of the White House was flower and palm decorated today very much as it usually is upon the occasion of official functions. The approaches to the executive mansion were occupied by double columns of army and navy officers. Stretching away from the portico beyond the gates, the red tassels of the helmets of the military, the yellow of the cavalry, the white of the infantry, and the black plumed chapeaus of the navy showed distinctly above a sea of dark blue uniforms resplendent with gold trimmings. Crowding into the last inch of remaining space within sight of the White House were thousands who had been attracted by the gay scene.
Promptly at 11 o'clock the Marine band, stationed in the main corridor, burst forth with "Hail to the Chief." As the receiving party descended the broad stairway from their private apartments and took their places in the blue room, the President was in the nearest red room door, through which the guests entered. At his right stood Mrs. Cleveland, and beyond in the line were Mrs. Gresham, Mrs. Carlisle, Mrs. Lamont, Mrs. Olney, Mrs. Bissell, Mrs. Herbert and Miss Morton. Mrs. Stevenson was in North Carolina with the Vice-President at the bedside of their invalid daughter, Helen, Smith, which was the back of the receiving line were the invited guests of Mrs. Cleveland.
At 11 o'clock the reception began with the appearance of the cabinet, and continued for two hours.

A COLD WAVE
IS HERE.
TO PREVENT A ROUGH SKIN AND CHAPPED HANDS, WHICH ARE ALMOST SURE TO FOLLOW WITH THOSE OF DELICATE SKIN, USE
ROYAL CAMPHORLINE
AND YOU WILL BE PERFECTLY SURPRISED WITH THE GOOD RESULTS. CAMPHORLINE IS NO MORE AN EXPERIMENT. IT IS KEPT CONSTANTLY IN HUNDREDS OF HOUSEHOLDS, AND IS PRIZED AS ONE OF THE BEST DOMESTIC REMEDIES. FOR SALE BY NEARLY ALL THE DRUGGISTS IN ASHEVILLE. MANUFACTURED ONLY BY RAYSOR & SMITH,
31 PATTON AVE.

OUR RESOLUTIONS.
On this New Year's day we have made the following resolutions for 1895:
Resolved, that our already well selected stock shall be increased and improved at every opportunity; that in the future we shall buy only the best to be had for the money—quality first.
Resolved, that special attention shall be given our cigar department, handling only the best brands of manufacturers with a reputation for high grade goods—not to cheapen the quality to make a small extra profit, to regard the taste of each individual customer and thus hold his trade.
Resolved, that we shall continue to sell books and novels cheaper than any store in the state—selling all books and novels at 10 to 20 per cent less than regular prices and many at 1c, 5c, and 10c.
Resolved, that all sales shall be for cash, no accounts will be run. It takes money to pay bills, and we prefer the stock to debts no matter how good.
RAY'S,
8 N. Court Square, Asheville, N. C.

OUR RESOLUTIONS.
On this New Year's day we have made the following resolutions for 1895:
Resolved, that our already well selected stock shall be increased and improved at every opportunity; that in the future we shall buy only the best to be had for the money—quality first.
Resolved, that special attention shall be given our cigar department, handling only the best brands of manufacturers with a reputation for high grade goods—not to cheapen the quality to make a small extra profit, to regard the taste of each individual customer and thus hold his trade.
Resolved, that we shall continue to sell books and novels cheaper than any store in the state—selling all books and novels at 10 to 20 per cent less than regular prices and many at 1c, 5c, and 10c.
Resolved, that all sales shall be for cash, no accounts will be run. It takes money to pay bills, and we prefer the stock to debts no matter how good.
RAY'S,
8 N. Court Square, Asheville, N. C.

OUR RESOLUTIONS.
On this New Year's day we have made the following resolutions for 1895:
Resolved, that our already well selected stock shall be increased and improved at every opportunity; that in the future we shall buy only the best to be had for the money—quality first.
Resolved, that special attention shall be given our cigar department, handling only the best brands of manufacturers with a reputation for high grade goods—not to cheapen the quality to make a small extra profit, to regard the taste of each individual customer and thus hold his trade.
Resolved, that we shall continue to sell books and novels cheaper than any store in the state—selling all books and novels at 10 to 20 per cent less than regular prices and many at 1c, 5c, and 10c.
Resolved, that all sales shall be for cash, no accounts will be run. It takes money to pay bills, and we prefer the stock to debts no matter how good.
RAY'S,
8 N. Court Square, Asheville, N. C.

OUR RESOLUTIONS.
On this New Year's day we have made the following resolutions for 1895:
Resolved, that our already well selected stock shall be increased and improved at every opportunity; that in the future we shall buy only the best to be had for the money—quality first.
Resolved, that special attention shall be given our cigar department, handling only the best brands of manufacturers with a reputation for high grade goods—not to cheapen the quality to make a small extra profit, to regard the taste of each individual customer and thus hold his trade.
Resolved, that we shall continue to sell books and novels cheaper than any store in the state—selling all books and novels at 10 to 20 per cent less than regular prices and many at 1c, 5c, and 10c.
Resolved, that all sales shall be for cash, no accounts will be run. It takes money to pay bills, and we prefer the stock to debts no matter how good.
RAY'S,
8 N. Court Square, Asheville, N. C.